CORRESPONDING LETTER.

The Flint River Corresponding Union in session with the church at New Hope, Taylor county, Ga., August 31st and September 1st and 2nd, 1894, to her sister the Little Echeconnee Association, with whom she corresponds, greeting :

Beloved Brethren : We have been permitted to hold another session of our body. Our churches are all represented and they report peace and love abounds and they have been blessed with pleasant meetings. We have been the recipient of your messages of which we are proud, and hope that condition of love may continue that we may dwell together in peace.

The next session of our body will be held, the Lord willing, with the church at Bluff Springs, five miles north of Andersonville, S. W. R. R., beginning on Friday embracing the first Sabbath in September, 1895, when and where we hope to meet you again.
