"For I know the thoughts that I think toward you, says the Lord, thoughts of peace and not of evil, to give you a future and a hope. Then you will call upon Me and go and pray to Me, and I will listen to you. And you will seek Me and find Me, when you search for Me with all your heart."

Dear Southeasterner,

You have probably been to an old time memorial service where they sang "Precious Memories." When we are young, or before we have lost friends and loved ones to the passing of the years, it is difficult to imagine how precious a picture can be.

One of the most precious memories that you will have throughout your ministry is the memory of your fellow students with whom you shared a classroom and living experiences during your years here at Southeastern. In addition to that, having the pictures of those of us who are your professors will also be interesting to you and your children across the years. Most of us remember going through books such as this one and pointing out to our children one professor or another and saying this one really helped, this one was terribly difficult, etc.

Therefore, I commend this book to you and urge you to protect it and keep it as a valuable resource for years to come. Periodically I find myself coming across someone who was influential in my college or seminary days. I go back to my "funnybook" and find their picture and remind myself of the happy days there.

May God bless you as you walk with your fellow saints of God pictured in this book during this year.

Until He Comes,

Paige Patterson

Dear Southeasterner;

On the pages that follow, you will see a great host of names and faces. These names and faces are the people that make up the family of Southeastern Seminary.

You will find pictures of our faculty members, both present and retired, who have dedicated their lives to teaching and training God's servants. You will see our administration and trustees who have been given the responsibility of guiding and overseeing our beloved seminary. You will also see the faces of our seminary staff who help all of us through providing the support services we take for granted far too many times.

Likewise, you will see the names and faces of your fellow students. Some of them are familiar to you, but probably more of them are not. You should get to know as many of your brothers and sisters as you can. They will be your friends not only here, but for the rest of your life as well.

One of the things that has blessed me the most about being in seminary is seeing all the different people God has called and the ministries into which He has called them. Paul said, "God has placed the members in the body just as He desired." As you scan the pages that follow, I hope you will see that what you are looking at is the body of Christ. We have been saved, called, and are now in training together. We have so much to learn and so much to give. Let's get to know each other, love each other, and encourage each other as we learn and as we grow together.

May God use all of us to bring glory and honor to His name.

Sincerely in Christ,

Douglas M. Nalley

SOUTHEASTERN

Baptist Theological Seminary

Statement of Purpose

Southeastern Baptist Theological Seminary seeks to prepare God-called men and women for vocational service in Baptist churches and in other Christian ministries throughout the world. This purpose is implemented through programs of spiritual development, theological studies, and practical preparation in ministry.

Statement of Mission

Southeastern Baptist Theological Seminary is an institution of higher learning established and supported by the Southern Baptist Convention in order to "contend earnestly for the faith which was once and for all delivered to the saints." The Seminary maintains an administration and faculty of God-called members whose convictions and calling reflect consistent adherence to the institution's Articles of Faith. The Seminary's administration and faculty are qualified by personal commitment to Christ, by academic preparation, and by personal and professional experience to provide guidance in spiritual, intellectual, and practical endeavors. Through its administration and faculty, the Seminary offers a program of instruction which focuses on three primary areas: (1) spiritual development, (2) theological studies, and (3) practical preparation.

I. Spiritual Development - The Seminary seeks to foster spiritual growth in the grace and knowledge of the Lord Jesus Christ as essential preparation for Christian ministry and service. The foundation for spiritual development is an unqualified commitment in obedience and faith to the person and work of the Lord Jesus Christ. Spiritual development also requires seeking and following the Holy Spirit's guidance in the formation of Christian thought and character and in the pursuit of one's Christian calling.

II. Theological Studies - The Seminary seeks to prepare men and women for Christian ministry and service by helping them discern, defend, and proclaim God's revealed truth. The Seminary pursues high academic standards in providing courses of study for understanding the Bible and the history, content and contemporary relevance of the Christian faith. The Seminary is committed to the complete veracity, inerrancy, and infallibility of the Bible as an essential foundation for effective Christian ministry and service.

III. Practical Preparation - The Seminary emphasizes a wholesome, intelligent and intentional evangelism in obedience to the Lord Jesus Christ's commission to make disciples of all nations. Spiritual development in Christ-likeness and Bible-based theological studies will produce a compassionate desire to minister to the human suffering caused by individual, social and spiritual evils. The Seminary program provides practical preparation for a wide variety of Christian ministries, with special focus on proclaiming the Gospel and extending the ministry of the local church.
