*Pray ye therefore the Lord of the harvest, that he will send forth labourers into his harvest.
Matthew 9:38*

Dedicated in Honor of Donal and Mary Shuler

The 2012 Annual Minutes are dedicated in honor of Donal and Mary Shuler. Donal Shuler was born on November 5, 1931 and Mary was born on July 9, 1937. They were married on January 5, 1956 and had two children: Donna Kay Garcia and Donal "Jody" Shuler. They have six grandchildren and two great grandchildren.

Donal retired from Dayco after working there for 23 years. He then worked for Mountain Projects and Bryson Farm Supply. Mary worked at the sewing plant for 17 years and then had a daycare in her home for several years.

Donal and Mary are active members of New Hope Baptist Church. Donal has been a deacon at the church for several years and also served on the building committee. He has participated in all the church plays since 1979. Mary has been active in the Women's Group at New Hope.

Donal has been very active in the work of the Tuckaseegee Baptist Association. He has been a representative to the executive committee since 1979. He has served on the Committee on Committees and Personnel Committee and as a trustee for the association. He has helped several years loading and taking food and supplies to Broyhill Baptist Children's Homes in April.

Dedicated in Memory of Allen & Eva Sutton Bradley

The 2012 Annual Minutes are dedicated in memory of Allen and Eva Sutton Bradley. Allen "Shady" Bradley was born on October 9, 1917 and died on November 15, 2001. Eva Elizabeth Sutton Bradley was born on March 31, 1920 and died on September 2, 2009. They got married in April 1942 and had two children: Eddie Allen Bradley and Marshall Mitchell. Allen and Eva Bradley were both members of Old Savannah Baptist Church. Allen was later co-founder and ordained deacon of Calvary Baptist Church on March 19, 1950.

Allen worked as a Boiler Maker, Butcher, Truck Driver, and retired from Harold's Supermarket. As long as his health allowed, he enjoyed being a cattleman. He was a very active in church work at Calvary Baptist and served his church as Chairman of the Deacon Board until his death. Allen was more than just a church member – he was actively worked in the church as long as his health permitted to ensure that Calvary Baptist Church was a "Community Church," where all folks were welcome; he also tried to make sure that if something was needed or repairs were necessary that this was done. If systems were to be changed they were (ex. Church went from a wood stove to an oil furnace, classrooms were added, water and bathrooms were installed, pews padded, pulpit furniture installed, etc.). Throughout his life, Allen Bradley remained a simple, honest man who loved God, church, and family.

Eva was homemaker until her sons finished school. She was very active in the PTA at Savannah School, serving as treasurer for several years. She loved to garden and continued to do so, long after her health began to decline. Eva loved her church and was also a very active member, serving as president of the Ladies' WMU, and as long as her health allowed, teacher of the Primary Sunday School class. She also served the church by fulfilling her role as the wife of the deacon chairman by making the preparations for communion (baking the unleavened bread, washing and preparing the communion trays, ironing the communion cloths, etc.).

We hear many preachers state that "if the Lord lays something on your heart to do for Him that He will be working on the other end...". The Lord laid it upon Allen's heart to build a church in the Savannah Community. He wrestled with this huge task until the Lord impressed upon him to go and speak with Charlie Allison about building this church. Charlie and his family walked over the mountain to attend church at East Fork, where Charlie served as a deacon. On a Wednesday afternoon, after working half a day (stores closed at noon on Wednesday back then) at Sylva Supply as a butcher, Allen went to visit Charlie. Not having an automobile, he walked the 1 ½ miles to Charlie's house which was at the head of "Mule Pen" (now called Calvary Church Rd.). As he came into view of the house, Allen saw Charlie sitting on his front porch... almost as if he were waiting for him. Allen was a bit worried about how he would approach the subject of building a new church, especially with it being the summertime with a lot of farm work to be done for everyone. After talking a while, Allen brought up the subject. Charlie's response was, "Allen, I knew you were coming, but I did not know when."

They talked to other people in the community about building a church – some wanted a community building to party in during the week and others wanted a God-fearing, God-loving Baptist Church. The folks who wanted the church decided to purchase land and build a church. Lyle and Grace Jones donated one acre of land on February 2, 1947 for Calvary Baptist Church.

During construction of the church, rock was hauled from Soco Creek on the Cherokee Indian Reservation. Timber was cut off Charlie & Allen's property and sawn into lumber. Money, time and materials were given. Allen had a steady job, but he also wanted to help with the construction of the church building. Since he couldn't do both and he needed to keep his job (as they were hard to come by), he paid another man to work in his place on the church building.

Rev. Dave Norman was very instrumental in starting Calvary Baptist Church. Allen Bradley was the first deacon of Calvary Baptist Church, ordained March 19, 1950.

PROCEEDINGS
183rd ANNUAL MEETING
FIRST SESSION, THURSDAY, OCTOBER 18, 2012

1. Lovedale Baptist Church hosted the first session of the 183rd Annual Meeting of the Tuckaseegee Baptist Association. A delicious meal was served at 4:30 p.m. A total of 92 present: 72 Messengers and 20 visitors representing 21 churches.
2. Rev. Keith Dean, Moderator, welcomed everyone.
3. Rev. Mike Farmer welcomed everyone to Lovedale Baptist Church. He read scripture from Genesis 6:9. Grace Morris and Eddie Potts sang solos for special music.
4. Rev. Ray Knowles brought the message from 2 Timothy 2:15 and James 1:22-25. What's In Your Toolbox?
5. The 183rd Annual Meeting was called to order by Rev. Keith Dean.
6. The agenda was changed by moving Rev. Lewis Smith from the Baptist Children's Homes of NC to the Friday agenda instead of Thursday. Karen Burnette was also filling in for Betty Dean to present the WMU report since Betty was sick. It was then approved.
7. No new pastors or visitors were recognized.
8. Keith presented the appointment of Committee on Committees and Resolutions Committee by the moderator.
9. Eddie Potts led the congregation in singing, "Leaning on the Everlasting Arms".

REPORTS

10. Director of Missions - Rev. Gerald Morris gave his report as Director of Missions. It was located on page 3. He did not read it but talked about the 40 Days of Prayer. Then he called everyone to come together at the altar to pray.
11. Music - Eddie Potts gave the Music report listed on page 4.
12. WMU - Karen Burnette presented the WMU report on page 5. She also had a booth in the hallway. The goal of the Tuckaseegee Baptist Association is to help churches work together to fulfill the Great Commission.

COMMITTEES

13. Memorials - Virginia Pangle and Laura Brown read the names of members from each church that had passed away during the past year. As each church was mentioned the members from those churches stood up. They had flowers in memory and to honor the ones who the minutes were going to be dedicated to for 2012. The minutes will be dedicated this year in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Donal Shuler of New Hope Baptist Church and in memory of Allen and Eva Sutton Bradley of Calvary Baptist Church. Rev. Mike Farmer led in prayer.
14. Stewardship - Rev. Mike Moore presented the proposed 2012-2013 budget to be voted on during the second session. The budget was on page 7. He also talked about how important it was for each church to consider giving more financial support to the association in the new year. As seen from the financial reports, the association will not be able to continue to operate as it is now if funding does not increase.
15. Committee on Committees - Rob Sutton presented their report on page 11. It was approved.
16. Nominating Committee - Karen Burnette presented their report on page 12. No further nominations were made and the motion carried.

17. Place and Preacher Committee - Their report was presented by Jason Watson. They were only able to present a report for Thursday night, October 17, 2013. It will be held at East Fork Baptist Church. Rev. Mike Farmer will be preaching with Rev. Dennis Burrell as the alternate preacher. It was approved with no opposition. Next year's second night will have to be presented at the quarterly meeting.

18. Miscellaneous Business - It was reported that 70 messengers and 21 visitors were there from 20 churches.

MISSIONS

19. Cashiers Baptist - Barbara Fowler presented a mission report on their trip to Hazelton, Pennsylvania. She started out by thanking their pastor for leading them to be such a mission-minded church. They went to Pennsylvania on September 24-29. 8 were on the team. They encouraged the church planters that were there. They used everything from a dust cloth to a power saw to share the love of Christ. They helped repair a church, cut down trees, painted playground equipment, ministered to widows and older couples and dusted the Town Hall offices.

20. Ochre Hill Baptist - Mike Parks presented a report of their trip to Pikeville, KY. They had 25 to go that broke up into two teams to do home repairs. The teams replaced the shingles on a roof and replaced a porch for one lady and replaced doors and steps and painted for another lady. A special plea was made for everyone to pray for Ms. Myrtle to accept Christ as her personal Savior. They also participated in a Shoes of Hope Ministry. 14 people were saved with 140 pairs of shoes given out after they heard the plan of salvation while their feet were being washed. Mike hoped everyone could get the "Mission Bug".

21. Popcorn Testimony - Larry Madden from Cashiers stood up and said they were able to go to Malawi, Africa to serve for a short time. Karen Burnette also stood up and told about the mission trip to Mexico that she and others made with Rev. Felix Villarreal. Felix does pastoral training with the new Hispanic churches that have been planted there.

22. Odell Haskett led the benediction prayer.

SECOND SESSION, FRIDAY, OCTOBER 19, 2012

1. Rockdale Baptist Church hosted the second session of the 183rd Annual Meeting of the Tuckasee Baptist Association. A delicious meal was served at 4:30 p.m. A total of 105 present: 63 Messengers and 42 visitors representing 20 churches.

