STATEMENT OF INSTITUTIONAL PURPOSE —

Southeastern Baptist Theological Seminary prepares men and women by means of academic studies and practical preparation for leadership roles in Baptist churches and in other Christian ministries.

Identity and Values—Southeastern is an institution of higher learning established and supported by the Southern Baptist Convention. The Seminary has a College program and a Seminary program, both of which operate as integral parts of the institution. The Institution maintains an administration and faculty whose convictions and calling reflect consistent adherence to the institution's Abstract of Principles and the Baptist Faith and Message 2000. Southeastern's administration and faculty are qualified by personal commitment to Christ, by academic preparation, and by personal and professional experience to provide guidance in spiritual, intellectual, and practical endeavors.

Through its administration and faculty, Southeastern offers a program of undergraduate and graduate instruction and personal disciplines, preparing men and women for Christian ministry and service consistent with the Baptist Faith and Message 2000 in churches, on mission fields, in schools, colleges, seminaries, and through other Christian ministries throughout the world. Southeastern that lays a strong foundation in classical studies and in a range of educational disciplines. The graduate programs of the Seminary focus on theological education and on the professional skills needed for programs of academic studies and practical preparation for ministry.

Academic Studies—Southeastern seeks to prepare men and women by helping them discern, defend, and proclaim God's revealed truth. Southeastern pursues high academic standards in providing courses of study in a range of academic disciplines. A contribution of Southeastern is its emphasis in all of its programs on understanding the Bible and the history, content, and contemporary relevance of the Christian faith. Southeastern is committed to the inerrancy and sufficiency of the Bible as the foundation for effective Christian ministry and service.

Practical Preparation—Southeastern emphasizes an intelligent and intentional evangelism in obedience to the Lord Jesus Christ's commission to make disciples of all nations. Spiritual development in Christlikeness and Bible-based theological studies will produce a compassionate desire to minister to the human suffering caused by individual, social, and spiritual evils. Both the seminary and the college programs provide practical preparation for a wide variety of Christian ministries, with special focus on proclaiming the Gospel and extending the ministry of the local church.

SEBTS VISION STATEMENT

Vision: The mission of Southeastern Baptist Theological Seminary is to equip, train, and mobilize God-called men and women to impact the world for Christ. We accept the commission and the challenge from Southern Baptist churches to prepare God-called men and women spiritually, saints" and to fulfill the Great Commission in all the world. To that end, Southeastern desires to see student verbally sharing witness to Jesus Christ both here and in global settings where each world that needs that witness so urgently.

Southeastern seeks to instill unqualified faith in and voluntary obedience to the person and work of Jesus Christ and a commitment to the Bible as the inerrant, authoritative, and sufficient Word of God. Fostering spiritual growth in the grace and knowledge of the Lord Jesus Christ as essential preparation for Christian ministry and service, Southeastern will encourage the formation of Christian thought and Christ through seeking and following the guidance of the Holy Spirit in accordance with Scripture.

INTRODUCTION

Southeastern Baptist Theological Seminary is an educational institution of the Southern Baptist Convention (SBC). The Seminary is governed by a Board of Trustees elected by the Convention. These Trustees elect the President, Administrative Cabinet, the Faculty, and approve the budget and policies of the school. The Seminary receives a major part of its operating expenses from the SBC's Cooperative Program. These funds are supplemented by student fees and special gifts from alumni and friends. Southeastern College at Wake Forest is a school within the Seminary that offers undergraduate and graduate programs that supplement the graduate and professional theological education provided by the Seminary.

Location

Wake Forest, North Carolina is home to the approximately 300-acre campus of Southeastern. The school is located 10 miles north of Raleigh and 25 miles east of Durham, both centers of education and business. Coupled with Chapel Hill, the three cities comprise an area known as the Research Triangle of North Carolina. The vibrant Triangle area is home to three of the nation's major universities: Duke, The University of North Carolina, and North Carolina State. Wake Forest is on US 1 at NC 98. It is serviced by the Raleigh-Durham airport (RDU) and is easily reached from Interstates 95, 85, and 40.

Campus Visits for Prospective Students

Arrangements can be made for prospective students to tour the campus, see seminary housing, visit classes, and meet other students, professors, and administrators. Accommodations and meals will be made available to prospective students for up to two days without charge. To make reservations for a visit, please call toll free:

History

Southeastern Baptist Theological Seminary became a reality on May 19, 1950, by vote of the Southern Baptist Convention meeting in Chicago, Illinois. To house the Seminary, the Convention purchased the campus of Wake Forest College in Wake Forest, North Carolina — recognized then and now as one of the most beautiful in the South. But more than beauty, the campus claimed a Baptist heritage. The property was originally obtained in 1832 by the Baptists of North Carolina in order to build a college for educating ministers.

Trustees, elected by the Convention, secured a charter and adopted the Abstract of Principles as the Seminary's Articles of Faith. Next they elected the Seminary's first president, Dr. Sydnor L. Stealey.

In the Fall of 1951, Southeastern began classes. Opening day, September 12, was attended by 85 students and three faculty members. The Seminary met in the classroom building now known as Appleby Hall on the Wake Forest campus. At first, the Seminary offered only a basic theological program leading to a Bachelor of Divinity degree.

In 1956, when Wake Forest College moved to its new location in Winston-Salem, NC, Southeastern inherited the rest of the Wake Forest campus which covered five hundred acres and consisted of more than twelve major buildings. The number of faculty members and students grew and plans to remodel and renovate buildings were initiated. In 1957, Southeastern instituted a summer school session.

In 1958, the Seminary achieved recognition from the American Association of Theological Schools, now known as the Association of Theological Schools in the United States and Canada.

In 1963, after thirteen years of devoted service, Dr. Stealey retired and Dr. Olin T. Binkley was elected president. Enrollment stood at 575 and the school had 28 faculty members.

Under Dr. Binkley's leadership the Seminary continued the renovation program begun by Dr. Stealey. Four outdated buildings were removed, and thirteen new buildings were constructed and paid for—all during Dr. Binkley's eleven year administration.

Dr. Binkley also guided major academic changes: the general curriculum was revised; the Bachelor of Divinity degree became the Master of Divinity degree; the Master of Religious Education and the Doctor of Ministry degrees were implemented, bringing the total number of degree programs to seven. Furthermore, he inaugurated the annual Alumni Giving Program before his retirement in 1974.

Southeastern's third president, Dr. W.

Randall Lolley, was elected in 1974. Enrollment had reached 663 with 24 elected faculty members. His was an era of progress for the Seminary. The Certificate of Theology was restructured in 1976 and became the Associate of Divinity degree. In 1977, the Emery B. Denny Building which houses the Library was modernized and enlarged. And, in 1978, Southeastern received accreditation by the Southern Association of Colleges and Schools.

To meet the needs of an ever-increasing married student population, the Seminary constructed 100 townhouse-style apartments in 1979. Renovation of Lea Laboratory, now known as Broyhill Hall, was begun in 1980. In 1982, the ground floor of Binkley Chapel was transformed into classrooms.

Seminary enrollment peaked at 1,392 in 1983 with a faculty of 36. The modernization of Adams Hall in 1984 provided the Seminary with more classrooms, seminar rooms, an auditorium, and a photography darkroom. The Ledford Center, a $2.5 million complex completed in 1986, provided a gymnasium, snack bar, lounges, meeting rooms, book store, sauna and exercise rooms.

Dr. Lolley resigned in the Fall of 1987 and was succeeded in 1988 by Dr. Lewis A. Drummond. The Drummond presidency marked a transitional era for Southeastern. Student enrollment declined and a major turnover occurred within the faculty. Nevertheless, Dr. Drummond led in an administrative restructuring of the Seminary in 1988 and in the establishment of the Center for Great Commission Studies in 1991. Reconstruction of the perimeter rock wall, replacement of the brick walkways, and a major refurbishment of administrative and faculty offices also were begun. Southeastern's commitment to biblical inerrancy and to historic Baptist theological principles was made clear during the Drummond years. Several new defining documents such as the Seminary's "Faculty Profile" and revised "Statements of Purpose and Mission" were finalized and adopted in 1992.

For the academic year, 1990-1991, the enrollment stood at 784 with 27 elected faculty members. President Drummond retired in the Spring of 1992.

Trustees elected Dr. Paige Patterson as the fifth President of the institution in 1992. Southeastern's enrollment grew from 623 in 1991-1992 to more than 2,300 in 2002-2003. Curriculum revisions in 1994 brought about a more traditional theological degree plan.

In the Fall of 1994 Southeastern Baptist Theological College was established as a school of Southeastern Seminary. The Baccalaureate program began in January of 1995, and the Associate of Divinity program became part of the college curriculum. In April 2000 by action of the Board of Trustees, the name of the College was changed to Southeastern College at Wake Forest.

Innovative seminary programs in Counseling and International Church Planting and a Doctor of Philosophy degree were inaugurated in 1995. New programs in Women's Studies and Advanced Biblical Studies were begun in 1998, along with an expanded undergraduate program. Programs in Christian School Administration, North American Church Planting, and a new Master's degree in Theological Studies began in 1999.

Curriculum revisions in 2001 strengthened both the M.Div. and M.A. programs by adding a required course on Marriage and Family. In the same year, Trustees supplemented the confessional stance of the school by adding the Baptist Faith and Message 2000 to the By-Laws. 2002 saw expanded off-campus programs, and new Master of Arts (Christian Studies). Completion of a self-study leading to reaffirmation of accreditation and approval of a new masters program in Ethics were noted in 2003. Patterson also led the school to embark on a fifty million dollar campaign looking toward a new student center, classrooms, a new fine arts center, and new library.

Statement on Accreditation

Southeastern Baptist Theological Seminary is accredited by the Association of Theological Schools in the United States and Canada (10 Summit Park Drive, Pittsburgh, PA 15275-1103: Telephone number 412-788-6505).

Southeastern Baptist Theological Seminary is accredited by the Commission on Colleges of the Southern Association of Colleges and Schools (1866 Southern Lane, Decatur, GA 30033-4097: Telephone number 404-679-4501) to award associate, bachelors, masters, and doctoral degrees.

Disclaimer Statements

This catalog sets forth seminary policies as of the date of publication. However, Southeastern reserves the right to make such changes in educational and financial policy as the Seminary's Faculty, Administration and/or Board of Trustees may deem consonant with sound academic and fiscal practice. The Seminary has made a good faith effort to avoid typographical errors and other mistakes in the statements of policy as published in this catalog. In any case, erroneous catalog statements do not take precedence over properly adopted policies.

This catalog is not to be in any way construed as a contract between the institution and any student or group of students or alumni.

Moreover, the degree programs offered by this institution are not guaranteed to produce the necessary qualifications for licensure or ordination to the ministry in any church, denomination, or religious group. Theological education does support ordained ministries, but students are responsible for contacting and approaching church leaders to discover the role seminary degrees may play in the overall preparation and qualifications for specific ministries.

Further, the Seminary reserves the right to require a student to withdraw from enrollment at any time.

CAMPUS AND FACILITIES

Even though Southeastern Baptist Theological Seminary has a history covering only five decades, the campus has a heritage spanning more than 150 years. In 1832, the Baptists of North Carolina purchased the 615-acre plantation of Dr. Calvin Jones for the purpose of establishing a teaching facility for young ministers.

The institution they established became Wake Forest College and in 1950, more than a century later, the Wake Forest campus was purchased by the Southern Baptist Convention as the home of Southeastern Baptist Theological Seminary.

Southeastern's campus is noted for its splendid natural beauty as well as its graceful classic Georgian architecture. The grounds are rich with magnolias, elms, pines, oaks, cedars, firs, maples, and other varieties of trees. There is also an abundance of azaleas, camellias, sasanquas, dogwoods, and flowering fruit trees.

As a result, the campus offers resplendent views all year around, but especially in the fall and spring. Many of the trees were growing on the land even before the plantation and are centuries old. Several massive white oaks, part of a magnificent grove near the plantation house, still stand on the Southeastern campus. In fact, this grove was called Wake Forest and gave the town its name.

Another historic landmark, the stone wall now surrounding the central campus, was begun about 1885 by Wake Forest College president Charles E. Taylor and "Dr. Tom" Jeffries. The wall was rebuilt by Doug Buttram, a Southeastern graduate, during 1990-1994.

Over the years, Southeastern has complemented the natural setting with dogwoods, hollies, and an array of flowers. The original Wake Forest College buildings have been renovated, and new ones have been added. Yet, with each change, the goal has been to maintain the character of the original campus and land. Today, Southeastern's campus comprises a full range of excellent facilities for living and learning.

The idea of a Prayer Garden was begun by students in the Class of 1983 with a graduation gift of $546.00 and has been expanded as funds have become available. In 1991, an anonymous donor gave a gift of the gazebo which is placed in the center of the garden as a formal place of quiet prayer. The Prayer Garden's landscaping design is based on the classical gardens of peace and solitude found throughout the Orient. The Prayer Garden and gazebo are located at the southwest corner of the campus between Lolley Hall, the Shaw House, and Stephens-Mackie Hall.

Stealey Hall was built by Wake Forest College in 1934. It replaced the Old College Building, later named Wait Hall, which had been destroyed by fire in 1933. In 1956 it was completely renovated for offices of the administration and faculty. It was renamed in 1961 in honor of the Seminary's first president, Dr. S. L. Stealey.

Appleby Hall was begun by Wake Forest College in 1942 and completed during World War II. From 1951 to 1956, this building housed the new Seminary. It was remodeled, and in 1962, renamed in honor of Mr. Scott B. Appleby in recognition of his generous support of the student aid fund. It contains a small chapel, classrooms, offices, and a newly furnished lecture room, named in memory of Dr. and Mrs. Percy A. Bethea. Appleby Hall provides the offices and classrooms of Southeastern College.

Binkley Chapel

Adams Hall, erected in 1933, first housed the Wake Forest Medical School (now the Bowman Gray School of Medicine). Renovated in 1956, it served as a classroom building for the Seminary. In 1984 it underwent a complete modernization, with additional stairwells, an elevator, air conditioning, and other modern conveniences. In the fall of 1984 it was dedicated to the memory of the late Theodore F. Adams.

Binkley Chapel commands the center of the campus. Its tall spire is visible for several miles along every approach to Wake Forest. Work was begun on the chapel in 1942, but World War II prevented the completion of the interior. When the college moved to Winston-Salem in 1956, the work was resumed and completed in 1958. In 1959, a three-manual Reuter organ was given and installed as a memorial to Walter M. Williams of Burlington, North Carolina. In 1969, the Board of Trustees named the chapel in honor of the Seminary's second president, Dr. Olin T. Binkley. The ground floor of the chapel was redesigned in 1982 and furnished as five modern classrooms and church music facilities, including organ and piano practice areas. In 1987, the chapel organ was renovated and enlarged to 70 ranks by the Schantz Organ Company, Orrville, Ohio. In 1998, the chapel platform was remodeled to make it more open and versatile.

The Emory B. Denny Building was constructed by the Seminary in 1958 to replace the old Heck-Williams Building (1878) which was razed in 1957. In 1969, the Board of Trustees named it in honor of Dr. Emery B.

Denny, former Chief Justice of the Supreme Court of North Carolina, a trustee of the Seminary and a longtime friend and supporter.

The Seminary Library, housed in the Emory B. Denny Building, is dynamically involved with faculty and students in the achievement of educational objectives. It provides resources and services to support the research and study of the faculty and to meet the needs of students for the free and independent study which is stimulated by classroom, chapel, and other components of student life situations. Provided also is a broad range of materials for the general educational, cultural, and recreational interests of students, faculty, and their families.

A major building project, completed in 1977, has transformed the Library's Emery B. Denny Building into a modern facility, enlarged by fifty percent and redesigned functionally. Individual study-carrels and materials on open shelves are dispersed throughout the carpeted, airconditioned building. Audiovisual facilities, microform readers and printers, a computer lab, group-study rooms, and photocopying equipment are also provided. In this setting, personal service is emphasized by a staff of seven full-time and twenty part-time persons.

The Library's collection has grown to more than 300,000 items including books, periodical volumes, music scores, music recordings and audiovisual materials, microforms, computer software, and Baptist documents. Currently received periodicals total over 1,100 titles. The microforms, containing approximately 95,000 volumes of books, periodicals, and dissertations, make this young library's collection strong in Early American and Early British materials, including important Baptist history resources. The collection is adequate to serve all of the seminary's programs of study.

The resources and services of the Library are augmented greatly by the proximity of excellent university libraries and by an increase in both the scope and degree of cooperation with these libraries and others throughout the nation. As a charter member of the Southeastern Library Network (SOLINET), the Library is using a shared computer facility by means of an on-line computer terminal. The Library also participates in the North Carolina Information Network.

In addition to funds allocated to the Seminary by the Southern Baptist Convention, the Library benefits from the generosity of many individuals and organizations. Each year, a number of cash gifts are received for the purchase of books. Eighty-four gifts, each of one thousand dollars or more, are providing endowment income for "memorial book shelves." Several gifts of private book collections have added significantly to the Library's strength. During the summer of 1995, the Library installed the Dynix Marquis Integral Library Automation System. This tool for bibliographical research enables all users to perform search and retrieve tasks via a personal computer.

Broyhill Hall is the oldest building on Southeastern's campus and is listed in the National Register of Historic Buildings. Built in 1888 as Lea Laboratory, it served Wake Forest College as a science building and then as the chemistry building. After the college moved, it was converted into a student center for the Seminary. In 1980 it was extensively renovated and renamed Broyhill Hall in appreciation of the generous gifts of J. E. and Paul Broyhill, trustees from Lenoir, North Carolina. It now houses offices and the Hall of the Presidents.

Stephens-Mackie Hall was originally named in honor of Dr. and Mrs. George E. Mackie of Wake Forest. The building was renamed Stephens-Mackie Hall in October 1999 in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Gerald K.

Stephens of Morganton, North Carolina. As charter members of the seminary's Board of Visitors, the Stephens have donated generously of their time and resources to further the work of God through Southeastern Seminary. Formerly, this facility served as the seminary's student center. Stephens-Mackle Hall has been designed and renovated as a professorial office complex.

The Jacumin-Simpson Missions Center was dedicated in October 2001, almost two thousand years after Christ issued The Great Commission. This building houses the Lewis A. Drummond Center for Great Commission Studies, a 111-seat auditorium equipped with world-wide video conferencing technology, and fourteen faculty offices. The center serves as the headquarters for Southeastern's mission effort. The light that shines forth from the cupola at night is a symbol of the light of the gospel penetrating the darkness of the world. The building is named in honor of Jim and Nancy Nell Jacumin of Icard, North Carolina, for their generous support of the project and the Seminary. It is also named in honor of the Jacumins' parents, Emile and Mamie Jacumin, and Roy and Muriel Simpson.

The Physical Plant is located across from the campus near downtown Wake Forest. It is within easy walking distance of the main campus and houses administrative offices and the air conditioning, electrical, plumbing, carpentry, paint, grounds, and environmental services shops, and the Housing Office.

Intramural sports

The Ledford Center/Cannon Gymnasium is an expansion of the Gore Gymnasium which was first dedicated by Wake Forest College in 1938. Renovations and additions to the original building in 1986 provide a comprehensive activities facility containing over 50,000 square feet. The three-floor complex includes a multi-use gymnasium, fully equipped fitness facility, racquetball courts, and locker/dressing rooms for women and men. In addition, there is a study room, a post office, game area, and "Our Daily Bread" restaurant. Offices for administrators and the International Student Advisor are also located in the center. The center is named in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Hubert F. Ledford of Raleigh, North Carolina. The gymnasium area has been named for the late Charles Cannon and the Cannon Trusts.

The Center for Health and Biblical Counseling was constructed by the Seminary in 1968 and contains offices for medical treatment and counseling services.

Wake Forest Baptist Church, organized in 1835, occupies the church building (1913) within the campus enclosure.

Magnolia Hill is the home of the President. Built in 1928 as the residence of the president of Wake Forest College, the house is located off the southwest corner of the campus. It was renovated and refurnished in 1975. An addition to the home was dedicated in April 2001 featuring a new library and living space. The house is the heart of SEBTS hospitality.

Purchased in 1960 and renovated in 1994, the Manor House ("House of Prophets"), near the main campus, provides pleasant accommodations for prospective students and other guests.

Fletcher Village

In 1996, the Seminary purchased the Guest House at 377 Durham Road to provide additional accommodations for prospective students and Seminary guests.

The Seminary has set aside apartments as Missionary Housing for the use of missionaries on furlough who wish to study at Southeastern. The Woman's Missionary Union of North Carolina, with the assistance of the WMUs of neighboring Baptist churches, have furnished these apartments located on Hipps Drive. An apartment has also been provided for Visiting Professors such as the Fletcher Professor of Missions.

The Athletic Field is located near the campus and is utilized for recreational activities such as softball, baseball, flag-football, and soccer.

SEMINARY COMMUNITY LIFE

The Seminary seeks to develop the whole person through numerous opportunities both on and off campus. Organizations, special events, and campus facilities present a versatile mix of activities.

