SIGN LANGUAGE CLASSES:

Neal Peyton, Missionary to the Deaf for the Baptist State Convention, will teach a weekly class in sign language. If you are interested in this course, it is open and free to anyone in the area. Instruction will include the problems of deafness as well as training in the manual alphabet and the sign language. Meetings will be on Mondays from 7:00 to 8:30 p.m. in Appleby 102. The class begins on Monday, October 2.

FALL ELECTIONS:

Resumes for the following Student Council positions are now being accepted: Class representatives from the MRE, Jr. M.Div., Jr. Assoc., D.Min. and ThM programs will be elected. Appointments will be made to the following faculty committees: Convocations, Field Education, Graduation and Commencement, Student Discipline, Library. Also needed are students interested in serving on the Student Council chapel committee, social committee and Enquiry. Resumes are due September 29 and should be turned in at the Student Council office, Mackie second floor.

GYM SCHEDULE:

Plans have been made to keep the gym open more hours during the week in an effort to make the facilities more accessible to more students. The expanded schedule below will be tried on an experimental basis with adjustments being made according to the use and need for the facilities. Students and staff are reminded that their spouses and children will need to get an activities I.D. card before using the recreation/athletic facilities. Applications are available in the Student Affairs office, Mackie Hall.

NURSING HOME MINISTRY:

Anyone interested in sharing their musical talent or other special abilities with residents of Knollwood Manor Nursing Home on U.S.1 south, please contact Sarah Vickery in Women's Dormitory (556-9982). Groups will leave campus on the following Thursday afternoons at 3:30 p.m. and return by 5:15 p.m. September 21, October 5, 19, November 2, 16 and 30.

MISSIONS SURVEY:

Students who have an interest in Home, Foreign or other missions work or who have had missions experience (beyond the local church) are urged to register their interest at one of the Missions Survey boxes in Mackie, Johnson or Appleby. Forms are available at these locations.

FIELD ED.-HOSPITAL MINISTRY GROUPS:

Spaces are still available in the hospital ministry groups at Wake Medical Center for the semester. Groups meet Tuesdays at 4:00 and Wednesdays at 3:00 at the hospital in Raleigh and are open only to students completing field ed. projects. See Dr. Richardson before Thursday.

MAGIC CIRCLE:

There are still openings for students to lead sharing groups of children at Wake Forest Elementary School. Attendance at a training workshop Monday, September 18, 1:00-4:00 p.m. in A-109 is required. Field Ed. credit is available.

MIDLERS & SENIORS:

IF you wish the Student/Field Ministries office to assist you in finding opportunities for ministry, and IF you have not contacted our office during 1978, THEN please come to see us before October 2. We need up-to-date information on you so that your file can remain both accurate and active. Thanks!

APO MEETING:

All ALPHA PHI OMEGA brothers attending Southeastern are encouraged to meet together for supper in the seminary cafeteria on Thursday, September 21, at 5:00 p.m. to discuss the possibility of establishing an alumni chapter on campus.

Material for the Campus Bulletin should reach the Student Affairs Office by 12:00 noon Wednesday.