2. Rev. Johnny Lee, Vice Moderator, welcomed everyone and called the meeting to order.

3. Rev. Ray Fox welcomed everyone to Rockdale Baptist Church and read Mark 11:22-25. Rockdale's choir sang.

4. Eddie Potts led the congregation in singing "When We All Get to Heaven."

REPORTS

5. Baptist Hospitals of NC - Rev. Paul Mullen presented his report on page 30. They have over 14,000 employees and 888 beds. All the money collected from the churches during the Mother's Day Offering goes to help patients who have a hard time paying their bills.

6. Biblical Recorder - Rev. Allan Blume spoke about how the Biblical Recorder tells about God changing lives. They continue 1) to be biblical, 2) focus on fulfilling the Great Commission and 3) resolving to glorify God. They have three methods of sharing the Biblical Recorder. They have the printed newspaper, the website at brnow.org and e-news. He encouraged everyone that did not get it to try a free 3-month trial subscription of the newspaper.

7. Medwest Chaplaincy Program - Ron Allen could not be there because he was at the hospital with a patient. Rev. Mike Farmer filled in for him. He encouraged everyone to support this program through prayers and funds. He also encouraged other pastors to help in the hospital chaplaincy program.
8. Smoky Mountain Pregnancy Care Center – Jenny Golding presented a report about the program that is reopening in Jackson County. They are going to need the churches help to keep it open in Jackson County. The “baby bottle” fund raiser is just not enough to meet all the expenses. The center is especially needed because of the colleges located here.
9. S.W.A.R.M. – Karen Burnette shared about the work that is done in the local campgrounds and rest homes. Ochre Hill, Faith and Cashiers Baptist Churches also helped this past summer with this outreach.
10. Baptist Children’s Homes of NC – Rev. Lewis Smith shared that they have 18 locations. He encouraged the churches to show the video that has a story about one of the kids. He then shared a touching story about a little boy that was abused at home and came to stay at Broyhill in Clyde, NC. Lewis said, “The best thing about this story is that they shared the Gospel with him and he was saved.
11. Eddie Potts led the congregation in singing, “I’ll Fly Away”.
12. Johnny reported that there were 59 messengers, 44 visitors and 20 churches represented. (This is a little different after Gracella got back to the office and compared more carefully all the attendance sheets.)

MISSIONS

13. Long Branch Baptist Church - Lee Lillard talked about the Migrant Workers Mission Project in which the association was involved. 9 churches collected food and hygiene products and Bibles to give to the migrant workers on Friday, September 28. On Thursday people gathered together at the Baptist Center to fill Ziploc bags with toothpaste, toothbrushes, dental floss, socks, athlete’s foot crème, and soap. Liquid laundry detergent and Petroleum jelly were also collected, but would not fit in the bags. These workers also filled gift bags that were decorated by the kids at Long Branch. The bags were filled with New Testaments, tracts, homemade gifts made by the Ochre Hill and Long Branch kids. On Friday evening, around 30 people went to a migrant camp that houses 40 workers near Cashiers. These workers were harvesting strawberry plants. A huge meal, special music and preaching were provided. Pastor Mark Tice from Long Branch Baptist brought a stirring Gospel message that was interpreted by Pastor Robert Fernandez from El Centro Del Señor. One young man accepted Christ!

COMMITTEES

14. Executive Committee - Johnny pointed to the executive committee report beginning on page 15. It is a summary of the executive meetings held throughout the year.
15. Stewardship Committee - Rev. Mike Moore moved that the 2012-2013 budget presented the previous session be approved. Page 7. It passed.

16. Resolutions Committee – James Roper presented the following resolution.

Whereas Lovedale and Rockdale Baptist Churches have hosted meetings, provided abundant meals, and extraordinary hospitality to messengers of the Tuckaseegee Baptist Association, and Whereas Rev. Ray Knowles presented (and we believe also Rev. Charles Lee will present) motivating, encouraging, and uplifting messages, and

Whereas associational and convention-wide representatives have given informative and challenging reports, and

Whereas Eddie Potts has so capably led us in worshipful singing, and

Whereas Rev. Keith Dean and Rev. Johnny Lee have so efficiently presided over these sessions and other meetings, and

Whereas our Director of Missions, Rev. Gerald Morris, has brought wise leadership that strongly promotes missions and unity, and

Whereas, our faithful and resourceful associational clerk, Gracella Morris, serves beyond her call of duty, and Whereas, our committee officers and members have given of time and energy to serve the association well. Be it therefore resolved that we extend sincere appreciation to all who have served to honor our wonderful Savior Jesus Christ. Bro. Moderator, I move that this well deserved resolution of appreciation be approved. It was approved.

17. Eddie Potts led the congregation in singing, “What a Friend We Have in Jesus”.

18. Rev. Gerald Morris invited everyone to come to the altar for prayer to continue the 40 Days of Prayer.

19. Proof of Mercy from Sols Creek Baptist Church presented the special music.

20. Rev. Charles Lee, pastor from Liberty Baptist, gave the Scripture and sermon. He spoke from Matthew 28:18-20.

21. Eddie Potts led the congregation in singing “Amazing Grace”.

22. Kenneth Miller closed the meeting with the Benediction.

Executive Committee Report
Gracella Morris, Clerk

October 3, 2011 - The association met at the Baptist Center. Director of Missions, Rev. Gerald Morris presided. 17 executive committee members and three visitors represented 9 churches. Grace Morris led the group in singing "Amazing Grace". Rev. Joshua Blythe, pastor of Buff Creek Baptist Church, gave a devotion.

Greg Stewart of New Hope Baptist Church was recognized as the Brotherhood Director and Tim Mathis of Buff Creek Baptist Church as a new member of the executive committee. A proposal to purchase a new copier was added to the new business on the agenda.

Sandy Gregory and Paige Richardson presented information about the NC Baptist Aging Ministry (NCBAM). They announced that they have set a goal to put up 300 ramps across the state on April 28 for Operation Inasmuch. They encouraged people in the churches to use their talents to help the aging by giving them transportation, visiting with them, installing a ramp, making repairs or doing light housekeeping. Then doing a follow up visit because the majority of the time they are lonely. NC BAM also has a call center for senior adults to call for help. 1-877-506-2226.

Gracella then presented the July 11, 2011 executive committee minutes and they were accepted. The September 28, 2011 financial reports were presented in the Book of Reports and accepted. Gerald presented his report. Karen Burnette presented the WMU report. She was excited about what the association is doing and how the WMU has helped in some of these activities. She said they have three activities that she wants to emphasize: 1) Nov. 14-18 Anti-Bullying Week at the high school. 2) Nov. 28 Human Exploitation (Baptist Women's Event) 3) Please promote Lottie Moon Christmas Offering.

Old Business:

- 1) John Rogers Pro Finish painted the outside of the Baptist Center.
- 2) The Fruitland Extension started their first class on Saturday, Oct. 1st, with 16 students.

New Business:

- 1) The Book of Reports for the Annual Meeting was presented and approved. Gerald pointed out that the moderator position had not been filled and 3 committee positions were still open: nominating, memorials, and place/preacher committees.
- 2) Gerald presented a proposal to purchase a copier for $4,000 or less as soon as bank CDs mature. This money would come from Annie Hoyle funds that are designated. The association would have to pay sales tax, not included above, but it will be refunded from the state. It was approved.

Announcements and prayer requests were then taken. The meeting ended with prayer by Rev. Mike Moore.

January 2, 2012 - The association met at the Baptist Center. Rev. Keith Dean, Moderator presided. 16 executive committee members and two visitors represented 10 churches. Arnold Brooks led the group in prayer. Eddie Potts led the group in singing "Leaning on the Everlasting Arms". Rev. Keith Dean had the devotion. His scripture was from Psalm 46.

Eddie Potts of Lovedale Baptist Church was recognized as the Music Director and Michele Norris of Locust Field Baptist Church as the WMU Consultant were recognized. The agenda changed to include Betty Dean and Michele Norris giving the WMU report instead of Karen Burnette. Gracella Morris presented the October 3, 2011 executive committee minutes and they were approved. The November 30, 2011 financial reports were approved. Rev. Gerald Morris presented his Director of Missions report. Betty Dean presented the WMU report. She said that she and Karen were participating on the Anti-Bullying committee at the high school and it was improving. Please promote Annie Armstrong Easter Offering. Michele Norris announced that the WMU was going to have a "Fall in Love with WMU" event on Feb. 18th. Hopefully the youth from churches will participate by decorating, preparing and serving food. An offering will be collected for the WMU Heck Jones Fund.

Old Business: A new copier was purchased in November from Advance Business Equipment.

New Business:

- Gerald moved that $850 be allotted for two mission trips to Book-Link in KY for the coming year. It was approved.
- Gerald then moved that $1,000 of the Annie Hoyle Endowment funds be used for a mission trip to Mexico by Rev. Felix Villarreal. There will be three churches represented on this trip: La Primera Iglesia Bautista de Amor, Little Savannah and Hamburg.
- Rev. Scotty Patrick moved that Tuckaseegee Baptist Association take a stand against the May vote for alcohol sales in the county. This would be accomplished by sending a letter to the editors of the two local papers. Each of the churches in the Association would be contacted about their inclusion in this letter. The churches would also be encouraged to become involved themselves. It was heartily approved.

Announcements and prayer requests were taken. Rev. Scotty Patrick led the group in closing prayer.

February 20, 2012 - The special called meeting was held at the Baptist Center. Rev. Keith Dean, Moderator presided. 19 executive committee members represented 10 churches. Randy Crawford led the group in prayer. Eddie Potts led the group in singing "Tell Me the Story of Jesus". No new members were recognized.

