SEMINARY STUDENT MISSIONS PROGRAM: The Foreign Mission Board of the SBC has just begun a new program to provide opportunities for service in overseas missions for qualified seminary students. Students desiring consideration must be enrolled in a Southern Baptist Seminary with a minimum of 12 hours completed. He must be age 29 or under; have an active membership in a Southern Baptist Church, and meet the physical, mental, moral and spiritual standards expected of anyone serving on the mission field. Applications and additional information may be obtained in the Director of Student Activities' office, Mackie Hall.

AFRC BULLETIN: The African Famine Relief Committee has placed a PLEDGE POSTER on the bulletin board in Appleby. The AFRC is asking each student and faculty member to pledge at least $ 1.00 per month until May, 1975. This would mean that approximately $700.00 would be given per month and $4900.00 by the end of the Spring semester. All money is sent to the Baptist World Alliance and designated for African relief. The B.W.A. uses 100% of the money for relief itself since administrative costs are covered from other sources.

VISITING MINISTER TO SPEAK: Rev. Jamie Buckingham, an ordained Southern Baptist Minister will be speaking in the cafeteria Friday, November 8 at 10:00 a.m. He is a graduate of Mercer University and Southern Seminary and an editor for Guidepost Magazine, Logos International; a newspaper columnist, and author of 15 books. He is now pastoring a charismatic congregation in Melbourne, Florida and is writing broadly about the contemporary moving of the Holy Spirit.

SEMINAR ON THE AFRICAN FAMINE: A seminar on the African Famine will be held November 19 - 22 at 10:00 a.m. The following persons are scheduled for participation in this seminar:

- Carl Tiller: Relief Coordinator of the Baptist World Alliance
- Dean Jack Rigney: Chairman of the International Program of N.C. State University
- Dr. James R. Mosely: Former Medical Missionary

All Bulletin material should reach the office of Director of Student Activities, second floor, Mackie Hall, by Thursday noon of the week preceding the event to be noted. Material may also be placed in the Student Activities box, second floor, administration building.
