CONSTITUTION AND BY-LAWS

ARTICLE I — NAME AND OBJECT

Section 1. The name of the organization shall be the Randolph Baptist Association.

Section 2. The purpose of this organization shall be:

- a. The promotion of harmony, fellowship and cooperation among the churches of the Association.
- b. The propagation of the Gospel within the territory of the Association and to the uttermost part of the earth.
- c. The promotion of the missionary, education and benevolent causes of Christ within the Association and in cooperation with the Baptist State Convention of North Carolina and the Southern Baptist Convention.

ARTICLE II — MEMBERSHIP

Section 1. The membership of the Association shall consist of messengers of Baptist churches regularly affiliated with the Association. All churches desiring affiliation with the Association shall present to the Committee on Reception of New Churches proper petitions, accompanied by satisfactory evidences of doctrinal regularity and general acceptability. After one year under the watchcare of the Association the said Committee will report to the Association its recommendation. Upon a favorable vote of two-thirds majority of the messengers present at the annual associational meeting the petitioning church may become regularly affiliated with the Association.

Section 2. (A) Fellowship may be withdrawn by the Association at any annual meeting, upon recommendation of the Executive Committee, from any church in its membership that has been found, by due investigation, to have departed from the Missionary Baptist faith and practices, or has failed to abide by the provision of this Constitution and By-Laws.

(B) Such a church may, upon recommendation of the Executive Committee and vote of the Association, be placed on probation until the conditions prompting such action have been corrected. Messengers from any church on probation shall not be allowed to vote in the meetings of the Association.

Section 3. It shall be the duty of each church to furnish to the Association each year a letter, on the form provided by the Clerk, giving full information and statistics provided for on the form, and to send with the letter or by messenger a contribution toward the cost of printing the minutes and other expenses of the Association.

Section 4. It is understood that each church in this Association is independent and sovereign in its own affairs, and the Association has no authority over the churches, except of an advisory nature.

Section 5. A church may withdraw from membership in the Association by a vote of the church according to its own by-laws, regulations or procedure.

ARTICLE III — MEETINGS

Section 1. The Association shall meet annually on two days during the week following the Third Sunday in October.

Section 2. The annual meeting shall be composed of messengers chosen by the respective churches of the Association from their membership. Each church shall be entitled to three messengers and one additional messenger for each fifty members, or fraction thereof, above one hundred it has enrolled, but not to exceed ten such messengers. All pastors in the Association and the Field Worker are messengers in all the Associational Meetings, each having but one vote.

Section 3. The Association may hold a Mid-Term meeting each spring at such time and place as may be determined by the Association or its Executive Committee. The purpose of the Mid-Term meeting shall be that of information and inspiration without the transaction of business, except that urgent matters of business which cannot well be delayed until a later meeting may be considered and acted upon.

Section 4. Other meetings of the Association may be held when called by the Executive Committee.

ARTICLE IV — OFFICERS

Section 1. The officers of this Association shall be Moderator, Vice-Moderator, Clerk, Treasurer, and three Trustees.

Section 2. These officers shall be elected on the first day of the regular annual session. The prior approval and consent to serve, if elected, shall have been secured from a prospective nominee prior to placing his name in nomination for any one of the several associational elective offices. They shall take office at the close of the Annual Session and serve through the next Annual Session. Any officer may be re-elected with the exception of the Moderator, who shall not serve more than two years in succession.

Section 3. Duties of the Officers:

- a. The Moderator shall preside over all meetings of the Association and discharge such duties as are incumbent on the presiding officer of a deliberative body.
- b. The Vice-Moderator shall perform the duties of the Moderator in the absence of or at the request of the Moderator.
- c. The Clerk shall record and preserve the proceeding of the Association, together with the reports and statistics, and have the same printed and distributed. The Treasurer shall preserve all money paid into the treasury, pay the same to the order of the Association, and make a full and complete report of all receipts and disbursements at the Annual Meeting.
- d. The duties of the Trustees shall be to transfer or hold title to any properties for the Association. All transactions of said Trustees shall be authorized by the Association or its Executive Committee.

Section 4. The Association endorses the continued operation of organizations among the churches of the Association for the promotion of the various phases of their work including the Sunday School, Baptist Training Union, Baptist Brotherhood and Woman's Missionary Union. The officers of the Associational Sunday School, Associational Baptist Training Union, and the Associational Baptist Brotherhood shall be nominated by their Nominating Committee and the Nominating Committee of the Association, and approved and elected by the Executive Committee of the Association, and shall serve from October 1 to September 30. The Woman's Missionary Union shall be recognized as an auxiliary organization of the Association.

ARTICLE V — EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE

Section 1. The Association shall have an Executive Committee comprised of the Moderator, Vice-Moderator, Clerk, Treasurer, Trustees of the Association, Associational Sunday School Director, Associational Church Training Director, Associational Baptist Brotherhood Director, Associational Woman's Missionary Union Director, the Associational Field Worker, all pastors, all church educational directors, and one member of each church in the Association desiring representation on the Committee.

Section 2.

- a. The Executive Committee shall hold meetings once each quarter during the second month of the quarter, the date to be set by the Board itself, and at such other times as may be required at the call of the Moderator, or at the call of not less than five members of the Executive Committee.
- b. Twenty members of the Executive Committee shall be required to be present to constitute a quorum.
- c. To act for and on behalf of the Association between sessions.
- d. To carry out the orders and resolutions of the Association pertaining to it.
- e. To superintend the Associational Mission work, employ a missionary and determine the salary to be paid.
- f. To fill vacancies which may occur during the year in the personnel of the Associational officers or workers for the remainder of such unexpired term.
- g. To investigate any report of complaint that may be brought to its attention about irregularity of doctrine, practice, or conduct on the part of any individual or group in the Association and report its finding with such recommendations as it considers advisable, to the Association in a regular meeting.
- h. To make such recommendations as it may deem wise for the strengthening and upbuilding of the churches and the work of the Association.
- i. The Executive Committee shall not involve the Association in debt to exceed one hundred dollars for necessary operating expenses of the Association.
- j. To appoint and elect the officers for the Associational organizations of the Sunday School, Church Training, and Baptist Brotherhood.

