Corresponding Letter.

The Harmony Primitive Baptist Association to her sister Associations with whom she corresponds, sends Christian love and esteem :

DEAR BRETHREN : Through the mercy of God we have been permitted to hold another session of our Body ; our Churches are all represented, and they send tidings of peace. Our Correspondence is not as full as we desire, though we feel to thank God for the ability he has afforded them to preach the plan of Salvation. Our next session will be held with the Church at Chickasawhatchie, near Dawson, Terrell county, Ga., commencing on Tuesday before the second Sunday in October, 1875, when and where we hope to meet your Correspondence in love and fellowship.

T. K. PURSELEY, Moderator.

J. M. WOODALL, Clerk.

The order of Preaching during the meeting : Saturday morning, Elder J. Everett ; in the evening, Elders J. Hamilton and W. Cleavelin, Sunday morning, Elders J. R. Respass and W. Cleavelin in the evening, Elders H. G. Fuller and W. Hubbard ; Monday morning, Elders J. R. Respass and H. G. Fuller.

Circular Letter :

The Harmony Primitive Baptist Association, in her Annual Session, the Thirty-Sixth, held with New Bethel Church, October 10th, 11th and 12th.

To the Churches and Members of which it is composed, sendeth Greeting :

DEAR BRETHREN : In presenting you our Annual Circular, we have made choice of the 1st verse of the third chapter of Hebrews, which reads as follows : "Wherefore, holy brethren, partakers of the heavenly calling, &c." Therefore to be brethren they must be of the same family ; and to be holy brethren, they must be the children of God, for none is holy but God, and those to whom He gives his Spirit of Holiness. Therefore, to receive that Spirit of Holiness they must be born again, not of corruptible seed but incorruptible by the word of God that liveth and abideth forever. For God is their father, and Jerusalem that is above is free, and she is the mother of us all ; and therefore, the children are holy, they put on the new man, which after God is created in righteousness and true holiness. Therefore, they are holy brethren, partakers of the Heavenly calling, by which we put on the new man which is renewed in knowledge after the image of Him that created him, being called with the holy calling, not according to our works, but according to his own purpose and grace given us in Him before the world began, for we have been chosen in Christ before the foundation of world, that we should be holy and without blame before Him in love ; and in order that we should live that holy life, God made Christ unto us Wisdom, Righteousness, Sanctification and Redemption, that all our glorying should be in the Lord, for we have nothing that we have not received of the Lord, for God is father of all our mercies and the giver of every good and perfect gift, and we are forbidden to call any other father on earth, or seek comfort or protection from any other source. If we lack wisdom, we should ask of God for he giveth to his children according as they have received of the Father of Lights, with whom there is no variability nor shadow of turning, for if He spared not His own son but delivered him up for us, how shall he not with him give us all things. Now we see our great benefactor which will not leave us nor forsake us. We as his family of Heaven-born children should try to glorify Him in our body and spirit which are His, by walking in all his ordinances and commandments, and by so doing keep the unity of the spirit in the bonds of peace, thereby serve Him acceptable with reverence and Godly fear. We should admonish to love, and good works, which is the fruit of our faith, which is a manifestation of our gracious state. He has given his Word and his Spirit, which is to guide and govern our action in this world, a rule by which we are to walk in the house of the Lord, in our doctrine and in our discipline, and toward one another, for we are members one of another; one member cannot suffer without all suffer, therefore, we should strive for the peace and harmony of our brethren, that no brother should cast stumbling blocks in the way of his brother, but should at all times be ready to assist him in any way that would be for his good and God's glory, and if a brother should be overtaken in a fault, we should try to restore such a one in the spirit of meekness, considering ourselves lest we be tempted if a brother trespass against us, we should go to our brother in the spirit of meekness and love and tell him his faults in a brotherly spirit, and try to gain our brother; we should not publish his acts to the world giving our enemies the advantage of us, but it should be between ourselves, and in thus acting, we often save our brother from error and falling into temptation and the snare of the devil. We should try to live in peace and in love one with another that satan get not the advantage over us to cause strife and confusion, and thereby destroy our peace and comfort. Dear Brethren, faithfulness becomes the house-hold of God; that we should try to be faithful in all things, we should try to adorn the doctrine of our Lord Jesus Christ in every thing that belongs to the house-hold of faith. That fellowship and love may abound, that our love may appear to all that all may see that we are the children of God, because we have love one for another. And finally Brethren, be of one mind, live in peace, and the God of love and peace shall be with you all.
