PARENTS-TEACHERS MEETING:

FOREIGN MISSIONS REPRESENTATIVE:

ASSERTIVE TRAINING:

A program in Assertive Training is being offered on campus to help people practice better ways of communicating so that they stand up for their rights without denying the rights of others. The group experience is designed to help a person distinguish between passive, assertive and aggressive ways of acting and reacting to interpersonal situations. We will concentrate on practicing the expression of warmth, anger, and refusal of unreasonable requests. The methods of practice will include instructions, rehearsal, modeling, discussion and selected readings. Instructor: Rev. Lyman Ferrell, Ph.D. Dates: October 5 to December 7 (Wednesdays). Time: 12:00-1:00 p.m. Place: Appleby 203. Cost: $40.00 per person. Sign up by October 4 in the Dean's office.

EVANGELISM COMMITTEE:

The Student Committee on the Professorship in Evangelism wishes to thank everyone who has contributed thus far, and for all of the prayer support. There will be one more Friday morning prayer meeting next Friday (also for the Student Revival), and everyone is invited. In response to questions raised, the $500,000 goal is necessary to endow a professorship. This money is invested, and the dividends and interest from the investment is used to pay the salary and expenses of a professor perpetually (forever). Thus far, over $260,000 has been raised in the general campaign. We would like to see $500 raised from students, and with your continued prayers and support, we will be able to do that.

CPE DAY:

Thursday, October 13 is Clinical Pastoral Education Day on the Southeastern campus. The schedule for the day will include a 10:00 a.m. forum in the cafeteria on the theme, "The Student as Consumer in Clinical Pastoral Education." Informal conversations with chaplain supervisors from N.C. programs will be held in the Bethea Room from 11:00-2:00. Chaplains Peter Keese (Duke Medical Center), Napier Baker (N.C. Memorial Hospital) and Maurice Briggs (N.C. Baptist Hospital) will be leading the forum.