New Business:

Bob Parker, trustee, made the recommendation that the Trustees of the Tuckaseegee Baptist Association be authorized to work with Jewel W. Brown and Speedwell Methodist Church to sell the James L. Wall property at 862 E Main St, Sylva, NC for the greatest benefit to the Association and the Glory of our Lord. Donal Shuler seconded the motion and it was unanimously approved.

Announcements and prayer requests were taken. Rev. Clemmey Queen led the group in closing prayer.

April 2, 2012 – The Association met at the Baptist Center. Rev. Keith Dean, Moderator presided. 11 executive committee members and three visitors represented 8 churches. Kenneth Miller led the group in prayer. Eddie Potts led the group in singing "In the Garden". Rev. Earl Holden had the devotion. Kim Fiskeaux of Ochre Hill Baptist Church and Jenny Golding from the Smoky Mountain Pregnancy Care Center, were recognized as visitors.

Gracella Morris then presented the January 2, 2012 executive committee minutes and the February 20, 2012 special called meeting minutes. They were approved. The February 29, 2012 financial reports were approved. Rev. Gerald Morris presented his Director of Missions report. Karen Burnette presented the WMU report. Karen said the Anti-Bullying committee at the high school is preparing a grant proposal to fund a big event for awareness. They continue to try to setup an environment that shows bullying is an unacceptable behavior. She encouraged everyone to promote the Annie Armstrong Easter Offering. The "Fall in Love with WMU" event on Feb. 18th was very good and $115 was collected to send to the NC WMU. Their annual meeting is being held at Promised Land with the featured speaker being Gerald Morris talking about fostering and adoption. Anyone is welcome to go to the Mission Extravaganza on April 20-22. Locust Field is inviting everyone to come and hear Crystal talk about her mission trip to Haiti.

She took the homemade diapers that the Associational WMU had sewed. Karen also encouraged everyone to buy as many gloves as possible for the Red Box project they do for the Women's Prison Ministry. Jenny Golding, CEO of Smoky Mountain Pregnancy Care Center, spoke about their needs to be able to save babies. Their main location is in Franklin and they temporarily have an office on Wednesdays in Dr. Stacks' office. She encouraged churches to either take up money through the "Baby Bottles" or to "Sponsor a Day". They want to reopen the office in the Cullowhee area.

Old Business: Listed inherited property with Dickie Woodard, Western Carolina Properties, for $199,900.

New Business:

- The Memorials Committee had nominated Betty Dean to be added to the Memorials Committee. It was voted on and approved.
- Kim Fiskeaux presented a request for $1,000 to be spent on a July 16-20 mission trip to Pikeville, KY. 24 people from Ochre Hill Baptist and Lovedale Baptist are going. It will include construction and a Shoes of Hope ministry. Gerald then moved that $1,000 of the Annie Hoyle Endowment funds be used for the mission trip. It was approved.
- Gerald presented a request that the executive committee approve the Ministry Partnership Agreements for 2013. It was approved.

Announcements and prayer requests were taken. Eddie Potts led the group in closing prayer.

July 9, 2012 - The Association met at the Baptist Center. Rev. Keith Dean, Moderator, presided. 13 executive committee members and four visitors represented 10 churches. Keith led the group in prayer. Eddie Potts led the group in singing "What a Friend We Have In Jesus". Rev. Scotty Patrick had the devotion. Michael Moore of Hyatts Chapel Baptist Church and David Webb of the Baptist Foundation of NC were recognized as visitors.

Gracella Morris then presented the April 2, 2012 executive committee minutes. They were approved. The June 30, 2012 financial reports were approved. Rev. Gerald Morris presented his Director of Missions report.

Betty Dean presented the WMU report. They are encouraging every church to donate $60 to DSS to buy school supplies. They have a goal of helping 80 kids. She encouraged everyone to be getting their supplies for the Operation Christmas Child boxes. Betty also encouraged each church to participate in Valley Ballyhoo at Western Carolina University. Your church could be a home away from home to the students. Everyone is being asked to grow extra potatoes or buy potatoes for Broyhill. They should bring them to the Baptist Center by October 15th. Everyone is also encouraged to save your old Sunday School literature and Bibles and bring them to the Baptist Center. If you can't get it there, Melissa Young will gladly come and pick it up.

Rev. David Webb presented information about the Baptist Foundation of NC. He encouraged people to invite him to their churches to talk about tithing, setting up wills, etc. He also told everyone about their new savings and loan program that is for Baptists.

Old Business:

- The association spent $841.76 of $850 allotted for two mission trips to Book-Link in KY.
- The association has received $83.35 from the Estate of David Wall (Trust).
- Felix Villarreal thanked everyone for the mission funds received for their last trip to Mexico. 28 people were saved and they had two baptisms.

New Business:

- A motion was made to give Duke University permission to digitize and publicly display the past annual minutes for the association. However, they will need to exclude personal phone numbers and addresses. It was approved.
- Felix Villarreal presented a request for $1,000 to be used for another trip in September to lead two revivals in Mexico. There are people going from La Primera Iglesia Bautista de Amor, Cashiers and Hamburg Baptist Churches.

Announcements and prayer requests were taken.

Gerald led the group in closing prayer. Everyone gathered around Michael Moore. He will be serving through the International Mission Board starting this fall for two years.

Director of Missions Report, Rev. Gerald Morris

As another year ends in the Association I'm glad to see the cooperation between the churches growing every day. I look back at all that has been accomplished and know that it could only come from churches joining together to serve their Lord. Working together has given Association churches opportunities for fellowship, worship, training, evangelism, missions and prayer.

Fellowship in the association has never been better. Seniors On Mission and the Pastors' Fellowship are doing great as we come together to encourage each other on a regular basis. Times of fellowship in worship have also been wonderful with the Spring Worship Rally, Youth Rally in spring and the Children's Day in the fall. It was a pleasure seeing the kids of each church come together to worship the Lord. The Spring and Fall singings are always great times for us to come together to lift our voices in praise to the Lord.

Church training was also successful this year. The church leadership training/ Sunday School training was another success. We appreciate the grant we received from the North Carolina Baptist Foundation that helped fund this important training event.

I had the privilege to speak in several churches as I preached, taught Sunday School, discussed the Cooperative Program and explained to church members how the Association benefits them and their church. I was able to work with two pulpit committees this year as they search for a new pastor to lead them into the future. I was honored to be asked by the WMU to teach about the Evanecube at their Region 10 evangelism training seminar.

This year we also saw great times in evangelism and missions. With Operation Inasmuch in the Spring, many churches reached out to their communities with the Gospel of Jesus Christ using their hands to serve their neighbors. With the Broyhill Food Roundup in the Spring we have also reached children that are in need at the Baptist Children's Home. Through the Annie Hoyle Endowment Fund the Association was able to sponsor two trips to Book-Link and help partly fund mission trips to Mexico and Pikeville, Kentucky. Several churches have also come together this fall to reach out to the workers in a migrant camp in Cashiers. The churches gave out hygiene kits, New Testaments, Gospel tracts and also worshipped fellowshipped and ate supper with the migrants. It was a blessing to everyone involved and they hope to continue this ministry in the future.

It was also a privilege to sit in on an ordination committee meeting. It is always a blessing to see a Godly man answer the call of God to share the Gospel of Jesus Christ.

In the Spring we experienced a triumph and a failure. It was great that the people of North Carolina voted to uphold God's definition of marriage. But it was also sad to see Jackson County vote to allow alcohol sales throughout the county. We can only hope and pray that sometime in the future God will see fit to rid our county of this terrible scourge.

Again this year I've had the privilege of visiting each church at least twice and preaching in many of the churches. It is always a blessing to worship with the churches of the Tuckasegee Baptist Association.

Association sponsored resource sharing has saved the churches more than $1,000 over the last year. We have been able to be a conduit of VBS materials (decorations and literature), Bible study curriculum, equipment, craft materials and other resources. The resource sharing is a form of stewardship in which a church that no longer needs something brings it to the Baptist Center and we find churches in need of that material or equipment. This ministry has grown in the last few years and is helping a lot of churches save money.

This year has been a year of prayer for the churches of our Association. In May, we held the first annual National Day of Prayer Rally at the Jackson County Justice Center. Our numbers were few but the Spirit was mighty. The Second Annual Campus Prayer Journey was a great success with wonderful reports still coming in as I write this report. We are currently in a season of prayer in which the churches are gathering together for 40 days calling out for revival and spiritual awakening in Jackson County and beyond. I am waiting with eager anticipation at what God is going to do as we continue to pray.

As I look back on the last year I am amazed at what God is doing through the cooperation of the churches in the Association. I expect to see God do greater things in the future as we come together. My only concern is if the current financial situation in the Association continues, we will have to radically change the way we operate in the next six to twelve months. Without an increase in funding soon, the services that the Association offers the churches and the Associational staff will have to be reduced.

Historical Report Tuckaseegee Baptist Association 2011-2012

WMU Report, Karen Burnette

Breaking the Chains of Human Exploitation

Adults-Over 45 people attended the November 28th Human Exploitation and Response event at FBC-Sylva, and they came up with ideas of things we can do about human exploitation in the areas of bullying, land exploitation, human trafficking/slavery/prostitution, and inappropriate media. Association adults were encouraged to give generously to the Lottie Moon Christmas Offering for International Missions©.

Students-40 people from 8 churches participated in Fall in Love with WMU Valentine's Banquet. $115 was donated to WMU NC. TBA WMU also worked with the Association during the Association's Youth Week.

Children-Special thanks to Melissa Dingman and Lou Powell for planning tonight's event. Thank you to the many churches who are participating.

