COOPERATIVE EDUCATION PROGRAM IN PREACHING:

Applications are being accepted for students desiring to participate in CEPP, a program designed for students to receive experience in preaching. Through the program students are placed in area churches who open their pulpits on a regular basis and who contribute through an evaluation of the student's ministry. Students with little preaching experience, who also desire constructive feedback, are encouraged to apply. More information and applications are available through the Formation in Ministry office.

YOUTH-ON-THE-MOVE:

The first weekend of the campus youth program was quite a success. 38 persons enjoyed the pool party and thirty youth and counselors enjoyed the cooling waters of the water slide. On Saturday, September 13, from 6:30-8:30, there will be a time of Bible study and fellowship. Meet at 55 McDowell Road to discuss future events, delight in God's word and enjoy water balloon volleyball. Please wear old clothes and bring a friend.

PERSPECTIVES IN MINISTRY

....seeks to raise the awareness of women and men on issues that are present or will be present when they begin their work in ministry. This group hopes to provide a forum for dialogue, to make resources available, and to be involved in ministry on all levels, both within and without the group. Some possible issues for exploration are: inerrancy and/or authority of the Bible; women's roles and identity in the church; ministry to the poor in the area, and nuclear energy and weaponry. Interested students are invited to a get-acquainted fellowship on September 16 at 7:00 p.m. Watch for posters on campus. Contact persons: Martha Eller, Bill Fryar, Bill Harris, Becky Lamdrum or Deborah Van Swol.

STUDENT PAPERS:

Students make pick-up term papers from the following professors: Dr. John Tresch:

M4546S. Stealey Hall, room 204. Dr. John Eddins: T3001a and T3001c (Spring semester), T3000s and T3001s (Summer) will be returned on Wednesday, September 10 between 9-12 and 1-4 p.m., Stealey Hall, room 314.

SEMINARY WIVES:

The Seminary Wives Organization will sponsor an orientation for all women of the seminary family on Monday, September 15th. A tour of the campus will begin at 7:00 p.m. in Stealey Hall. The program will begin at 7:30 p.m. in the Bethea Room of Appleby Hall. Child care is available and will be free of charge. All seminary women are invited to this time of fellowship and fun.

Material for the Campus Bulletin should reach the Student Affairs office by 12 noon Wednesday.
