Special lecturers and visitors will be brought to Wake Forest by the Seminary as often as possible, and the students will have opportunities for conferences and forum discussions with these leaders.

The Student Coordinating Council serves in an advisory capacity in promoting the general welfare of all students in stimulating participation in those campus and off-campus activities which are vital for the spiritual, social, mental and physical well-being of every student and assists the administration in the planning and execution of those activities which demand the cooperation and support of the council.

STUDENT FINANCIAL ASSISTANCE

This school believes that theological students should, so far as possible, be self-supporting. It is recognized that many men and women, who give promise of outstanding usefulness in Christian service, require assistance to complete their Seminary course. Each student, however, should have sufficient funds or income to see him through at least the first semester before he seeks aid from the Seminary. The Seminary will stand ready to help students in real financial emergencies. The Seminary has a limited fund, provided by gifts from individuals, to help those students who otherwise might be forced to withdraw from school.

Possibilities of Self-Help

Wake Forest is offering new opportunities for employment of students and/or students' wives with the coming of two large industrial plants to the town. Two cities are adjacent: Raleigh, sixteen miles south, and Durham, twenty-two miles west. In these are considerable opportunities for part-time student employment; and students' wives who can do secretarial, stenographic and general office work, or have department store experience, will find little difficulty in finding situa-

There are three ways by which we help our students to help themselves:

Church Work—The Seminary encourages students to work in the churches as student pastors, assistant pastors, supply pastors, interim pastors, mission pastors, revival preachers, youth revival preachers, song leaders for congregations, directors of music, directors of religious education, directors of recreation, organists, pianists, workers in church organizations. All students are urged to seek the counsel of the Field Work Office concerning such employment.

On the Campus—The Seminary furnishes each year a number of work scholarships for students. This work includes work in the Library, campus store and cafeteria, office work, and special assignments such as news bureau, photography, etc. The seminary employs several students' wives for secretarial, stenographic, and clerical work.

Raleigh-Durham and Other Communities—Students may secure remunerative work in nearby cities and towns. Wake Forest is within 25 minutes' driving distance of Raleigh, the capital city, and within 30 minutes of Durham, a great industrial city. Many students and their wives find nearby schools. In no instance can definite employment in the churches or in the adjacent communities be guaranteed by the Seminary.

REMUNERATIVE EMPLOYMENT

The Office of Field Education will assist students in securing remunerative employment by exploring possibilities for students to work in the church and elsewhere. They will seek to introduce students to prospective employers, but they cannot guarantee employment for any student.

When a student assumes responsibilities in addition to his scholastic work, he has a moral obligation to fulfill all these tasks in a satisfactory manner. The Faculty recommends that a student with as many as twenty be twenty hours per week of secular employment or as many as two weekends weekends per month of church-related responsibilities on a regular basis pot basis not register for more than fourteen semester hours. Any student who fails to maintain a "C" average will not be permitted to enroll for more than fourteen hours.

Students who find it necessary to engage in outside work in the amounts indicated above are strongly advised to take the four-year sequence.

PRE-SEMINARY STUDIES

The Seminary Faculty advises that students in college shall take courses that will especially prepare them for receiving the highest values from their Seminary courses. College courses prior to theological seminary should provide the cultural and intellectual foundations essential to an effective theological education. They should issue in at least three broad kinds of attainment.

1. The college work of a pre-seminary student should result in the ability to use certain tools of the educated man:

(a) The ability to write and speak English clearly and correctly. English composition should have this as a specific purpose, but this purpose should also be cultivated in all written work. (b) The ability to think clearly. In some persons this ability is cultivated there is logic. cultivated through courses in philosophy or specifically in logic. In others it is cultivated by the use of scientific method, or by dealing with anith dealing with critical problems in connection with literary and historical documents.

(c) The ability to read at least one foreign language and in some circumstance some circumstances more than one.

2. The college work of a pre-seminary student should result in creased understand increased understanding of the world in which he lives:

(a) The world of men and ideas. This includes knowledge of English literature, philosophy and psychology.

(b) The world of nature. This is provided by knowledge of the natural sciences in it. natural sciences, including laboratory work.

(c) The world of human affairs. This is aided by knowledge of history and the social sciences.

3. The college work of the pre-seminary student should result in sense of achievement a sense of achievement:

(a) The degree of his mastery of his field of study is more important than the credits and grades which he accumulates.

(b) The sense of achievement may be encouraged through academic concentration academic concentration, or through "honors" work, or through other plans for increasingly independent work with as much initiative on the mental independent work with a profit.

initiative on the student's part as he is able to use with profit. *The content of this statement is taken from a bulletin of the American Association of Theological Schools.

ACADEMIC INFORMATION

This Seminary concurs in the judgment of the American Association of Theological Schools "that a normative pattern of pre-seminary education will include many of the following subjects:

English language and literature; history, including non-Western cultures as well as European and American; philosophy, particularly its history and its methods; natural sciences, both the physical and the life sciences; social sciences, where psychology, sociology, and anthropology are particularly appropriate; the fine arts and music, especially in their creative and symbolic values; biblical and modern languages; religion, both in the Judaeo-Christian and in the Near and Far Eastern traditions.

It is the understanding gained in these fields rather than the total of credits or semester-hours which is significant. Students who have been prepared in religion and equipped with the tools of theological study will be set free, not to complete their theological course more quickly, but to pursue more advanced studies. The principle constantly to be kept in mind is not that of satisfying paper regulations and minimum requirements, but of making the most of opportunities for education."

ENTRANCE REQUIREMENTS

For those seeking the M.Div. degree the standard academic prerequisite is an A.B. degree or its equivalent from a recognized four-year college or university. Seventy-five semester hours of the content of the work leading to the degree must be in liberal arts subjects, distributed approximately as suggested in the above statement on Pre-Seminary Studies by the American Association of Theological Schools. Those seeking enrollment in degree work who have not completed these requirements may be conditionally enrolled for the M.Div. degree provided they have earned at least 100 semester hours of college work, including 75 semester hours in liberal arts subjects. The student who is so enrolled may take no more than 32 semester hours of Seminary work before completing the college degree.

A transcript of all academic work must be filed with the Registrar's office as a part of one's application for entrance to the Seminary.

CERTIFICATE ENTRANCE

The Seminary receives the applications for admission to the Certificate Program of persons who cannot meet the prerequisites for degree study. Although a degree may not be earned for Seminary study under these conditions, a certificate will be awarded upon the satisfactory completion of the prescribed program of work, as shown on pages 85-86.
