NOTICES:

AN ACME
CHRISTMAS:

The Wake Forest Association of Couples for Marriage Enrichment (ACME) will celebrate Christmas at their meeting on Thursday, December 2, at 7:30 p.m. at the home of Beverly and Dick Hester, 305 W. Cedar Ave. Couples interested in making their marriages better are invited to join the ACME members on this joyous occasion. If you wish, you are also invited to bring a "gift" - a talent, thought, experience, something you made - to share with the others present.

NOTE OF APPRECIATION:

Whenever you care enough to share in another person's joy, you run the risk of having to share his sorrow. Many of you have run that risk in relation to Pat and me, and it has taken its toll. You've been called upon to share our sorrow; and just as you've had trouble finding words to express your feelings for us, we, too, find it difficult to tell you how much you have meant to us during this time. Just know that every expression of your concern and love has given us strength to bear this heavy burden.

May God bless you all,
Pat and Bruce Hancock

LIGHTING:

CHRISTMAS TREE

CHRISTMAS TREE LIGHTING:

A community Christmas tree lighting ceremony on Friday, December 3 on the Seminary campus will signal the beginning of the Christmas season in Wake Forest. The event is co-sponsored by the Chamber of Commerce and the Seminary with participation by several area churches. A program of music and narration will be presented with the lighting of the Christmas tree concluding the occasion. Everyone attending the program will be invited to be the guests of the Seminary for refreshments in the cafeteria. A choir will be comprised from members of area churches. Anyone interested in singing in the choir should contact their local church or the Chamber of Commerce. All members of the community are invited to attend the program at 7:00 p.m.

THANKS:

The Chapel Committee and the Seminary family wish to express gratitude to the Wake Forest Baptist Church and the deacons of the church for their gracious sponsorship of and generous leadership in the communion service held in the Binkley Chapel on November 24, 1976.

CHRISTMAS:

All Bulletin material should reach the office of the Director of Student Activities, second floor, Mackie Hall by Thursday noon of the week preceding the event to be noted. Material may also be placed in the Student Activities box, second floor, administration building.
