NOTICES:

SENIOR CLASS MEETING:

The Senior Class will be meeting on Wednesday, March 14 immediately after the worship service in Binkley Chapel. The purpose of the meeting is to decide on the class gift. Graduating seniors in all degree programs are urged to be a part of this decision.

WORLD HUNGER:

All persons interested in matters related to World Hunger are invited to a meeting on Wednesday, March 14, after chapel in the Mackie Hall Conference room.

GUESTS ON CAMPUS:

Members of Southeastern's Board of Trustees, Development Council and other friends will be our guests on Monday, March 12, for the kick-off of our $3.5 million campaign. The program begins with lunch, with the groups being on campus until around 4 p.m. We have designated the Mackie lot for their parking and are requesting staff and students to use other parking areas on that day. The Board of Trustees will remain on campus and hold their semi-annual meeting on Monday evening and Tuesday morning and afternoon. Students, and faculty are invited to join in welcoming these guests to Southeastern.

GEORGIA STUDENTS:

Students from Georgia and other interested persons are invited to a dutch-treat lunch with Jack Harwell, Editor of the Georgia Baptist Christian Index. Mr. Harwell will be on campus on March 22. He will speak in Chapel at 10:00. The lunch is set for 11:30 to accommodate as many as possible. We'd like to have an idea of the number coming, so please call Rod Byard - Ext. 270 or at home 556-1485. There will also be an opportunity for two or three brief appointments with Mr. Harwell.

WOMEN'S ISSUES:

The Women's Issues in Ministry Group will meet Thursday, March 15 at 8:00 p.m. in the Women's Dorm basement. The main purpose of the meeting will be to explore the possibility of forming small support groups on campus for people who are struggling with issues directly related to women in seminary and in ministry. All interested folks are welcomed.

ALABAMA STUDENTS:

Dr. Sam Granade from the Alabama Convention will be interviewing interested students from 1:00 - 5:00 p.m. on Thursday, March 15. Make appointments in Formation in Ministry Offices. Graduating seniors will be given preference. Also, at 12:00 noon, Thursday, interested students are invited to have lunch with Dr. Granade in the cafeteria.

EVANGELISM GUEST:

Dr. C.B. Hogue, Evangelism Director of the Home Mission Board and chapel guest on Thursday will also speak at the 11 a.m. Basic Evangelism class in Johnson 203. In addition, a 12:00 - 1:30 fellowship in the cafeteria will be held, and Dr. Hogue will be available for individual conferences from 2:00 - 3:00 p.m. All students are invited to take advantage of these opportunities.

CONCERT CHOIRS ON TOUR:

Graduates of Wake Forest University and Carson-Newman College should note the following dates. On Tuesday, March 13 at 8:00 p.m. the Wake Forest Concert Choir will give a program at Pullen Memorial Baptist Church on Hillsborough St. in Raleigh. On Thursday evening, March 15, at 7:30 p.m., the Carson-Newman A Cappella Choir will present their program at Forest Hills Baptist Church, 3110 Clark Avenue in Raleigh. Alumni and friends of these schools are invited to these programs.

STUDENT COUNCIL ELECTIONS:

Resumes are now being accepted for the Spring elections. A listing of faculty committees with student members as well as descriptions of Student Council offices can be found in the Handbook. All positions will need to be filled. Resume forms are available outside the Student Council office in Mackie Hall. Resumes will be posted so that students will know who they are voting for.

PENNSYLVANIA/SOUTH
NEW JERSEY MINISTRIES:

The Reverend Douglas Metzger will be on campus Tuesday, March 13, in place of Mr. Ellis Bush who was originally scheduled. Rev. Metzger will be interviewing from 8 - 10 a.m. on Tuesday, March 13. Students with an interest in ministry in this area may make appointments through the Formation in Ministry Offices. Graduating seniors will be given preference.

YOUTH MINISTRY OPPORTUNITY:

Christians In Service To Youth, an organization specializing in programs to enhance youth ministries, will have a representative on the Southeastern campus, Thursday, March 15 at 4:00 p.m. in the Bethea Room. Reverend Dale Lawson, Associate pastor of Richland Hills Baptist Church, Fort Worth, Texas and CISTY director will be available to discuss techniques and programs involving life priorities of youth. CISTY has been cited by Bobby Sunderland, S.B.C. Director of Mass Evangelism, for its open and varied approach in ministries to youth. If you are interested in investigating ways to add depth and effectiveness to your youth program, you are invited to be present for this informal meeting.

HOME MISSION BOARD
REPRESENTATIVE:

Mr. Ken Brooks of the Home Mission Board in Atlanta will be on campus March 22 and 23. Students may sign up for group conferences through Formation in Ministry.

Material for the Campus Bulletin should reach the Student Affairs office by 12 noon Wednesday.
