LIBRARY SERVICE Plans are being made to move the Library
DURING LIBRARY MOVE: between semesters. Our goal is to open for service in the library building on January 18, 1977. The Library will not be able to provide service during the period between semesters, beginning 4:30 p.m. on December 17. Some will want to plan ahead for meeting known needs for library materials during this period. However, strange as it may seem, we need as many books as possible checked in in order to allocate shelfspace more precisely.

INTERNATIONAL FELLOWSHIP:

The International Fellowship will be having a Thanksgiving meal on Saturday, November 27 at 6:30 p.m. at the Poerschke's home, 305 W. Juniper Ave. If you plan to attend, contact Rodney Simmonds (556-3794) by 6:00 p.m. November 23. A fellowship meeting has also been planned for December 2 at 7:30 p.m. at Mr. and Mrs. James Burnham's home. If you plan to attend this meeting, contact either Rodney Simmonds, Donna Dudley or Jonas Ijiomah by 6:00 p.m. December 1. The International Fellowship is a group of international students, foreign missionaries and those planning to enter foreign mission work. All are welcome at our meetings. For more details contact the chairman, Rodney Simmonds or the secretary, Donna Dudley.

THANKS:

The Student Council Ethics Committee wishes to express appreciation to everyone who served as volunteer workers and donors during the recent Bloodmobile held on our campus.

EIGHTEEN ENTRIES FOR LOGO:

Eighteen entries for a Southeastern logo were received from ten different persons by the Institutional Development office. Entries were due by October 31. A panel of impartial and qualified judges will begin the task of selecting the winning entry. The winning selection will be announced and an appropriate recognition of the winner will be made in the near future. All entries will be posted on campus following the announcement. Many thanks to all who submitted designs.

LOOKING AHEAD

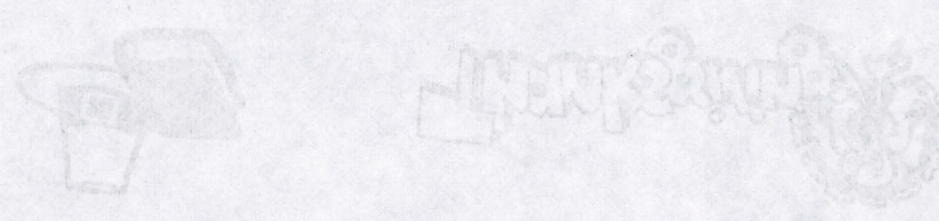

A special Christmas tree lighting for the entire community will be held Friday, December 3 on the east side of the seminary campus. In addition to a program around the tree, those attending will be invited to the seminary cafeteria for hot chocolate and cookies.

All Bulletin material should reach the office of the Director of Student Activities, second floor, Mackie Hall by Wednesday, November 24 for the next bulletin. Material may also be placed in the Student Activities box, second floor, administration building.