Preschool-This year's emphasis was on involving preschoolers in the Annie Armstrong Easter Offering for North American Missions©

Directors-Worked with SMHS Anti-Bullying Committee (now HEROS) in efforts to facilitate positive relationships between students and to develop grant proposals. Anti-Bullying Week was a success. The leadership team collected candy for Red Box. Pastors and wives felt appreciated at their special August lunch.

Mission Action-

Upcoming events: cleaning for the Tuck. Assoc. Senior Citizen Mission Group & TBA staff, collecting small boxes of crayons & coloring books or funpads and gathering money for underwear. Crystal from Lighthouse will take these items to an orphanage in Haiti, and growing potatoes for Children's Homes.

Our Western Carolina Hispanic Ministries have experienced great blessings throughout 2012. We have witnessed the mighty hand of the Lord at work within this region of our state. El Centro del Señor (Sylva-Cullowhee) and Primera Iglesia Bautista de Amor (Cashiers) are thankful for the prayers and support from our partner churches of the Tuckasegee Baptist Association.

Primera Iglesia of Cashiers has been blessed with new opportunities to serve the Lord. Pastor Felix Villarreal and his congregation have prayerfully decided to start a new church in the Highlands area. First Baptist of Highlands approached brother Felix asking for help in reaching the Hispanics in their community. Also, the church voted to relocate by returning to Hamburg Baptist Church with whom they are grateful for this invitation. In addition, pastor Felix has been given the opportunity to minister in new areas of Mexico: Chiapas and Tabasco (in addition to Vera Cruz).

El Centro del Señor has also experienced the power and presence of the Lord in this past year. We continued to focus on missions and missionaries. Martín Irias, our missionary to Nicaragua, has developed a ministry to reach the street children, he has preached within the prison system, and has been training other pastors. We also celebrated four baptisms, 3 of which were children who were lead to the Lord by their parents (their dads, Fruitland students, baptized them!) El Centro has also sent eight of its members to Fruitland's Hispanic Education Program in Sylva and Hendersonville.

Fruitland's Hispanic program has also been blessed during this previous year. We have continued to provide the basic FBBI course work in Spanish at our main campus. However, in October of 2011 we were able to work in partnership with the Tuckasegee Baptist Association to open a new campus in Sylva. We have been meeting on Saturday mornings (8:30 a.m. to 12:30 p.m.) at the associational building. Our attendance has held steady at 13 students. Those attending these classes have come from five different Hispanic Baptist churches located throughout the area. Casa de Dios has sent two and El Centro del Señor has five participating in this program. Note the growth in the population of Spanish-only students at Fruitland: 50% of those who participated in last June's graduation ceremony were Hispanics!

The final item we want to mention is our network of Hispanic churches. Several congregations participated this past year. Our focus has been to provide opportunities for Christian maturity (discipleship) and fellowship. In cooperation with each other we have been able to have five different events. Hispanic Baptist churches have met together throughout the area ranging from Haywood to Cherokee Counties. We give our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ (Jesucristo) all the glory for what He has done for the Spanish speaking people of North Carolina!

October 2012

Dear Pastors and Congregations,

I want to express appreciation for the Tuckaseigee Association and for your support which enables us to continue the all important ministry of spiritual care in our hospitals. As you already know our efforts touch many lives each day and so often many nights. We serve not only those who are connected to local churches but a great number who have no church connection or pastor to call.

I hope your church will celebrate your pastor and all those who provide "pastoral care" during "Pastoral Care Week," this October 22 – 28th, Please keep in mind that we also hope your church will make an extra effort to support to the Chaplaincy program by:

- Your prayers, include the Chaplaincy program in your prayer concerns
- encouraging your members to ask for the Chaplain or Chaplain on call when in our Hospitals
- Making a gift to the Harris - Swain Foundation for the "Chaplaincy Fund."
- consider joining the volunteer program

A large portion of the support for the Chaplaincy program is from our local community both individual donations and local church gifts. Your support of our chaplaincy program enables us to provide continuing spiritual support at Harris Regional Hospital and Swain County Hospital as we seek to provide:

- A spiritual care response and counsel to patients and or families in crisis or difficulty
- Gideon Bibles for patients and in waiting areas (special thanks to Gideon's of Jackson and Swain counties)
- "A place of prayer for all" through an open chapel at each hospital
- Helpful information through Care Notes, Our Daily Bread, and Guidepost magazines
- Visits to our new patients to provide spiritual support and contact their pastor
- Calls to the pastor, priest or spiritual leader that their member is in the hospital
- A courtesy "Clergy Visitor" photo ID badge for pastors from the chaplain's office.
- A Program of Pastoral Care Education
- Continuing spiritual support for our staff

Our current Hospital Administration is very supportive of the Chaplain and the Pastoral Care Program and believes spiritual care to be a key part of the healing process. The chaplain and chaplaincy program will continue our special caring ministry as we continue to seek to partner with our local churches in providing spiritual care at each facility. Know that that this is "my hospital" and "my community" and the chaplaincy program is very much apart of our community.

Please call me when I can assist you or a member of your congregation. If you would like to know more about the program and how you can help or become involved please call 586-7000 and ask for me or the chaplain on call or my office at 586-7145 or e-mail me: ron_allen@westcare.org.

Sincerely in His service,
Ron Allen, Chaplain
Director of Chaplaincy Service

Pastoral Care Week 2012

Truett Baptist Camp
346 Truett Camp Rd
Hayesville, N. C. 28904
Annual Report for 2012 July 30, 2012

We had such a good Western Happiness Retreat this year there was 88 campers and they sure enjoyed being here

Donnie Wiltshire was the leader and all his helpers did a terrific job.

We had 2 weeks of Girl's Camp with 194 attending. Wendy Britt was the leader and several good counselors made for a very good week.

There was 11 girls saved and several campers made re-dedications.

There was one week of Jr. Music Week 57 campers attended with Lori Gilbert & Sarai Gilbert as leaders there was 2 camper that made salvation decision and 26 campers rededicated themselves to the Lord. They also had a good staff which made this week very special.

We had one week of Youth Music with 58 attending and 30 made rededication decisions; Lori, Sarai & Marty Gilbert were co-directors and did a terrific job with all their good helpers. The mountains were alive with the music from Jr. and Youth Music Campers.

We had one week of Boys' Camp, Joe Simonds was the director. There were 61 boys that attended and there was 5 salvations several commitments were made. The campers sure enjoyed fishing in the pond with help from The Hiawassee Bass Club Men helping with the fishing poles, bait and staying to see that they all got to catch a fish; also the pedal boats, field games and different sport activities. Tim Roberson and the Buncomb Youth from Asheville, NC finished the hiking trail for another activity for the campers to enjoy.

There has been 22 saved and many decisions made during the different church camps and retreats also.

We are deeply grateful for your prayers and support and for your caring enough to share Jesus with all.

Worship and Bible study is a very important part of our camp program. Please encourage your children to come to camp and to register early.

Respectfully Submitted.

Baptist Children's Homes of NORTH CAROLINA

sharing hope...changing lives

2012 Report: July 2011-July 2012

Hope Shines on Travis' Family

"God has much better things in store for me."- Fifteen-year-old Travis, a resident of Baptist Children's Homes' Cameron Boys Camp.

Unwanted and unloved – this is exactly how Travis felt. He spent his childhood believing his life was inconsequential to his parents. Instead of embracing their son, his mom and dad spent more time embracing their addictions. "My mother was a cocaine addict and my father a drunk," Travis reveals. In the days to come, the boys' parents would divorce. On one occasion, Travis' mother stayed away days leaving her son with a friend she barely knew. News of this incident left Travis' father distraught. Worried about his son, he called his sister Karen to see if she and her husband Daniel would take care of Travis while he sorted out his personal struggles. Eventually, Karen and Daniel were granted permanent custody of Travis when his parents' problems did not improve. Sadly, the boy completely shouldered the blame for his parents' issues.

Travis' self-worth plummeted while his anger continued to escalate. One Sunday after the family returned home from church, Travis' emotions erupted. "He said his parents didn't love him, he wanted to die, and he wanted to leave," Karen says. "We knew that through our family, his therapist and the guidance of our church, we had done everything we could. We reached out to Cameron Boys Camp for help." When Travis and his aunt and uncle first visited Baptist Children's Homes' residential wilderness program near Southern Pines, things clicked for the thirteen-year-old boy. "I knew I had to focus on taking care of myself," Travis says. "It was like God was saying that Camp is the right place for me."

Travis had become a believer and was baptized at his aunt's and uncle's church. Cameron Boys Camp chiefs – counselors who provide guidance to the boys and live with them at campsites – and social workers helped Travis understand how God could heal his hurt. "I had hated God because of the things that had happened in my life" Travis explains. "Once I understood that these things weren't my fault, I was able to recommit my relationship to Him."

Throughout his two years at Camp, Travis and his aunt and uncle attended family sessions with Camp staff. They have worked through the pain together. "Aunt Karen is the mom I should've had," Travis says. "Uncle Dan is like my second dad." Now fifteen years old, the darkness that enveloped Travis has receded. A bright, new day is before him now that he's returned home to his Aunt Karen and Uncle Dan. "Travis saw people at Camp, who weren't his family, be completely committed to him and his healing," Karen explains. "He saw churches come and support camp. Travis saw God's hands and feet at work here on Earth. And everything everyone has done has made healing possible."

Impacting a North Carolina Mission Field

Travis' story shows the storms opposing North Carolina families. In a time when families are facing problems and pressures on multiple fronts, the Christ-centered ministry of Baptist Children's Homes shines the light of a new day to those in need of hope and healing. Baptist Children's Homes is dedicated to strengthening and preserving North Carolina families.

