The Solemn Covenant of the Church of Jesus Christ constituted at Bryn Sion in the Forest of Kent-County and State of Delaware

We, who desire to walk together in the fear of the Lord, do through the assistance of his holy Spirit, profess our deep and sincere humiliation for all our transgressions; and we do also solemnly in the presence of God, and of each other in the sight of our own unworthiness give up ourselves to the Lord in a Church state according to the apostolical constitution, that he may be our God, and we may be his people, through the everlasting Covenant of his grace, in which alone we hope to be accepted by him through his blessed son Jesus Christ; whom we take to be our high Priest to justify and sanctify us, and our Prophet to teach us, and to be subject to him as our lawgiver, and the King of Saints; and to conform to all his holy laws and ordinances for our growth, establishment and consolation; that we may be a holy Spouse unto him; and serve him in our generation, and wait for his second appearance as our glorious Bridegroom. Eph. 1:6. 8. 2 Cor. 8:5. Hos. 2:23. Isaiah 62:5. Eph. 1:22.

Being fully satisfied in the way of Church communion and the truth of Grace in some good measure upon one another's Spirits we do solemnly join ourselves together in a holy Union, and fellowship humbly submitting to the discipline of the Gospel and all holy duties required of a people in such a spiritual relation. Eph. 4:16 - 1 Peter 2:5. Psalm 93:5.

- 1st We do promise and engage to walk in all holiness, godliness, humility and brotherly love, as much as in us lieth to render our communion delightful to God, comfortable to ourselves and lovely to the rest of the Lord's people. Luke 1:72. 73. 2 Cor. 7:1 - 1 Tim 6:11. 2 Peter 1:7.
2. We do promise to watch over each other's conversation and not to suffer Sin upon one another, so far as God shall discover it to us, or any of us, and to stir up one another to love and good works; to warn, rebuke, and admonish one another to love and good works in meekness according to the rules of Christ in that behalf. Acts 20:19. Phil. 2:3. - John 13:34. Chap 15:12. 1 Peter 1:22.

3. We do promise in an especial manner to pray for one another and for the glory and increase of this Church, and for the presence of God in it, and pouring forth of his Spirit on it, and his protection over it to his glory. Heb. 10: 24. 25.
4. We do promise to bear one anothers burdens, to cleave to one another, and to have a fellow feeling with one another, in all conditions both outward and inward, as God in his providence shall cast any of us into. James 5: 16. Gal 6: 2. 12.
5. We do promise to bear one anothers weaknesses, failings and infirmities with much tenderness, not discovering to any without the Church, nor any within unless according to Christs rule, and the order of the Gospel provided in that case. Heb. 12: 14. Chap. 13: 13. Rom. 12: 15. 2 Cor. 11: 29. 1 John 3: 17. 18.
6. We do promise to strive together for the truth of the Gospel, and purity of Gods ways and ordinances, to avoid causes and causers of division, endeavouring to keep the Unity of the Spirit in the bond of peace. Gal. 6: 1. 1 Thes. 5: 14. Eph. 4: 3. Chap. 1: 32.
7. We do promise to meet together on Lords days, and at other times as the Lord shall give us opportunity to serve and glorify God in the way of his worship, to edify one another and to promote the good of his Church. Gal. 5: 1. Titus 3: 11. 10. John 5: 10.
8. We do promise according to our ability (or as God shall bless us with the good things of this world) to communicate to the necessities of the Church: for it is said the Lord loveth a cheerful giver, and with such sacrifices God is well pleased. Eph. 4: 16. 2 Cor. 9: 7. 8. 9. and 12: 13. Gal. 6: 6.

These and all other Gospel duties we humbly submit unto promising and purposing to perform [not in our own strength being conscious of our own weakness] but in the power and strength of ~~Christ~~ the blessed ^{God}, whose we are and whom we desire to serve. To whom be glory now and for ever Amen.

N. B. I suppose this Church was constituted in the year of our Lord 1782. if my memory does not ~~deceive~~ deceive me
