CHURCH EXTENSION PIONEER FIELD SEMINARS - 1976:

These are jointly sponsored by the Department of Church Extension, the Home Mission Board (SBC) and Southeastern Seminary. Orientation in New Orleans and the field seminars in Chicago, Illinois; Rochester, New York; and Phoenix and Tucson, Arizona will be held June 3 - August 15. Travel, room and board, and a stipend are provided by the Home Mission Board. You may earn 8 hours of credit through the seminary. Applications are available in the Field Education Office. For further information, please see Dr. George Braswell.

GRADUATING SENIORS: All seniors graduating in May, 1976 should complete graduation application forms in the Business Office as soon as possible.

SUMMER MINISTRIES:

Students interested in participating in summer, Christian, vocation positions should see Ken Bailey in the Field Education Office. Inquiries should be made as soon as possible.

F.O.C.U.S. TEAMS:

There will be an important F.O.C.U.S. (Fellowship of Christians United in Service) team meeting, January 22 at 8:00 p.m. in the Commons Room, Mackie Hall. Several opportunities for ministry are available. All who are interested should attend this meeting.

WAKE COUNTY TAXES:

All residents of Wake County as of January 1, 1976 are required to list personal property with the Wake County Tax Department by January 31. Instructions for filing are posted on the bulletin board in the business office.

RAPID READING COURSE:

A Rapid Reading class will be taught on campus beginning Tuesday, February 3. The class will meet on Tuesdays and Thursdays from 4:00-6:00p.m. through Tuesday, March 9. The course is designed to help the student improve his reading speed and comprehension, and carries no academic credit. The cost is $3.00 for the course, payable at the time of registration. Interested students should sign the sheet on the Appleby Hall bulletin board. The class will likely be limited to about twenty students and preference will be given to those who sign up early. The meeting area will be announced later and additional information can be obtained from Mr. Trotter in room 315, Stealey Hall.

INCOME TAX INFORMATION:

On Tuesday, January 27 from 7:00 - 8:00 p.m. Mrs. Sylvia Lorenz of the H and R Block Tax Service will hold a special class to answer questions and provide instruction in the filing of income tax. There is no charge for this class and interested students should meet in the conference room, second floor, Mackie Hall.

EVANGELISM OPPORTUNITY:

Bill Duke, a Junior at Southeastern Seminary via Florida, has established a Youth Evangelistic Effort to be of service to any interested churches. The threefold goals of the Evangelistic effort for each church are (1) to train an army of young people to make witnessing a lifestyle of sharing Jesus Christ; (2) to instruct the youth leadership (Adults) in the REACHOUT Strategy; and (3) to lead the entire church in a Youth-led Revival Crusade. For complete details please contact Bill Duke in Johnson Dormitory room 121, phone number is 556-1575, or write to P.O. Box 2022 at Southeastern Seminary.

BASKETBALL INTRAMURALS:

Last call for basketball sign ups. Deadline January 28, 1976. Sign up on bulletin board in Appleby Hall.

All Bulletin material should reach the office of the Director of Student Activities, second floor, Mackie Hall by Thursday noon of the week preceding the event to be noted. Material may also be placed in the Student Activities' box, second floor, administration building. All notices should be signed.