ARTICLE VI — ASSOCIATIONAL COUNCIL

Section 1:

- a. The Associational Council shall be composed of the following Associational officers: Moderator, Vice Moderator, Clerk, Treasurer, Associational Sunday School Director, Associational Church Training Director, Associational Woman's Missionary Union Director, Associational Brotherhood Director, Associational Music Director, Chairman of the Evangelism Committee, Chairman of the Budget Committee, Chairman of the Missions Committee, the Field Worker, and others deemed necessary by the Moderator to carry on the work of the Association.

- b. The Moderator shall serve as Chairman of the Council, the Vice-Moderator as vice chairman, and the clerk as secretary.

Section 2:

- a. The Associational Council shall hold meetings once each quarter and at such other times as deemed necessary by the Chairman or at the call of not less than 5 members of the Council.
- b. Seven members of the Council shall be present to constitute a quorum.
- c. The duties of the Associational Council shall be:
 - (1) To plan the general work of the Association.
 - (2) To assign responsibility of the implementation of proposed plans.
 - (3) To receive and help correlate into a general associational program the proposed plans of the individual organizations.
- d. The Council shall give a quarterly report to the Associational Executive Committee along with any recommendations it may have.

ARTICLE VII — COMMITTEES

Section 1. The Moderator shall appoint a Committee on Committees some weeks before the annual meeting of the Association. This Committee shall prepare its report and shall be given the opportunity to submit its report early on the program of the first day of the annual session. The Committee shall name the following committees to report during the annual session: Committee on Memorials, Committee on Appreciation, and such other committees as may be requested by the Association or Moderator. The Committee on Committees shall also name the following standing committees: Committee on Ordination, Committee on Reception of new churches, Committee on Time, Place and Preacher, Nominating Committee, Committee on Order of Business, Constitution and By-Laws Committee, Budget and Finance Committee, Missions Committee, and such other committees as may be requested by the Association or by the Moderator.

Section 2. Duties of the Committees:

- a. The Committee on Time, Place and Preacher will receive all invitations of the churches which desire the Association to meet with them the next year and will recommend to the Association the time and place to meet the following year, without regard to the order in which the invitations may have been received. This Committee will also recommend a preacher and an alternate for the annual sermon and the doctrinal sermon next session.
- b. The Committee on Memorials will prepare a list of those members of the churches who have died during the year and present suitable memorial resolutions for adoption by the Association.
- c. The Committee on Appreciation will prepare and present appropriate resolutions of appreciation.
- d. The Committee on Order of Business will prepare well in advance a suggested order of business for the annual meeting. The committee will notify those who are to make reports or have part on the program. This suggested order of business will then be presented to the Association at its regular meeting.

- e. The Nominating Committee shall nominate a complete slate of officers for the next year, excepting the Moderator, Vice-Moderator, Clerk and Treasurer.
- f. Guiding Principles for the Work of the Missions Committee of the Randolph Association.
 1. The Committee is to seek to discover areas where new work is needed and to lead in the sponsorship or establishment of new work to meet present need or the securing of property by a local church and/or the Association in the anticipation of future need.
 2. All new work does not necessarily need to be nor should be intended to become an organized or constituted church. New work may be started and maintained on the basis of a mission to meet particular need (this provides for institutional missions such as jails, prisons, rest homes, etc.)
 3. The location of missions or new churches shall be determined by the need revealed in an adequate survey conducted by the Missions Committee and local interested groups or churches.
 4. Any church, committee, group or individuals considering beginning new work, acting with or without church sponsorship, should approach the Missions Committee for guidance before having any service or choosing a temporary or permanent location.
 5. The Missions Committee shall institute basic, understandable operational procedures and practices for a mission that leads in establishing and strongly urges that each church establishing a mission does the same. The guidance of missions by the Missions Committee shall continue until a co-operating church or churches can be led to accept the responsibility of sponsorship.
 6. A mission organized or assisted by the Missions Committee shall accept the recognized principles and practices of a church co-operating with the Randolph Association, the Baptist State Convention and the Southern Baptist Convention.

ARTICLE VIII — ORDINATION AND CALLING OF PASTORS

Section 1. Inasmuch as the ordination of a man to the gospel ministry by any church in this Association is expected to be recognized by the denomination as a whole, the churches are counseled to be extremely careful in the matter of setting men apart for this sacred calling, ordaining only those who, by irreproachable character, piety of life, doctrinal soundness and suitable talents, give promise of honoring the name of Christ and of rendering acceptable service in the missionary Baptist ministry.

Section 2. To aid the churches in this vital matter, the Association will appoint each year a committee of five of the pastors to be called the Committee on Ordination. Any church desiring to ordain a brother to the ministry may request the said Committee to act as a presbytery for the purpose of examining the brother as to his fitness for the Baptist ministry, and, if he is found qualified, to assist in the ordination.

Section 3. The churches are urged also to exercise the utmost care and wisdom, earnestly seeking the guidance of the Holy Spirit, in calling of their pastors, choosing only men who give evidence by their Christian character, cooperative spirit and leadership ability, that they will serve the best interests of the churches, the denomination, and the cause of Christ.

ARTICLE IX — NEW CHURCHES

Baptist churches may be organized and established in localities within the territory of this Association when such new churches are seen to be needed. Those interested in organizing a new church may seek the Counsel of the Executive Committee and the Missions Committee of the Association.

ARTICLE X — RULES AND ORDER OF DECORUM

This Association shall be governed in its meetings by such rules and by-laws as may be adopted, amended, or set aside by a majority vote of the messengers present. Robert's Rules of Order will be the guide in all parliamentary matters.

ARTICLE XI — ADOPTION

The Constitution and By-Laws shall take effect immediately upon its adoption by a two-thirds majority vote of the messengers present and shall supersede any and all constitutions, by-laws, and amendments previously adopted.