There is a mission field all around us! Baptist Children's Homes exists because North Carolina is filled with families and children confronted daily by incredible hardships. There are children across the state, even right down the street from our churches, schools and homes, who are hurting emotionally, suffering physically, and are desperately searching for hope. 70% of Baptist Children's Homes' residents come unchurched and unreached. When Baptists come together with Baptist Children's Homes, there is an amazing opportunity to shine the light of God's love in the lives of North Carolina children and families.

Single Mother Finds Hope through Family Care

"I was struggling. I had lost my home, my car – everything I had worked for. I needed to start my life over." – Shasta, Family Care resident/single mother

Shasta and her two children, four-year-old Greenlee and one-year-old Gage, moved to Baptist Children's Homes' Family Care cottage in Franklin after their small family was abandoned by the children's father. Shasta had no idea how she would be able to provide for her children. The Family Care residential program gave Shasta's family a haven of hope and safety. Through Family Care, mothers like Shasta learn the skills needed to obtain and maintain a stable home, job and income while still being able to care for their children. A Baptist Children's Homes' counselor and a live-in residential manager assist the mother in setting and achieving family goals, developing parenting and job skills, budgeting, resolving transportation needs, and realizing spiritual growth. The ultimate goal is to keep mothers and their children together through seven statewide Family Care group homes. "I'm cared for here," Shasta says about her experience in the cottage. "Everyone helps to meet my family's needs. I feel like I'm almost to the top."

Food Roundup Helps Kimani Stand Tall

"It was my life. I was told it was my fault. I thought everything was my fault." – Kimani, Broyhill Home resident. The twelve-year-old weighed 30 lbs. and wore size three toddler clothes when he came to Baptist Children's Homes.

Kimani's bedroom used to be a dark closet that his family locked him inside every night. The boy was always hungry from being deprived of the food his young body needed to grow. And when his family did offer him something to eat, Kimani was afraid the food could be poisoned. Kimani and his family lived in a North Carolina community, however, his daily torment went on for years unnoticed. Thankfully, Kimani's life changed radically in 2007 when he came to live at Baptist Children's Homes' Broyhill Home in Clyde. Today, he has his own room, a comfortable bed, three nutritious meals a day, and Christian houseparents who give him the caring family he needs.

North Carolina Baptists are a vital, extended part of Kimani's family. Every April through the "Food Roundup," Baptists collect tons of food, supplies and gift cards to ensure Kimani and other Baptist Children's Homes boys and girls have plenty to eat. The food that is collected helps provide more than 700,000 meals and snacks each year. The generosity of North Carolina Baptists through the food drive brightly shines God's love to children like Kimani.

"This was the first time that someone did something nice for me," Kimani says. "They told me they loved me. There was food – I was happy I got to eat." Since coming to Broyhill Home, Kimani has accepted Christ as his Savior. He reads his Bible and attends church with the other boys and girls who are now his family. "I have hope," Kimani says. "I have a home, and I have Jesus in my heart." *Kimani's life is forever changed because of the care and support of NC Baptists. NCBAM Impacting Lives

North Carolina Baptist Aging Ministry (NCBAM) continues its dynamic connection with North Carolina Baptists who are reaching out with the love of Jesus to help meet the needs of the frail aging. Practical needs are met—with sometimes eternal results. Pastor Mike Ferguson of Greenwood Baptist Church in Thomasville described his church's ramp-building partnership with NCBAM this way:

“With the whirling of saw blades and the popping of a nail gun in the background, James prayed to receive the forgiveness of Jesus and was born again! The ten men and women who built the ramp were the hands and feet of Jesus that day.”

In addition to its powerful partnerships with Baptist churches, the comprehensive scope of the ministry is well-known and respected among government and social agencies. Even on a national level, NCBAM is quickly becoming a peerless model of ministry for service to aging adults.

Key advancements in the past year include:

- North Carolina Baptists contributed 8,029 hours to the statewide, record setting Rampin’ Up! event held on April 28, 2012. More than 350 ramps were built and seven salvations were documented.
- More than 10,000 Red Bags have been distributed to address medication mismanagement—the number-one risk to the health of individuals over 65.
- This year, the NCBAM Call Center may average as many as 500 incoming calls per month. Outgoing calls to help meet the frail-aging’s needs could be double that number. Total referrals have topped 1,000 in 2012.
- Through Seeing the Way He Sees, an outreach to churches planned for 2012, NCBAM will continue its efforts to engage North Carolina Baptists with the growing mission field of our state’s aging population.

Special Needs Adults Achieve Success

“It’s wonderful here. You can judge a book by its cover. It’s beautiful on the outside and on the inside – especially the people.” – Matt, a developmentally disabled adult speaking about his home at Joy Cove.

Matt is one of the many special needs adult residents achieving success through Baptist Children’s Homes’ Developmental Disabilities Ministry. Diagnosed with Aspergers syndrome, the twenty-three-year-old was withdrawn and had difficulty relating to his family. As a resident at Joy Cove’s Three Forks Home, Matt works a job, loves cooking, and has discovered a talent for growing plants. He attends church with his caregivers and his fellow residents. Sedrick has been confined to a wheelchair most of his life. But it’s not because Sedrick was born without the use of his legs. As a boy he was abused and could not walk because of a resulting brain injury. Today, the twenty-five-year-old resident at Stegall Home in Marshville has hope that he will walk again. Because of Baptist Children’s Homes’ care, Sedrick underwent a surgical procedure in 2011 that could allow him to walk. Sedrick is able to wiggle his toes and is miraculously standing for 45 minutes per day with the help of a stander. Sedrick’s faith is strong. It is not uncommon for one of his caregivers at Stegall Home to find him out of his chair and praying in the floor of his bedroom. “God hears prayers,” Sedrick says. “I pray, ‘God get me back on my feet’ and ‘I love you Lord Jesus.’”

Baptist Children’s Homes’ nine homes for developmentally disabled adults help residents achieve a greater level of independence and the opportunity to grow spiritually. For their families, they have the peace of mind knowing their loved ones are safe and loved.

The NC Baptist Foundation, Inc.

2011 Annual Report

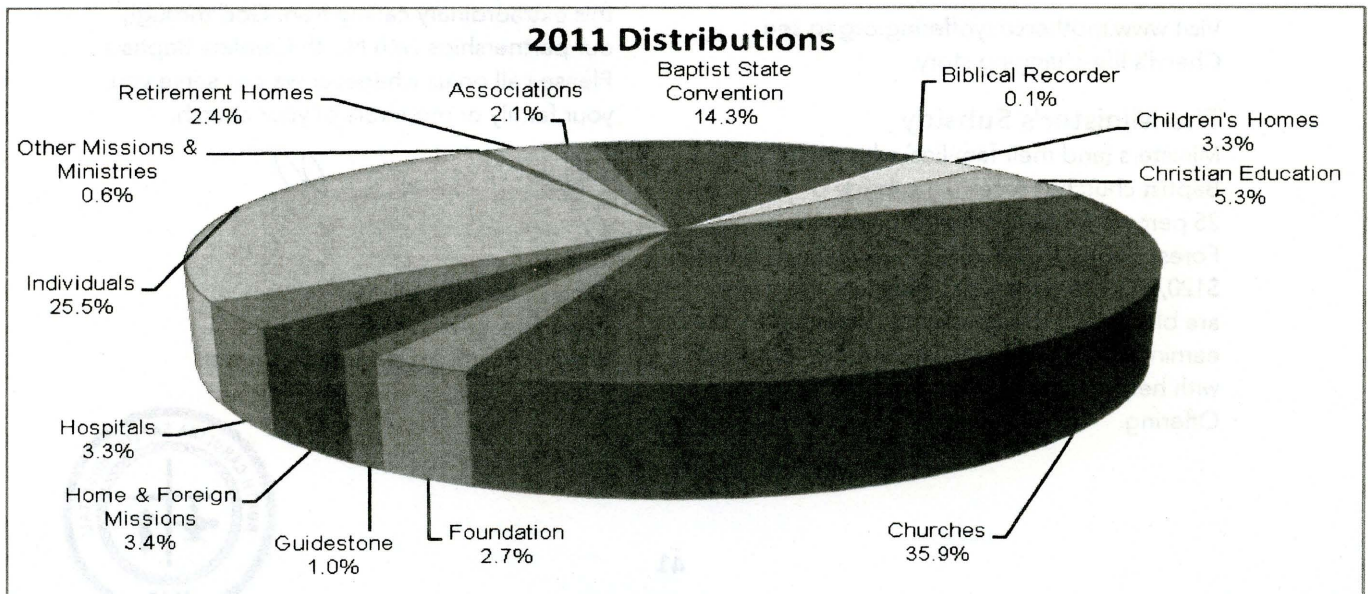

"Awake!" is a wonderful theme for our Baptist Convention meeting in 2012. It is based on Romans 13:11-14 where we are reminded by the Apostle Paul that as believers we must wake up, for our salvation is closer than when we first believed. And the North Carolina Baptist Foundation is wide awake to the need for greater support of ministry in the name of Christ. We are wide awake to our responsibility "to serve North Carolina Baptists and others in generating an increased awareness of Christian stewardship principals as a means of financially undergirding Baptist churches, institutions and mission endeavors on a permanent basis."

