Welcome Southeastern,

"The lonely crowd" - the social psychologists popularized the concept a few years ago.

All of us know the feeling at times - displacement, fear, and a sense of uprootedness, with strangers all around.

There is an antidote for that at Southeastern. It is the persons depicted in this Directory. They are in so many ways just like everyone else. Yet there is a fundamental difference.

Touched by the Lord Christ they reach out. Let them, through to you. Respond!

Shalom - and happy discoveries to you.

Jim Thomason
President
Student Council

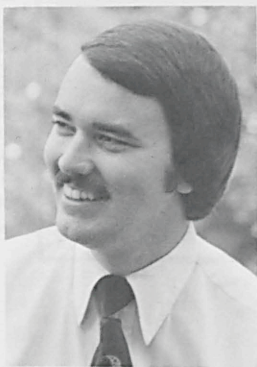

Dear Friends,

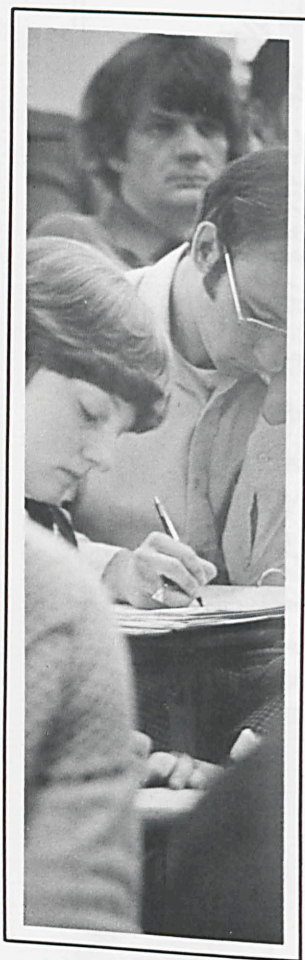

John Donne once said, "No man is an island." We live our lives in communities of people.

The persons pictured in this book are part of a very special community - Southeastern. For you see, each of us has special talents to develop; and we are being used by God in a special way.

As we are together this year, many of the faces in this book will become alive in our minds. Surely the value of this book will increase as we discover the "specialness" of its people.

Jim Thomason