The Ledford Center, the heart of extracurricular campus life, complements the challenges of academic life. The center offers a multi-use gymnasium, fitness rooms, racquetball courts, game area, a book store, a study room, postal service, a copy center, and a snack bar. A ninehole golf course is also situated near the campus.

The town of Wake Forest offers public parks, swimming pools, and summer recreation programs. The larger community, encompassing Raleigh and the Research Triangle, offers a year-round variety of cultural, leisure, athletic, and educational options.

Worship

As Binkley Chapel is the center of the campus, so worship is the center of seminary life. Southeastern is known for its exciting and inspiring chapel services. Under the leadership of the president, professors, students and guest speakers, chapel services are held at 10 a.m. each Tuesday, Wednesday, and Thursday while classes are in session during the fall and spring semesters. On selected days, missionary speakers, scholars, and other Christian leaders inspire the entire community with special lectures and addresses.

Opportunities for Ministry

A majority of Southeastern students find remunerative employment in the churches within a 200-mile radius of the Seminary. Although the Denominational Relations/Referral Office offers assistance to every student who wishes the opportunity for ministry, it cannot guarantee a position to any student.

Southeastern students minister in hospitals, prisons, shopping centers, rest homes, campgrounds, schools, churches, colleges and other institutions, and in other areas of special need. During the summer, many students serve as pastor-assistants, retreat chaplains, evangelists, youth directors, chaplain interns at hospitals, missionaries, and special urban workers.

Students have also initiated a door-to-door witnessing ministry in which numerous students participate. They cover all of Wake Forest and much of North Raleigh, with many people making professions of faith.

Student Spouses

Student spouses may enroll in seminary classes for a reduced fee; special night classes or lectures are arranged for their convenience. Spouses also may take part in such campus organizations as the Seminary Choir and the Southeastern Women's Fellowship. They are included in campus social functions and various special interest activities.

Spouses seeking employment have a wide choice of possibilities in the area. The scope and variety of industries, businesses, educational institutions, and public service agencies in Wake Forest, Raleigh, and the surrounding area offer excellent job opportunities. The Seminary Office of Employment Services aids both students and spouses in finding employment.

On-campus positions are also available. The Seminary employs a number of secretaries, telephone operators, and other skilled persons.

Children of Students

Children of seminary students are recognized as important members of the seminary community and, therefore, benefit from various campus resources. Modern housing affords them comfortable living quarters, while recreational facilities offer diverse opportunities for fun and social interaction.

Center for Health

During sessions, the Seminary operates an on-campus Center for Health directed by an on-staff physician. Routine medical services are available to registered students, spouses, and their children ages 12 and up. The office visit incurs no expense to the student but insurance may be filed. Medical services include: travel medicines and vaccines, wellness screening (including cholesterol, blood sugar and blood pressure determination), women's health (including Pap smear's), and biblical counseling. Appointments are recommended and can be scheduled by calling 919-569-0003. The office is usually open on Tuesdays and Thursdays.

Students may purchase general medicines and certain medical supplies through the Center for Health as prescribed by the campus physician. All medicines must be paid for at the time they are issued. New students can visit the Center for Health to complete their immunizations as required by the State of North Carolina. Students should obtain and maintain health insurance for medical services which may not be provided by the Center for Health.

LifeWay Campus Book Store

The LifeWay Campus Book Store (919-556-3481) is operated by LifeWay Christian Resources of the Southern Baptist Convention. It carries the required textbooks and supplies for classes as well as a variety of other books and personal accessories. The bookstore is also open to the public.

Student Leadership Team

The Student Leadership Team, composed of representatives elected by students, assists the faculty and administration in coordinating various campus activities and in promoting the general welfare of all students. These elected leaders seek to model Christ to the student body and to lead students in discipleship and evangelism.

Organizations

Southeastern Women's Fellowship is an organization for student wives and women students. It seeks to respond to specific needs of seminary women through special events, family recreation, missions awareness, personal growth opportunities, and preparation for ministry.

International Students Fellowship, under the leadership of the Director of Student Life, seeks to develop positive relationships for international students and assist in making their transfer to life at SEBTS as smooth as possible. Doulos exists to evangelize the Wake Forest community and to encourage and train the SEBTS community in personal and corporate evangelism.

Soulfire seeks to perform drama as a ministry tool of evangelism and education. Drama teams are assembled, conduct rehearsals, and perform for churches and community organizations. Soulfire also seeks to educate the Southeastern community about drama ministry.

Patristics Club desires to develop a greater familiarity and appreciation for the theologians and issues associated with the Patristic period of church history. The organization encourages the reading of the works of the church fathers and relates the theological insights and conclusions of the church fathers to current theological, ecclesiastical, and cultural issues.

Edge is the ministry which is designed to enhance campus-wide fellowship of students and their families who are interested in and who have an appreciation for outdoor sports. The organization promotes benefits of healthy living and provides an outlet for students to be involved with and meet other students with like interests.

Military Chaplaincy Fellowship is a support group for those who are called to be chaplains in the military. The organization seeks to promote chaplaincy to students at SEBTS and to answer questions that they or their families might have about military life.

Opportunities in Music

Seminary Choir rehearses on Thursdays from 7 to 9 p.m. Many couples make this choir a family affair. Spouses are encouraged to sing in this group without audition or fee. The choir performs some of the great classics of Christian music as well as contemporary music. The Chapel Choir rehearses two hours per week, and performs regularly in Chapel, singing a wide variety of anthem and cantata literature. The Male Chorale and Women's Ensemble are unauditioned ensembles which perform a wide variety of sacred music in seminary chapel services and occasionally in local churches. Participation may be for credit or voluntary without fee. Faithful Men is an auditioned ensemble from the Male Chorale. Private voice and organ lessons are available. A Seminary Orchestra and a Handbell Choir offer additional opportunities for musical ministry. Opportunities for individuals or small groups to provide special music for chapel services may also be available.

Special Days and Lectures

The regular curriculum of the Seminary is enlarged and enriched by guest-lecturers, visiting preachers, and special speakers. These sermons, lectures, and addresses are open to the general public.

The Carver-Barnes Lectures were established in 1961. These lectures honor W.O. Carver (1868-1954) and W.W. Barnes (1883-1960) for their outstanding contributions to theological education. These lectures address the history and the mission of the Church, and are funded in part by the income from a gift of Mr. and Mrs. Harold C. Fechner of Lee's Summit, Missouri, and Mr. and Mrs. W. Lee Beaver of Chesterfield, Missouri.

The Theodore F. Adams Lectures on Preaching and the Pastoral Ministry were established in 1976. These lectures honor the contribution to Christian ministry of Theodore F. Adams (1898-1980) who taught at Southeastern from 1968-1978. These lectures are funded from the income on a corpus given by friends of Dr. Adams.

The Page Lectures were established in 1979. These lectures address a variety of subjects of interest to the seminary community. They are funded from the income on a gift of Mr. and Mrs. George A. Page of Plainfield, Indiana.

Global Missions Week and North American Missions Week are held in alternating years in order to emphasize missions and hear from missionaries and missions leaders.

Commencements: Family members and friends gather with graduates on these days of recognition of academic achievement. The commencement address is usually given by the President at both winter and spring commencements.

Convocations: The first chapel service of each semester is a high occasion when students, faculty, and administration dedicate themselves and the semester to the Lord. Convocation addresses are given by leaders in Baptist life.

Faculty Lectures: Each fall and spring a member of the seminary's faculty gives a public lecture in his or her field of expertise.

North Carolina Baptist Day highlights the ministry of the Baptist State Convention of North Carolina and familiarizes students with ministry leaders and opportunities in the State.

Women's Fellowship Day usually features a woman speaker in chapel and affords student wives the opportunity to attend classes with their husbands. Child care is provided on this day to honor student wives.

Conferences

Esther Jillson Adams Seminars were established to provide special programs, seminars, and enrichment events each year in order to emphasize the role of student ministers' wives and to encourage their personal spiritual growth. These seminars are planned and directed by the Faculty Wives Club, Southeastern Women's Fellowship, and the Dean of Students.

Chaplains' Conference is sponsored in cooperation with the North American Mission Board of the Southern Baptist Convention and is open to military, institutional, and industrial chaplains and those interested in these areas of service.

The Spring Conference is sponsored annually in cooperation with LifeWay Christian Resources of the Southern Baptist Convention. Activities are planned and directed by a student steering committee in consultation with a professor of Christian Education and are open to all members of the seminary family and visitors.

In addition, special conferences on campus will be available both to members of the seminary community as well as to members of local churches. The Lewis Addison Drummond Center for Great Commission Studies sponsors special conferences, and the seminary's Continuing Education program also sponsors events open to the Seminary community.

Publications

The NewsLine is a semi-weekly newsletter announcing campus activities and events and is published by the Student Life Office.

The Catalog contains information on the educational policies and programs of the Seminary. It is published by the Public Relations Office and is available upon request from the Admission's Office.

The Student Directory is a pictorial handbook of students, faculty and administrative personnel, with addresses, phone numbers and other biographical information. It is a publication of the Public Relations Office.

The Faith and Mission is a scholarly journal of the faculty. As an aid to persons engaged in Christian ministry, the journal features articles dealing with current theological and biblical issues as well as book reviews related to the field of Christian thought and practice.

The International Student Handbook is published annually by the Office of the Director of Student Life to assist international students with their orientation and adjustment to American culture and maintaining their visa status.

The Student Handbook, a publication of the Dean of Students Office, is designed primarily for the benefit of entering students and contains information pertinent for their orientation.

The Outlook is a general interest/alumni magazine, published annually by the Public Relations Office. Upon request, copies are sent gratis to alumni, trustees, and other friends of the Seminary.

The Olive Press, published twice a year by the Public Relations Department, serves as a news journal of the exciting things God is doing in and through the Southeastern family and the Southern Baptist Convention.

Student Services

Parking

Southeastern's parking system is designed to provide as many students as possible with adequate parking for attending classes and using the buildings as needed. Color coded signs are posted at every parking area. Color coded tags are assigned to each student. When parking in the lots on campus, be sure to park in areas with signs that match the color of your parking tag. Parking tags are issued every semester during matriculation and must be displayed at all times while on campus. Parking tags are to be renewed in the Campus Security Office.

Employment Office

The Employment Office is part of the Student Services division of Southeastern and serves the students and their families by actively generating job opportunities in the communities around the Seminary. The Office seeks to match the skills and expertise of our students with contributing, encouraging employers that support seminary families. While the Employment Office cannot guarantee positions with employers, it can assist students in securing employment during their stay at the Seminary.

The services of this Office include, but are not limited to, job placement, resume preparation, and financial counseling. The objective is to seek employment based on the family, class schedule, and income needs. The rigors of preparing for ministry can be trying at times; this Office desires to assist in that preparation. Parttime and full-time positions are available.

International Students

The Director of Student Life also acts as the International Student Advisor for the campus. All inquiries related to international student issues should be made at the Student Life Office. These issues include, but are not restricted to, immigration status, employment restrictions, social security number acquisition, student aid, and counseling.

STATEMENT OF STUDENT'S RIGHTS & RESPONSIBILITIES —

- 1. Students have the right to expect equitable and consistent academic policies. Students have the responsibility to be enrolled in classes and meet all academic requirements as specified by Southeastern's policies.
- 2. Students have the right to prepare for Christian ministry in a campus environment that is free from gender or racial bias, and free from sexual harassment. Students have the responsibility to treat other students and Southeastern's staff with respect and Christian courtesy.
- 3. Students have the right to expect Southeastern to maintain behavioral standards among students and staff that are consistent with what Southern Baptist churches expect from their ministers. Students have the responsibility to abide by Southeastern's behavioral standards and to maintain active membership in a local church.
- 4. Students have the right to hold different theological positions than those expressed in Southeastern's confessional documents. Students have the responsibility to express personal convictions courteously, respectfully, and in accord with class decorum established by each professor.
- 5. Students have the right to participate in appropriate student groups. Students have the responsibility to follow the rules and honor the stated purposes of the student group.
- 6. Students have the right to apply for financial aid and student housing. If aid or housing is granted, students have the responsibility to abide by the terms of the financial aid and the terms of the housing lease.
- Students have the right to expect Southeastern to apply the institution's financial policies equitably. Students have the responsibility to pay all applicable bills and fees when they are due.
- Students have the right to expect Southeastern to make the institution's principles, policies, and procedures explicit and public. Students have the responsibility to abide by Southeastern's policies and procedures.
- 9. Students have the right to express disagreement with Southeastern's policies, and the application of those policies, through established channels. Students have the responsibility to accept and abide by Southeastern's decisions regarding student complaints.

STUDENT'S ROLE & PARTICIPATION IN CAMPUS POLICY -

The student's role and participation in determining campus policy functions primarily through the Student Leadership Team. The Student Leadership Team is expected to know the opinions of the student body through consistent communication. One way the Student Leadership Team accomplishes its task is through a student forum held once a year including a computer-generated random cross-section of students. These students are given the opportunity to express concerns or recommendations which will be reported to the administration of the school. After a review of the report, the administration will meet with the Student Leadership Team to address the response of the administration.

Any student who wishes to voice an opinion should communicate with the Student Leadership Team or complete a complaint form in the Student Life Office. The Student Leadership Team plays a vital part in communicating between the administration and the students. The President of the Student Leadership Team frequently meets with the President, the Dean of Students, and the Director of Student Life. The President of the Student Leadership Team is also given the platform in chapel and consulted by the Student Life Office frequently for the opinion of the student body. Students may also communicate directly with the Director of Student Life by making an appointment to meet personally with him or by email.

Admissions

ADMISSION POLICY

Applicants for seminary admission are mature Christian believers who affirm a divine call to Christian ministry. A prerequisite to entrance into any master's degree program at the Seminary is a baccalaureate degree from a college or university accredited by a recognized regional or national professional accrediting agency. Graduates of colleges and universities located outside the United States and other applicants will be considered on an individual basis. All questions about admission policies or requirements should be directed to the Director of Admissions, SEBTS, P.O. Box 1889, Wake Forest NC 27588-1889; phone: (800) 284-6317: or e-mail: admissions@sebts.edu.

Academic Prerequisites for Degree Programs

The applicant's undergraduate degree program ideally should have a strong liberal arts background as evidenced by the completion of sixty (60) or more semester hours of courses well distributed among these subject areas:

Broyhill Hall

English, language and literature.

Modern and classical languages, including French, German, Latin, Greek, Spanish, and Hebrew.

History, including non-Western as well as American and European studies.

Philosophy, particularly its history and methods.

Natural sciences, both physical and life sciences.

Social sciences, including psychology, sociology, economics, and anthropology.

Fine arts and music, with emphasis on creativity and symbolic communication.

Religion, both in the Judeo-Christian and in the Near and Far Eastern traditions.

Whatever their academic background, students should bring to the Seminary a broad understanding of the world and should possess the ability to communicate well. An awareness of the world in which we live includes a knowledge of persons and ideas, an understanding of significant movements in history, and an appreciation of the physical universe. Communication is of central importance in ministry. The entering student must be able to think rationally, read with comprehension, and write and speak clearly and effectively.

Additional information and specialized requirements for applicants are included in the descriptions of the respective degree programs.

Admission Procedures

Application for admission is made through the Admissions Office. The following items are needed before an application is acted upon by the Admissions Committee:

- A completed application form and recent "head and shoulders" photo (Passport style, color or black and white).
- 2. Three completed personal reference forms (one must be completed by a pastor).
- 3. A nonrefundable application fee of $25.
- 4. A completed medical information form.
- Official transcript(s) from all post-secondary schools attended sent directly to the Director of Admissions from the Registrar of each school previously attended.
- 6. A completed Church Recommendation Form.
- Spouse's completed Personal Statement (if married).

In some cases additional documents may be required. Prior to enrolling for classes or during the first semester, students are required by state law to submit a completed immunization form. Contact the Admissions Office for further details.

Application Deadlines

Completed applications for M.Div. and M.A. programs may be reviewed up to 12 months early, but should be received in the Admissions Office at least 30 days prior to the matriculation day of the semester or summer term in which the student expects to begin enrollment. Housing requests are prioritized by the date of Admission Committee action. Late applications may require delayed enrollment. Under no circumstances may a student be enrolled in classes until his/her application has been approved.

Applications for the Th.M. or the D.Min. programs must be submitted to the Graduate Studies Office at least 60 days prior to matriculation for consideration by the appropriate committee. Applications for Ph.D. studies are due by early November with entrance exams to be taken in early January for admission the next fall.

Admission Process

When application materials are complete, they are reviewed by the Director of Admissions and the Dean of the Faculty. A personal interview with the Faculty Admissions Committee may be required.

Under certain circumstances, applicants may receive a conditional or a restricted admission. No more than thirty (30) semester hours of seminary work may be undertaken until the condition is removed. Details of any condition or restriction upon enrollment will be stated in the official letter of admission from the Dean of the Faculty.

Students applying for Non-degree status may take up to 30 hours for credit. Contact the Admissions Office for further details.

Applicants may be admitted conditionally prior to receipt of a bachelor's degree if they have transcript evidence of at least 112 hours toward their Bachelor's degree.

International Student Admissions

The admissions procedure for international students requires additional information and processing time due to seminary policies and the requirements of the U.S. Immigration and Naturalization Service.

In order to qualify for admission to the Seminary, international students are required to provide a minimum score of 550 on the TOEFL (The school code for TOEFL is 5620). International applicants must also complete the Affidavit of Support documents.

An international student admissions guide, which provides details of these special requirements, is available from the Admissions Office.

Southeastern is home to students from all over the world.

FEES AND EXPENSES

Because the Southern Baptist Convention strongly supports theological education, gifts from the churches through the Convention's Cooperative Program provide the financial foundation for our students. In 2000-2001 the Cooperative Program provided approximately $4,500 per student. As a result, matriculation fees are significantly subsidized.

Schedule of Matriculation and Other Fees

Listed below are the fees applicable to students attending Southeastern. Expenses for food, insurance, travel, and personal needs are not included. Students are strongly advised to secure and maintain adequate health insurance. Privileges for the use of the Library, Ledford Center, and recreation facilities, with the exception of the golf course, are included in the Student Services Fee. It is estimated that textbooks will cost approximately $100 per class.

All student accounts, including the fees listed below, must be paid in full or arrangements must be made with the Business Office before the beginning of classes each semester. A payment plan, via electronic draft, is available for the fall and spring semesters through the Business Office. The payment plan is set up on line at the SEBTS website; www.sebts.edu. The payment plan is administered through a third party company and will require an enrollment fee. For more information, please visit the SEBTS web site or inquire in the business office. Preregistered students must pay past balances by no later than two weeks prior to the first day of classes in order to be officially registered. Matriculation and other fees must be paid by the end of each semester. A student must take at least 9 hours to be considered a full-time student.

In Graduate Studies programs, continuous enrollment and current payment is required until the thesis for the Th.M. degree, the project report for the D.Min. degree, or the dissertation for the Ph.D. degree is accepted.

Academic Regalia

Orders for academic regalia (robes, caps and hoods), may be made at the LifeWay Campus Book Store during the semester in which the student graduates.

Graduation

Applications for graduation must be submitted to the Registrar's Office before the last day of the add period in the semester in which the student plans to graduate. Student accounts must be paid in full prior to graduation.

Textbooks

Textbooks are purchased from the LifeWay Campus Book Store directly. The cost of textbooks cannot be charged to student accounts at the Seminary.

Computers

Computer labs are available to all on-campus students, but it is highly recommended that all students own a computer with word processing and internet capability. Laser or inkjet printing is acceptable for most student papers.

Refunds

Fees:

A student who withdraws from the Seminary or drops a class before the last day of the drop period may be refunded his/her total fees. Total fees constitute matriculation and student services fees.

Deposits:

Deposits made for reservation of rooms and apartments will be refunded only if cancellation is made ten days prior to the beginning of the term. The deposit will be returned within 30 days of when the student releases the facility in good condition and returns all keys to the Housing Office. # STUDENT FINANCIAL ASSISTANCE

(heat & cooling included).....$498

A student's preparation for entering the Seminary should include a determination of personal financial needs and the provisions for meeting them. Southeastern believes that its students should, as much as possible, be self-supporting. However, it is recognized that some men and women who give promise of outstanding usefulness in Christian service may require assistance to complete their seminary program.

Financial aid at Southeastern is administered through an assistance program which includes on-campus jobs, scholarships, and emergency assistance through loans and grants. The dimensions of the program do not make it possible to provide for the total budget needs of students. Any assistance which can be provided is, therefore, supplemental to other income which the student may have. Funds for these programs are made possible primarily through the generous gifts of friends and alumni of Southeastern.

In the event that a student who received financial aid withdraws from school before a semester is completed, Southeastern may require that all scholarships be repaid to the foundations from which they were awarded. This includes any scholarships and grants awarded by SEBTS, The Charles B. Keesee Foundation, The Frasier Scholarship Fund, The Georgia Baptist Foundation, and any other scholarships where full-time enrollment is required. Upon withdrawal, the student's account will be charged the amount of the scholarship(s) and the foundations from which awards were given will be notified and refunded.

Possibilities of Employment

To facilitate adjustment to seminary life, it is recommended that entering students carefully anticipate fees, basic living expenses and moving costs, and make provision in advance for meeting these financial obligations.