ARTICLE XII — AMENDMENTS

This Constitution and By-Laws may be amended at any regular annual meeting by a two-thirds majority vote of the messengers present, provided the proposed amendment shall have been presented in written form on the first day of the Annual Meeting. The vote on any proposed amendment so presented may be deferred until the second day if requested by a majority vote of the messengers present.

PROCEEDINGS

Wednesday Morning Session

The 38th Annual Session of the Randolph Baptist Association was convened on Wednesday Morning, October 18, 1972 at the First Baptist Church of Randleman.

- 1 Rev. R. L. Hughes, Moderator, called the session to order at 9:30 A. M.
- 2 Hymn No. 308 — "We're Marching to Zion" led by Ron Jackson, Minister of Music at Asheboro First, with Mrs. Ralph Humble at the organ.
- 3 Rev. B. G. Pratt, pastor of host church, welcomed the messengers, read from Matthew, 5th chapter and gave the opening prayer.
- 4 Roll call of the messengers by the clerk. The motion was made, seconded, and approved that those registered and those that registered later constituted the 38th Annual Session.
- 5 The Order of Business was presented by Rev. Francis Lunsford and seconded by Andy Grose. Approved as presented.
- 6 The following new pastors to the Association were introduced by R. T. Smith: Ollie Prim, Antioch; B. C. Owenby, Armfield Heights; Gilbert

Ward, Cool Springs; F. E. Baucom, Gravel Hill; Norman Livengood, Macedonia; Jimmy Edwards, Mt. Lebanon; J. Williard Singletary, Russell's Grove.

7 The Executive Committee report was presented at this time by the clerk.

Executive Committee Report

The Central Revival for the Association for the year 1974 claimed some of our attention at each Executive meeting. A number of outstanding speakers were suggested and they were contacted by the committee as to their availability. Rev. Jack Stanton, of the Home Mission Board, agreed to come and be with us.

The Committee approved a request from the Pastor's Conference in the amount of $125.00 for honorariums for their speakers this past year.

A Central WIN School for the association will be held October 8-11, 1973.

The Place and Preacher Committee has recommended a night session for our Annual Meeting in 1973. This you will hear more about.

Respectfully submitted,

Fred Lane, Clerk

8. Rev. M. A. Pegram presented the report on Committee on Committees. This report will be found in the directory portion of the minutes.

9. Brother William A. Gillett presented the Treasurer's report.

11. Hymn No. 269 — "Blessed Assurance, Jesus is Mine" led by Ron Jackson and Mrs. Humble at the organ.

12. Special music by Asheboro High School Ensemble and directed by Mr. David Traynham.

13. Rev. Troy Jones brought the annual sermon at this time. Scripture and prayer by J. W. Singletary, Alternate.

14. Mrs. B. G. Pratt, W. M. U. President, presented the W. M. U. report at this time.

W.M.U. Report

It is the purpose of our Associational W.M.U. to provide inspiration, Christian fellowship, and leadership training for the W.M.U. leaders in the local churches of our association. In addition we work to promote and undergird our associational youth mission organizations. Throughout the past year we have attempted, in a variety of ways, to achieve these purposes.

The following ladies served as Associational W.M.U. officers from April 1971 until April 1972:

W.M.U. Director	-----	Mrs. B. G. Pratt
Assistant W.M.U. Director	-----	Mrs. Calvin Brower
Secretary & Treasurer	-----	Mrs. Harold Cross
Baptist Women Director	-----	Mrs. T. G. Meachum
Baptist Young Women Director	-----	Mrs. James Fisher
Acteens Director	-----	Mrs. Gladys Canter
Girls in Action Director	-----	Mrs. Jill Scarborough
Mission Friends Director	-----	Mrs. Fred Carlton
Pianist	-----	Mrs. Lloyd Brown

These officers met quarterly during the year for planning.

In May, under the leadership of our Associational G.A. Director, the Girls-in-Action had a mini-retreat at Camp Mundo Vista with approximately 80 girls attending.

Our associational-wide Brotherhood and W.M.U. meetings were held in July and October. The July meeting held at First Baptist Church, Ramseur, highlighted some of our home mission work done in Vermont, our last state to have a Southern Baptist church. The Youth Choir of First Baptist, Asheboro, sang and shared with us some of their joys as they worked and witnessed in Vermont for a week. In the October meeting, held at First Baptist Church, Randleman, we had a guest speaker, Miss Kathryn Bullard, State W.M.U. Director, to share what mission action is and how we can become involved in mission action. Also, at this meeting we had displays of materials available from the Home Mission Board, and each age level mission organization of the W.M.U. Films to be used during the fall foreign mission study were available to preview and churches could select dates to use these films.

Four of our associational W.M.U. leaders attended a two day workshop in August at Camp Mundo Vista to prepare themselves for leadership training.

Approximately forty ladies attended the W.M.U. leadership training held in First Baptist Church, Asheboro, early in November.

In September, the Associational G.A. Director held a workshop at First Baptist Church, Asheboro, for G.A.'s and their leaders to help encourage and promote interest in the girl's work on their advancement in Adventures.

During the year it was stressed that the entire church participate in the Lottie Moon Christmas Offering for Foreign Missions and the Annie Armstrong Easter Offering for Home Missions. It was also encouraged that the home and foreign mission studies be held on all age levels for everyone in the church family.

One of the highlights of the year for me was to help organize a Baptist Womens organization at Maple Springs Baptist Church. They hope to organize youth missions organizations during the next church year.

Our Annual W.M.U. and Brotherhood meeting was held at Glenola Baptist Church on April 24. After a devotion by the director and business, Mrs. Sammy James, a foreign missionary from Vietnam, spoke on our mission work in that war torn country.

We look forward to this coming year, seeking to fulfill our purpose of providing inspiration, Christian fellowship, and leadership training for all the women in the Randolph Association.

Mrs. B. G. Pratt

15. The State Mission Report was presented by the Rev. F. A. Lunsford.

State Missions Report

The churches are on mission to people under the Lordship of Christ — Matthew 28: 19-20; Acts 1:8. Churches in a cooperative plan express their mission beyond the local congregation. State Missions is interrelated by planning and financing with associations, the State Convention, Home and Foreign Mission Boards. There is a ministry of State Missions expressed within the local church in Evangelism, Church Programs, and Stewardship Promotion. State Missions is Christian Social Service expressed through institutions. State Missions is churches expressing a positive interest in Christian Education.

