SUMMER SCHOOL 1984

W. Randall Lolley, President
Morris Ashcraft, Dean and Director

Accreditation

Southeastern Baptist Theological Seminary is accredited by the Association of Theological Schools in the United States and Canada and by the Southern Association of Colleges and Schools.

Curriculum

The curriculum consists of courses for students continuing in the A.Div., M.Div./M.R.E. program, or entering candidates for those degrees. Th.M. or D.Min. students may take advanced electives. Applications for admission to summer school are welcomed from alumni or others who want to pursue post-M.Div. studies.

The maximum course load permitted is four semester hours, B 1040s, H 2324s and M 4231s excepted. Students who elect language study may take only that course.

Classes meet four days a week, Tuesday through Friday, unless otherwise noted.

The seminary reserves the right to limit the size of classes in order to maintain a reasonable student-teacher ratio or to cancel a course if enrollment is not sufficient.

In addition to courses offered on campus, students may earn up to eight semester hours credit for the completion during the summer of a basic unit of clinical pastoral education at an accredited training center as provided in the Catalog, 1983-84, p. 84. In order for credit to be received, the student must register with the Registrar prior to the beginning of the program and the supervisor must file a grade report form at the conclusion of the course (M 4360s-M 4361s).

Admission

Currently enrolled students need only to register on the designated days.

Students applying for admission to degree programs who plan to begin studies in either term of summer school should follow the admission instructions as outlined in the Catalog, 1983-84, p. 39f., and register on the designated days.

Applications for admission to the summer school on any other basis should be received in the Registrar's Office at least fifteen days prior to the registration date. For additional information, write: Registrar, Southeastern Baptist Theological Seminary, Wake Forest, North Carolina 27587.

Registration

First Term: Monday, June 11, 1984. Orientation activities will be held for entering students. Enrollment in classes closes at 4:00 p.m. on Wednesday, June 13.

Second Term: Monday, July 9, 1984. Orientation activities will be held for entering students. Enrollment closes at 4:00 p.m. on Wednesday, July 11.

Withdrawal

Withdrawal from a course without penalty is permitted until 4:00 p.m., June 15 in the first term and until 4:00 p.m., July 13 in the second term. Students wishing to withdraw from a course or from enrollment should consult the Registrar for guidance. A student enrolled for only one course who withdraws from that course must complete the process for withdrawal from enrollment.

Costs

The matriculation fee for summer school is $50.00 per term. This fee is not refundable after 4:00 p.m. on June 13 for the first term or after 4:00 p.m. on July 11 for the second term. The cost of books and supplies varies depending on courses taken.

Housing

Inquiries concerning housing accommodations for the summer terms should be directed to the Director of Housing. Dormitory rental rates are $50.00 for double occupancy for men, $55.00 for women in the Women's Dormitory, $50.00 for women in Simmons. Duplex Apartments are $160.00 a month for a one bedroom apartment and $170.00 a month for two bedrooms. The Townhouse Apartments are $215.00 a month for two bedrooms and $230.00 a month for three bedrooms. For a two bedroom apartment in the Simmons Apartments the monthly rent will be $180.00.

*Visiting Professors

VISITING PROFESSORS

Robert G. Bratcher, Translations Specialist for the United Bible Societies, is well known because he was the sole translator of the New Testament translation, Good News For Modern Man. Dr. Bratcher also led the committee which translated the Old Testament into the Good News Bible (TEV) Version. He is an outstanding Greek scholar with a doctorate from Southern Seminary in Louisville, Kentucky, experienced as a Professor of New Testament both in Brazil and in Southern Seminary, and the author of a number of works. He is an outstanding specialist in the area of Bible translations and will bring a fresh and stimulating approach to students of the Bible.

Hugo Culpepper is Emeritus Professor of Christian Missions and World Religions of Southern Seminary in Louisville, Kentucky. He served as a missionary in China, the Philippines, Chile, Argentina, and Professor of Missions and World Religions in seminaries in those countries prior to becoming W.O. Carver Professor of Christian Missions and World Religions at Southern Seminary in Louisville, Kentucky. For five years he was Director of the Division of Missions of the Southern Baptist Home Mission Board. He brings to his teaching of missions a worldwide experience including both home and foreign missions. In the present course he will deal especially with the thought of Wilfred Cantwell Smith, John Hick, John A.T. Robinson, Russell Aldwinckle, Leslie Newbigin, and Raimundo Pannikar. This course should appeal not only to students of missions but to students of the history of missions in the contemporary era.

W.T. Edwards is Professor of Religion at Samford University in Birmingham, Alabama. He has also taught New Testament on the faculty of Southern Seminary in Louisville, Kentucky from which institution he holds the undergraduate and the doctoral degrees. Dr. Edwards is well known as a Professor of New Testament and as a churchman. This course will offer not only careful study of the book of I Peter, but will also be of great help to the students seeking to learn appropriate hermeneutical method.

DeLane Ryals is Director of Church Extension in the Metropolitan New York Baptist Association of New York. Dr. Ryals, as Fletcher Visiting Professor of Missions, will be dealing specifically with topics in the area of Home Missions as carried out in the United States. He has had broad experience in the large city, but will not limit his teaching to missions in the cities. This course should be of particular benefit to those students who do expect to engage in church growth in the cities or in planting new churches in frontier areas. Dr. Ryals is a native of Oklahoma, educated in Oklahoma Baptist University, Southwestern Baptist Seminary, and holds a Doctor of Ministry degree from Southeastern Seminary. In addition to his work as Director of Missions and work with the Home Mission Board, he has served as pastor for several years.

Mahan Siler for the past few months has been pastor of the Pullen Memorial Baptist Church of Raleigh, North Carolina. For years before that he was Director of the School of Pastoral Care, North Carolina Baptist Hospitals, Incorporated, Winston-Salem, North Carolina. Dr. Siler has broad experience in the area of pastoral care and the work of ministry. He is a specialist in those matters concerning ministers. He will bring to this colloquium extraordinary breadth and depth of understanding for ministers.

Vernon L. Stanfield served for years as Professor of Preaching at Southern Seminary in Louisville, Kentucky and then for many years in the same position at the New Orleans Baptist Seminary in New Orleans, Louisiana. He is the author of numerous works in the area of preaching and worship and has recently revised and rewritten the standard textbook in preaching, The Preparation and Delivery of Sermons, originally written by John A. Broadus. Dr. Stanfield is one of the best known teachers of preaching in the Southern Baptist Convention.

James E. Tull is Emeritus Professor of Theology at Southeastern Seminary. He served as Professor of Theology at this institution with great distinction for many years. Since his official retirement, he has continued to teach here and as visiting professor in other institutions.

Richard Ward is a graduate of Oklahoma Baptist University, having graduated Magna Cum Laude with a major in speech and drama. He did graduate study in drama at the Dallas Theater Center and Trinity University. He received the Master of Fine Arts in Drama in 1976 from Trinity University. He served as Instructor of Speech and Drama at Oklahoma Baptist University and later completed an additional master's degree in religion at the Christian Theological Seminary in Indianapolis, Indiana. Mr. Ward is completing his Ph.D. degree in Interpretation of Literature in the graduate school of Northwestern University in Evanston, Illinois. While teaching the course "Introduction to Drama in the Church" this summer, he and his wife, who is also a drama major, will enlist Southeastern students and members of the community and will produce a dramatic production near the end of the term.
