July 10, 1942.

Dear Mrs. Williamson,

It was a surprise to get a word from you, and I would have answered sooner but for unusual circumstances here (unexpected death and illnesses in our congregation); and recently vacation Bible School in the Parish House where we live has kept me busy.

So Norman is in college! It doesn't seem possible. Yet when I think of our own girls it's all very natural.

We seldom get to Durham now, what with gas and tire rationing, although in former years we went over quite frequently.
But if anything should take us that way we'll surely look him up. I'm sure he would be more interested in seeing someone nearer his own age but Kathryn isn't here this summer. She is junior Counselor in a camp near Hendersonville and will be gone the entire summer. It is wonderful for her, but how I do miss her! She has finished two years in college (here at St. Mary's) after the twelve year school course, and of course expects to complete the other two years of college. Becky graduated last year from Randolph-Macon, and is secretary here in the office of the State Text-Book Commission. It's wonderful to have her at home.

I seldom see any of the persons who were with us in Japan. Mrs. Dozier and Mrs. Burke spent one furlough in Raleigh some years ago. Helen Shirk visited us for a few days last spring. All are so scattered now, due to the terrible conditions in the world.

I hope you all are well; and if we can do anything for Norman while he is in this section we'll be glad to.

Mr. Norman joins in kindest regards. Affectionately, Lottie Norman