State Missions is a multiplicity of special ministries too big for any one local church. These ministries to areas of need may be altogether supported by State Missions budgeting, or a cooperative budgeting arrangement of the local church, the association, the State Convention, and the Home Mission Board. Such specialized ministries include work at Cherokee and Pembroke, promotion and coordination of World Mission Conferences, support of part-time Chaplaincies in several correctional institutions, assistance in witnessing to and enlisting for service Orientals and Spanish speaking peoples. A specialized ministry to the deaf includes evangelizing, teaching and counselling the deaf.

Also included is a cooperative plan for Seminary extension and a rapidly growing Resort Ministry. Fruitland Baptist Institute is an area of State Missions. Our cities need Baptist Centers and other expressions of Christian social and evangelistic concern. State Missions promotes and supports a vigorous ministry in the inner city. State Missions continues a specialized ministry with other races.

State Missions serves the pastor and local church. New churches are encouraged by loans and grants of lot aid. Needy churches are given financial aid until they can become self-supporting. Pastors are directly helped through Annuity supplements.

State Missions is a cooperative ministry by the churches to people who need God and other churches that need help.

Respectfully submitted,
Francis A. Lunsford

16. The Rev. Andy Grose gave his report on Home Missions at this time.

Home Missions Report

IF YOU REALLY CARE — SHARE

God's plan gives us the privilege of sharing His Good News to people. This is possible because God cared and shared His Son. Christ cared and shared His whole life. Care and sharing brought the message of salvation to us.

We have the mission message: God's Word, the seed of eternal life sown in the heart will provide life eternal and nourishment for Christian growth.

We have a mission heritage that gives an open door to publish glad tidings, establish churches, minister and witness to people.

We have a church and churches through which we can cooperate with people in sharing the gospel. Mission and evangelism plans are available to aid people in churches to witness to people.

Churches with a total mission program have church community ministries that offer every church member a way to personally share the gospel. Some churches have over twenty ministries such as home fellowship Bible study, alcoholic rehabilitation, mission center, juvenile detention home, drug abuse programs, children's home, hospital ministry, inner city mission, international students, interfaith witness, literacy missions, low-income housing provision, ministry to deaf, recreation for mission children, senior citizens, servicemen, sewing, language groups, day care, youth development center, youth choirs visiting mission areas.

We have missionaries who through our prayers and support put us in many places and in service to many people.

We have hundreds of volunteers in missions, men, women, and young people who assist missionaries in many ways to lead people to Christ and into His service.

We have the Cooperative Program. Daily the miracles of cooperation are performed. Each week through our church, we put God's money with others for support of the Southern Baptist work. Special mission offerings each year give us a way to share the gospel with people in many places.

We have a mission field where we are. There is in the heart of every Christian unoccupied mission space. There is a mission field in the heart of every unsaved person.

We have a country which gives us the freedom to share the gospel.

You, too, can share the Good News through personal involvement in Home Missions. You can have a personal part in all your home mission work by praying for your home missionaries and staff, taking part in your church's mission program, and giving through the Co-operative Program and special mission offerings.

Listed below are mission opportunities that you can participate in that will aid in communicating the gospel in our land. Information on these mission privileges is available free on request from the Home Mission Board, 1350 Spring Street, N.W., Atlanta, Georgia 30309.

1. Mission communication — Home mission information will be sent to you that you may use in learning more about home missions and to get others informed about their mission opportunities.
2. Starting missions — This would be in cooperation with your church's plans of beginning new work.
3. Christian Service Corps — For those who can give some time in assisting missionaries and who can pay their expenses to the place of service.
4. Resort and beach missions — These are some of the newer ministries.
5. US-2 — College graduates who are willing to serve for two years on a mission field.
6. Student summer missionaries — students who can serve ten weeks each summer in assisting missionaries.
7. Youth choirs on mission tours.
8. Home missionary.

You can help to share the Good News through personal involvement in Home Missions through the Annie Armstrong Easter Offering. Let me express thanks to the churches of our association for the fine way that you have supported this offering for Home Missionaries.

Let us pray that God will use many people over America to reach our Homeland for Christ.

Respectfully submitted,
Andrew P. Grose

17. The report on Foreign Missions was presented by J. B. Gibson.

Foreign Mission Report

Southern Baptists are represented overseas by 2,526 missionaries assigned to serve in 75 countries and territories. To facilitate the work of these missionaries the Foreign Mission Board has divided the world into six administrative areas, each with an area secretary.

In addition to the six area secretaries, four consultants help to strengthen missionaries and their work. These are a medical consultant, consultant in Evangelism and church development, consultant on laymen overseas, and missionary family consultant.

The functions of area secretaries and consultants, and the program of orientation for new missionaries, are brought together in the Overseas Division with a division director. This division has responsibility for the planning, coordination, and strengthening of the Foreign Mission Board's programs of work around the world.

The Board has two other divisions in supportive roles. The Mission Support Division relates primarily to the Southern Board constituency to elicit support for world missions through the understanding, the prayers, the volunteers for missionary service, and the increased mission giving that will make continuing mission advance possible. The Management Services Division is responsible for operations in the Foreign Mission Board offices.

World conditions forming the background of missionary efforts were especially significant in 1971. Some interpretees see the events of the year as signifying the end of the post World War II era, with the shape of the new era not yet apparent. The new United States policy toward Communist China and the replacement of the Nationalist government of China in the United Nations by the Communist government constitute the main factor in a world power realignment. Acceptance of Great Britain into the common market helps to build Western Europe into another significant power center.

Developments in Pakistan and the brief war between India and Pakistan have broad international implications. Apparently, Bangladesh has become a new nation (though the Pakistan government has continued hoping for a loosely federated but still united East and West Pakistan). The increased power and influence of the Soviet Union in South Asia is a major by-product of the Pakistan crisis.