Church Work - The Seminary encourages students to be actively involved in the life of the local churches they attend. Students interested in seeking paid staff positions in local churches should seek the counsel of the Student Field Ministry Office.

On Campus - A limited number of work opportunities are available on campus, both for students and for spouses.

Employment for students is part-time and may be applied for directly in areas such as the Ledford Center, Library, Physical Plant, and in some administrative offices. Fellows and graders are assigned by invitation of faculty members.

Employment for spouses may be either fulltime or part-time. Applicants with skills and interests in specialized areas may apply directly in those areas. However, all applications are forwarded to the Employment Office.

Wake Forest and other Communities - Students may secure remunerative work in Wake Forest and nearby cities and towns. Wake Forest is within 20 minutes driving distance of Raleigh and within 30 minutes of Durham. Many students find employment in these centers.

In no instance can definite employment in the churches or in the adjacent communities be guaranteed by the Seminary.

Student Aid

Student aid at Southeastern begins with the commitment of the Southern Baptist Convention to theological education. This commitment is most evident in the generous funding of Southeastern's entire operation. Gifts from churches and individuals given directly and through the Cooperative Program amount to an annual subsidy for each student of approximately $4,500. The result is that basic fees are kept at a minimum.

Other types of aid are made possible through gifts and funds established by individual and corporate donors. These make it possible to provide loans and scholarships to qualified students.

Loans are available in small sums to meet urgent or emergency needs of students. Scholarships are awarded from available funds each semester after the last day to drop a class without academic penalty. Applications for grants, loans, and scholarships are reviewed and awarded by decision of the administrative Financial Aid Committee. Information and applications may be obtained by writing the Student Life Office.

Southeastern Baptist Theological Seminary does not participate in any federal or state funded student aid programs involving loans or grants. Prospective students should not anticipate such aid being available while enrolled at the Seminary. (Federal aid includes: Pell grants and Stafford & Perkins loans.) However, Southeastern is approved to certify enrollment eligibility for repayment deferments for most federal or state education loans received in college. Students should contact their lending institutions for advice and information. Such deferments should be referred to the Registrar's Office.

Veterans Benefits

The programs of education at Southeastern Baptist Theological Seminary are approved by the North Carolina State Approving agency for the enrollment of persons eligible for education assistance benefits from the U. S. Department of Veterans Affairs (V.A.). Entitled veterans, participants in the Montgomery G.I. Bill contribution programs, active duty military in voluntary education programs, drilling National Guard, drilling Reservists, and eligible spouses and offspring who have applied, met all admissions criteria, been fully accepted, and actively matriculated may be certified to the V.A. Regional office as enrolled and in pursuit of an approved program of Education.

For information about monetary benefits contact the U. S. Department of Veterans Affairs Regional Office in Winston-Salem, NC. For information about the available programs at this institution contact the Registrar's Office.

SPECIAL SCHOLARSHIPS AND AID FUNDS -

Raymond Bryan Brown Memorial Scholars Awards

The Raymond Bryan Brown Memorial Scholars Awards are Southeastern's most prestigious scholarships. These are awarded to qualified students entering in the fall semester in basic master's level degree programs. Academic excellence, commitment to ministry, promise in the service of Christ, and Christian character are considered in making these awards. Scholarships are $1,200 each and are made available during the recipient's first year. Application materials are made available each fall on selected college campuses or may be obtained by writing the Director of Admissions.

President's Scholars Awards

The President's Scholars Awards are provided in recognition of exceptional academic qualities and demonstrated commitment to Christian ministry. Scholarships are $1,000 each and are awarded for the first year of study. Applications can be obtained from the Director of Admissions.

Charles B. Keesee Education Assistance Awards

The Charles B. Keesee Educational Fund, Inc., of Martinsville, Virginia, is a private foundation which offers financial assistance to qualified Southern Baptists who were residents of the states of Virginia or North Carolina prior to entering the Seminary and who are enrolled in a full-time basic degree program. Applications may be secured from: Charles B. Keesee Educational Fund, Inc., P. O. Box 431, Martinsville, Virginia 24114. These must be returned to the Keesee Office by April 1 prior to the academic year for which assistance is requested.

William G. & Margaret B. Frasier Scholarship Fund

The William G. and Margaret B. Frasier Scholarship Fund is managed by Wachovia Trust

Services in Winston-Salem, North Carolina. This fund provides financial assistance for Southern Baptists who were residents of North Carolina prior to attending SEBTS and are enrolled full-time in a degree program. Applications may be obtained in the Student Life Office and must be returned to Wachovia by June 30 for the upcoming year.

State Baptist Convention Scholarships

Many of the Baptist State Conventions have established funds through which residents from their state who attend seminary can receive grants. Information regarding whether or not state seminary grants are available may be obtained through state convention offices. The Financial Aid Office at Southeastern has limited information on the particulars of each state but may be of assistance in helping locate the proper state agency with whom to make contact.

Many state Baptist convention offerings are listed also within the brochure.

Miscellaneous Scholarships

Brochures are available in the Student Life office which give descriptions of various off-campus opportunities for financial assistance. Included in the information will be qualifications, contact persons, and phone numbers or addresses.

General Scholarships

Southeastern has some very generous donors who have established funds that are allotted for scholarship and loan purposes. The Student Life Office is able to provide scholarships from these funds to our students who demonstrate financial need. Applications may be requested in the Student Life Office and must be returned by April 15 for returning students to receive an award for the next academic year. First semester students may apply for a General Scholarship by November 15 for their second semester.

HOUSING INFORMATION

The Housing Office of Southeastern Baptist Theological Seminary seeks to provide adequate, affordable, safe, and comfortable housing for all God-called men and women who come to Southeastern to prepare for Christian ministries throughout the world.

All housing areas are regulated by the Housing Office so tenants feel safe and at-home in their housing areas. Housing policies and regulations are devised to be consistent with Southeastern's commitment not only to its students but also to the Southern Baptist Convention and the people who support it. Their primary aim is to help maintain a comfortable setting conducive to learning while providing as much privacy as possible in a shared environment.

Since students are not required to live in oncampus housing, potential residents should read carefully the housing rules and regulations. Those who feel that these may be confining or inconsistent with their particular lifestyle are encouraged to seek other alternatives for housing.

Campus housing is available to full-time, degree-seeking students enrolled at Southeastern. Housing may be available for students who do not meet the above criteria upon approval by the director of housing.

Requesting Information and Applying For Housing

The Housing Office, upon request, will send a Housing Handbook that details rent options, housing information, and provides photographs and floor plans of all campus housing. A Housing Application is included with the handbook.

To request a Housing Handbook and application for housing please send an e-mail to housing@sebts.edu or call (919) 761-2400.

A security deposit is required at the time the housing application is submitted. Checks should be made payable to SEBTS.

Rent is payable monthly in advance.

All students who desire to live in campus housing must sign a lease agreement and a statement agreeing to abide by the housing rules and regulations before moving into housing. All leases are for 30 days and renew automatically.

Please note that no pets are permitted in seminary housing.

Housing Assignments

Housing assignments are made approximately four to six weeks before the move-in date indicated on the Housing Application. The Housing Office will contact you to discuss housing options available to you at that time. When the assignment is made, you will be given your new address.

Living In Campus Housing

During the time you live in seminary housing you will have the opportunity to meet and share in the lives of many other people who God has assembled in this place. There are numerous opportunities for fellowship, spiritual growth, and family fun.

Academics

ACADEMIC POLICIES AND PROCEDURES

Southeastern Baptist Theological Seminary offers the Master of Divinity degree, with several specializations, as a first professional degree for Christian ministers. The Seminary also offers several related Master of Arts programs and an advanced Master of Theological Studies program. Graduate level work includes a professional doctorate (Doctor of Ministry) and two advanced research degrees (Master of Theology and Doctor of Philosophy). Descriptions of these programs of study and a summary of academic policies and requirements appear on the following pages.

Doctrinal Guidelines

Since its founding in 1950, each elected member of the faculty at Southeastern has signed the Seminary Articles of Faith (known as The Abstract of Principles) at the beginning of his or her teaching career at the Seminary. Southeastern faculty also subscribe to the Baptist Faith and Message 2000 statement as adopted by the Southern Baptist Convention.

Academic Regulations

The Academic Vice President/Dean of the Faculty administers the academic policies and procedures of the Seminary. These academic regulations are established by the Faculty of the Seminary under the authority of the Board of Southeastern fosters an environment of learning and prayer.

Trustees. Southeastern Baptist Theological Seminary reserves the right to make changes in academic policies and requirements as needed. Questions concerning the current status of all academic matters should be addressed to the Registrar, who serves as the Assistant to the Dean. Generally speaking, students will follow the degree requirements as outlined in the catalog under which they entered the Seminary. Students may take advantage of any improvements that appear in later catalogs while they are enrolled. A student who withdraws from enrollment for two academic years must re-enter under the catalog current at the time of re-entry.

Annual Certification of Church Membership

The purpose of Southeastern Baptist Theological Seminary is to train men and women by means of academic studies and practical preparation for leadership roles in Baptist churches and in other Christian ministries. The role of the local church is important in this training and nurturing.

Each student, regardless of degree plan, is required to furnish an annual certification form from the church where he or she is a member.

If possible, students are encouraged to serve in church staff positions. When this is not feasible, the student should be the type of member that their local church would desire a staff member/minister to be.

The Annual Church Certification forms are mailed in each fall semester to all enrolled students who are not graduating, and must be returned and filed in the Registrar's Office by December 1 or a student will not be able to re-enroll for the Spring semester. Due to the matriculation subsidy from the Cooperative Program, the forms must be from a Southern Baptist Church if the student is paying Southern Baptist matriculation fees. Special instructions regarding the forms and church membership are listed below. If you are a:

Church Member or Church Staff - the form should be completed by the pastor after con-gregational action as certified by the church clerk.

Southern Baptist Pastor - the form should be completed by the deacon chairman after congregational action as certified by the clerk.

Non-Southern Baptist Student - this form should be completed by appropriate church officials at the church where membership and attendance is recognized. These students must pay non-Southern Baptist fees.

Changes in Registration

After registration, any changes in a student's enrollment must be arranged through the Registrar's Office. No changes are permitted in enrollment or academic status after stated deadlines except by permission of the Dean of the Faculty.

Class Attendance

Grades are based upon academic performance, not upon class attendance as such; however, a student who is absent from 25% or more of the scheduled class meetings, whether these absences are excused or not, is subject to failure on this basis alone.

Computer Use in Classrooms

All on-campus students have access to the Seminary's Computer Labs when classes are not being conducted in the labs. Nevertheless, students are strongly encouraged to purchase and learn to use computers with word processing and internet capabilities. Student papers normally should be prepared with a word processing program, printed on high quality laser or inkjet printers, and back-up copies should be preserved on disk. If a professor loses a paper or otherwise requests a second copy, the student should be able to provide another copy of any classwork from his or her computer storage files. Laptop or other portable computers are often selected for their ease of use. Not all professors will allow the use of laptops in the classroom for note-taking. however. Check with each professor on the rules for computer usage for that classroom. If laptops are permitted, students should arrive early so that all set-up procedures are complete prior to the beginning of class. Turn off all beeps and other computer sounds, and sit so that other students will not be distracted by your computer images. Do not open any games or programs other than your word processor during the class. Pay close attention to class content. Students should not spend class time formatting notes or writing emails or otherwise shifting their attention from the professor's presentation.

Inclement Weather

As a general rule, Seminary classes will always meet. If extreme weather conditions affect Seminary operations, an announcement will be made on the seminary website www.sebts.edu and on the following television stations: WRAL (5), WTVD (11), and WNCN (17). The switchboard will also be open during regular hours and will have the latest information. On days when Wake County Schools publicly announce that they are closed, delayed, or released early due to inclement weather or similar circumstances, students who live away from the main campus will not be penalized for failure to attend class during the time period specified. No one is expected to subject his or her life to any unusual danger in order to travel on days when weather is a problem, nor should pre-school or school age children be left unattended during such times. Nevertheless, seminary classes, if at all possible, will meet at all scheduled times.

Student Records

Southeastern has established and is committed to certain guidelines for maintaining the confidentiality of student educational records in keeping with the Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act of 1974. (FERPA generally bars colleges from releasing any educational records that include "personally identifiable information" without the student's consent.) Personal educational records, including transcripts, are not released or shown to anyone by Southeastern officials except in accordance with the written consent of the student as specified below.

A student's Permanent Academic Record consists only of the following:

- 1. Completed Application for Admission.
- 2. Transcripts from all institutions attended.
- 3. Final Southeastern Transcript (showing degree received and the date awarded).
- 4. Graduation Application with the Final Degree Check.
- 5. Original Church Recommendation for Admission.
- 6. Copies of correspondence regarding disciplinary issues and the student's written response(s), if any. U.S. Courts have ruled that disciplinary files qualify as "educational records" under FERPA.

Access to these files by seminary personnel is allowed under the authority of the Academic Vice President on a need to know basis for honors evaluation, routine processing, academic concerns, and to fulfill necessary administrative tasks. Student records are otherwise held in confidence.

A student has the right, with the Registrar present, to view his or her permanent file but is not allowed to alter the content in any way except by the addition of written and signed correctives. Failure to provide truthful and/or accurate information on applications, church endorsements, or on other permanent records provided by the student may be grounds for dismissal.

Directory information published by the Seminary is in the public domain. Students may request that the school not disclose directory information about them. This may be done by completing a General Request Form in the Registrars Office, by fax, mail, or by completing the Address Update sent to students each semester. Questions regarding directory information and/or permanent student records should be directed to the Registrar's Office.

Academic Load

An average academic load of 16 hours per semester enables the M.Div. degree to be earned in 6 semesters. The M.A. degrees call for an average of 16 hours per semester to earn the degree in 4 semesters. Students are expected to give priority to the program of study in which they have enrolled. When a student assumes responsibilities in addition to academic work, there is an ethical obligation to fulfill all these tasks in a satisfactory manner. Extracurricular responsibilities require a corresponding reduction in the student's academic load. The Faculty recommends that a student employed in church work for as many as two weekends per month on a regular basis, or who works for as many as 20 hours per week, not register for more than 12 credit hours per semester. Students who find it necessary to engage in outside work in the amounts indicated above are strongly advised to take a four-year sequence. The M.Div. degree is normally an intensive three-year program of study for a full-time student.

The maximum academic load is 18 semester hours.

Coursework for credit taken at other schools concurrently while enrolled at Southeastern requires the prior approval of the Dean of the Faculty.

In order to be eligible for residence in seminary housing, seminary students in M.Div. and M.A. programs must enroll for a minimum of 9 semester hours. (College students must enroll for a minimum of 12 semester hours.) Enrollment is encouraged but not required in the Summer Terms. Students actively engaged in coursework for Advanced Degree Programs are considered to be full-time students and thus eligible for student housing. See the Housing Office for details and priority guidelines.

International Students

International Students who are in "F-status" must make sure to take the minimum load that their status requires. For seminary students this is nine (9) credit hours. For college students this is twelve (12) credit hours.

Student Classification

A senior is a seminary student who has 33 or less semester hours remaining toward his or her degree. A junior is a seminary student who has earned fewer than 31 semester hours toward his or her degree. A middler is an M.Div. student whose achievement level falls between the other two classifications (see suggested sequence of courses).

Advanced Standing

Advanced standing allows qualified students to by-pass some of the introductory Foundational courses and take advanced electives. Degree requirements, however, cannot be met with fewer total hours than the catalog prescribes. Advanced standing shall be granted to those students who by completing similar college level courses with a grade of A or B or through testing demonstrate proficiency in Old Testament, New Testament, General Church History, Baptist History, Evangelism, Missions, Christian Ethics and Hebrew. See below for policies which pertain to specific courses.

Students who take the advanced standing exam, but who fail to achieve an acceptable score, will be required to take the seminary classes that fulfill the stated requirements. Students have only one opportunity to pass an advanced standing exam in each subject. Students admitted conditionally or under restriction do not qualify to take advanced standing exams until the condition and/or restriction is removed. Students desiring to attempt an advanced standing exam must notify the Registrar in writing of their intention at least 30 days prior to the beginning of either a fall or spring semester. Exams will be given during the week before New Student Orientation. Students desiring to take more than one exam may take them one per day during the week prior to orientation. Arrangements are set by the Registrar.

The following provisions apply to those seeking advanced standing:

1. When a college survey of O.T. or N.T. is 6 or more credit hours, a student with an A or B grade in these courses may by-pass the seminary O.T./N.T. Introduction class. For those students who do not have 6 credit hours of introductory survey work in college but who believe that they have adequate knowledge of O.T. or N.T. studies, an advanced standing exam will be offered based on a specific textbook.

2. Students who have 6 or more undergraduate hours in a general Church History course with a grade of A or B take a Church History or Historical Theology elective to meet their M.Div. history requirement (2000-2001).

3. Students with an A or B in a college course in Baptist history are not required to repeat Baptist History and Heritage (2142) in the Seminary.

4. Students who have completed a basic evangelism class for 3 or more hours with a grade of A or B at the undergraduate level fulfill the seminary M.Div. requirements in evangelism by taking the Practicum in Personal Evangelism (2454).

5. Students with a grade of A or B in an introductory missions course in college are permitted to take 2222 Cross-Cultural Communications, 2223 Introduction to Anthropology, or 2226 Theology of the Christian World Mission to meet the missions requirement (2200) for the Seminary.

Special provisions apply with regard to Hebrew:

1. Graduates of accredited undergraduate programs who show transcript credit on courses in Hebrew will be permitted to take an advanced placement exam. If the exam is passed with an acceptable score, advanced standing will be granted as described above. Those who achieve advanced standing in Hebrew are permitted, but not required, to take additional advanced language and/or exegetical courses beyond the required Intermediate Biblical Hebrew (1120). These students are admitted to the Seminary with a transcript notation that shows the successful completion of the M.Div. elementary Hebrew requirement through advanced standing. The credit hours previously assigned to the language necessary for the degree may be achieved through free electives, or the student may apply for the M.Div. with Advanced Biblical Studies at Southeastern Baptist Theological Seminary.

2. A student without acceptable transcript credit for college work in Hebrew who nevertheless offers strong evidence of expertise in the biblical language may, with the approval of a language professor and the Dean of the Faculty, be permitted to take the advanced standing exam.

3. Students who complete at least one semester of Hebrew beyond the elementary level with a grade of A or B will receive Advanced Standing for the first year.

Transfer of Credits in Master's Programs

Credits earned at other schools may be applied toward degree programs at Southeastern, subject to certain conditions: the credits must be of a comparable graduate level, in a subject appropriate to the student's degree program at Southeastern, and awarded by an accredited school. Other restrictions also apply.

Students transferring credits to Southeastern must maintain a C average on courses taken at Southeastern in order to graduate. (Students enrolled in Advanced Degrees must maintain a B average.)

Persons seeking to transfer to Southeastern must make application through the normal channels of admission. Upon request, Southeastern's Registrar evaluates the official transcript and informs the student of the credit that may be transferred.

Transfer students in the Master's programs must complete at least one-half of the hours required for any degree at Southeastern and must take a minimum of 32 hours on the main campus in Wake Forest in order to graduate from Southeastern. Not more than 12 of these hours may be taken in Practica, Individualized Studies, and similar special classes. Details of all transfer policies are available from the Registrar's Office.

Seminary masters-level courses that are transferred to A.Div. or B.A. programs cannot be transferred back into any Seminary masters degree program. Southeastern College normally does not accept masters-level credits toward A.Div. or B.A. degrees.

Academic Restriction, Probation, and Suspension

A student who fails to achieve a "C" average (2.0 GPA) in any semester will be placed on Academic Restriction until the cumulative GPA reaches 2.0. No more than 10 hours may be attempted during a semester of restriction. Students on restriction must achieve a 2.0 GPA during that semester or they will be placed on Academic Probation and again limited to 10 hours in the succeeding semester. Students on probation must earn a 2.0 GPA on each of their next 10 hours or they will be suspended from the Seminary. Moreover, if any student's cumulative GPA falls below the minimum (Junior 1.5, Middler 1.8) he or she may be suspended from the Seminary. Students who have been suspended must reapply through the Registrar's Office and must provide evidence of significant changes that have been made to compensate for previous deficiencies. Students readmitted after suspension are considered to be under probation.

Quality Points

Quality points are awarded on the following basis: One point is awarded for each semester hour earned with the grade D. Two points are awarded for each semester hour earned with the grade C. Three points are awarded for each semester hour earned with the grade B. Four points are awarded for each semester hour earned with the grade A. No points are given for the grade F.

Evaluation and Grading

The following presents the meaning of the grading symbols that are employed at Southeastern.

- A The A grade is interpreted to mean that the instructor recognizes exceptional capacities and exceptional performance.
- The B grade signifies that the student has - demonstrated a significantly more effective command of the material than is generally required in that course.

