NOTICES:

STUDY BREAK:

The Student Council is sponsoring a "Study Break" for all students on Monday and Tuesday nights from 7:00-8:00 p.m. Coffee, cokes and ice cream will be available in the Commons Room of Mackie Hall. See you there!

AUTUMN IN NEW YORK:

A group of 20 students will be going to New York to participate in an experience of encounter and dialogue on the Fine Arts, September 22-26. Spaces for four additional persons are still available. Contact George Gagliardi before May 25, if you are interested. He can be reached at 556-1701, or Box 2003, SEBTS. Spaces are limited, so be sure you don't miss out on this exciting experience.

PICNIC LOST AND FOUND:

Several items were picked up or misplaced during the "downpour scramble" at the campus picnic and some of these have been turned in at the Student Activities office. If you lost or found articles at this time, please bring these to the Student Activities office, second floor, Mackie Hall.

LITERARY ISSUE:

The "Enquiry's" literary issue, The Creative Native, will hopefully be out next Tuesday. If you would like a copy, they can be picked up from the Student Activities office, Soda Shop, Book Store or on the free literature shelf in the Library. There will be no charge for the publication.

SPECIAL LIBRARY
SCHEDULE:

As the spring semester ends, please note the following adjustments in the library schedule:

Regular schedule through Tuesday, May 10
Wednesday-Friday, May 11 - 13	8:00 a.m. - 4:30 p.m.
Saturday, May 14	Closed for normal service, but open from 9-10:00 a.m. and after graduation until 1:15 for the convenience of guests and graduates
May 15 - May 22	Closed for inventory
May 23 - June 6	Monday-Friday 8:00 a.m. - 4:30 p.m.

NOTE OF THANKS:

My family and I express our love to you for your kindness during my three month stay in the hospital. It is friends like you who mean so much in a time of darkness. Truly, the seminary staff and students showed their Christlike love with their gifts of money, food, flowers, visits and acts of kindness. Many thanks for daily prayers which God surely honored. This experience has been painful but very rewarding. Thanks again from the depths of our hearts.

SUMMER CPE
OPENINGS:

Students who are interested in taking M390s, Clinical Pastoral Education, May 23 - July 1, 1977, at N.C. Baptist Hospital, Winston-Salem are invited to consult with Dean Meiburg. Two openings have recently developed for the first six weeks period only. Housing is provided and tuition is $100.

INTERNSHIP WITH BAPTIST WORLD ALLIANCE:

A last minute opportunity has developed for an internship in the Washington office of the Baptist World Alliance. Areas in which the student might work, in order of priority, are: youth, communications, relief, Friends of the Alliance. Anyone interested in this internship beginning in the fall, please see Dr. Richardson right away.

WITH GRATITUDE:

I would like to say a sincere word of thanks to the committee who arranged it and to all who participated in last Friday's expression of good wishes to me as I leave a place and people I love very much to work in another place with another people. Your thoughtful expressions and your most appropriate gift will serve as regular reminders to me of a challenging and fulfilling time among you. I thank you not only for those specific things but also for the many other benefits of being in your midst which we will take with us.

Colin Harris
