V.A. CERTIFICATION:

Enrollment has been certified to the Veterans Administration for fall semester students who are veterans. A list is posted on bulletin boards around campus. If your name should be on this list but is not, please notify the Registrar's office.

SPECIAL SYMPOSIUM:

A symposium on, "Scientific Evidences for the Genesis Record of Creation," will be held on Thursday, September 20 at 7:30 in Appleby Chapel. Three 20 minute talks will be followed by an hour of open discussion. Speakers include C. Gerald Van Dyke, PhD., Assistant Professor of Botany, N.C. State; David R. Eshleman, electrical engineer and Jon M. Stucky, PhD, Associate Professor of Botany, N.C. State. The symposium is free and open to the public.

CHURCH EXTENSION
FIELD WORK:

The Church Extension New Work Field Seminars (H 2324 Practicum in Home Missions) will be held next summer in the greater Boston area, upstate New York and Springfield, Illinois. Eight hours credit may be earned with stipends and expenses available from the Home Mission Board. You may learn more about this opportunity in the chapel service on Wednesday, September 26. Interviews will be held in early October.

SUMMER DIG:

B 1040 - Field Archeology has been scheduled for the summer of 1980 for a seven week period from May 15 to July 7. Exact departure and return dates will be announced later. Further information is available from Dr. B. Elmo Scoggin.

BIBLICAL STUDY TOUR:

The annual Biblical Study Tour, B 1030, will be conducted February 26 - March 6, 1980. It is designed for students, alumni and interested friends who want more than a promotional, tourist-type trip to the Bible lands. The trip is conducted only on a super-deluxe basis primarily because the concentrated nature of the program makes it desirable to have only the best in eating and sleeping accommodations. If you or any of your church members and friends are interested, please contact Dr. B. Elmo Scoggin at Southeastern for details.

INSURANCE REP ON CAMPUS:

Mr. Gene Pleasants, Field Representative with Ministers Life and Casualty will be on campus Tuesday and Wednesday, September 18-19 in the Commons Room. Students are invited to come by for coffee and donuts (Tuesday only) and to discuss their insurance needs with Mr. Pleasants. Personal planning calenders will be available for all students.

DECEMBER GRADUATES:

Anyone eligible for graduation in December, 1979, please leave your name and address in the Student Council President's mailbox, second floor, Mackie Hall. Many people have expressed a desire for a December graduation this year and the Student Council is working toward that end.

BOWLING PARTY:

FAIR LANES on North Boulevard in Raleigh invites all Southeastern students to a bowling party. You can bowl free from 3:30 to 6:00 p.m. on Wednesday, September 19. The manager, Jim Lail, will meet with those interested in forming a league.

BSU CONVENTION GOERS:

The Mission and Ministry Conference committee needs you to assist us in publicizing our conference at the fall BSU conventions in Fla., Ga., S.C., N.C., Va., Tenn., D.C. and Maryland. The task will not be large but is essential to the success of our Conference, February 22-24. If interested, please contact Jo Ann Wright at 556-3890.

VIETNAMESE REFUGEES:

The Student Council is considering the possibility of sponsoring a Vietnamese refugee family. Those interested should contact Joe O'Connell (556-3529) or David Upshaw. In addition a conference on the Indo-Chinese refugee situation sponsored by the Raleigh Baptist Association will be held at Forest Hills Baptist Church, Raleigh, at 7:30 p.m. on September 20. Car pools will be available.

IT'S HERE:

It's been coming and now it's here! The student lounge opens Monday night, 5:30-11:00 p.m. in the Mackie Hall Commons Room. Bring your friends or come and meet new ones. We'll have fun, color T.V., stereo and refreshments (bring your favorite album)!