- C The C grade is the instructor's certification that the student has demonstrated the required mastery of the material.
- D The D grade signifies that the student's grasp of the course is minimal, but the instructor believes the student would not profit materially by repeating the course.
- E Conditioned. The professor may give this grade in continuing courses to a student who has not met the minimum requirements but shows promise of sufficient improvement in the second semester to be given a permanent grade of D. A grade not less than C must be earned the following semester; otherwise, the grade of E becomes F.
- F The F grade indicates failure to master the essentials and the necessity for repeating the course before credit may be allowed. The grade received when the class is repeated will be used in calculating the student's final GPA.
- I Incomplete. In extraordinary circumstances, which prevent a student from completing the requirements of a course on time, the instructor may assign the letter I. The student must complete the work of that course as quickly as possible and, in no case, later than the end of the fourth week following the end of the course. If the grades on incomplete work have not been submitted to the Registrar by six weeks after the end of the course, the Registrar is instructed by the Faculty to record the grade of F and to notify the teacher.
- W In exceptional cases of authorized withdrawal after the drop deadline, if the instructor has no data for evaluation, the grade of W will be submitted. Otherwise, the faculty member will be requested to submit a grade of WP (withdrew passing) or WF (withdrew failing) depending on the student's status at the time of withdrawal. (See Adding, Dropping, and Withdrawing from Courses.)
- CR Transfer Credit accepted. Transfer credit does not affect GPA.
- P Certain specified courses are taught on a pass/fail basis and are graded P or F. While pass/fail courses may count as elective credit toward a degree, a student must have a minimum of 85% of all degree credits in graded classes. GPA is calculated on the basis of graded classes only. The grade P does not affect GPA; however, the grade F does affect the GPA as it would in a graded class.

Progress Reports

Records of progress are maintained by the Seminary on all students. Progress reports consisting of class grades for the semester and overall quality point averages are furnished to students after the end of each scheduled school term.

Adding, Dropping, and Withdrawing from Courses

Altering a course load by adding or dropping courses prior to the deadlines is a formal procedure initiated in the Registrar's Office. The last date for adding classes is one week after the beginning of a semester. The last date for dropping courses without academic penalty is three weeks after the beginning of a semester. See the Academic Calendar for these dates. A fee is charged for each course dropped or added. See the Schedule of Fees.

Because a generous "Drop Period" is provided during which students can evaluate their work load and other circumstances and withdraw from any course without academic penalty, permission to withdraw from a course after the deadline stated in the Academic Calendar may be granted only by the Dean of the Faculty and only under extraordinary circumstances. An application form for permission to withdraw is available in the Dean's Office and the application requires a personal conference with the professor before it can be considered by the Dean. After the deadline, drops are not allowed unless external circumstances occur that were not present prior to the "Drop Deadline." These circumstances must be completely beyond the control of the student and must prevent class attendance and/or completion of class assignments. Poor grades, heavy work load, church responsibilities, or other personal and/or family difficulties are not accepted as reasons for withdrawal from a class after the calendar deadline.

Students who cannot complete their class work due to hardship should consider the option of receiving the grade I or in extreme cases applying for withdrawal from enrollment rather than from an individual course. Withdrawal from enrollment is initiated in the Registrar's Office and must be done in person, if at all possible. Successful withdrawal from enrollment establishes an appropriate file that permits readmission (see below). In all cases, the instructor will determine whether the grade W, WP or WF is applicable and will submit this grade to the Registrar at the end of the semester. International students should consult with the Director of Student Services before adding or dropping any classes.

Withdrawal from Enrollment

In order to withdraw from enrollment, students must consult the Registrar's Office, confer with the Dean of the Faculty, obtain certain required signatures, surrender identification cards, return all materials on loan to the Library, and clear their accounts with the Business Office. A withdrawal procedure form is available in the Registrar's Office. Withdrawals completed before the final drop date will receive a refund of fees.

Students who have not completed requirements for a degree and who do not plan to enroll for the following term are required to withdraw from enrollment through the withdrawal procedure initiated in the Registrar's Office. Students who follow the approved procedure for withdrawal will have their admission status maintained for one year and may register for classes during any regular registration period during that year. If a student does not register for courses during the year following official withdrawal, he or she will be required to apply for readmission through the Registrar's Office. After two years from the date of withdrawal, students are required to reapply through the Admissions Office and are required to re-enter under the catalog in effect at that time.

Auditors

Students, student spouses, friends of the Seminary, and other interested parties may audit seminary classes if there is space available with the professor's permission and payment of the audit fee (see Fees and Expenses). Auditor applications are available from the Registrar's Office.

Off-Campus Programs

The Seminary offers some courses for credit off-campus. Details about times and locations are available from the Registrar's Office. Students at extension centers must meet the oncampus requirements in order to graduate from Southeastern. In addition, no more than 50% of the hours toward the M.Div. or M.A. degrees may be earned at an extension center while enrolled at Southeastern Seminary. Off-campus programs are not branch campuses nor are degrees granted through extension sites. Students who receive credit for more than the maximum number of hours will receive transcript credit for those hours but cannot apply those hours to more than 50% of a Southeastern degree. There is an exception to this policy. Extensions at Woodstock, Georgia and Tampa, Florida have been approved to offer the Master of Arts (Christian Studies).

On-Campus Requirements

M.Div. and M.A. students must take their final 20 credit hours on the main campus in Wake Forest and must have taken a total of at least 32 degree credit hours on the main campus in order to receive a Southeastern degree. Not more than 12 of these on-campus hours may be taken in Practica, Individualized Studies, and similar special classes. Courses taken at Southeastern extension center sites do not count as on-campus hours. In addition, at least one-half of the hours for any degree must be completed at Southeastern Seminary.

Two extension campuses (Tampa and Woodstock) have been approved as degree granting sites for Southeastern's M.A. (Christian Studies) degree. This degree requires a "summative evaluation" which is conducted on the main campus.

Graduation

It is the responsibility of the student to check his or her record in the Registrar's Office to determine if qualifications for graduation have been accomplished or can be scheduled. This Graduation Check should be made no later than the pre-registration period for the semester prior to the semester in which graduation is planned. This will allow the student two full semesters to complete courses required for graduation in a specific degree program. Students who will qualify to graduate must complete a Graduation Application in the Registrar's Office during the pre-registration period for the semester in which graduation is planned. Any transcript corrections (including grades, transfer credits, etc.) must have been made by this time in order to complete the graduation check. Students must have their accounts paid in full in order to graduate.

Academic regalia must be ordered from the LifeWay Campus Bookstore within the first 3 weeks of the semester in which the student wishes to graduate. The prescribed regalia list is available from the Registrar's Office.

Students are required to be present at graduation exercises in order to receive their diplomas. They are excused from attendance only by written permission of the Dean of the Faculty. Written requests specifying the unusual circumstances leading to such a request to graduate in absentia must be submitted by the student to the Dean's Office no later than three weeks prior to the date on which they are scheduled to graduate.

Revocation of Degrees

The Seminary, by conferring a degree, does not provide a lifetime certification of the good character of the graduate, nor does it guarantee the orthodoxy or spiritual commitments of the graduate. Those who employ any graduate of the institution should conduct interviews and determine whether or not the graduate fits the expectations of the employer.

If it should be discovered after graduation that the student misrepresented personal data on application forms on which admission was improperly based, cheated on exams, received transcript credit for courses not actually taken or completed, committed plagiarism in academic papers, or otherwise engaged in academic fraud or other behavior that would have led to expulsion if known at the time, the student may have his or her degree revoked. The academic transcript will note any such revocation from the date of official action. A degree may also be revoked if it is discovered that a diploma was issued in error.

If the student believes the revocation is based on erroneous information or is unjust and appeals the ruling to the Registrar, the case will be reviewed by the Dean of Students, the Dean of the College, and the Academic Vice President/Dean of the Faculty. The student would have the right to a hearing and may provide further information to resolve the issue. The Deans' decision, if it is further disputed by the student, may be reviewed by the President using a procedure appropriate to the case. Unless overturned by the President, the Deans' decision is final. All such actions and/or decisions are reported to and are subject to review by the Board of Trustees.

Non-Degree Status and Credit Transfer

Non-Degree status, permitting up to 30 hours of transferable credit work from the Seminary, is available to those who properly apply. Students should not interpret acceptance under Non-Degree Status as a commitment/guarantee of being admitted into a degree program in the future.

Whether this work will transfer into a degree program at another institution is determined by the transfer policies at the other institution. However, these course credits usually will transfer as accredited work. Southeastern College normally does not transfer seminary credits toward A.Div. or B.A. degrees.

Seminary courses transferred to another A.Div. or B.A. cannot be transferred back into any seminary program. A student who through this process finds that seminary degree requirements would be a duplication of previous work would be allowed to take non-duplicating courses in the same field in order to meet the hour requirements of the seminary degree. The exception would be biblical languages which would be treated under the advanced standing guidelines.

International Students who apply for Non-Degree Status will not be issued an I-20.

Short-Term Courses

Courses may be offered in short-term sessions during January, June, or July. Students may not enroll in courses which overlap days or times in any short session. Class schedules are available from the Registrar's Office.

Such classes help students to maximize their study opportunities. Students planning to enter Southeastern for the first time should submit their completed applications no later than 30 days prior to the beginning of the term in which they desire to enter. For further information write the Director of Admissions, Southeastern Baptist Theological Seminary, P.O. Box 1889, Wake Forest, NC 27588-1889.

Fletcher Professorship of Missions

Since 1979 the A.J. Fletcher Foundation of Raleigh, North Carolina has sponsored an annual professorship of missions in honor of James Floyd Fletcher, a pioneer in the field of home missions work. The generous support from the Foundation has allowed the Seminary to supplement its worldwide mission emphasis by bringing active, furloughing, or recently retired missionaries or mission board employees to the campus for short term and/or full semester classroom settings. Courses offered are in the field of missions and count as regular elective credit in the various academic degree programs of the seminary. While internationally based missionaries are highlighted occasionally, the emphasis of the Fletcher program is on home mission work. Missionary administrators and strategists, ethnic leaders, area directors of missions, and field workers in social and evangelistic ministries have been an added dimension to campus life through this program. Students are able to interact with those who have hands-on experience in mission work. Special on-campus mission emphases are also encouraged and supported through this program. Materials giving more details of the program including biographical information on the Reverend James Floyd Fletcher, "the Mountain Missionary," and his wife, Louisa Barker Fletcher, are available through the office of the Academic Vice President.

Faith & Mission

Southeastern's faculty produces Faith And Mission, a theological journal that concentrates on the application of Christian faith to Christian missions and ministry. Though the Editorial Board is made up exclusively of Southeastern faculty members, the journal often publishes articles written by scholars and Christian leaders from around the world. The summer edition each year is comprised of high-quality student articles. The journal is funded by Student Services Fees, supplemented by subscriptions and the academic budget. Alumni, students and friends of Southeastern are strongly encouraged to subscribe.

For subscriptions, contact: Faith & Mission, P.O. Box 1889, Wake Forest, NC 27588-1889.

FIELD MINISTRIES AND MINISTRY REFERRAL —

The Seminary encourages students to seek experience through practical ministries while attending Southeastern. Administrative support is given to the field-based program of "Supervised Ministry" through the assignment and coordination of students in various ministries.

Many students begin their vocational ministries in the seminary region while pursuing their studies. Students and graduates may receive assistance through the Ministry Referral Office in seeking positions in churches and are encouraged to set up a file in the Referral Office. The office is located on the first floor of Broyhill Hall.

ALUMNI ASSOCIATION 2003-2004

The Alumni Association of Southeastern Baptist Theological Seminary is composed of all graduates and former students of Southeastern. It endeavors to perpetuate friendships formed in the Seminary and to foster the cause of theological education. Its purpose is "to provide a mutually helpful relationship for the glory of God by interrelating effectively and efficiently the alumni with the Seminary and with each other through fellowship, communication, and service." With its May commencement in 2003, Southeastern has granted 349 Bachelor of Arts in Biblical Studies, 1,125 Associate of Divinity, 7,252 Master of Divinity, 439 Master of Religious Education and Master of Arts in Christian Education, 13 Master of Arts in Christian School Administration, 2 Master of Theological Studies, 3 Master of Arts (Christian Studies), 48 Master of Arts in Church Music, 127 Master of Arts in Counseling Ministry, 69 Master of Arts in Intercultural Studies, 345 Master of Theology, 510 Doctor of Ministry, and 26 Doctor of Philosophy degrees. The total number of degrees granted totals 10,308 (number includes multiple degrees received by individuals).

The Association meets annually during the Southern Baptist Convention. The officers with the presidents of the state chapters, comprise the General Board. State Chapters of the Alumni Association are active in the following states: Florida, Georgia, Maryland-Delaware, North Carolina, South Carolina, and Virginia. These meet at least once a year, concurrent with the meetings of their respective Baptist State Conventions.

CENTER FOR GREAT COMMISSION STUDIES

The Lewis A. Drummond Center for Great Commission Studies

The Center for Great Commission Studies was inaugurated in a special convocation service April 14, 1991. The Center seeks to train those interested in evangelism, cross cultural missions, church growth, church planting, and spiritual awakening. The Center focuses on the study of the theology and methods by which Christians intentionally spread their faith. It functions within the existing programs and publicly stated purpose of the Seminary. In March of 1992, the Board of Trustees voted to change the name of the Center to The Lewis Addison Drummond Center for Great Commission Studies in honor of the fourth President of the Seminary. The Center is housed in the newly constructed Jacumin-Simpson Missions Center. Keith Eitel serves as the Director.

The Center is assigned six primary tasks:

- 1. To strengthen the teaching of missions and evangelism.
- To promote academic and field-based research into missions and evangelism.
- 3. To equip men and women for specialized ministries in missions and evangelism.
- To provide continuing education in missions and evangelism for seminary graduates.
- 5. To offer specialized conferences and study opportunities in missions and evangelism for congregational leaders.
- To involve faculty and students in special off-campus endeavors in missions and evangelism.

The Jacumin-Simpson Missions Center houses The Lewis Addison Drummond Center for Great Commission Studies.

General Theological Programs

CERTIFICATE IN WOMEN'S STUDIES -

The Certificate in Women's Studies is a program designed for non-degree-seeking wives of seminary students or other interested women who are preparing for Christian service in their homes as well as through local churches or other ministry settings. The Certificate in Women's Studies is designed to equip women for ministry by providing an overview of a seminary education.

Admission Requirements

Applications to this program are made though the Seminary Admissions Office. Applicants will be admitted as Certificate Students after completing the non-degree application and paying the $25 application fee. There are no academic prerequisites to the Certificate program. The cost is $20 for each course and for student spouses the cost is half price. For wives whose husbands are currently enrolled as students, there is no charge for Wife of the Equipping Minister. In addition to course fees, some courses require a book or supply fee.

Certificate Requirements

Two credit hours and ten units must be completed to qualify for this certificate. Wife of the Equipping Minister must be taken for the two credit hours. Six units are from the required courses list, while the remaining units are electives. Required courses will be taught a minimum of every other year. The certificate can be earned within three years if the student enrolls in one class each term; an accelerated program can be completed in two years. An advanced certificate can be earned by the student who takes eight credit hours in college or seminary classes plus the six units from the required courses list. After completion of the requirements, the student will be awarded a Certificate in Women's Studies during the last chapel service of the semester.

Course Times and Information

Courses are offered in the following eight week terms: Early Fall and Late Fall Terms (August-December), and Winter and Spring Terms (January-May).

Most classes will meet on Thursday nights from 7:00-9:00. However, some classes may meet on Tuesday nights or at other concentrated times such as Friday evenings and/or all day Saturday.

Childcare will be provided for most courses for a small fee. Reservations for childcare must be made prior to each term of classes.

CERTIFICATE IN MISSION STUDIES

A directed course of study designed for those non-degree seeking students who need 20 or more hours to qualify for mission appointment through the Southern Baptist International Mission Board. The IMB does not require a specific curriculum for those hours, however those students who desire the Certificate are required to follow this curriculum plan. The Certificate is not limited to those seeking IMB approval, nor is the Certificate as such required by the IMB. It is a recommended series of courses to provide a strong background for international missions ministries.

MASTER OF THEOLOGICAL STUDIES

The Master of Theological Studies is a basic program of study and research for those International students who have already completed an initial degree in theological studies. The purpose of the program is to train God-called men and women to be leaders within various national and international Christian ministries.

Admission Requirements

This degree is open to International students with a B.Th. or a similar degree. Transcript, or documentation of all post-secondary coursework must be provided. All other requirements for general admission to the Seminary must be met.

Program Design

The M.T.S. at Southeastern is a general theological studies program permitting some specialization. Transcripts that do not show satisfactory completion of an appropriate range of courses (based on the M. Div. Core requirements at Southeastern) may lead the Dean to require remedial work during the initial semesters of this degree program without reducing the course requirements for this program. At least half of the 48 hours required must be under the direct supervision and tutelage of Southeastern's regular faculty. A Supervisory Professor will be selected for each student. Biblical and theological requirements are supplemented by selected electives in several areas of possible specialization. The research project is 50-75 pages directed and approved by the Supervisory Professor in consultation with the Dean of the Faculty.

With transcript credit for at least one year of both Biblical Hebrew and Greek, the M.T.S. will be recognized as a minimal but acceptable basis for application to the Th.M. program. With a high GPA on all M.T.S. work, applications could be made to a doctoral program of the Seminary in the field of concentration indicated by a high quality research project. M.T.S. students should complete their research project by the end of their final semester of classwork or no later than three months after completion of their final class.

Students should choose elective courses in consultation with the Supervisory Professor. The Registrar may also advise students regarding an appropriate schedule. At least two elective courses must be taken in the specific field that will be addressed in the research project. For example, a New Testament project would require at least two New Testament courses beyond the core requirements. A comparable pattern would apply to other fields. Additional classes in the field of specialization are highly recommended.

* A Supervisory Professor will be chosen during the admission process. The student and the Supervisory Professor will seek approval of the research topic for the M.T.S. Research Project by filing a Project Approval Form with the Academic Dean at least by the beginning of the final semester of the student's program. The Research Project must address a significant topic and must conform to the Turabian style manual (6th edition) and to the Southeastern Supplement to Turabian and must contain a substantial bibliography. The Research Project must be presented to the Supervisory Professor for grading at least 30 days prior to the anticipated date of graduation. Four corrected copies on dissertation quality paper stock are delivered to the Library at least 10 days prior to graduation. M.T.S. Project Reports are bound, filed in the Seminary archives, and listed in the Library catalog as unpublished materials. If this research project is subsequently published by the student, it is hoped that a copy of such publications would be donated by the student to Southeastern's

Notes

Master of Divinity

MASTER OF DIVINITY

The traditional Master of Divinity program is designed to prepare pastors, missionaries, and other Christian workers for a life of effective kingdom service. The Ministry track supports both academic and practical ministry interests. Within three academic years of full-time attendance, the program prepares Christian ministers for kingdom service by enabling them to gain a basic understanding of Scripture, theology and the Christian worldview.

Students coming to the Seminary to prepare for a pastoral role or for missionary service should select the Ministry track of the Master of Divinity program as their first graduate professional degree.

The flexibility of the M.Div. degree plan allows students with specialized ministry objectives to select other tracks which are tailored to specific vocational goals. Seven concentrations are recognized by degree title and special requirements: Christian Education, Church Music, Biblical Counseling, International Church Planting, North American Church Planting, Advanced Biblical Studies, and Women's Studies.

Admission Requirements

Admission to the Master of Divinity program is limited to persons holding a baccalaureate degree or its equivalent who also meet all other admission requirements for the Seminary. Individual track concentrations may have additional requirements as noted.

While a B.A. in Religion may allow students to qualify for Advanced Standing in some Foundational Courses, it is not a requirement for enrolling in the Master of Divinity program of the Seminary.

Degree Requirements

The Master of Divinity (M.Div.) degree requires 96 semester hours including 42 hours of Foundational Core Studies. Students must achieve an overall GPA of 2.0 or better on all work taken. Not more than 15 additional semester hours may be taken to make up a deficiency in quality points.

A notation of the specialized concentration within the Master of Divinity will be placed on diplomas of those students who complete the prescribed courses of study as listed under the specialized degree tracks.

M.Div. students who complete eight or more elective hours at Southeastern in a single academic discipline may, upon their request, receive on their diploma and transcript the notation "with concentration in..." Eight or more hours in each of two disciplines would qualify for a dual concentration. Disciplines in which concentrations may be achieved include: Biblical Hebrew; Old Testament; Greek; New Testament; Church History; Christian Missions; Evangelism; Theology; Christian Philosophy; Christian Ethics; Preaching and Speech; and Pastoral Ministry.

The notation, with Biblical Languages, will appear on all M.Div. diplomas of those students who receive credit for one semester of both Intermediate Hebrew and Intermediate Greek in their seminary degree program. Intermediate Greek requires a prerequisite year of Elementary Greek (6 or more credit hours) or equivalent competency. Those who do not have this prior to entry into the Seminary may take the required elementary biblical language course in Southeastern College, but those hours do not count toward the 96 hour M.Div.

