NOTICES:

EQUIPPING CENTER SEMINAR:

The Baptist State Convention of NC will hold an Equipping Center Seminar on the Southeastern Campus, March 26, 1981, from 4 to 9 p.m. in the Bethea Room (Appleby Hall). It will be open to interested persons. Dinner will be on your own. For further details and registration, contact the Communications office (Ext. 270).

INTERNSHIP IN EDUCATION/ADMINISTRATION:

Dr. Charles Casey, Pastor of Valley Baptist Church, Lutherville, Maryland, will be on campus for interviews Tuesday, April 7. The church has a year's internship available to begin June 1, 1981, for a student to serve as Director of Religious Education/Administrative Assistant to the Pastor.

(OVER)

A brief description is available in the Formation in Ministry office, where interviews with Dr. Casey may also be scheduled. This internship is offered through M4730-31. Supervised Ministry, M4700, is a prerequisite.

OFF-CAMPUS MINISTRY OPPORTUNITIES:

The volunteer services of Southeastern students are needed in two programs currently underway in Wake Forest.

- (1) Wake Forest Baptist Church desperately needs students to help deliver hot lunches to homebound Wake Forest area residents on Mondays from 11:30-12:30. Students will be reimbursed 22¢ a mile for their mileage. Contact Frances Pieper 556-1503 or 556-1079.
- (2) All you need is a few free hours one or two mornings a week to help with a Wake County Child Abuse Prevention Services program in Wake Forest called Mother's Time Out. They need volunteers to help keep children from 9:30-12:30 Wednesday and/or Thursday mornings at St. John Episcopal Church on S. Main St. If you have some free time and a love for children contact Sandy Petersen at 821-4691 or 779-3058.

WOMEN AND THE CHURCH:

A mini-symposium entitled "Behind Every Good Church..." is being held at Meredith College as a part of its campus-wide symposium, "Toward Conscious Conscience" on Tuesday, March 24. The discussion, focusing upon women as agents of conscience in the church, will explore past, present, and future roles of women in the church. Discussion leaders will be Dr. Thomas Halbrooks, Mrs. Mary Ruth Crook, and Sister Evelyn Mattern. The mini-symposium will be held on Tuesday from 3:30-5:00 p.m. in the Rehearsal Hall of Jones Auditorium. (The public is invited at no charge) For further details, contact Susan Pearce Shirley at 556-1092.

APRIL 3RD DAY:

The Student Council is sponsoring a special fun day for the seminary family on April 3. Included in the day's events will be free ice cream cones given away between 10-11 a.m. in front of Mackie Hall and a covered dish picnic at 5 p.m. at the Wake Forest Community Center. The day will be climaxed with a square dance at the community center. A professional caller will be used to teach and call all of the dances. No previous square dancing experience is required! Students from Meredith College, First Baptist, Forest Hills Baptist and First Presbyterian Churches will be joining the occasion. Students, faculty, staff and their families are invited to participate in all of the events.

INTERNSHIPS IN JUVENILE JUSTICE:

Mr. Bill Shirah, of Chaplain Service of the Churches of Virginia, will be on campus Thursday, March 26, 11:00-3:00. Chaplain Service has internships available during the 1981-82 academic year for students to serve as chaplains in several juvenile justice institutions, mostly in the Richmond area. Further information and application are available in the Formation in Ministry office, and interviews with Mr. Shirah may also be scheduled there. These internships are offered through M4720-21 (part-time) or M4730-31 (full-time). Supervised Ministry, M4700, is a prerequisite for these courses.

STUDENT COUNCIL ELECTIONS:

Election of Student Council officers for 1981-82, will be held on April 8 and 9. Nominations are now open for the positions to be filled. Consult your Handbook and Orientation Guide: 1980-81 for a listing of these positions as well as qualifications for nominees. Nominee resumes are available at the Office of Student Affairs or the Vice President's box, second floor Mackie Hall. For more information call Burdette Robinson at 556-6160. Nominations must close on March 24.

YOUTH QUAKE:

The Seminary Youth are sponsoring a "Youth Quake" on Friday, April 24 at Wake Forest Baptist Church. Area youth groups are invited to make plans to participate in an evening of fun and inspiration beginning at 7:30 p.m. Contact the Student Affairs office or Judy Powell (556-4642) for free advance tickets.

Material for the Campus Bulletin must reach the Student Affairs office by 12 noon on Wednesday.
