INTRAMURAL BASKETBALL:

first floor Appleby.

The basketball season will begin early in the spring semester. Students planning to participate should sign up on the bulletin board,

LOTTIE MOON

OFFERING REMINDER:

As we enter the Christmas season, few of us will fail to recall that this is the time of the annual offering in honor of Lottie Moon. Here on campus, we are endeavoring to do our share in support of the Southern Baptist Foreign Mission effort. You may have noticed "change cans" in the store and in the cafeteria. This will not do the job; everyone must feel compelled to do a part. Won't you leave a contribution for Lottie Moon in the business office or Dr. Glenn Miller's office.

EXPRESSIONS OF APPRECIATION:

Words quite often so vaguely represent true feelings and seem so inadequate. You have felt awkward trying to sympathize with me, and I, too, have felt very awkward in expressing to you my burden. I can but simply say, "thank you," for the many expressions of love and friendship during this time of crisis. Southeasterners, truly God has given you a compassionate heart toward those who are experiencing grief over the loss of a loved one.

Eternally grateful,
Bill Duke

LITERARY MATERIAL FOR ENQUIRY:

The Enquiry will be receiving material for the special literary issue on into the spring semester. The deadline for the actual literary issue will be announced later. The deadline announced in the last Bulletin was for material to be included in the preview issue and not in the literary issue itself.

INTERNATIONAL FELLOWSHIP:

The International Fellowship will be having two meetings during the semester break. We will be meeting at the Rod Byard's home on N. Wingate St., December 21 at 7:30 p.m. and at Mrs. Ruth Snyder's home on S. College St., January 7 at 7:30 p.m. Further details are available from the chairman, Rodney Simmonds (556-3794), or the secretary, Donna Dudley.

FRANCIS SCHAEFFER SEMINAR:

Several students are hoping to go to the Francis Schaeffer Seminar in Atlanta at the beginning of March, 1977 to see the new film series, "How Should We Then Live?" For further details, contact Rodney Simmonds (556-3794) before the end of the semester.

VOLUNTEER HELP FOR LIBRARY MOVE:

In response to a number of offers to help, the Library is providing an opportunity for volunteers to help with moving some materials out of storage on Friday, December 17 between the hours of 8:30 - 4:30. Perhaps before leaving for the holidays you would like to get into the spirit of Christmas by contributing some of your time to the Library move. Look for more details on the bulletin boards around campus.

INTERNSHIP IN INTERFAITH WITNESS:

The Home Mission Board has just approved an Internship in Interfaith Witness in connection with our Urban Studies Center in Washington, D.C. The internship centers around a research project entitled, "A Comparative Study of Contemporary Roman Catholic Catechetics." A graduate student is preferred, but consideration would be given to a M.Div. student with studies in historical theology, psychology of religion, or sociology of religion. Interested students should see Dr. Richardson this week.

URBAN STUDIES INTERNSHIPS:

Three more internships in the Washington, D.C. area have just been funded by the Home Mission Board: (1) Associational Intern - Montgomery County, Maryland. (2) Intern in Administration, Worship and Religious Education - Columbia Baptist Fellowship, Columbia, Maryland. (3) Intern in Inner-City Ministries, Richmond, Virginia. It is important that students interested in these internships see Dr. Richardson this week.

LOST AND FOUND:

A green corduroy jacket with gloves in one pocket was left in the Health Center about two weeks ago. The owner may claim them at the Health Center.

ABOUT THE DIRECTORY: The Directory will not be off the press in time for distribution before the holidays. Watch for notices on campus next semester.

MAY A CHRISTMAS FILLED WITH JOY AND A NEW YEAR FILLED WITH HOPE BE YOURS IN THIS HOLIDAY SEASON.