Curriculum Design

Students preparing for the pastoral ministry, or for any Christian vocation that includes an emphasis upon the regular exposition of God's Word, or students who anticipate advanced graduate work in Theological Studies are expected to follow the Ministry track with biblical languages. Students who anticipate graduate work in Biblical Studies are encouraged to follow the Advanced Biblical Studies track. Students should begin course work in the biblical languages during the summer before their first year or at least during their first year in order to be able to

Suggested Sequence of Courses for M.Div.

The Faculty advises students to take introductory level courses early in order to prepare for upper-level electives. Students are also advised to focus on Track Requirements toward the end of their degree programs. This suggested sequence is provided as a guidance tool for academic advisement. Students are permitted to take courses out of sequence if necessary. Short-term classes (such as those in January, June, and July) may be taken and are encouraged so that students may reduce their academic load during regular semesters, especially the final three semesters.

M.DIV. WITH ADVANCED BIBLICAL STUDIES

The Advanced Biblical Studies track is designed to equip persons for leadership roles in Christian ministries that require a special expertise in biblical studies and exegesis in the original languages. This would include those with a desire to enter advanced graduate level biblical studies programs in preparation for teaching ministries. Students completing all requirements will receive a Master of Divinity diploma with the notation "with Advanced Biblical Studies." Intermediate Greek requires a

M.DIV. WITH WOMEN'S STUDIES

Within the Master of Divinity program, a woman may concentrate in Women's Studies in order to prepare for Christian leadership positions other than the pastorate and thereby receive the Master of Divinity degree with the notation "with Women's Studies." The concentration provided by this track will prepare women for a wide variety of family, care-giving, and mission ministries: (1) in church staff and denominational positions in which they develop, deliver, and/or supervise ministries to women; (2) in missionary work; (3) in evangelistic work; (4) in women's conference ministries; (5) in teaching the Bible and related disciplines to women; (6) in advocacy work; (7) in teaching ministries addressing the practical, moral, and spiritual needs of women. Intermediate Greek requires a prerequisite year of Elementary Greek (6 or more credit hours) or equivalent competency. Those who do not have this prior to entry into the Seminary may take the required elementary biblical language course in Southeastern College, but those hours do not count toward the 96 hour M.Div.

The Master of Divinity with Women's Studies requires the 42 hr. M.Div. Foundational Core, 36 hrs. of track core and 8 hrs. in specialized track requirements, and 10 hrs. of free electives for a total of 96 hours with an overall GPA of 2.0 or better.

M.DIV. WITH CHRISTIAN EDUCATION

Within the Master of Divinity program a student may concentrate in the field of Christian Education and receive the Master of Divinity diploma with the notation, "with Christian Education." All requirements for Foundational Core Studies in the Master of Divinity program remain, and the total 96 hour requirement is the same. The specialization in Christian Education ministries provided by this track will prepare students to serve in a variety of educational staff positions in local churches and in denominational positions.

Christian Education students must complete the M.Div. Foundational Core, a 42 hour specialization, and 12 elective hours. During new student orientation, students meet with CE Faculty members to receive counsel and advice on track requirements. Prior to registration each semester, Christian Education students should meet with their Academic Advisor.

In addition to the Education Core Curriculum, each student will specialize in an area of particular interest. An academic advisor will be assigned in accordance with the expressed written interests of the student. During the registration period of the first semester of enrollment, the student must complete a form which will include the desired area of specialization. Since not all of the courses will be taught every semester, it is important to plan early to meet the requirements for an area of specialization. The student must take the courses indicated by the asterisks (*) and then may choose from the other courses listed for each area of specialization to complete the 12 hour minimum.

Within the Master of Divinity program, a student may concentrate in the field of Biblical Counseling and receive the Master of Divinity diploma with the notation, "with Biblical Counseling." The concentration in Biblical Counseling provided by this track will prepare students for a wide variety of biblical guidance ministries in local churches.

Master of Divinity with Biblical Counseling (M.Div./B.C.) students complete the 42 hr. M.Div. Foundational Core, 36 hrs. of specialized track requirements, and 18 hrs. of electives for a total of 96 hours with an overall GPA of 2.0 or better.

A Southeastern student gathers with his family and friends after commencement exercises.

Students completing the M.Div. or M.A. degree programs in Biblical Counseling will be prepared to serve as a chaplain or on a local church staff with special responsibilities for counseling, pastoral care, and family ministries. The M.Div./B.C. is better preparation for those with long term local church ministry goals. The M.A./B.C. is for those who will be specializing primarily in vocational counseling ministries. Pastoral candidates seeking a specialization in counseling ministries are advised to complete both the M.Div. following the Ministry track and the M.A./B.C. The Registrar can help a student design a program of study leading to the completion of both degrees. The total hours required for the completion of both degrees is 128.

Students seeking professional licensure will need to complete some additional hours of academic and practical training beyond those offered in either the M.Div./B.C. or the M.A./B.C. degrees.

PHILOSOPHY of the Biblical Counseling Program

The guiding foundation for Southeastern's Biblical Counseling program is that the Holy Scriptures are the written Word of the Living God and are sufficient for understanding people as spiritual, moral, relational, and psychological beings (2 Timothy 3:14-17; Psalm 1). God has provided all things necessary for life and godliness: His risen and reigning Son, our Lord Jesus Christ; His written Word, the Holy Bible; and His churches, local communities of baptized believers committed to the faith, working through love (2 Peter 1:3-4; Galatians 5:6). Southeastern intends to equip men and women of God to become wise, merciful counselors, thoroughly and completely equipped to minister both the truth and the grace of God.

Counseling belongs under the umbrella of the local Church as part of its mission to make disciples. Southeastern hopes to restore to the churches practical biblical wisdom in the care and cure of souls. Counseling is a ministry of the Word, a type of individualized discipleship, which in concert with the other ministries of a church, facilitates the process of sanctification for each member and the subsequent purification and strengthening of the Body of Christ (Matthew 28:19-20; 2 Corinthians 3:18; Hebrews 12:14; 1 Thessalonians 5:14; Romans 15:14).

While confident in the primacy and finality of the Holy Scriptures to address and interpret all things, either directly or indirectly, biblical counselors can benefit from the empirical findings of the human and medical sciences. However, the Word of God provides the only infallible grid by which persons can be rightly understood. The theories, practices, and institutions of the secular mental health establishment are not essential for constructing a Christian counseling model or for providing an effective cure for the soul, psyche, or mind. Particularly in the counseling domain, secular and naturalistic personality theories and psychotherapies are fundamentally flawed because they excise the God of the Bible from the human equation (Psalm 10:4; Psalm 14:1; Proverbs 28:26).

The Seminary's counseling program intends to assist the student in learning to counsel from within the framework of a biblical anthropology, developing a biblical, God-related understanding of human problems, and implementing truthful, graceful, timely, relevant, and practical Christ-centered methods of problem solving and change (Psalm 1:1-2; Hebrews 4:12-13). The character of the counselor and the quality of the relationship between counselor and counselee are as important as practical skill. Christ-likeness, relationally manifested through the fruit of the Holy Spirit (Galatians 5:22-23; James 3:13-18), is the ideal for the counselor and the goal for the counselee. The ultimate goal of all aspects of the counseling relationship is to glorify God (1 Corinthians 10:31; Colossians 3:17).

M.DIV. WITH CHURCH MUSIC

A concentration within the M.Div. program is offered in the field of Church Music. The successful completion of this course of study will earn the notation, "with Church Music," on the M.Div. diploma and will prepare students for vocational music ministries in local churches.

In addition to the requirements for M.Div. admission, it is desirable that the applicant have a college music major or its equivalent.

At the time of admission, the student's proficiency in music will be evaluated by the faculty for the purpose of designing an individualized program of study.

Entering M.Div./C.M. students will be required to take placement exams in the following subject areas: Theory/Harmony and Music History. Results from these tests will determine whether an entering student has demonstrated competence in these areas. If competence is not demonstrated on the placement exams within the first semester after admission, courses in these areas (MUS 101, MUS 102, MUS 210, and MUS 211) must be taken for no graduate music credit.

Upon entrance into the program, the student will sing or play for the music faculty during the orientation period a piece of representative repertoire in his/her chosen performance skill area. An accompanist will be provided if necessary. This hearing is not an audition, per se. Rather, it is an opportunity to demonstrating one's level of accomplishment and competency in his/her chosen skill area.

During this initial orientation period, students will also demonstrate piano proficiency (vocal and instrumental students) and vocal proficiency (keyboard and instrumental students). Music Students are required to be enrolled in piano lab or private piano study until piano proficiency is passed.† specialization, and 2-3 elective hours.†† As a part of applied study in voice/organ/keyboard, each student will present a recital. Voice and instrumental majors are expected to complete a keyboard proficiency (see footnote below); keyboard and instrumental majors are expected to complete a proficiency requirement in voice. In addition to piano and vocal proficiency, all M.Div./C.M. students must complete a sightproficiency. Further singing/ear-training information about the recital and proficiency requirements are available in the "Handbook for Church Music Students" issued during orientation. In their final semester of study, church music students will have an exit interview conducted by the music faculty.

M.DIV. WITH INTERNATIONAL CHURCH PLANTING

The Master of Divinity with International Church Planting is a highly specialized four year program of study including two years of international field based service in cooperation with the International Mission Board of the Southern Baptist Convention (IMB). The degree plan functions within a partnership between the Seminary and field-based mission locations.

Selection into the International Church Planting program is contingent upon the number of applicants that may be deployed to the designated field site in a given year. Preference is given to those that meet the specific criteria for service with the International Service Corps (ISC) and the general requirements for career appointment with the IMB. Further information on these requirements is available from the Lewis A. Drummond Center for Great Commission Studies, SEBTS, Box 1889, Wake Forest, NC 27588.

Curriculum Design

After completing 67 semester hours on the Seminary campus in Wake Forest, North Carolina, with an overall GPA of 2.0 or better, students relocate to a selected site, as a class, to perform their overseas assignment. During the two years of field service, Southeastern shuttles faculty to the region where students are serving. Modular seminars, guided readings, and supervised practica, comprise the final 29 semester hours (which must also be completed with a grade of "C" or better).

The IMB provides the laboratory wherein students learn how to plant churches by actually serving as planters. Veteran missionary church planters, gifted nationals, and proficient field language coordinators instruct and supervise students as they plant churches, develop crossculturally effective lifestyles and gain language acquisition skills. Students are deployed annually, as a group, to a site mutually designated by the IMB and Southeastern.

Students serve with the IMB's International Service Corps for a two-year term. Partial financial support for each individual, or student family, is provided by the ISC. Additional funding is provided through the student's family members, network of friends, churches, and other sources.

The student who successfully completes the M.Div. with International Church Planting degree is an equipped and experienced church planter who may apply for career status with the IMB. Thus, the IMB allows the two years of field experience, along with satisfactory field recommendations, to satisfy the two-year ministry requirement needed for career appointment.

Master of Divinity with International Church Planting students complete the 42 hr. M.Div. Foundational Core, 48 hrs. of specialized track requirements, and 6 hrs. of electives for a total of 96 hours with an overall GPA of 2.0 or better.

M.DIV. WITH NORTH AMERICAN CHURCH PLANTING

The Master of Divinity with North American Church Planting is a four-year program designed to prepare God-called men and women for the task of starting new Baptist churches. The program includes two years of field-based service in cooperation with the North American Mission Board of the Southern Baptist Convention (NAMB). The degree plan functions within a partnership between the Seminary, NAMB, state, and local bodies.

Participation in the modulars is limited to individuals active in church planting ministries. Those positions are not limited to NAMB funded locations. However, preference is given to those that meet general requirements for career appointment with NAMB. Further information on these requirements is available from the Nehemiah Project Director, SEBTS, Box 1889, Wake Forest, NC 27588.

Curriculum Design

At least 30 of the 63 campus-based courses must be completed on the Seminary campus in Wake Forest, North Carolina, with an overall GPA of 2.0 or better. Modular seminars, guided readings, and supervised practica comprise the 33 semester hours of field-based courses (which must also be completed with a grade of "C" or better). The modulars may be offered in the region of service or on the Wake Forest campus. North America provides the laboratory wherein students plant churches while receiving academic instruction and onsite mentoring from experienced church planters. Graduates receive a Master of Divinity diploma with the notation "with North American Church Planting."

The North American Mission Board contributes financial support and benefits for each individual or student family which they approve for a two-year field placement. Additional funding is provided through the Baptist state conventions, local associations, and sponsoring churches.

Students who successfully complete the M.Div. with North American Church Planting degree are equipped and experienced church planters who may apply for career status with NAMB. Graduates may also choose to continue serving in the Church Plant setting or in a new church setting without NAMB status, or they may pursue other ministry opportunities.

Master of Divinity with North American Church Planting students must complete the 42 hrs. of the M.Div. Foundational Core and 54 hrs. of specialized track requirements for a total of 96 hours with an overall GPA of 2.0 or better.

M.A. IN CHURCH MUSIC

The purpose of the program of studies leading to the degree, Master of Arts in Church Music, is to equip persons for the ministry of music, usually in a local church. The program is designed to be completed within a minimum of two academic years, beginning with a fall semester.

Admission Requirements

Based upon The Association of Theological Schools accrediting requirements, persons seeking admission to this program should (a) possess a baccalaureate degree program approved by the National Association of Schools of Music or (b) meet the standards of the bachelor of music degree as prescribed by In further accordance with ATS NASM. accrediting requirements, Southeastern Seminary is required to administer placement exams of all graduate applicants to the M.A./C.M. program. If deficiencies are indicated, remedial work will be required without graduate credit.

Each entering M.A./C.M. student will be required to take placement exams in the following areas: Theory/Harmony, Orchestration, Music History, Form and Analysis, Conducting, and Vocal/Choral Diction. Results from these tests will determine whether the student has demonstrated competence in these areas. If competence is not demonstrated on the placement exams within the first semester after admission, courses in these areas (MUS 101, MUS 102, MUS 210, MUS 211, M5117, M5119, M5149, M5151, and M5235) must be taken for no graduate music credit.

Upon entrance into the program, the student will sing or play for the music faculty during the orientation period a piece of representative repertoire in his/her chosen performance skill area. An accompanist will be provided if necessary. This hearing is not an audition, per se. Rather, it is an opportunity to demonstrate one's level of accomplishment and competency in his/her chosen skill area.

During this initial orientation period, students will also demonstrate piano proficiency (vocal and instrumental students) and vocal proficiency (keyboard and instrumental students). Music Students are required to be enrolled in piano lab or private piano study until piano proficiency is passed.†

Degree Requirements

Students must complete 30 semester hours of Foundational Core studies and 34 semester hours of Church Music courses as prescribed. At the time of admission, the student's proficiency in music will be evaluated by the faculty for the purpose of designing an individualized program of study. As a part of applied study in voice/instrumental/keyboard, each performance concentration student will present a recital. Students with concentrations in Conducting, Composition and Worship will present a terminal performance project as prescribed by their concentration.

Students who choose concentrations in Voice Performance, Instrumental Performance, Conducting, Worship, and Composition are required to complete a keyboard proficiency requirement.† Students who choose concentrations in keyboard performance, conducting, worship, and instrumental performance are expected to complete a proficiency requirement in voice.

In addition to piano and vocal proficiency, all M.A./C.M. students must complete a sight-singing/ear-training proficiency. Further information about the recital and proficiency requirements are available in the "Handbook for Church Music Students" issued during orientation.

The M.A./C.M. degree requires the completion of 64 semester hours of credit with an overall GPA of 2.0 or better. Not more than ten additional semester hours may be taken to make up a deficiency in quality points that are required for the M.A./C.M. degree. Candidates for the M.A./C.M. degree are required to consult

The guiding foundation for Southeastern's Biblical Counseling program is that the Holy Scriptures are the written Word of the Living God and are sufficient for understanding people as spiritual, moral, relational, and psychological beings (2 Timothy 3:14-17; Psalm 1). God has provided all things necessary for life and godliness: His risen and reigning Son, our Lord Jesus Christ; His written Word, the Holy Bible; and His churches, local communities of baptized believers committed to the faith, working through love (2 Peter 1:3-4; Galatians 5:6). Southeastern intends to equip men and women of God to become wise, merciful counselors, thoroughly and completely equipped to minister both the truth and the grace of God.

Counseling belongs under the umbrella of the local Church as part of its mission to make disciples. Southeastern hopes to restore to the churches practical biblical wisdom in the care and cure of souls. Counseling is a ministry of the Word, a type of individualized discipleship, which in concert with the other ministries of a church, facilitates the process of sanctification for each member and the subsequent purification and strengthening of the Body of Christ (Matthew 28:19-20; 2 Corinthians 3:18; Hebrews 12:14; 1 Thessalonians 5:14; Romans 15:14).

While confident in the primacy and finality of the Holy Scriptures to address and interpret all things, either directly or indirectly, biblical counselors can benefit from the empirical findings of the human and medical sciences. However, the Word of God provides the only infallible grid by which persons can be rightly understood. The theories, practices, and institutions of the secular mental health establishment are not essential for constructing a Christian counseling model or for providing an effective cure for the soul, psyche, or mind. Particularly in the counseling domain, secular and naturalistic personality theories and psychotherapies are fundamentally flawed because they excise the God of the Bible from the human equation (Psalm 10:4; Psalm 14:1; Proverbs 28:26).

The Seminary's counseling program intends to assist the student in learning to counsel from within the framework of a biblical anthropology, developing a biblical, God-related understanding of human problems, and implementing truthful, graceful, timely, relevant, and practical Christ-centered methods of problem solving and change (Psalm 1:1-2; Hebrews 4:12-13). The character of the counselor and the quality of the relationship between counselor and counselee are as important as practical skill. Christ-likeness, relationally manifested through the fruit of the Holy Spirit (Galatians 5:22-23; James 3:13-18), is the ideal for the counselor and the goal for the counselee. The ultimate goal of all aspects of the counseling relationship is to glorify God (1 Corinthians 10:31; Colossians 3:17).

MASTER OF ARTS (CHRISTIAN STUDIES)

The Master of Arts (Christian Studies) is currently offered only at the Tampa Bay and the Woodstock Area Extension Centers. The degree provides a graduate level introduction to the theological disciplines. Further, it provides an opportunity for students to focus on one or more of the Seminary disciplines in order to develop an expertise that will prepare students for further graduate study. Other students may seek this degree for general educational purposes. The majority of credits for this degree are designed to be offered in an off-campus setting, though an on-campus component is required. The degree is not designed to prepare a student sufficiently for full-time Christian vocational ministries.

Applicants should have an accredited Bachelor's degree. All other relevant requirements for Seminary admission also apply. The application will include a statement of the candidate's rationale for selecting this degree rather than the M.Div. which is considered to be the basic degree for full-time Christian ministries.

In order to assure appropriate quality controls, a peer learning environment, adequate faculty contact, library resources, and other student services, at least one-half of the coursework for this degree must be completed at a Southeastern extension site that has been approved for degree-granting status.

The requirements will include chapel attendance, class attendance as specified, and other campus-based academic activities. Students arrive on Monday, participate Tuesday through Friday, and return home on Friday afternoon.

An exit interview (oral exam) will be conducted with each student. The oral interview will examine the student over the reading and the coursework taken for this degree. The summative evaluation will be scheduled through the registry as a part of the application for graduation.

Degree Requirements Total .......48 hrs.

MASTER OF ARTS (CHRISTIAN ETHICS)

The program leading to the Master of Arts (Christian Ethics) provides a specialized academic master's degree that can be completed in 2 years, or that can be completed as a supplement to the M.Div. degree with one additional year of full-time study.

Admission Requirements

Admission to this program is limited to applicants who have earned a minimum GPA of 3.0 in their accredited baccalaureate degree program (or equivalent), and who also meet all other admission requirements of the Seminary. International applicants will be considered on a case by case basis. In addition, all applicants for the degree will be required to complete the GRE Writing Assessment. Applicants for whom English is a second language must achieve a minimum score of 600 on the TOEFEL. A personal interview conducted by the major professor with whom the student wishes to study will also be required.

Degree Requirements

Master of Arts students complete 30 hours of Foundational Core studies, 3 hours in M.A. Bibliographical Research, 15 hours of Christian Ethics Field Studies and the completion of the M.A. Thesis for a total of 48 credit hours with a GPA of 2.0 or better.

Advanced Programs

Andreas Köstenberger, Director

The purpose of the Master of Theology degree program is to provide the post-M.Div. student with an opportunity for advanced guided research in a special area of theological study. Graduates are prepared to teach at the undergraduate level. Some students choose this program to enhance their academic qualifications for further graduate study. Most students, however, choose this program primarily to extend their preparation for ministry in a local church, on the mission field, or in other positions of denominational service.

Admission Requirements

Only graduates of accredited colleges and universities who have also earned the M.Div. degree or its equivalent from an accredited institution may apply for admission to the program of studies leading to the Master of Theology degree.

Admission to this program requires facility with two foreign languages, at least one of which must be a Biblical language: Greek or Hebrew. Students majoring in the Biblical area, however, must have both Greek and Hebrew.

Satisfaction of one of the language requirements can be achieved concurrently with the student's course work in the Th.M. program upon the recommendation of the Major Professor and with the approval of the Committee on Graduate Studies. Language requirements must be completed prior to approval of the Th.M. thesis prospectus.

