NOTICES:

ARCHEOLOGICAL DIG:

Those who are interested in joining the Tel
Dan (or another Biblical site) excavation next summer should sign up as soon as possible at Dr. Scoggin's office. The group will leave June 8 and return on July 23.
Some scholarship help will be available although the amount is yet to be determined.

ESTHER ADAMS SEMINARS:

The first lecture of the Esther Adams Seminars
for seminary wives will be held Monday,
September 21 at 7:15 p.m. in the Bethea Room.
Dr. Bill Clemmons will lead the events which will include an additional lecture on September 28 and a retreat on Saturday, October 3. All seminary wives are invited to participate in this opportunity for personal spiritual growth.

EYE TESTS:

Any seminary family with children ages 3-5
who would like to have their eyes tested, please go to the Ruby Reid Child Care Center on Thursday, September 24 from 2:30-3:00 p.m. This is an Amblyopia Clinic being sponsored by the Wake Forest Lions Club. The service is free.

WAKEFIELD FAMILIES:

Seminary families living in the Wakefield Apartments in Raleigh are invited to a reception at the Wakefield Clubhouse at 7 p.m. on Monday, October 5. Useful information will be shared.

SOCIAL COMMITTEE:

Students and others interested in serving on
on the Student Council Social Committee should contact Karen Wilson at 556-6271.

DECEMBER GRADUATES:

September 29 is the last day orders can be accepted for your cap and gown. If you have not placed your order and plan to graduate in December, please contact the Baptist Book Store immediately.

YOUTH PICNIC:

All youth (ages 13-19) who are the sons and daughters of seminary students, staff or faculty are invited to Holding Park on Saturday, September 26 from 3:00-6:00 p.m. for a picnic and recreation (softball, volleyball and "wells fargo"). Rain date: October 3. Also, if you are new on campus (since May, 1981) and have a teenager, you can assist by furnishing their name and address. Contact Wayne or Mary Bowen at 556-6405.

FOLK MUSIC TEAM:

If you sing or play an instrument and would like to help organize a folk/music team that would do some local and state engagements, please contact Sarah Wood, Women's Dorm, 556-3101, ext. 279. This is open to all students and their wives or husbands.

FOCUS TEAM:

If you missed the chance to sign up for a FOCUS team it's not too late. Contact Sarah Wood, Women's Dorm, 556-3101, ext. 279.

BI/POLAR SEMINAR REGISTRATION DEADLINE:

Monday, September 21, 1981, is the last day to register for the Fall Bi/Polar Seminar which will be held on October 9-10, 1981! Early registration is necessary in order to complete the computer processing of inventories which are used as a resource for the Seminar. Seminar meetings will be on Friday evening (from 7-10 P.M.), on Saturday morning (from 9-12 A.M.), and on Saturday afternoon (1-4 P.M.) The Seminar provides a positive and non-threatening way for a person to discover, claim and use creatively, all of her/his strengths, and to achieve more complete Christian Personhood, as well as to attain more meaningful relationships with others. To register, or for additional information, contact the Instructor, Prof. Bob Poerschke, Room 301, Stealey Hall, SEBTS.

SUMMER MISSION OPPORTUNITY:

Start new churches in Florida, New York, and North Carolina and earn eight hours credit in H2324s, Practicum in Home Missions through a summer appointment with Home Mission Board. For more information come to chapel on Tuesday, September 29. Also, on the same Tuesday at 3:00 p.m. in the Broyhill Conference Room, Professor Braswell and Mr. Snedden of the HMB will talk with interested persons.

MINISTRY TO INTERNATIONALS:

If you are interested in helping our international students on campus, particularly with their English, please fill out below and return to Rebecca Barnes, Lee Scripture, or Student Affairs Office. If you want to help and don't know how, we will have a workshop orientation for those who need it. For information call: 556-6341 or Student Affairs Office.
