

DR. RONALD C. HILL
Emeritus Southern Baptist Missionary
(Appointed May 1952, retired October 1993)

Born: July 31, 1927, in Spindale, N.C.

Education: Attended Mars Hill (N.C.) College. Received the bachelor of arts degree from Baylor University, Waco, Texas, and the master of divinity and doctor of theology degrees from New Orleans (La.) Baptist Theological Seminary.

Married: Evelyn Pittman of Whitakers, N.C.

Children: Four grown children.

Pre-missionary experience: Pastor of churches in Texas, Louisiana and North Carolina. Taught missions at New Orleans (La.) Baptist Theological Seminary, 1967-69 and at Southeastern Baptist Theological Seminary, 1984-85.

Published: Stewardship: The Responsibility of a Christian (Thai) and Bangkok: An Urban Arena, Foreign Missions Study Book, 1982. Produced two Thai evangelistic movies: "Come Back Home" and "Maesariang"

Honors: Received Red Cross Medal of Honor from Queen of Thailand for work with refugees during 1975-82 on May 6, 1982.

Assignments: Appointed missionary in 1952. Language study, Bangkok, Thailand, 1952-54; general evangelist, Chonburi, Thailand, 1954-63; hospital chaplain and evangelist, Bangkok, Thailand, 1963-65; director, mass communications, Bangkok, Thailand, 1965-73; general evangelist, Chanthaburi, Thailand, 1974-75; and mission administrator, Bangkok, Thailand, 1975-June 31, 1984. Church planting in Lampang, North Thailand, March 1985-August 1992. Retired Oct. 1, 1993.