Applications for admission to the Th.M. program should be made at least 60 days prior to matriculation. Applications normally are processed during the spring semester and students begin the program June 1.

Admission is limited and will be based upon the following application elements:

 A completed set of standard application forms, including the Church Recommendation form, Medical History, Immunization Record, and Th.M. Application form (and application fee).

- Minimum 3.0 GPA on the M.Div. or its equivalent is required. Transcripts are required from all graduate and undergraduate studies.
- 3. Transcript or other evidence of satisfactory completion of all language requirements. This means the completion of Biblical Greek and/or Biblical Hebrew at the Master's level with an average grade of B or above; or the satisfactory completion of a biblical language competency exam. Competency in a second major language must be shown depending upon the field of specialization. This second competency will be determined by the Major Professor.
- Five references (non-family): 1 pastor; 2 personal character references; 2 academic (at least one from the field of desired specialization).
- A graded research paper from the M.Div. program; or an equivalent demonstration of research skills and scholarly writing ability.
- 6. Students for whom English is a second language should have a minimum TOEFL score of 600 or an equivalent demonstration of ability to read and write in English at the scholarly level.
- 7. Applicants must complete a Major Request Form in which they designate a possible Major Professor and summarize their interest in the Field Concentration and their scholarly preparation for their desired specialization. Applicants may be approved only if there is an available Major Professor in the desired discipline of major concentration. The applicant is required to discuss these plans in person or at least by phone with the desired major professor.

The applicant must waive all rights to privileged knowledge of the decision-making process leading toward admission. All references and other evaluative documents will be confidential. The decision of the Graduate Studies Committee, acting officially on behalf of the faculty, will be final. However, an applicant who fails to be admitted may re-apply with the same application materials for the following year. A third application requires a complete update of all application materials.

Candidates for the Th.M. degree are required to maintain continuous, full-time enrollment until the degree is completed. Fees will be charged each semester including those semesters during which the research and writing of the thesis takes place.

One of many Southeastern graduates ready to embark on a new mission in life.

Degree Requirements

The degree, Master of Theology, is awarded based upon the satisfactory fulfillment of the following requirements:

1. Courses and Seminars: A candidate must complete at least 15 semester hours of study chosen from advanced courses and seminars, with a minimum of 45 quality points earned on these 15 hours (a "B" average). No additional hours may be taken to make up a deficiency in quality points. A maximum of three (3) hours may be transferred from graduate courses at other institutions taken concurrently with or within one year of enrollment in Southeastern's Th.M. program. Approval of transfer credits must be made by both the Dean of the Faculty and the student's Major Professor. Six (6) semester hours must be taken in graduate seminars. No seminars may be taken prior to satisfactory completion of 0080 Bibliographical Research. Under the supervision of one's major professor, a Th.M student may participate in a reading and reporting program of study (0089) to fulfill one of the required upper-level M.Div. electives in the major area.

2. Major: Each candidate must select either biblical, theological, or applied theological studies as a major area of study in which not less than 12 semester hours must be completed. During the first summer of the program, the student must complete 0080 Bibliographical Research for 3 credit hours under the supervision of the student's Major Professor. Th.M. students must take seminars that are offered in their major up to their maximum of 6 seminar hours. Should any duplication or other ambiguity exist in this regard, the Major Professor will make a recommendation to the Graduate Studies Committee regarding acceptable requirements.

3. Thesis: The candidate must prepare a Thesis on an approved subject within the major, following the Turabian Manual, 6th edition and Southeastern's supplement to the Turabian Manual. A full prospectus, including a proposed subject and a plan of research for the thesis, must be approved by the Major Professor and the Committee on Graduate Studies during the semester prior to the semester in which the candidate plans to submit the thesis. Three (3) "final draft" copies of the Th.M. thesis must be submitted to the Director of the program and one (1) copy to the Major Professor at least 45 days before the candidate expects to receive the degree. The thesis will then be read and graded by the Major Professor and two other faculty readers. Following the oral examination, four (4) copies, in corrected final form, on approved paper stock for binding, must be delivered to the Library 15 days prior to graduation. Final copies of the thesis submitted to the library must be on acid-free, 20 lbs. bond paper, 100% cotton content, 8.5" x 11", bright white, and must be produced on a laser printer in 12 pt. Times Romans, double-spaced, 1.5 inch left margins (for binding).

4. Oral Examination: Upon completion of the thesis, the candidate's work will be evaluated by an Examining Committee composed of the Major Professor and two faculty readers. Normally these will be professors within the candidate's major area or with whom the candidate has studied in the Th.M. program. In this exam, the candidate will be expected to defend the thesis and to demonstrate academic competence in the major field concentration. Final approval will be determined by a majority of the committee.

5. Time Deadlines: Prospective Th.M. students applying for admission to the Th.M. program are expected to commence their work at the beginning of the summer term. For convenience in record keeping, this date will be calculated as June 1 (though in some cases the work for 0080 may need to begin earlier). Typically, a Th.M. student's program would follow this pattern:

Additional Information: All Th.M. students are expected to know and comply with the guidelines contained in the Th.M. Student's Handbook, which is provided to all successful applicants. It contains further details about the program requirements.

Stephen N. Rummage, Director

The purpose of the Doctor of Ministry program is to equip the student for the practice of ministry at a high level of professional competence. The program provides opportunities for advanced study in interdisciplinary intensive courses, seminars, and field settings. It combines academic study and experiential learning under faculty and field supervision to integrate theology and practice.

Admission Requirements

Pre-application: The applicant will be interviewed by the Director to receive counsel about the program and the admission criteria in order to determine the prospect for acceptance into the program. The interview may be conducted by telephone or by a visit with the Director and will be scheduled upon receipt of a completed pre-application form, a professional resume, and official transcripts of Master of Divinity or equivalent work from a recognized accredited school.

Admission Criteria

Graduates of accredited colleges or universities who have also earned the Master of Divinity degree or its equivalent with distinction and have otherwise demonstrated aptitude for academic work on the doctoral level may apply for admission to the program of studies leading to the Doctor of Ministry degree.

In the judgment of the Faculty, the D.Min. program is most effective when the students bring to it a period of experience in ministry that follows the attainment of the first professional degree. Students should have had three years of full-time post-M.Div. ministry experience prior to beginning the D.Min. program and must be continuously engaged in some type of Christian ministry during enrollment. The program of study required for the D.Min. degree will be no fewer than three academic years.

Admission to the Doctor of Ministry program is determined by an evaluation of the applicant's academic ability and potential for excellence in ministry. Decisions on admission to the program are made by the Director and the Committee on Doctor of Ministry Studies.

Academic ability is assessed on the basis of transcripts of all college, seminary, and graduate divinity school work, and on the basis of performance on the Miller Analogies Test and any other tests the Director and the Committee on Doctor of Ministry Studies consider appropriate.

Potential for excellence in ministry is assessed on the basis of a letter of recommendation from the applicant's church; references from at least five persons acquainted with the applicant's ministry; and an essay describing one's Christian experience, calling, ministry service record, and goals in pursuing the Doctor of Ministry degree.

Application to the D.Min. program must be made at least 90 days prior to the matriculation date.

Additional information may be obtained from the Doctor of Ministry Office, Southeastern Baptist Theological Seminary, P.O. Box 1889, Wake Forest, NC 27588-1889. The Doctor of Ministry Office may be reached by phone at: 919-761-2216.

Degree Requirements

Each student for the Doctor of Ministry degree works with an interdisciplinary supervisory committee which consists of two faculty members in different teaching areas and a field supervisor. The Chair of the committee shall be an elected faculty member. The student has the consent of a Chair in the admissions process, and once admitted, the Director confers with the student in completing the supervisory committee. The student must present to the committee a rationale for the plan of study and for the Project in Ministry.

In order to continue in the program and to be awarded the degree, the student must maintain an academic average of at least 3.0 on a 4.0 scale. Additional hours beyond those taken to meet the requirements outlined below may not be taken to bring the academic average up to the required level. Students for the degree are required to maintain continuous enrollment. Any exception to this rule must be approved by the Director and the Dean of the Faculty. Transfer of credit from other accredited D.Min. programs or post M.Div. programs will be considered by the director on a case-by-case basis. Minimally, all transfer students must complete satisfactorily at least 15 credit hours of D.Min. work at Southeastern Seminary, including the Project-in-Ministry and Project Report (9 credit hours) and two courses from the Foundational Curriculum (6 credit hours).

Candidacy for the D.Min. degree is declared when the student has completed the 15 hours of foundational courses, has completed the 12 hours of electives, has maintained at least a 3.0 grade point average, and has the approval of the Supervisory Committee for candidacy. Candidacy admits the student to begin the 9 hours of supervised field experience in the Project in Ministry and in the writing of the Project Report.

The D.Min. program requires a minimum of three years. The student must maintain continuous enrollment. Fees for the program are for three years. Extensions beyond the three years require the consent of the Director and the Chair of the Supervisory Committee. An extension may be granted with additional fees. In no case shall there be extensions extending the program beyond six years from the date of admission. (Exceptions are made for missionaries under appointment with the Southern Baptist International Mission Board.)

Curriculum Design

Applicants in the Doctor of Ministry Program will select a vocational emphasis. Upon admission the student will focus on the selected ministry competence.

The vocational emphases are:

Doctor of Ministry with Expository Preaching
Doctor of Ministry with Christian Leadership
Doctor of Ministry with Missions
Doctor of Ministry with Evangelism
Doctor of Ministry with Church Growth
Doctor of Ministry with Christian Education
Doctor of Ministry with Christian Counseling
Doctor of Ministry with Worship Leadership
Doctor of Ministry with Church Music

The Doctor of Ministry program requires a total of 36 hours including 15 hours of foundational work, 12 hours of specialized/ elective work, and 9 hours of supervised field experience in Project in Ministry and Project Report.

Foundational Curriculum.....15 hrs

The foundational curriculum includes five courses. Each course offers 3 hours credit. The foundational curriculum provides the student a peer learning experience with fellow D.Min. students. Emphasis in the curriculum is placed upon biblical and theological reflection in relationship to the practice of ministry.

The five courses are offered in one week sessions during inter-terms. The student is resident on the campus with access to faculty, library, and other seminary resources. All students are required to take 0475, Biblical-Theological Reflection in Ministry, 0495, Research Methods and the Project in Ministry Proposal, plus three other foundational courses.

Courses include:

0480	Leadership in the Context of Church and Community3 hrs
0482	Contemporary Models for Church Administration3 hrs
0487	Biblical Counseling in Ministry
0485	Communication of the Gospel in the Contemporary World3 hrs
0492	Using the Bible in Ministry3 hrs
0475	Biblical-Theological Reflection in Ministry*3 hrs
0495	Research Methods and the Project in Ministry Proposal*3 hrs
0490	Strategies in Missions, Evangelism, and Church Growth
0494	Evangelism in the Contemporary World3 hrs

Specialized Elective

Curriculum12 hrs
Guided Reading and Research I6 hrs
Guided Reading and Research II6 hrs

All specialized electives must be in vocational emphasis and approved by Director and Committee Chair.

Supervised Field Experience/ Ministry Project and Report Requirement......9 hrs

- Submission of a Project in Ministry Proposal to supervisory committee.
- Upon acceptance, candidate begins project requiring a minimum of six months under the supervision of the committee.
- Candidate submits monthly reports to supervisory committee.
- Final draft copies of Project Report must be submitted to the Supervisory Committee at least 60 days before graduation, following a calendar established with the Supervisory Committee.

Total for D.Min......36 hrs

The student may achieve candidacy after completing the foundational curriculum of 15 hours and the specialized/elective curriculum of 12 hours with the maintenance of at least a 3.0 grade point average and the approval of the Project Proposal by the Supervisory Committee.

Upon the acceptance of the Project Proposal and thus as a candidate for the D.Min. degree, the candidate begins the project in ministry which shall require a minimum of six months under the supervision of the committee. The candidate submits a monthly report to the Supervisory Committee during the project in ministry. The Field Supervisor also submits a monthly report to the Supervisory Committee and to the candidate.

Upon completion of the Project in Ministry, the candidate writes and submits a copy of the final draft of the Doctor of Ministry Project Report to each member of the Supervisory Committee at least 60 days before graduation following the calendar established with the Supervisory Committee. The Committee will then review the Report and meet with the Candidate for an oral evaluation. The Project in Ministry and the Project Report are graded on a pass-fail basis. Committee approval of the Report is required before credit is granted. Such approval should be achieved no later than the catalog deadline for submission of the Project Report for binding or else an extension may be necessary and graduation may be delayed. Extensions require additional fees.

Four copies of the Project in Ministry Report in final approved form should be submitted to the Director. The copies must conform to the regulations provided by the Director. The copies of the Project Report must be in the Library for binding 15 days prior to graduation.

Andreas Köstenberger, Director

The purpose of the Doctor of Philosophy (Ph.D.) program is to prepare God-called men and women for service in ministries of teaching and academic research. The program will also meet the needs of ministers who serve in settings that demand specialized academic training.

The Ph.D. degree is an advanced academic research degree in the major fields of Biblical Studies, Theological Studies, and Applied Theology.

The Ph.D. program requires a minimum of three academic years (6 semesters) of full-time study. Actual completion time is often four or more years. The program must be completed within 7 years. The program requires a minimum two-year residency prior to the dissertation stage. Continuous enrollment is required with fees paid each semester (fall and spring) until graduation. Continuous enrollment may be waived for international field-based missionaries under career appointment through the Southern Baptist International Mission Board.

Admission Requirements

Admission to the Ph.D. program is selective and is offered only to students who have demonstrated the intellectual ability, the preparation, and the motivation to perform academically at the highest level. Enrollment in the program is limited to applicants who, in the judgment of the faculty, appear best qualified and most capable of using the resources that the Seminary provides. The following preapplication requirements are for self-screening purposes and only establish the opportunity to apply to the Ph.D. program.

Pre-Application Requirements

1. M.Div. or first graduate professional degree providing an equivalent theological background and educational equivalent of Southeastern's M.Div. degree. Training in biblical languages (Hebrew and Greek) is required for admission. Applicants in Biblical Studies may need a higher level of competency in these languages. Applicants with M.A. degrees must show superior ability and may apply only in the field of their M.A. specialization. Applicants may be required to do remedial work. Applicants with the advanced M.T.S. are considered on a case by case basis.

- GPA 3.25 (minimum) on a 4 point scale. GPA is calculated from transcripts of all graduate and professional level study. Admission is competitive; higher GPA is favored.
- 3. If the student's first language is not English, a TOEFL score of 600 (minimum) or an equivalent demonstration of the ability to read, write, and do academic research in standard English is required.

Application Elements

Interested candidates who meet the preapplication standards listed above may request application forms from the Graduate Studies Office, Southeastern Baptist Theological Seminary, P.O. Box 1889, Wake Forest, NC 27588-1889. The Graduate Studies Office may be reached by phone at: 919-761-2491.

Prospective students should apply to major in Biblical Studies, Theological Studies, or Applied Theology and should indicate their anticipated area of concentration. An application information sheet and check list will be provided to guide the student in completing the application. Study guides for the Entrance Exam will be included with the Application Forms. Applications must be complete prior to taking the Entrance Exam in late January for admission to the program in the following fall semester. The items listed below are necessary for an application to be complete:

- Application Form with Application Fee containing a waiver of student access to application files and to privileged knowledge of the decision-making process.
- 2. Church Recommendation Form (current).

- 3. References (non-family): 2 academic (with at least one from the student's anticipated field of study); 1 pastor; 2 character references.
- 4. Official Transcripts for all graduate and undergraduate study.
- 5. GRE Writing Assessment scores from testing within one year of the date of application.
- 6. Mentor Request Form which includes a rationale for undertaking study in the proposed area of specialization and a request to work under the guidance of a specific Faculty Mentor. It is prior required that the applicant contact a prospective Mentor, submitting his or her application.
- 7. Graded Research Paper from a graduate level course. The research paper should demonstrate the applicant's research and writing ability and should normally not be a technical exegetical paper. It should include footnotes and bibliography.
- 8. Entrance Exams which allow the applicant to demonstrate a basic knowledge of Master of Divinity studies. Study guides are included with the Application forms. Those applying in the field of Biblical Studies are required to pass a Hebrew or Greek examination.

The Graduate Studies Office may request additional information from the applicant.

Program Elements

The Ph.D. program at Southeastern is designed to assist the student in gaining the following: (1) proficiency in research and writing; (2) understanding of the philosophy and methods of teaching at college and seminary levels; (3) breadth of knowledge of the literature in the student's major; (4) depth of knowledge and skill in the student's area of concentration; (5) reading proficiency in at least two research languages; (6) ability to think across traditional disciplinary boundaries. The Ph.D. program is accordingly comprised of the following elements:

Instruction in Research and Teaching: At the beginning of the program students complete a one credit hour "Introduction to Research" course. This course offers a systematic introduction to academic research and writing. Students also complete a one credit hour "Teaching in Higher Education" course. This course offers a systematic introduction to the philosophy and methods of college and seminary teaching.

Integrative Seminar: First-year students participate in a two-semester integrative seminar led by the Program Director and invited faculty. The seminar meets monthly and addresses topics such as postmodernism, the relationship between the testaments, or historical method.

Graduate Seminars: Students must take at least four (out of eight) seminars in their area of concentration. If less than four are available, they must take all that are offered plus confer with their major professor.

Examinations: Each student must pass written and oral Comprehensive examinations in the student's area of concentration (New Testament, Old Testament, Systematic Theology, Church History, etc.), to be taken at the end of the Residency. Passing these exams qualifies the student for doctoral candidacy.

Mentorship: The Ph.D. program includes a mentorship; that is, a focused series of interactive academic meetings including personal tutoring in the field by the student's Major Professor. The professor meets with the student regularly and frequently to provide academic direction and advice as the student develops increasing depth and skill in the area of research interest, preparing for the Comprehensive exams at the end of Residency. The Mentorship also leads to the successful preparation of a Dissertation Prospectus.

Language Proficiency: All Ph.D. students are required to demonstrate proficiency in two research languages (normally German and one other language). In appropriate cases, the student will qualify with one research language and demonstrated competency in social science research techniques (e.g. research and statistics). It is recommended that proficiency in at least one research language be demonstrated before beginning course work in the program.

The student must demonstrate proficiency in at least one research language before commencing his or her second year of study. The student must demon-strate proficiency in a second research language before taking the Comprehensive exams. Proficiency must be demonstrated by passing language examinations offered by the Seminary.

Dissertation: Production of a Dissertation that makes an original contribution to the student's academic field is the final stage in the Ph.D. program. Preparation of a Dissertation Prospectus normally begins during the mentorship stage of the student's program. The prospectus specifies the title, the proposed method, content of research, and demonstrates that the resources necessary to successfully complete the Dissertation are available to the student.

General Information

Entrance exams are normally scheduled for January. The Graduate Studies Office will provide information on the exact dates each year. Admissions decisions are normally made by April. An initial fee is due within 30 days after receipt of the acceptance letter to confirm one's entrance into the program. All new Ph.D. students begin their studies in August with the "Introduction to Research" course.

Applicants who are not accepted into the program may re-apply during the next admission cycle. Applicants who are twice unsuccessful must make a new, updated application including a statement of any and all special circumstances that would have significantly enhanced the applicant's qualifications to be considered in a later admission cycle.

Courses taken in Th.M. or D.Min. programs are not repeatable nor transferable into the Ph.D. program at Southeastern. Up to two (2) seminars from other Ph.D. or equivalent research–based doctoral programs may be considered for transfer. The Graduate Studies Committee will make all determinations regarding transfer of course credit into the SEBTS Ph.D. program.

Students in the Ph.D. program must earn a grade of "B" or above to receive credit for any graded element in the Ph.D. Program. Students may be dismissed from the program if they make one or more C's, if they fail to meet language proficiency or residency requirements, or if in the judgment of the Graduate Studies Committee they at any time fail to show satisfactory progress in the program. Deadlines and calendar dates for various program elements are found in the Seminary's Academic Calendar.

For explanation or clarification concerning the status of one's application or concerning any aspect of the Ph.D. admissions process the applicant should consult the Graduate Studies Office. Questions regarding program requirements should be directed to the Program Director. For a more complete explanation of requirements and guidelines relating to the Ph.D. program, the current Ph.D. Student Handbook may be consulted.

Students exit Binkley Chapel after a chapel service and head to class.

Notes

Course Descriptions

The courses listed on the following pages appear on the semester schedules with varying frequency. Required Foundational Core courses are offered annually. Track and elective courses may be offered annually or on two, three, or four-year cycles. The class schedule for each semester is made available through the Registrar's Office.

Courses identified with P/F are taught on a pass/fail basis. Courses with the last two digits of 75 or above are limited to Th.M., D.Min., and Ph.D. students. Specialized Doctor of Ministry Foundational Intensive Seminars are classified under the 04 category and are open only to D.Min. students. Courses in the 05 category are open only to Ph.D. students. Courses in the 19 category are Women's Studies courses and are open only to those women in that degree program or by permission of the instructor.

