NOTICES:

STUDENT COUNCIL ELECTIONS:

Elections for all positions will be held April 5 & 6. Students interested in running should pick up a candidate resume form from the Student Affairs office.

Completed resumes must be returned to the Student Affairs or to David Morrow from March 1 - 11.

KEESEE CHECKS:

Spring semester checks may be picked up in the Business Office.

SEMINARY WIVES:

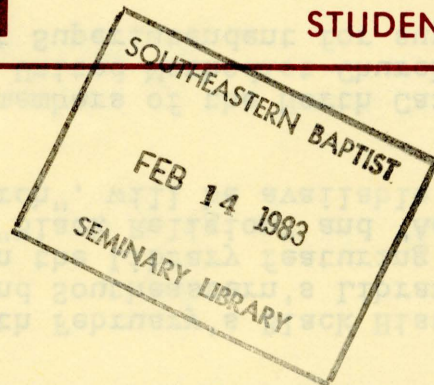

On Tuesday, Feb. 22, the Seminary Wives Fellowship is offering a workshop on "Responsibilities of the Pastor's Wife" or "Things I don't have to do if I don't want to". Our leader will be Mrs. Kaye Cook, Minister of Education at the Wake Forest Baptist Church. The workshop will be held in the Bethea Room, Appleby Hall at 7:30 PM. There is no charge for this workshop. No nursery or child care will be provided. Call the Switchboard for further details and reservations.

CPE SUMMER 1983:

Some programs of basic CPE for summer, 1983 are beginning to fill up. However, recent word from Duke Medical Center is that they are still accepting applications. If you are interested, contact Peter Keese in the Chaplaincy Service, Duke Medical Center.

BLOODMOBILE ON CAMPUS:

The Red Cross Bloodmobile will be on campus in Mackie Hall Commons Room, Tuesday, Feb. 22 from 10:00 AM until 3:30 PM. There is a desperate need for all types of blood. Please give! Workers are needed in all areas. Contact Garland Toliver (Library A-V Dept. from 8:00 AM - 12:00 noon each day or at home, 556-1115) if you can work an hour or more. You are needed!

SPECIAL LECTURES: On Tuesday, Feb. 15, Professor E.P. Sanders, Professor of Religious Studies at McMaster University, Hamilton, Ontario, will present two special lectures on our campus. At 11:00 AM he will speak on the topic "Did Paul Break With Judaism?", and at 1:00 PM his subject will be "Jesus and Judaism." Both lectures will be presented in Binkley 101. Students who are not in class during these hours are encouraged to attend, as well as students who ordinarily have classes in B101 at those times. Professor Sanders is being brought to our campus as a joint effort by Duke University, N.C. State University and SEBTS.

ENQUIRY CORRECTION: The deadline for submitting articles for publication in the next issue of the Enquiry is Feb. 22, not Feb. 28 as stated in the Enquiry.

PAPERS READY: Papers that students wrote for the fall, 1982 classes of Dr. Boddie (T3053, M4240) and Dr. Gentle (H2060) may be picked up from Jane Bailey in the Dean's Office.

FOCUS UPDATE: Requests are being received from churches for student teams to work with youth. This semester, FOCUS teams will be going to Roxboro, Kinston, Hickory, Raeford and Raleigh, NC; Partlow and Broadnax, Virginia; and Milton, West Va. If you can lead in recreation, music, activities, etc. please contact Ida Lee at 556-6394.

NORTH CAROLINA REP: Al Ledford, N.C. Baptist Assembly, will be on campus Feb. 17 to interview interested persons for work at Caswell this summer. Several positions are available: Dean of Women, Dean of Men, Chaplain, and Music Director. Sign up for appointments with Phyllis Jackson in FIM.

GONG SHOW: The Gong Show is coming back Feb. 24 in Binkley 101. The Seminary family is invited to participate. Sign up sheets are available on Gong Show posters.

SPRING BI/POLAR SEMINAR REGISTRATION: SEBTS students, spouses, staff and faculty are invited to participate in the Spring Bi/Polar Seminar, which will be held on March 18-19, in the Bethea Room, Appleby Hall. Registration must close on Feb. 25 in order to allow time for registrants to receive, fill out, and turn in inventories which then will be computerized and made available for the Seminar. The Seminar provides a positive and non-threatening way for one to discover, claim, and use creatively all of one's strengths, to achieve more complete Christian personhood and relationships with others. To register, or for additional information, contact Dr. Bob Poerschke, Stealey 301 or Ben Talbert, 876-6869.

SUMMER POSITIONS: The South Carolina Convention needs 5 couples to be chaplains in the state parks and camps for the summer. Couples must be South Carolina residents. Also, John Dalen, a Christian Ministry in the National Parks representative, will be on campus Feb. 14 to interview persons interested in summer work in National Parks. Sign up for all interviews in FIM. Other summer jobs are posted on FIM bulletin boards.

STATE MISSION REPS: On Wednesday, Feb. 23, Rev. Robert Brindle, Missionary, Home Mission Board in New Hampshire, Vermont, and Maine; Rev. Larry Carte, pastor from Cowen, West Virginia, and Rev. Wesley Johnson, Director of Missions from Delaware will be on campus to talk with students interested in ministry in their areas. Sign up with Phyllis Jackson in FIM.

BLACK HISTORY MONTH: In conjunction with February's Black History Month, the Black Forum and Southeastern's Library will have a visual display unit on the first floor in the Library featuring a famous Black minister every week. Two handouts, "Black Religion" and "Adam Clayton Powell, Sr. and the Abyssinian Baptist Church", will be available on a first come-first serve basis.

METHODIST STUDENTS: Students who are members of the North Carolina Conference of the United Methodist Church are invited to be the guests of the Bishop and District Superintendent for supper at the Cafeteria on Wednesday, Feb. 16 at 5:30 PM.

Information for the Campus Bulletin should be in the Student Affairs office by 12 noon Wednesday.