The Vietnam war continues, but with less United States involvement and with improved internal security in Vietnam. Thus far, however, there is no sign of a real solution to the problems of Indochina. Other nations in Southeast Asia have proposed that the entire region be considered a neutral zone, free from big-power interference.

Other 1971 developments, though less significant in the total world picture, have been important in relations to mission work. These developments include agreement for the reversion of Okinawa to Japan, limitations on visas for Malaysia, threat between the Arab states and Israel in the Middle East, tentative agreement to regularize the status of Rhodesia, growing leftist influence in Tanzania, and continuing political uncertainties in Chile.

No new countries were added to the list of Foreign Mission Board fields in 1971. The rate of entry to new countries is likely to slow down in the seventies, with increasing emphasis on the consolidating and strengthening of work already begun. The attempt to place missionaries in Egypt in 1971 did not succeed; the couple assigned there entered and remained only briefly before having to leave and be reassigned elsewhere. Therefore, for the present at least, Egypt has been removed from the list of countries served and the Board has missionaries assigned to 75 fields.

In 1971, missionaries who had been assigned to Laos, Surinam, and Upper Volta actually arrived on those fields to begin work. Also, missionaries assigned to Mozambique took up residence in Johannesburg (South Africa) for periodic trips to Mozambique while awaiting clearance for residence there.

There was encouragement by the end of 1971 for the locating of a missionary couple in Barbados for general evangelist work.

Both missionary appointments and net gain in missionary staff were up from the preceding year. The 226 reinforcements for missionary journeymen, and two special project medical workers.

The Foreign Mission Board's programs of work around the world are described in functional terms as evangelism and church development, schools and student work, publication work, hospitals and medical care, and benevolent ministries. However both the Board and the Missions (organizations of missionaries) on the fields project their work in terms of a unified approach for each field, with the central objective of establishing in each country many strong indigenous churches and a strong Baptist denomination, and with the relative emphasis given to various types of work dependent on local circumstances.

20. Speaking to the reports on Missions was the Rev. Samuel M. James, Missionary to Vietnam. Rev. James asked that everyone join in sending missionaries to the foreign fields. Over twenty five hundred are out there because of Baptist, for which he is thankful. Mission is looking at people where ever they may be. Foreign Missions is a very important part of God's mission to save the world.

28. Sunday School report was presented by Rev. Troy E. Jones.

Sunday School Report

It is with heartfelt gratitude that we made this annual report to the Association.

The Sunday School is recognized as the most vital agency for winning people to Christ and church membership. In view of this fact it is necessary for the churches to strengthen in every way possible the efficiency of the Sunday School. We must enlist, teach, win and train the people. In Deuteronomy 31:12-13 we have these challenging words: "Gather the people together, men, women, and children, and thy stranger that is within thy gates, that they may hear, and that they may learn, and fear the Lord your God, and observe to do all the words of this law; and that their children, which have not known any thing, may hear, and learn to fear the Lord your God, as long as ye live in the land."

The teaching of God's Word to a needy world as recorded in the Bible is our continuing task. This teaching is done with the hope that persons may, under the leadership of the Holy Spirit, be led to respond to God with maturing faith, love and obedience. The basic approach of the Bible Teaching Program in Sunday School consists of ongoing, age-graded Bible classes and departments meeting on Sunday morning or in some mission situation.

The Bible Teaching Program of the Church includes more than that which takes place on Sunday morning. Extension activities are those activities which take place other than Sunday morning. These activities are: Vacation Bible School, Fellowship Bible Classes, Bible Conferences, Week-Day Bible Study, Bible Study Courses, and New Sunday Schools. At the general officers level there is a person called Extension Activities Director who is responsible for directing these studies.

There must be an increase in scope and effort in response to the challenge to teach all men God's Word. The Bible Teaching Program of the church has four significant tasks to be performed: 1. Teach the Biblical Revelation, 2. Reach persons for Christ and church membership, 3. Perform the functions of the church within its membership, and 4. Provide and interpret information concerning the work of the church and denomination.

Three successful Associational Sunday School meetings were held during the year: The Sunday School Launching Night in September, The Vacation Bible School Clinic in March, and the Teacher Improvement Workshop in June.

Respectfully submitted,
Troy E. Jones

29. The Church Training Report was presented at this time by the Director, Rev. Justus McKeel.

Church Training Report

The Church Training Program in our association remained at about the same level of activity as the year before. Twenty churches reported active programs that meet on Sunday night. It is hoped that more of the churches will see the value of having a program of training for members that is done on a regular basis.

Church Training now includes three areas of ministry in the local church: Church Member Training, Church Leadership Training, and New Member Orientation. A church having either of these programs is said to be involved in church training. The Bible admonishes the church to train members for full service to their Lord in the world in which they live. The church of today must meet this challenge if it survives.

There are several associational meetings held during the year. The associational "M" night was held at the First Church, Asheboro in November. This new date moves "M" night from the first week in December because it conflicted with the Week of Prayer for Foreign Missions. The 1972 "M" night will be held November 27 at First Church, Ramseur with one of the associates in the Church Training Department being the featured speaker.

The second associational program was held May 21 at 2:30 p.m. in First Church, Ramseur. This was the Scripture Exploring Drill for children ages 9-11. Several churches participated in this drill that replaces the former Junior Memory work tournaments. The children who won in this drill went on to the state drills this summer at Caswell and Fruitland.

A third meeting would have been the Youth Night in August at Camp Caraway. Because of the tremendous night of youth evangelism planned in the same month for the Greensboro Coliseum, the local program was not held. Instead, churches and leaders were asked to take their youth to the Greensboro meeting. Plans are being made for the youth night this year to again to be held in August at Caraway.

One of the significant changes in the associational program this year was the departure of our Director, Rev. Raleigh Castelloe. Raleigh has done a splendid job of planning the programs for several years and his contribution is greatly appreciated. The new Director is Rev. Justus McKeel, who was elected by the Executive Committee to fill the vacancy. It is the hope of your Church Training leaders that this will be our best year in the effective programs planned by the local churches to prepare church members for service to Christ.

