

SOUTHEASTERN

UPDATE

Office of the President
Southeastern Baptist
Theological Seminary
Wake Forest
North Carolina 27587
(919) 556-3101

DECEMBER 1986
NUMBER 144

Southeastern's ten organized alumni chapters have held meetings in connection with their state conventions within the past weeks. Reports from the chapter meetings indicate that morale is high and that the work of the alumni in their various ministries remains high quality.

ALUMNI
CHAPTERS

These enfleshments of the Southeastern endeavor are an inspiration to those who visit the chapters from the campus.

*****

Dr. Donald Cook, Professor of New Testament, led the seminar for teachers of the James Bible Study in the churches during mid-winter. Over 100 attended. The seminary hosted the event on November 14 which attracted pastors, church staff ministers, and lay persons from a wide region.

JAMES STUDY

*****

The choir from the North Brazil Baptist Seminary in Recife sang a concert in Binkley Chapel, November 17. The fifty musicians were hosted by the seminary and were overnight guests in the homes of faculty and staff.

NORTH BRAZIL
CHOIR

*****

The Faculty Club of Southeastern Seminary were guests of the Duke Divinity School faculty for their annual dinner in Durham, November 18. President W. Randall Lolley and Dean Morris Ashcraft read papers and led discussion on the "SBC Today."

DUKE
DINNER

*****

The dedication of Cannon Gymnasium (in Ledford Center) featured an intrasquad Black-Gold game by the WFU varsity basketball team. Several hundred townspeople and residents of the region returned to the former site of Deacon basketball for the fun-filled evening, November 20.

WFU GAME

*****

Mid-winter graduation exercises for 123 seniors and their families are scheduled on campus, December 12-13.

MID-WINTER
GRADUATION

