NOTICES:

LITERARY ISSUE DEADLINE: December 9 is the deadline to submit materials to be previewed for inclusion in the Spring Literary Issue of the Enquiry. Poetry, prose and short stories may be submitted. Mark your material for the literary issue and place it under the Enquiry office door. This is also the deadline for regular material to be included in the next issue.

PEER SUPPORT GROUP FACILITATORS: The final meetings for the facilitators of the new student peer support groups will be held in Appleby 203 at 8:00 a.m. on December 7 and at 11:00 a.m. on December 9. The time will be used for final assessment of this semester's program and the experience of the facilitators.

WAKEFIELD RESIDENTS: There will be a speed reading course offered at the Wakefield Apartments Clubhouse next semester. The course will begin on January 18 and will meet each Tuesday and Thursday from 7:00 - 9:00 p.m. The cost is $5.00 per person and a minimum of 15 is needed for the course to be offered. Dr. Carroll Trotter will be leading the course. For information or to register, call the clubhouse at 872-3786.

THANKS:

The words "thank-you" are inadequate to express my gratitude to the entire Southeastern family. Your love and concern for the family of Mrs. Zinnie Gooch and myself during the time of my accident, which resulted in her death, was a source of strength for me. I feel fortunate in having had so many Christian friends praying for me during this time. I love and appreciate all of you.

James H. Royston

FOREIGN MISSIONS SUPPLY:

As we enter the Christmas season, few of us will fail to recall that this is the time of the annual offering in honor of Lottie Moon. Here on campus, we are endeavoring to do our share in support of Southern Baptist Foreign Missions. You may have noticed "change cans" in the store and in the cafeteria. These will not do the job. Everyone must feel compelled to do their part. Won't you leave a contribution for Lottie Moon in the business office or Dr. Glenn Miller's office?

CHRISTMAS CAROLING: On Monday, December 13, at 7:00 p.m. there will be an evening of caroling and fellowship for the seminary family sponsored by the social committee of the Student Council, the BYW, and the Fellowship Club. Meet at the rotunda of Stealey Hall at 7:00 p.m. where President Lolley will speak on the history and meaning of Chrismons. Afterwards, you are invited to go caroling and then to the Lolley's home for fellowship and refreshments provided by the Faculty Wives Club. Older children are invited to participate and a nursery for younger children will be provided at Wake Forest Baptist Church.

SEMINARY HOUSING RESIDENTS:

If you lock yourself out of your apartment, the Seminary watchman will be on campus from 5:00 p.m. to 6:00 a.m. and can be of assistance.

REGISTRATION NOTICE: All students who are presently enrolled and plan to return next semester can register between December 13 and January 17. Matriculation checksheets can be secured at the Student Activities office, second floor, Mackie Hall. Students registering after January 17 will be charged a late registration fee.

All Bulletin material should reach the office of the Director of Student Activities, second floor, Mackie Hall by Thursday noon of the week preceding the event to be noted. Material may also be placed in the Student Activities box, second floor, administration building.