Respectfully submitted,
Justus McKeel

30. Brother Stephen Weldon gave the Cooperative Program Report at this time.

Cooperative Program Report

In May, 1973, we Southern Baptists will observe the forty-eighth anniversary of our primary mission support plan, the Cooperative Program. The Cooperative Program is the mainline channel through which we financially support Southern Baptist education, missions, and benevolent causes both in the United States and throughout the entire world.

The Cooperative Program is a part of your tithes and offerings given through our local church. Thus, your dedicated life with a part of your day-to-day labor goes toward witnessing of the saving grace of Jesus Christ to a lost world.

The Cooperative Program is sharing your love of God through 6,000 state, home and foreign missionaries. Last year they were instrumental in bringing more than 66,000 people to Christ who in turn followed Him to the waters of baptism.

The Cooperative Program is busy training capable leaders by helping students with scholarships in more than 800 Baptist schools with more than 100,000 pupils around the world.

The Cooperative Program is ministering to the needs of the sick through 21 Baptist hospitals and 105 clinics in many nations. You helped more than 1,000,000 patients last year who could not pay the cost of their care. The Cooperative Program aids in bringing shelter, food, clothing and other necessities of life to 8,000 homeless children plus more than 2,000 elderly people through Children's Homes and Homes for the Aging throughout the world.

Last year 1,020 Baptist churches in North Carolina increased Cooperative Program by giving 10 percent or more over what they contributed the previous year. Did the church where you serve increase this much?

Will you do two things?

1. Will you lead the church where you serve to make a worthy increase in Cooperative Program giving?
2. Will you pray for your missionaries and other Cooperative Program causes each day?

Respectfully submitted,
Stephen Welborn

31. The Baptist Brotherhood Report was given by Carl Zeigler.

Brotherhood Report

Brotherhood is the unit in a Baptist Church that involves men in mission action designed to witness and minister to persons of special need, to support world missions through prayer and giving, and to provide leadership for special projects.

For churches who do not have a Brotherhood or who are in the beginning stages of development the Brotherhood Commission provides materials and the State Brotherhood Department helps to train the leadership in the association and the churches.

The Brotherhood in the past has provided leadership for Royal Ambassadors work especially with reference to Camp Caraway and each church should attempt to involve its boys in the experiences of Camp Caraway.

While denominational activities proposed the Brotherhood Commission and the State Brotherhood Department will provide a nucleus for special projects for Baptist Men each Baptist Men's group should also involve itself in the affairs of the community and lend its resources to the number of worthwhile projects that exist at the community level.

Respectfully submitted,
Carl L. Zeigler

32. Speaking to these reports was Brother J. Edwin Bullock, Secretary of Department of Brotherhood of State Convention.

33. Harold Davis presented the Report of Christian Education.

Christian Education Report

The contribution of our colleges to strong lay leadership in all walks of life can be seen in the following questions from the Baptist Education Study Task:

1. Christian higher education is a vital aspect of the christian witness which has been generally accepted by Southern Baptists. This conviction is reflected in the following statement: 'The cause of education in the Kingdom of Christ is coordinate with the causes of missions and general benevolence and should receive along with these the liberal support of the churches. An adequate system of Christian schools is necessary to a complete spiritual program for Christ's people.'
2. The privately supported higher institutions of learning enjoy certain freedom in their search for and interpretation of truth that are not universally enjoyed by public colleges and universities. It is vital to continue this freedom from undue pressures either from church or state or other groups.
3. . . . Christian education differs little from any other type of higher education except in terms of its commitment.
4. . . . Christian education is not an optional interest of the church, but an important function of its mission.

Because no effective substitute has been found for the genuinely Christian College, Baptists must continue to nurture and support adequately their Christian institutions of higher learning."

Just for the records, our seven colleges showed a total enrollment of 13,706 as of September 22, 1971, or an increase of 890 over the previous year.

Hopefully, many churches will take advantage of the services of the Baptist Youth Corps. Through this program churches may apply for a trained young person from one of the colleges to serve under the pastor's direction during the summer months.

The Randolph Association member churches may be in the best locale for these services since we are in the center of the state.

Certainly some students may be interested in visiting our churches from our colleges during the school year since we are a few hours drive from five of the seven institutions. Perhaps this can keep us abreast of this exciting generation.

Respectfully submitted,
Harold Davis

Literature Report For 1972

The literature report from the Sunday School Board indicates that the year 1970-71 was a significant year of beginning and change in the area of curriculum and methodology for Southern Baptists. The new programs and materials provided for the 70's have been enthusiastically received with a few exceptions. Preliminary feedback indicated that some literature publications needed to be dropped, some combined, and some needed to be added. Many of these actions have already been taken in response to the expressed needs and wants of our Baptist Constituency.

The new materials were offered in seven series: (1) Convention Uniform, (2) Life and Work, (3) Forefront, (4) Foundation, (5) Support, (6) Campus Ministries, and (7) Program Helps. Each series has its own distinctive characteristics which serves as an aid to the churches in selecting the literature which will best meet their needs and wants.

The basic study materials are in periodical form which means the contents are new each month and quarter. This provides a greater degree of freshness, vitality, and currency. There is also a wide variety of special study and supplementary materials in semi-permanent form which gives churches additional choices and flexibility in their own curriculum development and offerings.

The Church Training Department, in consultant with the Division of Evangelism, and the Home Mission Board, assumed editorial and production responsibility for the WIN (Witness Involvement Now) materials. The WIN materials have been extremely well received as about 2,500,000 copies have been distributed during this year.

However, a general downward trend in literature circulation continues. There was a decrease of about 2 per cent in total publications this year.

Fortunately, there is good news concerning our State Baptist papers which have reached an all-time high of 1,650,807. Our Biblical Recorder is now nearing the 100,000 mark. We would like to urge every Baptist family to keep the Biblical Recorder coming into your home, because it is one of our finest state papers and an excellent news media concerning our Baptist work.