Individualized Studies

Instructors are permitted to guide a limited number of students in individualized studies in order to provide an opportunity for academically qualified students to explore themes outside the regular curriculum. Students may consult with professors about their interest in individualized study, but the decision regarding the offering of an individualized study lies with the instructor. The specific nature of the study will be determined by the instructor, and a written plan of study must be approved by the instructor and by the Dean of the Faculty. Individualized study normally requires several periodic review sessions with the instructor during the course of the semester. A student may register for only one individualized study at a time. Required work must be completed during the semester or term in which the student is enrolled. No more than 12 hours of individualized study credit may be applied toward any degree program. 0010 Directed Study and 0050 Independent Reading and Research are conducted only during a regular fall or spring semester. Work may not be done in the summer and counted in the fall. Application forms for individualized studies are available from the Registrar's Office.

0010 Directed Study

Directed study in a specialized area subject to the counsel and evaluation of a professor. Open to M.Div. and M.A. students for free elective credit. Directed studies do not substitute for required courses. 2 semester hrs.

0017 Master's Workshop

With permission by the Dean of the Faculty and under the supervision of a professor, with additional assignments as deemed appropriate, credit may be given for active participation in approved conferences and/or workshops that treat subjects relevant to a student's degree program or concentration. Only one workshop per semester is allowed. Credit may be repeated in another semester, with permission, if the conference element is different. I or 2 semester hrs. P/F.*

0050 Independent Reading and Research

Advanced reading and research in a specialized area subject to the counsel and evaluation of a professor. (Open only to students in the master's level Honors programs and M.Div./I.C.P.) 3 semester hrs.

0055 M.A. Thesis

3 or 6 semester hrs.

0060 M.A. Summative Evaluation 3 semester hrs.

0063 M.T.S. Guided Reading and Research
Under the supervision of one's Supervisory Professor, an M.T.S. student participates in a program of specialized research in the student's major field. 3 semester hrs.

0065 M.T.S. Research Project 3 semester hrs.

0072 Master's Project in Ministry 12 semester hrs.

0073 M.A. Field Based Research Project 4 semester hrs.

0080 Bibliographical Research

Under the supervision of one's Major Professor, as the initial requirement of the Th.M. program, an original, extensive bibliographical report is prepared surveying the most significant of Southeastern's library resources (including AV and computer resources) in the field and especially in the degree specialization the student has chosen. 3 semester hrs.

0089 Th.M. Guided Reading and Research

Under the supervision of one's Major Professor, a Th.M. student may participate in a reading and reporting program of study to fulfill one of the upper level M.Div. electives in the major area. 3 semester hrs.

0090 Th.M. Thesis

9 semester hrs.

0098 D.Min. Guided Reading and Research

Under the supervision of one's Major Professor or someone approved by the Doctor of Ministry Studies Committee, the student will do specialized reading and reporting on a series of approved books and other media focused on the student's D.Min. vocational emphasis or a related subject. 3 semester hrs.

0099 Specialized Ph.D. Research

Subject to the counsel and evaluation of one's Major Professor, a Ph.D. student may petition for the opportunity to do specialized research under the direction of a recognized scholar outside the Seminary's faculty. The course of

BOARD OF VISITORS

The Board of Visitors of Southeastern Baptist Theological Seminary was established: (a) to provide a means by which a broad range of friends of the seminary can assist in fulfilling its stated purpose of preparing God-called men and women for vocational service in Baptist churches and in other Christian ministries throughout the world; (b) to assist by providing and securing financial resources for the opportunities and needs of the Seminary; (c) to help share the Southeastern "story" with friends, business acquaintances, and the larger Southern Baptist family; (d) to assist in the recruitment of students by encouraging individuals who are seeking to prepare for ministry to consider attending Southeastern Seminary, and; (e) to assist in the overall development program of the seminary.

Board of Visitors members work to expand the Seminary's development

BOARD OF TRUSTEES

The Board of Trustees consists of thirty members who are elected by the Southern Baptist Convention and are charged with the control and governance of Southeastern Baptist Theological Seminary, Inc.

The chief function of the Board is to establish policy concerning the operation of the Seminary, Inc. the academic programs offered by the school. Not only must the Board know and understand the objectives of the Seminary, they must interpret, clarify, and apply that understanding to current conditions of the school as well as help others to understand these policies, programs, and standards.

Though meeting formally on the Seminary campus only twice a year, individual members of the Board make it a point to become personally involved in Seminary life all year round. Working out of their love for the Seminary and the Kingdom of God.

FACULTY PROFILE

In seeking to build the Faculty at Southeastern Baptist Theological Seminary, and Southeastern College at Wake Forest, the following "Faculty Profile" has been established by the Trustees in order to define the general characteristics sought in all elected Faculty members. Within the Faculty there will be specific characteristics needed for individual positions related to the teaching specialization. Those special expectations may be set forth in position descriptions prepared for each declared vacancy or in other ways. The "Faculty Profile," however, describes the general expectations of the institution for its permanent Faculty.

Elected members of the Faculty at Southeastern serve the Christian community as ministers who are personally committed to the lordship of Jesus Christ in every area of life; they seek to obey Christ's command to love God with all their heart, soul, and mind, and their neighbor as themselves; they are able and ready to testify of a personal experience of regenerating grace in their life; they affirm and maintain biblical standards of sexual morality; they defend and honor the biblical reverence for life; and they are dedicated to the task of equipping students for service through local churches, mission work, and other forms of Christian ministry.

Elected members of the Faculty are Baptists in sympathy with the mission of the Southern Baptist Convention; during their time of service at Southeastern they are active members of a cooperating Southern Baptist church; and they are personally committed to intentional evangelism, Christian social concerns, and world missions.

Faculty members teaching at the master's level and above are expected to have a basic theological education and an earned research doctorate (such as the Th.D., Ph.D., or a degree with similar recognition) from an established institution of higher learning. Moreover, all faculty are required to have and maintain an appropriate expertise in their teaching field.

Faculty members are competent teachers committed to the purpose and the mission of the school and to the historic evangelical Christian faith, while employing all useful methods of research and avenues of legitimate theological inquiry in the free pursuit of truth and knowledge.

Faculty members accept, affirm, pledge to teach in accordance with and not contrary to, and subscribe to the "Abstract of Principles" and the Baptist Faith and Message 2000; they affirm and teach the Bible as the inspired, inerrant, and infallible Word of God, a perfect treasure of divine instruction, with God for its author, salvation for its end, and truth without any mixture of error for its matter, the true center of Christian union, and the supreme standard by which all human conduct, creeds, and religious opinions should be tried.

THE ABSTRACT OF PRINCIPLES

This Abstract of Principles was originally prepared for and adopted by the Southern Baptist Theological Seminary, founded in 1859.

I. The Scriptures.

The Scriptures of the Old and New Testaments were given by inspiration of God, and are the only sufficient, certain and authoritative rule of all saving knowledge, faith and obedience.

II. God.

There is but one God, the Maker, Preserver and Ruler of all things, having in and of Himself all perfections, and being infinite in them all; and to Him all creatures owe the highest love, reverence and obedience.

III. The Trinity.

God is revealed to us as Father, Son, and Holy Spirit each with distinct personal attributes, but without division of nature, essence, or being.

IV. Providence.

God from eternity, decrees or permits all things that come to pass, and perpetually upholds, directs and governs all creatures and all events; yet so as not in any wise to be author or approver of sin nor to destroy the free will and responsibility of intelligent creatures.

V. Election.

Election is God's eternal choice of some persons unto everlasting life—not because of foreseen merit in them, but of His mere mercy in Christ—in consequence of which choice they are called, justified, and glorified.

VI. The Fall of Man.

God originally created man in His own image, and free from sin; but through the temptation of Satan, he transgressed the command of God, and fell from his original holiness and righteousness; whereby his posterity inherit a nature corrupt and wholly opposed to God and His law, are under condemnation, and as soon as they are capable of moral action, become actual transgressors.

VII. The Mediator.

Jesus Christ, the only begotten Son of God, is the divinely appointed Mediator between God and man. Having taken upon Himself human nature, yet without sin, He perfectly fulfilled the law, suffered and died upon the cross for the salvation of sinners. He was buried, and rose again the third day, and ascended to His Father, at whose right hand He ever liveth to make intercession for His people. He is the only Mediator, the Prophet, Priest, and King of the Church, and Sovereign of the Universe.

VIII. Regeneration.

Regeneration is a change of heart, wrought by the Holy Spirit, who quickeneth the dead in trespasses and sins, enlightening their minds spiritually and savingly to understand the Word of God, and renewing their whole nature, so that they love and practice holiness. It is a work of God's free and special grace alone.

IX. Repentance.

Repentance is an evangelical grace, wherein a person being, by the Holy Spirit, made sensible of the manifold evil of his sin, humbleth himself for it, with godly sorrow, detestation of it, and self-abhorrence, with a purpose and endeavor to walk before God so as to please Him in all things.

X. Faith.

Saving faith is the belief, on God's authority, of whatsoever is revealed in His Word concerning Christ; accepting and resting upon Him alone for justification and eternal life. It is wrought in the heart by the Holy Spirit, and is accompanied by all other saving graces, and leads to a life of holiness.

XI. Justification.

Justification is God's gracious and full acquittal of sinners, who believe in Christ, from all sin, through the satisfaction that Christ has made; not for anything wrought in them or done by them; but on account of the obedience and satisfaction of Christ, they receiving and resting on Him and His righteousness by faith.

XII. Sanctification.

Those who have been regenerated are also sanctified by God's word and Spirit dwelling in them. This sanctification is progressive through the supply of Divine strength, which all saints seek to obtain, pressing after a heavenly life in cordial obedience to all Christ's commands.

XIII. Perseverance of the Saints.

Those whom God hath accepted in the Beloved, and sanctified by His Spirit, will never totally nor finally fall away from the state of grace, but shall certainly persevere to the end; and though they may fall, through neglect and temptation, into sin, whereby they grieve the Spirit, impair their graces and comforts, bring reproach on the Church, and temporal judgments on themselves, yet they shall be renewed again unto repentance, and be kept by the power of God through faith unto salvation.

XIV. The Church.

The Lord Jesus is the Head of the Church, which is composed of all his true disciples, and in him is invested supremely all power for its government. According to his commandment, Christians are to associate themselves into particular societies or churches; and to each of these churches He hath given needful authority for administering that order, discipline and worship which he hath appointed. The regular officers of a Church are Bishops or Elders, and Deacons.

XV. Baptism.

Baptism is an ordinance of the Lord Jesus, obligatory upon every believer, wherein he is immersed in water in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit, as a sign of his fellowship with the death and resurrection of Christ, of remission of sins, and of his giving himself up to God, to live and walk in newness of life. It is prerequisite to church fellowship, and to participation in the Lord's Supper.

XVI. The Lord's Supper.

The Lord's Supper is an ordinance of Jesus Christ, to be administered with the elements of bread and wine, and to be observed by his churches till the end of the world. It is in no sense a sacrifice, but is designed to commemorate his death, to confirm the faith and other graces of Christians, and to be a bond, pledge and renewal of their communion with him, and of their church fellowship.

XVII. The Lord's Day.

The Lord's day is a Christian institution for regular observance, and should be employed in exercises of worship and spiritual devotion, both public and private, resting from worldly employments and amusements, works of necessity and mercy only excepted.

XVIII. Liberty of Conscience.

God alone is Lord of the conscience; and He hath left it free from the doctrines and commandments of men, which are in anything contrary to His word, or not contained in it. Civil magistrates being ordained of God, subjection to all lawful things commanded by them ought to be yielded by us in the Lord, not only for wrath, but also for conscience sake.

XIX. The Resurrection.

The bodies of men after death return to dust, but their spirits return immediately to God—the righteous to rest with Him; the wicked, to be reserved under darkness to the judgment. At the last day, the bodies of all the dead, both just and unjust, will be raised.

XX. The Judgment.

God hath appointed a day, wherein he will judge the world by Jesus Christ, when everyone shall receive according to his deeds: the wicked shall go into everlasting punishment; the righteous, into everlasting life.

THE BAPTIST FAITH AND MESSAGE 2000

The Baptist Faith and Message was adopted by the Southern Baptist Convention in June 2000. It is a revision of similar confessions adopted in 1925 and 1963.

I. Scripture

The Holy Bible was written by men divinely inspired and is God's revelation of Himself to man. It is a perfect treasure of divine instruction. It has God for its author, salvation for its end, and truth without any mixture of error, for its matter. Therefore, all Scripture is totally true and trustworthy. It reveals the principles by which God judges us, and therefore is, and will remain to the end of the world, the true center of Christian union, and the supreme standard by which all human conduct, creeds, and religious opinions should be tried. All Scripture is a testimony to Christ, who is Himself the focus of divine revelation.

II. God

There is one and only one living and true God. He is an intelligent, spiritual, and personal Being, the Creator, Redeemer, Preserver, and Ruler of the universe. God is infinite in holiness and all other perfections. God is all powerful and all knowing; and His perfect knowledge extends to all things, past, present, and future, including the future decisions of His free creatures. To Him we owe the highest love, reverence, and obedience. The eternal triune God reveals Himself to us as Father, Son, and Holy Spirit, with distinct personal attributes, but without division of nature, essence, or being.

- A. God the Father. God as Father reigns with providential care over His universe, His creatures, and the flow of the stream of human history according to the purposes of His grace. He is all powerful, all knowing, all loving, and all wise. God is Father in truth to those who become children of God through faith in Jesus Christ. He is fatherly in His attitude toward all men.
- B. God the Son. Christ is the eternal Son of God. In His incarnation as Jesus Christ He was conceived of the Holy Spirit and born of the virgin Mary. Jesus perfectly revealed and did the will of God, taking upon Himself human nature with its demands and necessities and identifying Himself completely with mankind yet without sin. He honored the divine law by His personal obedience, and in His substitutionary death on the cross He made provision for the redemption of men from sin. He was raised from the dead with a glorified body and appeared to His disciples as the person who was with them before His crucifixion. He ascended into heaven and is now exalted at the right hand of God where He is the One Mediator, fully God, fully man, in whose Person is effected the reconciliation between God and man. He will return in power and glory to judge the world and to consummate His redemptive mission. He now dwells in all believers as the living and ever present Lord.
- C. God the Holy Spirit. The Holy Spirit is the Spirit of God, fully divine. He inspired holy men of old to write the Scriptures. Through illumination He enables men to understand truth. He exalts Christ. He convicts men of sin, of righteousness, and of judgment. He calls men to the Saviour, and effects regeneration. At the moment of regeneration He baptizes every believer into the Body of Christ. He cultivates Christian character, comforts believers, and bestows the spiritual gifts by which they serve God through His church. He seals the believer unto the day of final redemption. His presence in the Christian is the guarantee that God will bring the believer into the fullness of the stature of Christ. He enlightens and empowers the believer and the church in worship, evangelism, and service.

III. Man

Man is the special creation of God, made in His own image. He created them male and female as the crowning work of His creation. The gift of gender is thus part of the goodness of God's creation. In the beginning man was innocent of sin and was endowed by his Creator with freedom of choice. By his free choice man sinned against God and brought sin into the human race. Through the temptation of Satan man transgressed the command of God, and fell from his original innocence whereby his posterity inherit a nature and an environment inclined toward sin. Therefore, as soon as they are capable of moral action, they become transgressors and are under condemnation. Only the grace of God can bring man into His holy fellowship and enable man to fulfill the creative purpose of God. The sacredness of human personality is evident in that God created man in His own image, and in that Christ died for man; therefore, every person of every race possesses full dignity and is worthy of respect and Christian love.

IV. Salvation

Salvation involves the redemption of the whole man, and is offered freely to all who accept Jesus Christ as Lord and Saviour, who by His own blood obtained eternal redemption for the believer. In its broadest sense salvation includes regeneration, justification, sanctification, and glorification. There is no salvation apart from personal faith in Jesus Christ as Lord.

- A. Regeneration, or the new birth, is a work of God's grace whereby believers become new creatures in Christ Jesus. It is a change of heart wrought by the Holy Spirit through conviction of sin, to which the sinner responds in repentance toward God and faith in the Lord Jesus Christ. Repentance and faith are inseparable experiences of grace.
  Repentance is a genuine turning from sin toward God. Faith is the acceptance of Jesus Christ and commitment of the entire personality to Him as Lord and Saviour
- B. Justification is God's gracious and full acquittal upon principles of His righteousness of all sinners who repent and believe in Christ. Justification brings the believer unto a relationship of peace and favor with God.
- C. Sanctification is the experience, beginning in regeneration, by which the believer is set apart to God's purposes, and is enabled to progress toward moral and spiritual maturity through the presence and power of the Holy Spirit dwelling in him. Growth in grace should continue throughout the regenerate person's life.
- D. Glorification is the culmination of salvation and is the final blessed and abiding state of the redeemed.

V. God's Purpose of Grace

Election is the gracious purpose of God, according to which He regenerates, justifies, sanctifies, and glorifies sinners. It is consistent with the free agency of man, and comprehends all the means in connection with the end. It is the glorious display of God's sovereign goodness, and is infinitely wise, holy, and unchangeable. It excludes boasting and promotes humility.

All true believers endure to the end. Those whom God has accepted in Christ, and sanctified by His Spirit, will never fall away from the state of grace, but shall persevere to the end. Believers may fall into sin through neglect and temptation, whereby they grieve the Spirit, impair their graces and comforts, and bring reproach on the cause of Christ and temporal judgments on themselves; yet they shall be kept by the power of God through faith unto salvation.

VI. The Church

A New Testament church of the Lord Jesus Christ is an autonomous local congregation of baptized believers, associated by covenant in the faith and fellowship of the gospel; observing the two ordinances of Christ, governed by His laws, exercising the gifts, rights, and privileges invested in them by His Word, and seeking to extend the gospel to the ends of the earth. Each congregation operates under the Lordship of Christ through democratic processes. In such a congregation each member is responsible and accountable to Christ as Lord. Its scriptural officers are pastors and deacons. While both men and women are gifted for service in the church, the office of pastor is limited to men as qualified by Scripture.

The New Testament speaks also of the church as the Body of Christ which includes all of the redeemed of all the ages, believers from every tribe, and tongue, and people, and nation.

VII. Baptism and the Lord's Supper

Christian baptism is the immersion of a believer in water in the name of the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit. It is an act of obedience symbolizing the believer's faith in a crucified, buried, and risen Saviour, the believer's death to sin, the burial of the old life, and the resurrection to walk in newness of life in Christ Jesus. It is a testimony to his faith in the final resurrection of the dead. Being a church ordinance, it is prerequisite to the privileges of church membership and to the Lord's Supper.

The Lord's Supper is a symbolic act of obedience whereby members of the church, through partaking of the bread and the fruit of the vine, memorialize the death of the Redeemer and anticipate His second coming.

VIII. The Lord's Day

The first day of the week is the Lord's Day. It is a Christian institution for regular observance. It commemorates the resurrection of Christ from the dead and should include exercises of worship and spiritual devotion, both public and private. Activities on the Lord's Day should be commensurate with the Christian's conscience under the Lordship of Jesus Christ.

IX. The Kingdom

The Kingdom of God includes both His general sovereignty over the universe and His particular kingship over men who willfully acknowledge Him as King. Particularly the Kingdom is the realm of salvation into which men enter by trustful, childlike commitment to Jesus Christ. Christians ought to pray and to labor that the Kingdom may come and God's will be done on earth. The full consummation of the Kingdom awaits the return of Jesus Christ and the end of this age.

X. Last Things

God, in His own time and in His own way, will bring the world to its appropriate end. According to His promise, Jesus Christ will return personally and visibly in glory to the earth; the dead will be raised; and Christ will judge all men in righteousness. The unrighteous will be consigned to Hell, the place of everlasting punishment. The righteous in their resurrected and glorified bodies will receive their reward and will dwell forever in Heaven with the Lord.

XI. Evangelism and Missions

It is the duty and privilege of every follower of Christ and of every church of the Lord Jesus Christ to endeavor to make disciples of all nations. The new birth of man's spirit by God's Holy Spirit means the birth of love for others. Missionary effort on the part of all rests thus upon a spiritual necessity of the regenerate life, and is expressly and repeatedly commanded in the teachings of Christ. The Lord Jesus Christ has commanded the preaching of the gospel to all nations. It is the duty of every child of God to seek constantly to win the lost to Christ by verbal witness undergirded by a Christian lifestyle, and by other methods in harmony with the gospel of Christ.

XII. Education

Christianity is the faith of enlightenment and intelligence. In Jesus Christ abide all the treasures of wisdom and knowledge. All sound learning is, therefore, a part of our Christian heritage. The new birth opens all human faculties and creates a thirst for knowledge. Moreover, the cause of education in the Kingdom of Christ is co-ordinate with the causes of missions and general benevolence, and should receive along with these the liberal support of the churches. An adequate system of Christian education is necessary to a complete spiritual program for Christ's people.

In Christian education there should be a proper balance between academic freedom and academic responsibility. Freedom in any orderly relationship of human life is always limited and never absolute. The freedom of a teacher in a Christian school, college, or seminary is limited by the pre-eminence of Jesus Christ, by the authoritative nature of the Scriptures, and by the distinct purpose for which the school exists.