To that end, in 2011 our staff made some 149 presentations in Baptist churches and associations, institutions and agencies, as well as statewide Baptist senior adult conferences. We co-hosted Senior Adult Festivals at Campbell University, Chowan University and Mars Hill College, enabling us to further spread the word about the importance of Christian estate planning in supporting ministry in perpetuity. We also sponsored the 16th annual Noel Inspirational Retreat at Caraway Conference Center using as our theme, "Create An Ever-Flowing Fountain...With Your Last Will and Testament." Once again we co-sponsored two events with the Baptist State Convention, the 37th annual NC Baptist Development Officers Conference and the 11th annual NC Baptist Heritage Award Luncheon.

For the year we established 46 new accounts totaling $2,151,592.02. In addition, we received another $1,780,620.71 into existing accounts, for total receipts of $3,932,212.73 in 2011. During the same period, we distributed $1,938,346.99 to individuals through charitable trusts and $5,655,517.86 to charities, for a total distribution in 2011 of $7,593,864.85. On the investment side, our Growth Fund was down 6.03%, our Balanced Fund was down 1.75%, our Income Fund was up 3.11%, while our Fixed Income Fund was up 6.70%.

North Carolina Baptist Financial Services continued to thrive. In 2011, 13 loans closed totaling $7,100,000. The Church Growth Investment Fund, the investment arm of NCBFS that is the primary funding source of the loan ministry, has grown to over $27 million. NCBFS has made loans to NC Baptist churches for expansion to include new sanctuaries, family life centers, educational buildings, land purchase and major renovation projects.

Yes, "the night is far spent, and the day is at hand." So the North Carolina Baptist Foundation is committed to helping all North Carolina Baptists wake up the world to the Good News that is ours in Christ Jesus. We stand alongside the Baptist State Convention of NC and our churches to partner with them in reaching people for Christ, and to provide resources for sharing the Gospel until our Lord returns. We extend heartfelt gratitude to all NC Baptist churches that support our ministry through the Cooperative Program.

The Mother's Day Offering:

North Carolina Baptists gave over $620,000 in FY 2012 to the Mother's Day Offering, helping patients suffering from serious illness and devastating financial need pay their hospital bills in the name of Jesus Christ and His love. God works through every gift, each year leading hundreds of people closer to Christ in life-changing gratitude.

Cheryl Lyon

"The Mother's Day Offering saved me, and I am so very thankful," said Cheryl Lyon, a hard-working widow from Statesville who had heart disease. "Since my husband died, I've lived on a tight, fixed budget. I was terrified by the hospital bill and had nowhere to turn for help. But God's love was at work in my life. The care at Baptist was excellent, and I'm so thankful to be feeling better."

Visit www.mothersdayoffering.org to see Cheryl's life-changing story.

The Minister's Subsidy

Ministers (and their families) who serve N.C. Baptist churches receive a subsidy of up to 25 percent for their hospital bills at Wake Forest Baptist. In FY 2012, the subsidy topped $120,000. More than 100 ministers every year are blessed by this assistance, provided by the earnings of our W.K. McGee endowment fund with help as needed from the Mother's Day Offering.

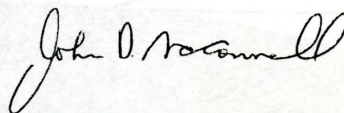

Additional Highlights at Wake Forest Baptist Health

Wake Forest Baptist Medical Center continues to be ranked among the nation's best hospitals in U.S. News and World Report (2012–2013).

- The 2011–2012 "Best Doctors in America" listing includes 288 physicians with Wake Forest Baptist.
- A six-story expansion of our Comprehensive Cancer Center will open in 2013, consolidating our nationally recognized cancer services in one location.
- For an appointment with one of our physicians, please contact HEALTH ON-CALL at 800-446-2255. Please visit WakeHealth.edu to learn more about our services.

Personal Words from the Chief Executive Officer

Providing the highest quality health care to those we serve is our sacred privilege and profound commitment. Thank you for sharing this extraordinary calling from God through our partnerships with North Carolina Baptists. Please call on us whenever we can serve you, your family or members of your church.

“Telling the Story”

Gerald Hodges, chair, board of dir.
K. Allan Blume, editor/president

The Biblical Recorder has been telling the story of North Carolina Baptists for 179 years. For most of that time the printed page was the primary source of communicating all forms of news and information. But in the past 15 years a seismic shift has occurred in the world of media. Electronic communication now dominates the information world. While staying on top of these changes is challenging, your Biblical Recorder staff is committed to doing whatever it takes to be your source for news, information and inspiration in Baptist life. We hope you like what you have seen in the past year. We have added a new managing editor, made significant changes in our website, upgraded the appearance of the printed edition, and introduced a new e-newsletter.

Last December the Recorder moved into the Baptist Building in Cary. We now occupy space which was originally built for the Recorder in the early eighties. This has been a very positive experience. Benefits include better communication with all aspects of Baptist life and a more efficient use of Cooperative Program dollars. We believe NC Baptists and the work of the kingdom are benefitting from the move.

The international financial crunch is changing the way churches do budgets and manage dollars. Sadly, some churches no longer include the Recorder in the budget. We believe the Recorder can help your membership become stronger believers and more generous givers. But they need to receive each issue and read it regularly. We hope you will encourage your congregation to read the Recorder. And, we hope you will make room in your budget to provide the printed edition – at least for your leadership – but for as many members who want it. There is a subscription plan that fits your church budget.

To all potential advertisers, we want to say that we can help you tell your message. Let us sit down with you and talk about the key principles for communicating your message. We can show you a strategy to reach the right audience.

We are pleased to serve you in partnership with North Carolina Baptists and Southern Baptists as we fulfill the Great Commission of our Savior. We are here to inform you and to be an instrument of connecting you to your fellow Southern Baptist partners in Kingdom work.

We continue to state our mission through three primary functions:

1. We will be biblical. We are committed to living up to the first word in our organization's title.
2. We will focus on fulfilling the Great Commission. This is the assignment Jesus gave us before He left this earth, with the promise to return again someday. Until He returns we will be intentional with His final command.
3. We resolve to glorify God. He is glorified through the obedience of His children to every command of scripture.

Regardless of what you have perceived the Biblical Recorder to be in the past, this is our present focus and commitment. The content of the print version and the content of our website reflects these three functions of our mission. Our commitment to these principles is the best way we know to stand with the pastors, church leaders and churches of North Carolina as we serve Almighty God together.

The Biblical Recorder receives support through your gifts to the Cooperative Program, allowing you to subscribe at rates which are much lower than the actual cost of production. We are proud to be an agency of the Baptist State Convention of North Carolina since 1939. Thank you for your partnership in the Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ. It is a privilege to join you in standing firm on the truth of scripture. “The grass withers, the flower fades, but the word of our God stands forever” (Isaiah 40:8).

Report for 2012 Book of Reports

Office of the GuideStone Team of the Baptist State Convention of NC, Inc.

During this past year the GuideStone Team of the Baptist State Convention of North Carolina worked closely with GuideStone Financial Resources of the Southern Baptist Convention to provide ministry to the more than 4,300 churches in our state convention. The following information is a summary of those joint efforts:

Retirement Planning

- Uncertain economic times continue to impact the number of church staff who are actively participating in the Church Retirement Plan. We have over 2,000 churches who have NO active participants...very SAD! I would shout with a loud voice-----AWAKE!!!...take advantage of the best retirement plan on the market today for paid church staff!
- State Convention Protection Benefits—for 2011 the following disability and survivor benefits were in place for retirement participants—120 persons received $641,741.94 in disability benefits and 28 deaths resulted in a distribution of $305,466.98 to beneficiaries.
- GuideStone Funds---honored with the coveted 2012 Lipper Award for the Best Overall Small Fund Group in the United States with up to $40 billion in assets. (Number 1 out of 182 funds) GuideStone is the first Christian-based, socially screened fund family to be so honored!

Insurance

- New Health Care Reform Law—in the wake of numerous lawsuits GuideStone continues to provide ongoing information to churches as the new health care reform law is developed for full implementation by 2014 if upheld by the Supreme Court. Updates are regularly posted on the GuideStone web site.
- Two new insurance options are now in place from GuideStone: the Basic Health 5000 Plan and Care Plans for senior adults as a medicare supplement---Care Basic Plan and Care Today Plan.

Staff Compensation

- Staff compensation that is structured in the most tax efficient way and administered legally continues to be an ongoing concern as more and more churches are being questioned by the IRS regarding how church staff are compensated. Unfortunately, the old “lump sum” pay package is still widely practiced by many of our churches. I would say...AWAKE!!!...there is a better way to compensate church staff!
- The 2012 Compensation Study is now available online for church leaders (staff search committees, personnel committees, budget/finance committees, etc.) to use in making sure they are compensating staff in an equitable manner regarding salary and benefits.

Mission Dignity

- GuideStone Financial Resources in Dallas continues to provide financial assistance to those elderly ministers and widows of ministers who live under financial duress and need ongoing and/or one time assistance through Mission:Dignity. This past year over 175 North Carolinians were assisted financially by GuideStone.

Finally, we continue to be honored with the privilege to serve all of our churches and their employees with appropriate information and products to meet their needs. Call the Baptist State Convention of NC at 1.800.395.5102 extensions 5594 or 5595, visit our Web site at www.ncbaptist.org, call GuideStone at 1.888.984.8433, or visit the GuideStone Web site at www.GuideStone.org for more information.

BY-LAWS OF THE TUCKASEIGEE BAPTIST ASSOCIATION, INC.

ARTICLE 1. NAME

The name of the body shall be the Tuckaseigee Baptist Association, Incorporated.

