Dear Mr. Montgomery:

Enclosed is a copy of your revised biographical entry as it will appear in the next edition of Contemporary Authors. Please take a few minutes to look over the sketch and let me know, as soon as possible, if it contains any errors.

As you will notice, there are no acute or circumflex accents in the sketch. Though I appreciate the effort you made to indicate their omission, our typesetting procedures do not allow their inclusion.

When the date of publication nears, we will send you a form detailing how to order your volume of Contemporary Authors at a substantial discount. Until then, I thank you for your help and offer you my best wishes for a fruitful year.

Sincerely,

James G. Lesniak
