1977-1978
Soc. Sci. 101

1. The first part of the course was devoted to the study of the history of the United States. We covered the period from the early colonial days to the present. The second part of the course was devoted to the study of the political system of the United States. We covered the Constitution, the Executive, the Legislative, and the Judicial branches.

2. The third part of the course was devoted to the study of the social system of the United States. We covered the problems of race, class, and social mobility. The fourth part of the course was devoted to the study of the economic system of the United States. We covered the problems of inflation, unemployment, and economic growth.

3. The fifth part of the course was devoted to the study of the foreign policy of the United States. We covered the problems of international relations, the Cold War, and the Vietnam War. The sixth part of the course was devoted to the study of the cultural system of the United States. We covered the problems of the arts, literature, and the media.

4. The seventh part of the course was devoted to the study of the environmental system of the United States. We covered the problems of pollution, resource depletion, and environmental protection. The eighth part of the course was devoted to the study of the international system of the United States. We covered the problems of global issues, international law, and the role of the United States in the world.

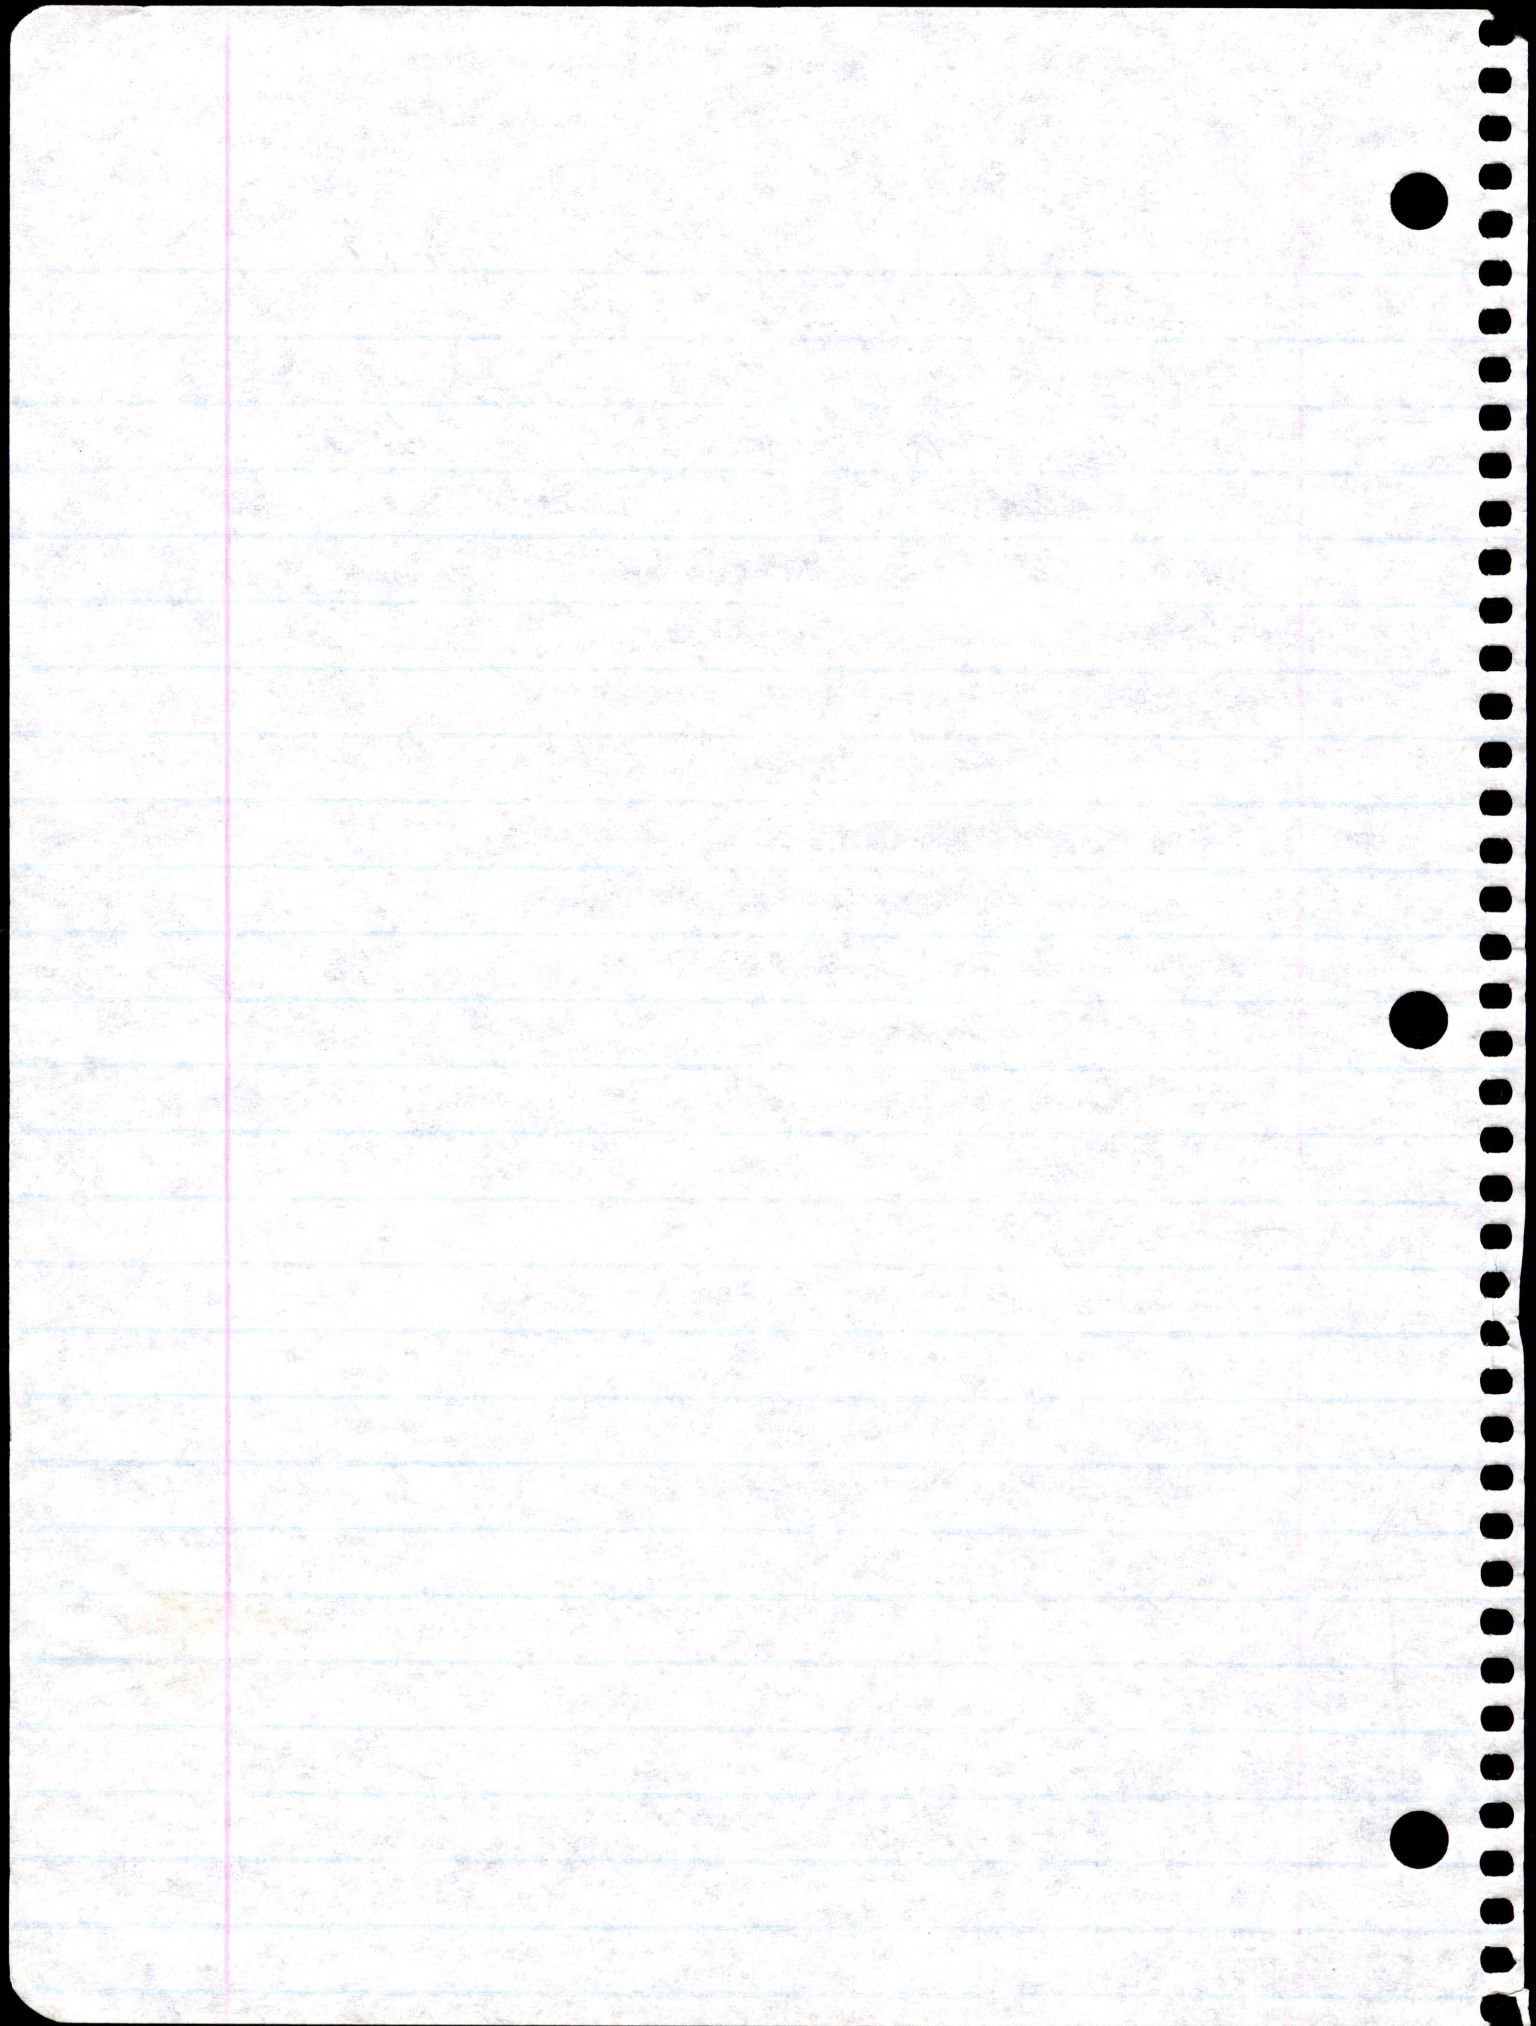

5. The ninth part of the course was devoted to the study of the future of the United States. We covered the problems of demographic change, technological change, and the role of the United States in the 21st century. The tenth part of the course was devoted to the study of the role of the United States in the world. We covered the problems of international relations, the Cold War, and the Vietnam War.

1. The first part of the paper is a description of the experimental method used in the study.

The results of the study are presented in the following table. The data show that there is a significant difference between the two groups.

The results are consistent with the findings of other studies in this area.

The authors conclude that