ARTICLE II. OBJECTIVES

The purpose of the Association is to be a fellowship of churches on mission in our setting. The specific objectives of the Association are as follows:

1. To promote harmony, understanding and spiritual power between the churches.
2. To afford and promote a larger fellowship of Christians in the work of Christ.
3. To provide such programs, projects and organizations as will strengthen the churches and assist them in achieving their goals and objectives.
4. To discover needs which cannot be met effectively by churches individually and to coordinate the use of resources in meeting these needs.
5. To encourage support by every church for the mission causes of the Association, the North Carolina Baptist Convention, and the Southern Baptist Convention.

ARTICLE III. AUTHORITY

SECTION 1. The Association shall have the power to elect and install its officers in whatever manner the body may deem expedient.

SECTION 2. The Association shall have power to recommend measures of usefulness and guidance to our churches in matters of organization, ordinations and questions of doctrines and discipline,

SECTION 3. The Association shall have no power to infringe upon the right of local churches as sovereign and independent bodies.

ARTICLE IV. MEMBERSHIP

SECTION 1. The Association shall be composed of regularly constituted Baptist churches in cooperating fellowship with the Southern Baptist Convention and following the teachings of the New Testament.

SECTION 2. The Association shall be the sole judge of its membership and may receive or reject churches applying for membership therein at its pleasure. Churches applying for membership shall agree to come under the watchcare of the Association for one year. It is understood that during this period of watchcare the church shall be entitled to all rights and privileges of the Association except those of voting.

Applications for membership shall be presented to the Credentials Committee of the Association. The applications will consist of a letter from a constituted church stating their desire to affiliate with the Tuckaseigee Baptist Association. The Credentials Committee as a part of the review process may invite the requesting church to a conference to discuss its history, its mission strategy, and any other information that may be pertinent to the application. The Credentials Committee may then approve the application and recommend them to the Executive Committee. The Executive Committee may by a simple majority vote accept the requesting church to come under the watchcare of the Association for one year. It is suggested that any church under watchcare participate in the missions program of the Association. At the end of the year, the church may be voted in as a member of the Association with full privileges by a two-thirds vote of the messengers present and voting at the annual meeting of the Association, provided that the church submits an acceptable letter and at least one messenger be present at the meeting.

SECTION 3. Any church may withdraw from the Association at its pleasure and should notify the Association of this action in writing. Such action will be recognized by the Association at the next annual meeting.

SECTION 4. It shall be the duty of each church to furnish the Associational Clerk, before each annual session, an annual letter, the forms provided by the Associational Clerk, giving the information requested as is applicable to each church situation.

SECTION 5. The Association may withdraw from any church which has become unscriptural in its doctrine or practices by a two-thirds majority vote of the messengers present and voting at the annual meeting. Such vote is to be taken by written ballot.

ARTICLE V. MEETINGS

SECTION 1. The Association shall hold its annual meeting on Thursday and Friday preceding the third Sunday in October. Special meetings of the Association may be called by the Executive Committee provided two weeks written notice is given to the member churches.

SECTION 2. Each church shall be entitled to be represented at the annual meeting by the pastor and one additional messenger. Churches which give to the association more than .5% of their undesignated receipts shall be entitled to an

The Clerk shall distribute to the clerk of each church in the Association blanks for the preparation of the church letter as soon as they are received from the State Convention. This form is to be returned to the Clerk of the Association not later than four weeks prior to the meeting of the body or by the deadline set by the Clerk and Director of Missions. All program reports should be returned by the same date.

An Assistant Clerk shall work with the Clerk in preparing the "Book of Reports," the annual minutes and the registration of messengers at the annual meeting.

SECTION 4. The Treasurer shall receive and dispense by order of the Executive Committee of the Association while in session, the money of the treasury and make a complete report at the Annual meeting and a current report at each Executive Committee meeting.

An Assistant Treasurer shall be elected to assist the Treasurer by request and to serve in the event the Treasurer resigns or is ill or unable to function.

SECTION 5. The Historian shall keep the records of the Association up-to-date.

SECTION 6. The Parliamentarian shall upon the request of the presiding officer of the body, advise and assist the Association with respect to all matters involving Parliamentary Procedure.

An Assistant Parliamentarian shall be elected. The Parliamentarian and Assistant should always communicate with each other to ensure that this office is filled at each Associational Annual or Executive Committee meeting.

SECTION 7. The Program Leaders and the Institutional Agency Representatives shall perform all duties customary to their titles and shall make a written report to the annual session of the Association.

SECTION 8. Trustees have no authority except by direction of the Association and are not personally bound by signatures but are to be the legal signees for the Association. Trustees represent the Association in legal matters. Trustees act on behalf of the Association in acquisition and disposal of Associational property.

They sign all deeds of conveyance, execute all notes, bonds or mortgages, intervene in all suits, by authority of the Association.

All persons dealing with the Trustees, as Associational officers, may rely upon any written resolution duly adopted by the Association or Executive Committee, directing and authorizing the Trustees to act in its behalf and certified by the Association Moderator and Clerk.

ARTICLE VIII. RULES OF ORDER

The business of the Association shall be conducted according to Robert's Parliamentary Practice or in a manner not contrary thereto.

ARTICLE IX. QUORUM

The quorum for the Annual Associational meeting or any special called meeting of the Association shall not be less than 25 percent of the member churches.

ARTICLE X. THE EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE

SECTION 1. The Executive Committee shall be composed of the General Officers and Program Leaders elected by the Association and the Pastor and one member from each church in the Association. No Pastor, by virtue of his being an Associational Officer or Program Leader shall be disqualified as a member of the Executive Committee, from representing the church or churches he may be serving in the Association. Twelve of these members shall constitute a quorum.

SECTION 2. It shall be the duty of the Executive Committee to act for the Association on matters arising when the Association is not in session and to make a report of all work to the next session of the Association. This body shall meet at a time and place designated by the Moderator on Monday following the first Sunday of each quarter except for the July quarter which shall meet on the second Monday of the month of July. Special meetings of the Executive Committee may be called by the Moderator with a one week notice to the churches.

SECTION 3. All vacancies occurring on committees or among elected officers shall be filled by the Executive Committee.

SECTION 4. In the event that a vacancy occurs with the Trustees, the Executive Committee should fill such vacancy for the remainder of the term.

ARTICLE XI. ASSOCIATIONAL STANDING COMMITTEES

SECTION 1. The Association shall have such standing committees as may be deemed necessary to promote efficiently the work of the Master in our midst. The terms of office for all committee members shall be for one year except where specifically stated otherwise.

SECTION 2. COMMITTEE ON COMMITTEES. It shall be the duty of this committee to nominate at the general meeting all standing committees as set forth under Article XI.

SECTION 3. THE NOMINATING COMMITTEE shall be composed of seven members. To this group the Directors of Sunday School, Discipleship Training, Woman's Missionary Union, Brotherhood and Music Ministry will be added.

The council shall meet quarterly.

ARTICLE XIII. THE ASSOCIATIONAL PASTORS' CONFERENCE

The Associational Pastors' Conference provides regular meetings for the Baptist ministers of the Association. The purpose of the conference is for fellowship and mutual support, for doctrinal and professional discussion and for promotion of church, Associational and other denominational programs. The conference is not an administrative or executive body.

ARTICLE XIV. JOB DESCRIPTION, DIRECTOR OF MISSIONS

SECTION 1. Title and Functions.

A. Position Title. This position shall be known as the Director of Missions for the Tuckaseegee Baptist Association.

B. Basic Functions. The Director of Missions shall serve as minister to the churches and church leaders of the Tuckaseegee Baptist Association, as mission strategist for the Association, as chief administrative officer for the Association, and as a general leader of the Association.

SECTION 2. Responsibilities.

A. Minister to Churches and Church Leaders.

1. The Director of Missions shall serve as pastor to the pastors of the Association. Upon request, the Director of Missions shall provide counseling and consultation for pastors regarding spiritual, vocational, congregational, personal or family concerns. The Director of Missions shall be available to assist pastors considering a move, shall orient new pastors to the Association, shall develop systems of pastoral support and fellowship, and shall provide growth opportunities for pastors.

2. Upon request, the Director of Missions shall assist and counsel pastors and church leaders regarding ministries, programs and procedures within the churches, including but not limited to building planning, budget procedures, long range or strategy planning, curriculum evaluation or review, issues of church policy and organization, church-community surveys, outreach, and spiritual growth.

3. Upon request, the Director of Missions shall assist and counsel churches regarding the calling of pastors or church staff, conflicts between a pastor and church, or conflicts within a church's fellowship. The Director of Missions shall assist churches without a pastor in their ministries and programs at their request and shall provide advice for persons considering a Christian vocation.

4. The Director of Missions shall be available upon request to preach or teach in and for churches on such occasions as revivals, pulpit supply, study courses, stewardship or missions emphasis, promotion or recognition assemblies and services, special day addresses, Vacation Bible School, and similar events.

5. The Director of Missions shall take the initiative to regularly visit churches for worship and fellowship, taking care to treat all churches as equal partners in the Association.

6. The Director of Missions shall develop opportunities to foster fellowship and mutual commitment between and among the churches.

B. Mission Strategist.

1. The Director of Missions shall encourage churches to develop and maintain a missions perspective and to extend their ministries and outreach beyond the local church field and community through broader involvement and cooperation with other churches in missions activities.

2. The Director of Missions shall interpret to the churches the needs of persons and groups within the Association's area and shall lead the Association to start new churches or ministry activities appropriate to the needs.

3. The Director of Missions shall encourage and lead volunteer involvement in mission activities beyond the Association's boundaries, such as home and foreign missions partnerships and disaster relief.