Respectfully submitted,
H. C. Neathery

47. The Annuity Report was given by Carl King.

Annuity Report

Darold H. Morgan took office as president of the Annuity Board of the Southern Baptist Convention on March 1, 1972. R. Alton Reed, whom he succeeded, had been chief executive officer of the Board for 19 years.

The change in executive leadership occurred with the Board having record funds held in trust of more than $292 million, as of December 31, 1971. These funds are held in trust for 36,000 retirement plan participants now active in churches and denominational agencies.

Moreover, the Board paid out 25 per cent more in benefits to 7,500 annuitants last year than their contracts required. Called "13th Checks," these extra benefits were paid twice in the year — 8 1/3 per cent in February and another 16 2/3 per cent in December.

The same good yield on investments that permitted extra benefits to annuitants also gave Good Experience Credits (credits for good experience in investing) to active members of the various plans, adding value to their retirement fund being built up.

The extra benefits paid through "13th Checks" totaled $1,339,732. The Board, in its 54 years of existence, had paid out benefits that total $92.1 million, including over $10 million during 1971.

During the administration of R. Alton Reed, the Annuity Board eliminated its "unfunded liability" — which meant that potential claims for benefits exceeded assets. The Board is now in a position not only to fully meet every outstanding contract with members, but to grant Good Experience Credit as well.

The Annuity Board offers a protection plan for disability, death, and retirement to cover every pastor, church staff member, and denominational agency employee. Many churches help by paying in full the dues for their pastor and staff.

Retirement contributions may be made on the full salaries of pastors and other personnel by taking advantage of Plans B and C as well as Plan A. Information on the Annuity Board may be secured by writing its development office, 511 North Akard Building, Dallas, Texas 75201, or by contacting the Annuity Board representative of your Baptist state convention, Sam H. O'Neil, P.O. Box 26508, Raleigh, N. C. 27611.

48. Evangelism Report was presented by Rev. M. A. Pegram.

Evangelist Report

We should be extremely thankful to God for blessing us in our work of Evangelism across the state during this year. Six thousand youths and adults in 425 churches have participated in Lay Evangelism Schools or Pastor's Retreats and forty-two associations have confirmed dates for schools. The 26th Statewide Evangelism Conference was held in February in Fayetteville with over 2,400 pastors and lay people in attendance. A Statewide Communications, Evangelism, and Administration Conference was held in Greensboro in May. The purpose of this workshop was to help pastors and others communicate the Gospel of Christ more effectively. In June a week of Youth Ministries, including Evangelism, was held at the Assembly at Southport with over 600 in attendance. On Friday evening of the week 113 youths made different kinds of public decisions. Over 14,000 attended Youth Evangelism Night at the Greensboro Coliseum on August 18th.

The 27th Statewide Evangelism Conference is scheduled for February 5-7, 1973, at Ovens Auditorium, Charlotte.

Our Association held a Conference on Evangelism in May at Liberty with J. H. Waugh, Jr. and Jimmy Hinson, as our speakers. A Lay School of Evangelism is to be held in our Association in 1973 during the days of October 8-11. Plans are in the making for a Central Revival in our Association in 1974.

It is our hope that we shall have an increase in baptisms next year and we encourage all to pray that this may happen.

49. Rev. John Jackson presented the Baptist Hospital Report.

Baptist Hospital Report

The distinctiveness of Baptist Hospital's ministry lies not alone in its care for charity patients, but also in the type of service it renders to all its patients and to many other people throughout our state and nation and around the world. Baptist Hospital and Bowman Gray School of Medicine are combined and make up one of the world's largest Medical Centers. This is to say, the relationship of the Baptist State Convention to the Baptist Hospital has undergone a major change. This will be a '72 Convention issue.

Much is said on this relationship in the Jul 8, 1972 Biblical Recorder.

We should all prayerfully read and consider these articles, namely:

Trying to Tell It Like It is — page 3

Chairman of Committee of 15 Gives Progress Report to GB — page 7

Government Interest in Social Services Encouraging, but — page 8

It is obvious, the problem is 'Church and State', or 'Church' or 'State'. We, the people are the Church; and we, the people are the State. Hospital ministry, care of the sick, the deeply troubled, the aged and needy, are definite missions, outreach, of the church. However, if we fail, as the Church to do this, the State will do it for us; but we will pay the cost through taxes. We are responsible and we will have to consider all the facts in making decisions. In the face of today's situation, many would be hopeless and helpless without Medicaid, Medicare, Aid to the Aged and Needy, etc., through Social Services, provided by State and Federal Government. I am not qualified to offer or present a solution But it is our problem, and together, as Church and State, or separately, as Church or State, we must solve the problem and pay the cost.

I have tremendous faith in Baptist Hospital, and am proud to have a part in it. Baptist Hospital does continue to serve patients who cannot pay for their hospital care. In 1971, charitable allowances amounting to $1,370,000 were issued to patients unable to pay in full. Every dollar of the $371,000 Mother's Day Offering helped to make this charity work possible.

The Baptist Hospital takes pride in its record of charitable work, but would like our Baptist people to understand that there are other aspects of its work also which justify its existence as an institution of our Convention and make it worthy of the support of our churches.

The goal of Baptist Hospital is to be "A Medical Center ministering with skill and understanding." May God help our understanding. One has written:

"When man begins to understand he will learn to love,

And when his love is understood the world will have peace."

Respectfully submitted,
John L. Jackson

50. Baptist Homes for Aging Report was presented by Rev. Jimmie Edwards.

Homes For The Aging Report

In our Baptist Homes for the Aging, we feel that there is no relationship more important and more blessed than the one that we have with our Baptist people in our Baptist Associations throughout the State. It is a special joy to visit personally the Associations and to have fellowship with the good people who mean so much to us in our ministry and to express to them our special thanksgiving. It is with a deep sense of gratitude to the Lord and to you that we bring this report on our Baptist Homes for 1972.

