Book 2 of The Abbot's Creek
Union. Primitive Baptist Association

Done by A. P. Beach. Clerk of Said Association
This June. 28th 1872.

Constitution of The Abbotts creek. union Primitive Baptist Association,

- 1st We believe in one only true and living God, the Father the word, and the Holy Ghost,
- 2^d We believe that the Scriptures of the old and New Testament are the word of God, and the only rule of Faith and practice,
- 3^d We believe in the doctrine of original Sin,
- 4th We believe in mans impotency to recover himself from the fallen state he is in by his own free will and ability,
- 5th We believe in the doctrine of Election that God chose his people in Christ before the foundation of the World.
- 6th We believe that Gods elect who are sinners of Adams fallen family, are in his good time effectually called and justified in the sight of God by the imputed righteousness of Jesus Christ, received by faith alone, which faith is productive of good works,
- 7th We believe that the Saints shall persevere in Grace and never finally fall away.
- 8th We believe Baptism by immersion according to the Scriptures, and the Lords Supper, are both ordinances of Jesus Christ, and belongs to believers only.
- 9th We believe in the resurrection of the dead both of the just and unjust, and in the final Judgment,
- 10th We believe that no Minister has a right to the administration of the ordinances, but such as are regularly baptised, called, and come and come under the imposition of hands of the presbytery

11th We also believe that an Association has no right to assume any authority over churches, but only to sit as an advising council; and shall not impose any measures on churches, without their knowledge and consent.

Rules of DECORUM

1. The association shall be opened by singing and prayer by the Moderator or some person by him chosen. Letters be called for and the Association organised.
2. A Moderator shall be chosen by the members of the Association at each meeting, whose duty it shall be to keep good order ^{or} explain and put questions administer reproof and announce decisions.
3. Call for corresponding letters or Ministers invite the messengers to seats. who shall be intitled to equal privileges in the Association with members composing it except in appointing the place to hold the association.
4. Invite ministering brethren to seats; who shall be entitled to equal privileges with corresponding messengers.
5. Any member in the association shall have liberty to speak by rising and addressing the Moderator, who shall not be interrupted while speaking unless called to order by the Moderator, or some member, and if called to order may appeal to the association for their Decision for the propriety of the call.

[Faint, illegible handwriting throughout the page, likely bleed-through from the reverse side. The text is written in a cursive script.]

- 6th No member shall speak more than three times to the same subject without leave of the association
- 7th During the sitting of the Association, a respectful decency becoming saints shall be preserved; forbearing to reflect or interrupt each other while speaking proper attention shall be paid to the speaker, all waking about whispering or talking in time of conference, is to be avoided, members may leave by the consent of the association,
- 8th It shall be the duty of every member to vote on a question when put, except the Moderator who shall only when the Association is equally divided then he shall give the casting vote,
- 9th A majority shall decide on all matters which may come before them,
- 10th No Query to be debated except sent ^{from} a church or brought in by the committee of arrangement
- 11th Each church shall be entitled to three Messengers and the Minutes distributed in proportion to the number of Members. ^{the contribution} ~~the contribution~~ ^{Amended Aug 1897}
- 12th These rules are subject to alteration or Amendments, when two thirds of the association may think it necessary.
- 13th The association shall appoint a clerk as often as they may deem it necessary, whose duty it shall be to enroll the names of the Messengers, minute the state of the churches, and keep a regular record of the transactions of the association