4. The Director of Missions shall interpret to the Association the mission work of the churches and conventions of the denomination at the state and national levels and shall encourage churches to support such work with their prayers, finances and personal commitment.

C. Chief Administrative Officer.

1. The Director of Missions shall administer all policies and instructions committed to that office by the Association in annual session or by the Executive Committee.

2. The Director of Missions shall work with the Executive Committee to plan, organize, coordinate, communicate and evaluate the total work of the Association.

3. The Director of Missions shall work with and assist Associational officers, committees and program leaders to implement the specific objectives of the Association and to communicate these activities to the churches and encourage their involvement.

4. The Director of Missions shall serve as an ex officio member of all committees and program departments of the Association.

5. The Director of Missions shall publish a regular Associational news medium to promote the work and fellowship of the Association among the churches and shall otherwise communicate with the churches as required.

6. The Director of Missions shall supervise the Associational office staff and any volunteers or other paid employees, full or part time, who are directly involved in ministries or activities sponsored by the Association.

7. The Director of Missions shall act as office and property manager and purchasing agent for the Association in all matters not assigned to the Trustees of the Association.

D. General Leader of the Association.

1. The Director of Missions shall interpret the work of the Association in the churches.

2. The Director of Missions shall maintain relationships with pertinent Baptist conventions and bodies, and especially with those denominational offices charged with Associational development and support, informing those bodies of the needs and potentialities in the Association and interpreting the overall work of the denomination to the churches.

3. The Director of Missions shall relate to other Christian and service organizations, such as local relief and assistance groups, hospital chaplaincy programs, groups that minister to the homebound or terminally ill, ministerial conferences or support groups, and similar organizations, as appropriate.

4. The Director of Missions shall relate to and represent the work of the Association to various business, social, educational, governmental and civic groups.

5. The Director of Missions shall act as chief public relations and information officer for the Association, promoting its work to the general public through the various communications media and responding to inquiries and requests for information as required.

SECTION 3. Terms of Employment.

A. Employment. The Director of Missions is employed by the Tuckaseegee Baptist Association.

B. Call, Termination and Interim.

1. A person shall be called to the office of Director of Missions according to the following procedures:

a. When a vacancy occurs in the office of Director of Missions, the Personnel Committee shall nominate a search committee to be elected by the Executive Committee. Election of the search committee shall take place within 30 days of the occurrence of the vacancy. If a regular meeting of the Executive Committee is not scheduled within 30 days, a special meeting shall be called by the Moderator. Executive Committee members shall be given two weeks' written notice of the names of the nominees to serve on the search committee and the date, time and place of the meeting.

b. Once elected, the search committee shall solicit and screen candidates according to qualifications and procedures which the committee shall determine. The search committee shall recommend and present one candidate for election by the Association.

c. Election of the candidate by the Association shall take place within 30 days of the search committee's decision to recommend. If the annual session of the Association is not scheduled within 30 days, a special session of the Association shall be called by the Moderator. The Association shall be given two weeks' written notice of the name of the candidate and the date, time, and place of the meeting.

d. Election of the candidate shall be by majority vote. If the candidate fails to receive a majority vote, the search committee shall be immediately dissolved and the Personnel Committee shall begin the process over again.

2. The term of service of the Director of Missions shall be indefinite. Employment of the Director of Missions may be terminated according to the following procedures:

a. The Director of Missions may resign by giving written notice 60 days in advance. The resignation may be accepted on behalf of the Association by the Executive Committee in regular or called session. By mutual agreement of the Director of Missions and the Executive Committee, the period of 60 days' notice may be waived.

b. The Director of Missions may be involuntarily terminated by the Association in annual or called session.

(1) No final action to terminate the Director of Missions shall occur unless both the Director of Missions and the Association have endeavored to resolve any existing conflict by lesser means. In addition, no final action to terminate the Director of Missions shall occur without prior investigation by the Personnel Committee according to established grievance procedures. The Personnel Committee shall then make a report of its findings to the Association. The Association shall consider, but shall not be bound by or required to follow, the recommendations of the Personnel Committee. If such an investigation and report has not occurred, any action to terminate the Director of Missions shall be referred to the Personnel Committee for investigation before final action is taken.

(2) Action by the Association to terminate the Director of Missions, whether in annual or called session, shall require 30 days' written notice to the Association following completion of the Personnel Committee's investigation. Action to terminate shall be by majority vote.

(3) If the Association in session votes to terminate, the Director of Missions shall receive full pay and benefits for a period of 60 days following the effective date of the termination.

3. When a vacancy occurs in the office of Director of Missions, the Executive Committee may elect an Interim Director of Missions according to the following procedure:

a. The Personnel Committee shall recommend a candidate, negotiate terms of employment, and present the recommendations to the Executive Committee for approval. Such election may take place at the same time and in the same manner as election of the search committee, or at any other appropriate time.

b. The Personnel Committee shall supervise the work of the Interim Director of Missions. Authority to extend, terminate, or otherwise change the terms of employment of the Interim Director of Missions shall be retained by the Executive Committee.

C. Accountability.

1. The Director of Missions shall be supervised by the Personnel Committee acting on behalf of the Association.
2. The Personnel Committee shall arrange for an annual evaluation of the Director of Missions.
3. The Personnel Committee shall establish a grievance policy to provide an orderly and appropriate process to hear grievances and complaints against the Director of Missions by members or churches of the Association.

D. Pay and Benefits.

1. Salary, retirement, insurance and other financial benefits for the Director of Missions shall be proposed by the Budget and Finance Committee and established by the Association in the annual budget. The Budget and Finance Committee shall solicit recommendations concerning pay and benefits for the Director of Missions from the Personnel Committee, but shall not be bound to accept those recommendations.
2. Travel allowance for the Director of Missions shall be deemed by the Association to be a business expense and not a personal benefit for the Director of Missions.
3. The Director of Missions shall receive two weeks paid vacation annually. The period of two weeks shall incorporate ten working days, including two Sundays. Unused vacation shall not accrue to the following year.
4. The Director of Missions shall receive sick leave at the rate of one day per month, accruing on the first day of the month, not to exceed 120 working days. Additional sick leave may be credited against future months. If the Director of Missions is involuntarily terminated by the Association, any unused sick leave accrued shall be financially reimbursed to the Director of Missions in addition to the 60 days' pay and benefits required by the act of termination.
5. The Director of Missions shall be granted one day off each week in addition to Saturday.
6. The following holidays shall be observed: New Year's Day, Easter Monday, Memorial Day, July 4, Labor Day, Thanksgiving Thursday and Friday, and December 25 and 26 at Christmas.
7. The Association acknowledges the flexibility of schedule required by the Director of Missions. The Director of Missions' time shall be organized in a professional manner, with the work schedule devoted to activities that will benefit the work of the Association, whether in the office or on the field and whether during the normal work day or at night. The Director of Missions shall establish office hours for the office secretary and shall be available, either through personal office hours or some other established procedure, to any in the Association needing assistance.
8. The Director of Missions may attend denominational conventions and meetings, continuing education and professional development events, and other assemblies and conferences pertaining to the work of the office. The Association through its annual budget may reimburse the Director of Missions for expenses incurred while attending such meetings.
9. The Director of Missions may use up to three weeks of paid leave annually to lead or participate in revivals, world missions conferences, and similar meetings outside the Association, which result in an honorarium or other reimbursement above and beyond expenses. The Director of Missions may lead revivals and conferences within the Association as schedule permits, such activities being included in the job responsibility of minister to the churches of the Association.
10. The Director of Missions may serve as interim pastor of a church or churches in the Association. Such activity may not exceed three months in a given calendar year without prior approval of the Personnel Committee. The Director of Missions may engage in pulpit supply and similar activities as schedule permits, such activities being included in the job responsibility of minister to the churches of the Association.
11. The Director of Missions may lead or participate in mission trips, mission partnerships, disaster relief, and other direct mission opportunities outside the Association, such activities being included in the job responsibility of mission strategist for the Association. Such activities may not exceed three weeks in a given calendar year without prior approval of the Personnel Committee.
12. The Director of Missions shall keep a record of leave and time spent off the Associational field, including vacation, sick leave, conventions and conferences, continuing education events, revivals and similar meetings, and mission trips. The record shall be submitted to and maintained by the Treasurer of the Association.
13. The Director of Missions shall be free to use off duty time to engage in personal activities and pursuits. Such activities shall not interfere with the professional responsibilities or activities and meetings that require the presence of the Director of Missions. The Director of Missions shall be aware that all personal activities reflect on the office and the job responsibility of general leader of the Association.
14. No honorarium shall be expected or required for any service performed by the Director of Missions in conjunction with official duties. However, any individual, group or church is free to present an honorarium if they so desire, and such may be retained by the Director of Missions and not submitted to the Association.

SECTION 4. Adoption.

- A. This job description supersedes, repeals and takes the place of any conflicting articles or statements in this Constitution or other documents of the Association.
- B. The Personnel Committee shall be responsible to maintain, update and revise this job description as required, making recommendations to the Association for approval as they are needed.

ARTICLE XV. AMENDMENTS

The constitution may be amended at any annual meeting of the Association by a two-thirds majority of the messengers present and voting, provided the amendment has been presented to the Constitutional Committee at least 10 days prior to the annual meeting and presented to the Association in printed form on the first day of the annual meeting to be voted on the second day.

ARTICLE XVI. NON-PROFIT STATUS

The Tuckaseegee Baptist Association, Inc. is organized exclusively for charitable, religious, and educational purposes, including, for such purposes, the making of distributions to organizations that qualify as exempt organizations under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986.
