

EVELYN PITTMAN (MRS. RONALD C.) HILL
Emeritus Southern Baptist Missionary
(Appointed May 1952, retired October 1993)

- Born: Feb. 17, 1927, in Whitakers, N.C.
- Education: Received the associate of arts degree from Mars Hill (N.C.) College, and the bachelor of arts degree from Wake Forest College (now University), Winston-Salem, N.C. Attended New Orleans (La.) Baptist Theological Seminary.
- Married: Ronald Hill of Spindale, N.C.
- Children: Four grown children.
- Assignments: Appointed missionary in 1952. Language study, Bangkok, Thailand, 1952-54; church and home worker, Chonburi, Thailand, 1954-63; Bangkla, Thailand, 1963-65; Bangkok, Thailand, 1965-73, where she taught English at the Student Center and courses in the seminary and was consultant for the Bible Correspondence Course in mass communications. Church and home worker in Chanthaburi, Thailand, 1974-75; and Bangkok, Thailand, 1975-84. In Bangkok she was wife of mission administrator and mission hostess, 1975-84. Church planting in Lampang, North Thailand, March 1985-August 1992, where she was English professor in Yonok College and consultant in English teaching, Assumption College. Retired Oct. 1, 1993.