NOTICES:

REVIVAL:

The campus student led revival services will be held Tuesday through Thursday, October 11, 12 and 13 at 7:30 p.m. in Binkley Chapel. A nursery will be available if you make reservations at the switchboard. Everyone is invited to share in these services.

TRUSTEES ON CAMPUS:

The Board of Trustees of Southeastern Seminary will be on campus Monday through Wednesday for its regular fall meeting.

CPE DAY:

Clinical Pastoral Education Day will be on Thursday, October 13. The program will include a forum at 10:00 a.m. in the cafeteria on, "The Student As Consumer in Clinical Pastoral Education." Forum topics will include, "How to Select a C.P.E. Program," led by Peter Keese of Duke Medical Center and "What You Have a Right to Expect as a Student in a CPE Program," led by A. Napier Baker of N.C. Memorial Hospital. Discussion will be moderated by Maurice Briggs of the N.C. Baptist Hospital program. Informal conversations with chaplain supervisors will be held at 11:00 and 1:00 o'clock in the Bethea Room. A media presentation of the chaplaincy program at N.C. Baptist Hospital will be made in A203 during these hours.

LOST AND FOUND:

Several articles of clothing and other lost items have accumulated at the library. If you think you have left such items at the library, please check at the circulation desk. After a reasonable time, these items will be donated to a clothes closet.

JOB OPPORTUNITIES:

The Student Affairs office is working with the organization, Office Overload, in an attempt to secure a broader range of job opportunities for Southeastern students and students' spouses. Office overload has a variety of temporary and permanent jobs available through its Raleigh office. No fees are charged. Workers are paid an hourly rate and receive weekly checks. Various skills needed include: office-clerical, accounting, secretarial, carpentry, woodwork, warehouse and occasionally some professional people. Appointments can be made by calling 782-8484. Job opportunities will be posted on the "job board" in the center hall of Appleby first floor as they become available.

ASSERTIVE TRAINING:

If you missed signing up for the program in assertive training, you have one more chance. The class will be starting October 12 and will meet each Wednesday for 10 sessions from 12:00-1:00 p.m. on the campus. Cost is $40/person and you may sign up in the Dean's Office.

LIFE ENRICHMENT CENTER:

Several programs will be available through the Life Enrichment Center in Raleigh beginning later this month. These include Journal Writing, Couple Communication, Divorce: A One-Day Pastoral Care Workshop and Couple Communication Instructor's Training. Call the Center at 781-2576 for more information.

1978 SUMMER OPPORTUNITY:

Church extension new work field seminars, co-sponsored by the Home Mission Board and the State Conventions will provide opportunities in Pennsylvania, New York, West Virginia and Florida. Earn 8 semester hours credit in H 319. See Dr. Braswell.

GEORGIA STUDENTS:

The Georgia Club is sponsoring a covered dish supper on October 14 at 6:00 p.m. at the home of Rod Byard, 536 N. Wingate St., Wake Forest. Please bring enough food for you and your spouse or partner plus one more. Singles are invited too. Y'all come!

WAKEFIELD WIVES:

A meeting for wives who live at the Wakefield Apartments will be held on Tuesday, October 11 at 7:30 p.m. at the apartment of Kim Johnson, 3212-A Calumet Drive. All wives are welcome. The weekly Bible study will resume the following Tuesday.

FIELD EDUCATION PAPERS:

Following the example set by the Dean's office, we would like to announce that papers from all past Field Education classes are available in our office until October 21. After this date, they will be shredded and used as a mulch.

ACME:

The Wake Forest Chapter of the Association of Couples for Marriage Enrichment (ACME) will have its monthly meeting on Saturday October 15, 1977, at 10:00 a.m. in the Bethea Room in Appleby Hall on the seminary campus. Leslie and Chuck Rice will be leading a session on job roles in marriage. Please come join the group for "breakfast", fun, and fellowship.

OPPORTUNITIES IN HOME MISSIONS:

Ken Brooks and Jerry Scruggs, personnel representatives from the Home Mission Board will be on campus this Thursday and Friday, October 13 and 14. Persons interested in serving as home missionaries or working in church extension may make appointments in the Field Education Office. Mr. Brooks and Mr. Scruggs will also be available to meet classes or other interested groups.

DINNER FOR FORMER US 2ERS:

If you have been in the US-2 program, the Home Mission Board representatives would like to invite you to a dinner meeting Thursday evening. Contact the Field Education Office for further information.

FLORIDA STUDENTS:

All Florida students are asked to sit together at the Forum on Friday, October 14 at 10:00 a.m.

Information for the Bulletin is due in the Student Affairs office by 12 noon each Thursday. All material must be signed and include a telephone number.
