Dear Mr. Montgomery:

Enclosed please find the copy-edited manuscript of your article for New Perspectives on Human Abortion, Hilgers, Horan, and Mall, editors.

Please reread your article, checking any changes that may have been made in sentences or content. We have tried to alter the original as little as necessary, but we want to give you this last look before the manuscript is typeset to make sure that the piece is coherent and expresses your views.

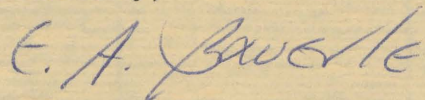

Also, check the queries written either on the pages themselves or on the attached yellow query slips. Please pay special attention to the footnotes: we have followed Harvard's A Uniform System of Citation in nearly all instances, the chief exception being the citation of nonlegal books and periodicals. In these cases we have followed the Chicago Manual of Style (12th ed.).

Please keep your alterations and additions as brief as possible, and avoid adding new sections for clarification or transition unless specifically requested to do so; in this way we will be able to avoid having to copy-edit the manuscript again when we receive it. Making your alterations in a color of ink not yet used on the pages will help us as well.

We would appreciate your returning this manuscript (please do not have it retyped) to us as soon as possible, and in any case no later than three days after you receive it. You should see galleys shortly after we receive the article from you.

Thank you for your cooperation and help.

Sincerely,

E.A. Bauerle
Manuscript Editor