This has been the best year that we have ever had in our twenty-one years. The Special Offering for the Homes and support through the Cooperative Program reflect an encouraging increase. Through these two vital sources, the Homes during the past year derived almost 30% of the total operating budget in the care of the residents and patients, with 20% coming from the offering and 10% through the Cooperative Program. The most significant fact about this support from our Baptist people is that the majority of the residents in the Homes are persons with real financial needs, and these love gifts are used for their care. In fact, these gifts are a lifeline to the residents, and they could not be maintained without them. The greatest challenge to our Baptist people is to continue to increase the Special Offering from year to year, and thus keep pace with the needs of the residents who depend so greatly on it.

Our Baptist Homes now operate five resident Homes with two located in Winston-Salem, and one each in Albemarle, Hamilton and Yanceyville. These Homes have a capacity for 162 residents. In addition, there is a Nursing Care Unit, located in Winston Salem, with a capacity for 63 patients. In these Homes we specialize in tender loving care and do not know of any place this side of Heaven, and outside of one's home, where a person can receive more compassionate Christian care.

Of great significance during the past year, in May, was the dedication of the York Wing of the Nursing Care Unit. This wing, accommodating 18 additional patients was completed in November of 1971 and named in honor of Jude and Mrs. William York, of Greensboro. He and Mrs. York gave $80,000 for the construction of this new Wing, and the additional money needed was raised by the Trustees of the Homes. With this new addition, the Baptist Homes have been able to receive some few persons, on a limited basis only, directly as patients. The majority of the beds in the Nursing Care Unit are used for the residents of the five Homes, when nursing care becomes necessary. We are glad that the base of our operation has been broadened to include a ministry to the aging sick person, and we can only hope that we will move forward and be able to receive more patients in the years ahead.

Ministry to an older person is a direct ministry to Christ and is one of the finest things that North Carolina Baptists are doing. Be glad that you are a Baptist, and be grateful for the part that you are having in making the life of an aging person more abundant and more secure.

Respectfully submitted,
Jimmie Edwards

Baptist Children's Homes Report

For the past eighty-seven years, North Carolina Baptists and their Children's Homes have cooperated in a program of Christian child care. This relationship has been characterized, on the part of the agency, by a sensitivity to real needs and a commitment to the best in child care. On the part of North Carolina Baptists, there has been a lasting commitment to child care expressed in generous and enthusiastic support of the agency's ministry.

This annual report find the agency vigorously pursuing its basis purposes. Changing patterns of family life and the involvement of government in social ministries profoundly affect the number of children needing our care and the types of care needed. More and more we are being asked to serve children with special needs beyond neglect and dependency: emotional alienation from family; trouble with the court; borderline retardation; emotional disturbance which requires professional treatment. The urgency of the present and the challenge of the future to find effective patterns of care for these children.

The Baptist Children's Homes will not be content to provide minimal care only. We are committed to quality care which serves the whole person, providing the experiences and relationships which can enable the child to develop his full potential. Quality care costs. It makes heavy demands on the individual staff member in his involvement with the child. It requires more staff members for the number of children served. It necessitates the purchase of supplementary professional services, such as medical and psychological specialists. But the cost is really an investment in the future of the children served, and we believe it is the best investment of life and money we can make.

The Children's Homes continues to expand and improve its services to children and their families. Two new cottages are under construction at Broyhill Home. The Ten Star Builders Program is enlisting the support of Eastern North Carolina for a Christian child care in that section of the state. Mills Home is engaged in a year-long study to determine how we can best serve the children in the Piedmont Area. Across the state, renewed effort is being given to the enlistment of foster families. Expanded services to families are being initiated.

We believe this ministry of child care deserves the confidence and support of North Carolina Baptists. Our Baptist friends have demonstrated through their interest and support that they believe in what we are doing. The Cooperative Program continues to be the life-blood of our financial support. The 1971 Thanksgiving Offering channeled $400,000 into our ministry of child care. Special gifts and bequests from individuals continue to provide for capital improvements. We deeply appreciate this generous support, and we pledge ourselves to continue this ministry of child care in the name of Christ and on behalf of North Carolina Baptists.

That we in Randolph Association continue to pray for our workers in our Children's Homes across North Carolina and give at least a day's wage from our home for Thanksgiving Offering.

Respectfully submitted,

T. W. Nelson

53. Report from Shubal Stearnes Memorial Committee.

Report Of Shubal Stearnes Memorial Committee

Beginning with the origin of the Sandy Creek Baptist Association in 1758 and continuing for twelve years, all the Separate Baptist in Virginia, North Carolina and South Carolina maintained their relationship with this association. Even the older church at Charleston, S. C. sent delegates. As a result of this relationship, the Charleston Baptist either organized or reorganized an association which gave new impetus to their growth.

The Reverend Shubal Stearnes led these people to know the God about whom Jesus and his disciples taught. As these people reached for God and brought God to others, little churches both with and without preachers began to spring up throughout the countryside. In many localities there were only a few Bibles, and some churches accepted people who had not repented. The Reverend Shubal Stearnes led these people to know a God who gave courage and sustenance. In return the people dedicated their lives to God's service in times of hardship and blessings. This was a great and wonderful experience.

It was about twelve years later when these early settlers fled the colony that they were finally free to build a church and to worship in the manner that they knew in their hearts to be right. At last they were free from the sheriff or other law enforcement officers who came to collect dues to pay to churches who had other beliefs. Although Shubal Stearnes did not live to witness this new found freedom, this had been the desire of his heart for many years.

54. Words of Appreciation by Mrs. Calvin Brower.

Committee On Appreciation

Each of us are aware that these two days of meeting did not just happen, but are a direct result of much time spent in prayer, thought, and just plain hard work.

We would like to thank each officer and committee that has worked to make this a most successful 38th session of the Randolph Association.

We want to take this opportunity just to praise God for our Supt. of Missions, our brother in Christ, Rev. R. T. Smith, for his leadership and inspiration.

To our hosts churches, First Baptist of Randleman, and Shady Grove, we say thank you for the fine food and cordial hospitality.

We are thankful to God that through inspiring word and song, we have become challenged and made aware afresh that God uses imperfect individuals like you and me to channel his love to others.

Respectfully submitted,
Mrs. R. C. Caudle
