Shirley Completes Term on Southeastern's Board of Trustees

Wake Forest, NC - On March 12, 1991, Robert Shirley, pastor of Parkway Baptist Church in Tupelo, MS, completed his final term on the Board of Trustees for Southeastern Baptist Theological Seminary. Shirley, who served as second vice president for the Mississippi State Baptist Convention and as a trustee for Mississippi Baptist Seminary, became a trustee at Southeastern in 1981 and was reelected in 1986.

In recognition of Shirley's contributions and leadership as a trustee, Southeastern president Dr. Lewis Drummond presented him with a plaque of special appreciation.

Shirley has pastored Parkway church since 1956. He received his A.B. from Mercer University in 1949 and his M. Div. from New Orleans Baptist Theological Seminary in 1952. Shirley and his wife, Lanelda, live in Tupelo. They have raised two children, Elizabeth Slaughter and David Shirley.
