*Rejoice in the Lord always.
I will say it again: Rejoice!
Let your gentleness be evident to all. The Lord is near.
Do not be anxious about any-prayer and petition, with thanksgiving, present your requests to God.

And the peace of God, which transcends all understanding, will guard your hearts and

Attention Parents!

A message from Wake Forest-Rolesville High School... In an effort to provide a safer environment at Wake Forest-Rolesville High School, we have found it necessary to ban all skateboarding from our campus. We realize the popularity of the sport, but are gravely concerned over the potential for serious injury in the execution of many of the various stunts. Please help us as we seek to enforce our safety regulations by informing your children of our policy. Your warnings could help prevent an accident. Thank you for your support.

Florida Baptist Convention Representative

Mr. John Saunders will be on campus on Thursday, November 8, to have private interviews and host a banquet for students from Florida. All Florida students are invited to participate. Please contact FIM as soon as possible for details.

Touch Your People Once Again

A Call to Spiritual Renewal

"Touch Your People Once Again" is the theme for the upcoming campus-wide meetings scheduled for November 29-30. Rev. Johnny Hunt, pastor of Woodstock Baptist Church, will speak and New Song and The Sites will perform in concert. Make plans to attend.

Volunteers Needed

If you are interested in volunteering your time to help set-up sound equipment for New Song and The Sites please contact Mike Scarborough, Dean of Students. In addition, several student volunteers are needed for the Call to Spiritual Renewal, November 29-30. See Mike Scarborough for more information.

Help! We Need Hosts

Can you help host some of the 151 individuals coming to participate in the Call To Spiritual Renewal worship services. Members of Woodstock Baptist Church's choir, orchestra, and banner team will converge on the Southeastern campus for the "Touch Your People Once Again" Spiritual Renewal services. If you are interested in hosting one or more individuals in your home, please contact the Dean of Students' Office. Hosts are asked to provide sleeping arrangements Thursday night, breakfast and dinner on Friday, and some transportation to and from the campus for worship services.
