NOTICES:

SPRING PRODUCTION:

Tryouts for the Spring drama production, An Enemy of the People, are scheduled for Tuesday night, January 27, at 7:00 p.m. in the Cellar Theatre, Johnson Classroom building. All persons interested in assisting in the production should attend.

C.E.P.P.:

The Cooperative Education Program in Preaching is accepting more student participants this semester. Anyone interested in acquiring preaching experience with constructive evaluation will need to complete an application available in the Formation In Ministry office.

SENIOR CLASS GIFT:

At its last meeting, the Senior Class voted to establish a student intern scholarship fund to assist students involved in supervised ministry. The fund will be in honor of Dr. Roy Wyatt, former Visiting Professor of O.T. and currently a missionary in Colombia. Dues of $5.00 per person may be paid now in the Business Office. All seniors are urged to participate. For more information, call Robert Ellis at 556-5712.

VALENTINES BANQUET:

The Seminary Wives Organization is sponsoring a Valentines Banquet for the seminary community on Tuesday, February 3 at 7:00 p.m. in the cafeteria. Guest speaker will be Dr. Richard L. Hester, Professor of Pastoral Care and Psychology of Religion. Tickets are available at the switchboard, Student Affairs office and officers of the Seminary Wives Organization through January 29 for $4.50 each. Free child care is available at Wake Forest Baptist Church, but reservations must be made before January 29. Make reservations for child care by calling Janie Brown, Student Affairs office (556-3101, ext. 263) or Sonja Rounds (556-2550).

OFF-CAMPUS MINISTRIES
REMINDER:

Off-campus ministries sign up forms should be turned in by January 27 if you are interested in these programs. Return them to the Student Affairs office or to Cathy York.

SUMMER EXCAVATION:

The Seminary excavation project for this coming summer will be at Dan, on the Dan branch of the Jordan River in the North of Israel. We will be working in connection with Hebrew Union College Biblical and Archaeological School. It is imperative for those who have signed the list of prospects with Professor Scoggin--and any other interested persons--to see Professor Scoggin right away for application form, medical form and other pertinent information. The course is numbered B. 1040 and gives 8 hours credit. You will leave the United States on June 27 and return by--or before--mid August. You must act soon.

TENNESSEE CLUB
BANQUET:

The Tennessee Club banquet will be held January 27 at 8 p.m. at the Barbeque Lodge on U.S. 1 north of Raleigh. For information and to make reservations, contact Gary Gerhardt at 556-2191.

TALENT AND ART SHOWS:

If you are interested in participating in a talent show or an art show on campus, contact Kent Lowther at 556-6227 or 556-3435. A tentative date for the talent show is March 3. The art show is scheduled for April 22-24. Both are open to students and staff.

JUSTICE ISSUES:

A special library display outside the copier room will keep the seminary community acquainted with information and resources relevant to current justice concerns. The display will be updated regularly by John Reeves, library assistant.

BI/POLAR SEMINAR
REGISTRATION:

Southeastern Students, Administration and Faculty, as well as friends and neighbors, are invited to participate in the winter BI/POLAR SEMINAR, which will take place on February 27-28, 1981, in the Bethea Room, Appleby Hall!! Registration must be limited to the first twenty-five persons who apply. Registration will close on February 12, 1981. To register, or for additional information, contact Bob Poerschke, Room 301, Stealey Hall, SEBTS.
