NOTICES:

SEMINARY CHOIR: The Seminary Choir will have its first meeting on Tuesday, September 2 at 7:00 p.m. in Binkley Chapel, ground floor. Wives of seminary students are cordially invited to sing in the choir without a class fee charge. Men should come by the music classroom for a simple audition after 11:00 a.m., on Tuesday, September 2. One hour's credit is available through M5200.

ENQUIRY STAFFERS NEEDED: Do you want to be part of something that is significant on campus? Are you interested in what is happening at SEBTS? Can you spare a few hours per month for a worthy cause? If so, the staff of THE ENQUIRY wants you! The student newspaper has openings for anyone who wants to work in any area. No previous experience is required but would be welcomed. Every club and organization on campus needs a reporter. Every dorm needs a reporter. We want sports news and club news and feature stories. Would you like to write a column? Could you do book, movie or record reviews? Can you type? This year THE ENQUIRY will be the biggest and best ever...and YOU can be a part of it. Drop by the ENQUIRY Office (second floor of Mackie Hall) on Monday or Tuesday night September 8 or 9 from 7-9 p.m. The coffee pot will be on. Don't say you haven't been asked!

GYM STORAGE SPACE: Storage space for residents of Seminary housing is available on a limited and first-come basis in the basement of the gymnasium. Interested persons are asked to notify Plant Services at extensions 260 or 229. Anyone currently having items stored in the gym is asked to notify Plant Services, and check to see that personal property has been properly identified. "Conditions for storage" forms must also be signed if this has not been done in the process of moving into the storage space at an earlier time. Items not identified/claimed by September 5, 1980, will be considered abandoned and disposed of according to established procedure. Persons no longer residents of Seminary housing are reminded that there is a 30 day limit on storage after moving from the campus.

ACADEMIC DEADLINES: All students are reminded of the following deadlines: September 15, 4:30 p.m. - Last day to add a course or to withdraw from the seminary without penalty. September 26, 4:30 p.m. - Last day to drop courses without penalty.

FACULTY/ADMINISTRATIVE STAFF NOTES:

(1) Dr. Albert L. Meiburg, Dean of the Faculty since 1975, has asked President Lolley to relieve him of his responsibilities as Dean at the end of his current six-year term, on July 31, 1981. He is applying to the Trustees for a study leave during the academic year 1981-82, in order to assume full time teaching duties in pastoral care in the fall of 1982. (2) Dr. John W. Tresch, who has served as associate professor of evangelism for the past two years on a presidential appointment, has asked that his name not be considered for permanent appointment. He will continue teaching through this academic year. (3) Beginning August 1, Mr. G. Paul Fletcher assumed the position of Business Manager. (4) Mr. O. L. Cross is now serving as the Director of Housing. The housing office is located on the second floor of Mackie Hall. (5) The title and function of Mr. Clarence Pearce in the Plant Services department has been changed to, "Assistant Director of Plant Services and Director of Maintenance." He will be in charge of scheduling maintenance requests and supervising maintenance personnel.

SEMINARY YOUTH MINISTRY:

Southeastern has already begun its second year of a specialized ministry to the youth (ages 12-19) of seminary families: An exciting program has been developed under the leadership of Mrs. Judy Powell, a second year M.Div/RE student. Activities are planned to promote fellowship, recreation and personal/spiritual enrichment. If you have children and have not turned in an information form, please contact the Student Affairs office (556-3101, ext. 263) or Judy Powell (556-4642). Activities and programs will be announced through special notices, the youth bulletin board in Mackie Hall and through the Campus Bulletin.

MUSIC NOTES:

Brass Ensemble: All brass players (especially trumpet) are invited to participate in the formation of a Brass Ensemble. The ensemble will meet one hour weekly with ½ hour credit available. Contact Dr. James Good or Ron Whitley. A.G.O.: The student chapter of the American Organist Guild will hold its organizational meeting on Friday, September 12 at 10 a.m. in Binkley Chapel.

SWIMMING CLASSES:

Swimming instruction is available to seminary students in the following programs: Teaching Your Child to Swim - for parents with children 2½ years old or under. Offered Mon.-Fri., 10:00-11:00 a.m. Beginning and Intermediate Swimming - for all seminary students. 1-2 p.m. and 5-6 p.m., Mon.-Fri. Advanced Lifesaving - Mon.-Fri., 5-7 p.m. Register Tuesday, Sept. 2 at the Wake Forest pool at 5 p.m. For information or to register, contact Jim Rhodes at 556-9911, 556-5592 or the Student Affairs Office.

PARKING REGULATIONS:

Beginning Tuesday, September 2, all parking regulations will be strictly enforced. All vehicles parked on seminary property must be properly registered and have the required decal displayed.

FALL STUDENT COUNCIL ELECTIONS:

The nominating committee will be accepting nominations for the following Student Council Class representatives this fall: M.R.E. (1), M.Div. junior class (3), Associate junior class (1), D. Min. (1), Th.M. (1). Nominations are open for 3 weeks after which the list of candidates is posted. Resumé forms may be picked up from V-P box, second floor Mackie Hall and returned to the same location. This is your opportunity to become involved in the ministry of the Student Council and in the life of Southeastern.

SEMINARY WIVES:

The Seminary Wives Organization will sponsor an orientation for all women of the seminary family on Monday, September 15th. A tour of the campus will begin at 7:00 p.m. in Stealey Hall. The program will begin at 7:30 p.m. in the Bethea Room of Appleby Hall. Child Care will be available (check Bulletin next week for cost). All seminary women are invited to this time of fellowship and fun.

COUNSELING SERVICES AND SPECIAL PROGRAMS:

"Parenting Alone," a one day workshop for single parents, will be offered at the Life Enrichment Center in Raleigh on September 13 from 9-5. Cost: $10.00 for seminary students. Call 874-1744 to register. Pastoral counseling is available for all SEBTS students and their families at the health center. Lyman Ferrell and Kathryn Kort from the L.E.C. will be on campus. Call Pat Gropp (ext. 217) to make an appointment for counseling. MMPI interpretations may also be scheduled. Look for announcements when the evaluations have been received.

Material for the Campus Bulletin should reach the Student Affairs office by 12 noon Wednesday.