XIII. Stewardship

God is the source of all blessings, temporal and spiritual; all that we have and are we owe to Him. Christians have a spiritual debtorship to the whole world, a holy trusteeship in the gospel, and a binding stewardship in their possessions. They are therefore under obligation to serve Him with their time, talents, and material possessions; and should recognize all these as entrusted to them to use for the glory of God and for helping others. According to the Scriptures, Christians should contribute of their means cheerfully, regularly, systematically, proportionately, and liberally for the advancement of the Redeemer's cause on earth.

XIV. Cooperation

Christ's people should, as occasion requires, organize such associations and conventions as may best secure cooperation for the great objects of the Kingdom of God. Such organizations have no authority over one another or over the churches. They are voluntary and advisory bodies designed to elicit, combine, and direct the energies of our people in the most effective manner. Members of New Testament churches should cooperate with one another in carrying forward the missionary, educational, and benevolent ministries for the extension of Christ's Kingdom. Christian unity in the New Testament sense is spiritual harmony and voluntary cooperation for common ends by various groups of Christ's people. Cooperation is desirable between the various Christian denominations, when the end to be attained is itself justified, and when such cooperation involves no violation of conscience or compromise of loyalty to Christ and His Word as revealed in the New Testament.

XV. The Christian and the Social Order

All Christians are under obligation to seek to make the will of Christ supreme in our own lives and in human society. Means and methods used for the improvement of society and the establishment of righteousness among men can be truly and permanently helpful only when they are rooted in the regeneration of the individual by the saving grace of God in Jesus Christ. In the spirit of Christ, Christians should oppose racism, every form of greed, selfishness, and vice, and all forms of sexual immorality, including adultery, homosexuality, and pornography. We should work to provide for the orphaned, the needy, the abused, the aged, the helpless, and the sick. We should speak on behalf of the unborn and contend for the sanctity of all human life from conception to natural death. Every Christian should seek to bring industry, government, and society as a whole under the sway of the principles of righteousness, truth, and brotherly love. In order to promote these ends Christians should be ready to work with all men of good will in any good cause, always being careful to act in the spirit of love without compromising their loyalty to Christ and His truth.

XVI. Peace and War

It is the duty of Christians to seek peace with all men on principles of righteousness. In accordance with the spirit and teachings of Christ they should do all in their power to put an end to war.

The true remedy for the war spirit is the gospel of our Lord. The supreme need of the world is the acceptance of His teachings in all the affairs of men and nations, and the practical application of His law of love. Christian people throughout the world should pray for the reign of the Prince of Peace.

XVII. Religious Liberty

God alone is Lord of the conscience, and He has left it free from the doctrines and commandments of men which are contrary to His Word or not contained in it. Church and state should be separate. The state owes to every church protection and full freedom in the pursuit of its spiritual ends. In providing for such freedom no ecclesiastical group or denomination should be favored by the state more than others. Civil government being ordained of God, it is the duty of Christians to render loyal obedience thereto in all things not contrary to the revealed will of God. The church should not resort to the civil power to carry on its work. The gospel of Christ contemplates spiritual means alone for the pursuit of its ends. The state has no right to impose penalties for religious opinions of any kind. The state has no right to impose taxes for the support of any form of religion. A free church in a free state is the Christian ideal, and this implies the right of free and unhindered access to God on the part of all men, and the right to form and propagate opinions in the sphere of religion without interference by the civil power.

XVIII. The Family

God has ordained the family as the foundational institution of human society. It is composed of persons related to one another by marriage, blood, or adoption.

Marriage is the uniting of one man and one woman in covenant commitment for a lifetime. It is God's unique gift to reveal the union between Christ and His church and to provide for the man and the woman in marriage the framework for intimate companionship, the channel of sexual expression according to biblical standards, and the means for procreation of the human race.

The husband and wife are of equal worth before God, since both are created in God's image. The marriage relationship models the way God relates to His people. A husband is to love his wife as Christ loved the church. He has the God-given responsibility to provide for, to protect, and to lead his family. A wife is to submit herself graciously to the servant leadership of her husband even as the church willingly submits to the headship of Christ. She, being in the image of God as is her husband and thus equal to him, has the God-given responsibility to respect her husband and to serve as his helper in managing the household and nurturing the next generation.

Children, from the moment of conception, are a blessing and heritage from the Lord. Parents are to demonstrate to their children God's pattern for marriage. Parents are to teach their children spiritual and moral values and to lead them, through consistent lifestyle example and loving discipline, to make choices based on biblical truth. Children are to honor and obey their parents.

CHICAGO STATEMENT ON BIBLICAL INERRANCY —

Preface

The authority of Scripture is a key issue for the Christian Church in this and every age. Those who profess faith in Jesus Christ as Lord and Savior are called to show the reality of their discipleship by humbly and faithfully obeying God's written Word. To stray from Scripture in faith or conduct is disloyalty to our Master. Recognition of the total truth and trust-worthiness of Holy Scripture is essential to a full grasp and adequate confession of its authority.

The following Statement affirms this inerrancy of Scripture afresh, making clear our understanding of it and warning against its denial. We are persuaded that to deny it is to set aside the witness of Jesus Christ and of the Holy Spirit and to refuse that submission to the claims of God's own Word which marks true Christian faith. We see it as our timely duty to make this affirmation in the face of current lapses from the truth of inerrancy among our fellow Christians and misunderstanding of this doctrine in the world at large.

This Statement consists of three parts: a Summary Statement, articles of Affirmation and Denial, and an accompanying Exposition*. It has been prepared in the course of a three-day consultation in Chicago. Those who have signed the Summary Statement and the Articles wish to affirm their own conviction as to the inerrancy of Scripture and to encourage and challenge one another and all Christians to growing appreciation and understanding of this doctrine. We acknowledge the limitations of a document prepared in a brief, intensive conference and do not propose that this Statement be given creedal weight. Yet we rejoice in the deepening of our own convictions through our discussions together, and we pray that the Statement we have signed may be used to the glory of our God toward a new reformation of the Church in its faith, life, and mission.

We offer this Statement in a spirit, not of contention, but of humility and love, which we purpose by God's grace to maintain in any future dialogue arising out of what we have said. We gladly acknowledge that many who deny the inerrancy of Scripture do not display the consequences of this denial in the rest of their belief and behavior, and we are conscious that we who confess this doctrine often deny it in life by failing to bring our thoughts and deeds, our traditions and habits, into true subjection to the divine Word.

We invite response to this statement from any who see reason to amend its affirmations about Scripture by the light of Scripture itself, under whose infallible authority we stand as we speak. We claim no personal infallibility for the witness we bear, and for any help which enables us to strengthen this testimony to God's word we shall be grateful.

*The Exposition is not printed here.

A Short Statement

- God, who is Himself Truth and speaks truth only, has inspired Holy Scripture in order thereby to reveal Himself to lost mankind through Jesus Christ as Creator and Lord, Redeemer and Judge. Holy Scripture is God's witness to Himself.
- Holy Scripture, being God's own word, written by men prepared and superintended by His Spirit, is of infallible divine authority in all matters upon which it touches: it is to be believed, as God's pledge, in all that it promises.
- 3. The Holy Spirit, Scripture's divine Author, both authenticates it to us by His inward witness and opens our minds to understand its meaning.
- 4. Being wholly and verbally God-given, Scripture is without error or fault in all its teaching, no less in what it states about God's acts in creation, about the events of world history, and about its own literary origins under God, than in its witness to God's saving grace in individual lives.
- 5. The authority of Scripture is inescapably impaired if this total divine inerrancy is in any way limited or disregarded, or made relative to a view of truth contrary to the Bible's own; and such lapses bring serious loss to both the individual and the Church.

Articles of Affirmation and Denial

Article I

We affirm that the Holy Scriptures are to be received as the authoritative Word of God.

We deny that the Scriptures receive their authority from the Church, tradition, or any other human source.

Article II

We affirm that the Scriptures are the supreme written norm by which God binds the conscience, and that the authority of the Church is subordinate to that of Scripture.

We deny that Church creeds, councils, or declarations have authority greater than or equal to the authority of the Bible.

Article III

We affirm that the written Word in its entirety is revelation given by God.

We deny that the Bible is merely a witness to revelation, or only becomes revelation in encounter, or depends on the responses of men for its validity.

Article IV

We affirm that God who made mankind in His image has used language as a means of revelation.

We deny that human language is so limited by our creatureliness that it is rendered inadequate as a vehicle for divine revelation. We further deny that the corruption of human culture and language through sin has thwarted God's work of inspiration.

Article V

We affirm that God's revelation in the Holy Scriptures was progressive.

We deny that later revelation, which may fulfill earlier revelation, ever corrects or contradicts it. We further deny that any normative revelation has been given since the completion of the New Testament writings.

Article VI

We affirm that the whole of Scripture and all its parts, down to the very words of the original, were given by divine inspiration.

We deny that the inspiration of Scripture can rightly be affirmed of the whole without the parts, or of some parts but not the whole.

Article VII

We affirm that inspiration was the work in which God by His Spirit, through human writers, have us His Word. The origin of Scripture is divine. The mode of divine inspiration remains largely a mystery to us.

We deny that inspiration can be reduced to human insight, or to heightened states of consciousness of any kind.

Article VIII

We affirm that God in His Work of inspiration utilized the distinctive personalities and literary styles of the writers whom He had chosen and prepared.

We deny that God, in causing these writers to use the very words that He chose, overrode their personalities.

Article IX

We affirm that inspiration, though not conferring omniscience, guaranteed true and trustworthy utterance on all matters of which the biblical authors were moved to speak and write.

We deny that the finitude or fallenness of these writers, by necessity or otherwise, introduced distortion or falsehood into God's Word.

Article X

We affirm that inspiration, strictly speaking, applies only to the autographic text of Scripture, which in the providence of God can be ascertained from available manuscripts with great accuracy. We further affirm that copies and translations of Scripture are the Word of God to the extent that they faithfully represent the original.

We deny that any essential element of the Christian faith is affected by the absence of the autographs. We further deny that this absence renders the assertion of Biblical inerrancy invalid or irrelevant

Article XI

We affirm that Scripture, having been given by divine inspiration, is infallible, so that, far from misleading us, it is true and reliable in all the matters it addresses.

We deny that it is possible for the Bible to be at the same time infallible and errant in its assertions. Infallibility and inerrancy may be distinguished, but not separated.

Article XII

We affirm that Scripture in its entirety is inerrant, being free from all falsehood, fraud, or deceit.

We deny that Biblical infallibility and inerrancy are limited to spiritual, religious, or redemptive themes, exclusive of assertions in the fields of history and science. We further deny that scientific hypotheses about earth history may properly be used to overturn the teaching of Scripture on creation and the flood.

Article XIII

We affirm the propriety of using inerrancy as a theological term with reference to the complete truthfulness of Scripture.

We deny that it is proper to evaluate Scripture according to standards of truth and error that are alien to its usage or purpose. We further deny that inerrancy is negated by Biblical phenomena such as a lack of modern technical precision, irregularities of grammar or spelling, observational descriptions of nature, the reporting of falsehoods, the use of hyperbole and round numbers, the topical arrangement of material, variant selections of material in parallel accounts, or the use of free citations.

Article XIV

We affirm the unity and internal consistency of Scripture.

We deny that alleged errors and discrepancies that have not yet been resolved vitiate the truth claims of the Bible.

Article XV

We affirm that the doctrine of inerrancy is grounded in the teaching of the Bible about inspiration.

We deny that Jesus' teaching about Scripture may be dismissed by appeals to accommodation or to any natural limitation of His humanity.

Article XVI

We affirm that the doctrine of inerrancy has been integral to the Church's faith throughout its history.

We deny that inerrancy is a doctrine invented by Scholastic Protestantism, or is a reactionary position postulated in response to negative higher criticism.

Article XVII

We affirm that the Holy Spirit bears witness to the Scriptures, assuring believers of the truthfulness of God's written Word.

We deny that this witness of the Holy Spirit operates in isolation from or against Scripture.

Article XVIII

We affirm that the text of Scripture is to be interpreted by grammatico-historical exegesis, taking account of its literary forms and devices, and that Scripture is to interpret Scripture.

We deny the legitimacy of any treatment of the text or quest for sources lying behind it that leads to relativizing, dehistoricizing, or discounting its teaching, or rejecting its claims to authorship.

Article XIX

We affirm that a confession of the full authority, infallibility, and inerrancy of Scripture is vital to a sound understanding of the whole of the Christian faith. We further affirm that such confession should lead to increasing conformity to the image of Christ.

We deny that such confession is necessary for salvation. However, we further deny that inerrancy can be rejected without grave consequences, both to the individual and to the Church.

The Chicago Statement on Biblical Hermeneutics

Summit I of the International Council on Biblical Inerrancy took place in Chicago on October 26-28, 1978 for the purpose of affirming afresh the doctrine of the inerrancy of Scripture, making clear the understanding of it and warning against its denial. In the years that have passed since Summit I, God has blessed that effort in ways surpassing most anticipations. A gratifying flow of helpful literature on the doctrine of inerrancy as well as a growing commitment to its value give cause to pour forth praise to our great God.

The work of Summit I had hardly been completed when it became evident that there was yet another major task to be tackled. While we recognize that belief in the inerrancy of Scripture is basic to maintaining its authority, the values of that commitment are only as real as one's understanding of the meaning of Scripture. Thus, the need for Summit II. For two years plans were laid and papers were written on themes relating to hermeneutical principles and practices. The culmination of this effort has been a meeting in Chicago on November 10-13, 1982 at which we, the undersigned, have participated.

In similar fashion to the Chicago Statement of 1978, we herewith present these affirmations and denials as an expression of the results of our labors to clarify hermeneutical issues and principles. We do not claim completeness or systematic treatment of the entire subject, but these affirmations and denials represent a consensus of the approximately one hundred participants and observers gathered at this conference. It has been a broadening experience to engage in dialogue, and it is our prayer that God will use the product of our diligent efforts to enable us and others to more correctly handle the word of truth (2 Tim. 2:15).

Articles of Affirmation and Denial

Article I

We affirm that the normative authority of Holy Scripture is the authority of God Himself, and is attested by Jesus Christ, the Lord of the Church.

We deny the legitimacy of separating the authority of Christ from the authority of Scripture, or of opposing the one to the other.

Article II

We affirm that as Christ is God and Man in One Person, so Scripture is, indivisibly, God's Word in human language.

We deny that the humble, human form of Scripture entails errancy any more than the humanity of Christ, even in His humiliation, entails sin.

Article III

We affirm that the Person and work of Jesus Christ are the central focus of the entire Bible.

We deny that any method of interpretation which rejects or obscures the Christ-centeredness of Scripture is correct.

Article IV

We affirm that the Holy Spirit who inspired Scripture acts through it today to work faith in its message.

We deny that the Holy Spirit ever teaches to any one anything which is contrary to the teaching of Scripture.

Article V

We affirm that the Holy Spirit enables believers to appropriate and apply Scripture to their lives.

We deny that the natural man is able to discern spiritually the biblical message apart from the Holy Spirit.

Article VI

We affirm that the Bible expresses God's truth in propositional statements, and we declare that biblical truth is both objective and absolute. We further affirm that a statement is true if it represents matters as they actually are, but is an error if it misrepresents the facts.

We deny that, while Scripture is able to make us wise unto salvation, biblical truth should be defined in terms of this function. We further deny that error should be defined as that which willfully deceives.

Article VII

We affirm that the meaning expressed in each biblical text is single, definite and fixed.

We deny that the recognition of this single meaning eliminates the variety of its application.

Article VIII

We affirm that the Bible contains teachings and mandates which apply to all cultural and situational contexts and other mandates which the Bible itself shows apply only to particular situations.

We deny that the distinctions between the universal and particular mandates of Scripture can be determined by cultural and situational factors. We further deny that universal mandates may ever be treated as culturally or situationally relative.

Article IX

We affirm that the term hermeneutics, which historically signified the rules of exegesis, may properly be extended to cover all that is involved in the process of perceiving what the biblical revelation means and how it bears on our lives.

We deny that the message of Scripture derives from, or is dictated by, the interpreter's understanding. Thus we deny that the "horizons" of the biblical writer and the interpreter may rightly "fuse" in such a way that what the text communicates to the interpreter is not ultimately controlled by the expressed meaning of the Scripture.

Article X

We affirm that Scripture communicates God's truth to us verbally through a wide variety of literary forms.

We deny that any of the limits of human language render Scripture inadequate to convey God's message.

Article XI

We affirm that translations of the text of Scripture can communicate knowledge of God across all temporal and cultural boundaries.

We deny that the meaning of biblical texts is so tied to the culture out of which they came that understanding of the same meaning in other cultures is impossible.

Article XII

We affirm that in the task of translating the Bible and teaching it in the context of each culture, only those functional equivalents which are faithful to the content of biblical teaching should be employed.

We deny the legitimacy of methods which either are insensitive to the demands of cross-cultural communication or distort biblical meaning in the process.

Article XIII

We affirm that awareness of the literary categories, formal and stylistic, of the various parts of Scripture is essential for proper exegesis, and hence we value genre criticism as one of the many disciplines of biblical study.

We deny that generic categories which negate historicity may rightly be imposed on biblical narratives which present themselves as factual.

Article XIV

We affirm that the biblical record of events, discourses and sayings, though presented in a variety of appropriate literary forms, corresponds to historical fact.

We deny that any event, discourse or saying reported in Scripture was invented by the biblical writers or by the traditions they incorporated.

Article XV

We affirm the necessity of interpreting the Bible according to its literal, or normal, sense. The literal sense is the grammatical-historical sense, that is, the meaning which the writer expressed. Interpretation according to the literal sense will take account of all figures of speech and literary forms found in the text.

We deny the legitimacy of any approach to Scripture that attributes to it meaning which the literal sense does not support.

Article XVI

We affirm that legitimate critical techniques should be used in determining the canonical text and its meaning.

We deny the legitimacy of allowing any method of biblical criticism to question the truth or integrity of the writer's expressed meaning, or of any other scriptural teaching.

Article XVII

We affirm the unity, harmony and consistency of Scripture and declare that it is its own best interpreter.

We deny that Scripture may be interpreted in such a way as to suggest that one passage corrects or militates against another. We deny that later writers of Scripture misinterpreted earlier passages of Scripture when quoting from or referring to them.

Article XVIII

We affirm that the Bible's own interpretation of itself is always correct, never deviating from, but rather elucidating, the single meaning of the inspired text. The single meaning of a prophet's words includes, but is not restricted to, the understanding of those words by the prophet and necessarily involves the intention of God evidenced in the fulfillment of those words.

We deny that the writers of Scripture always understood the full implications of their own words.

Article XIX

We affirm that any preunderstandings which the interpreter brings to Scripture should be in harmony with scriptural teaching and subject to correction by it.

We deny that Scripture should be required to fit alien preunderstandings, inconsistent with itself, such as naturalism, evolutionism, scientism, secular humanism, and relativism.

Article XX

We affirm that since God is the author of all truth, all truths, biblical and extrabiblical, are consistent and cohere, and that the Bible speaks truth when it touches on matters pertaining to nature, history, or anything else. We further affirm that in some cases extra-biblical data have value for clarifying what Scripture teaches, and for prompting correction of faulty interpretations.

We deny that extrabiblical views ever disprove the teaching of Scripture or hold priority over it.

Article XXI

We affirm the harmony of special with general revelation and therefore of biblical teaching with the facts of nature.

We deny that any genuine scientific facts are inconsistent with the true meaning of any passage of Scripture.

Article XXII

We affirm that Genesis 1-11 is factual, as is the rest of the book. We deny that the teachings of Genesis 1-11 are mythical and that scientific hypotheses about earth history or the origin of humanity may be invoked to overthrow what Scripture teaches about creation.

Article XXIII

We affirm the clarity of Scripture and specifically of its message about salvation from sin.

We deny that all passages of Scripture are equally clear or have equal bearing on the message of redemption.

Article XXIV

We affirm that a person is not dependent for understanding of Scripture on the expertise of biblical scholars.

We deny that a person should ignore the fruits of the technical study of Scripture by biblical scholars.

Article XXV

We affirm that the only type of preaching which sufficiently conveys the divine revelation and its proper application to life is that which faithfully expounds the text of Scripture as the Word of God.

We deny that the preacher has any message from God apart from the text of Scripture.

DANVERS STATEMENT

Council on Biblical Manhood and Womanhood

Affirmations

Based on our understanding of Biblical teachings, we affirm the following:

- Both Adam and Eve were created in God's image, equal before God as persons and distinct in their manhood and womanhood.
- Distinctions in masculine and feminine roles are ordained by God as part of the created order and should find an echo in every human heart.
- Adam's headship in marriage was established by God before the Fall and was not a result of sin.
- 4. The Fall introduced distortions into the relationships between men and women.
  - In the home, the husband's loving, humble headship tends to be replaced by domination or passivity; the wife's intelligent, willing submission tends to be replaced by usurpation or servility.
  - In the church, sin inclines men toward a worldly love of power or an abdication of spiritual responsibility, and inclines women to resist limitations on their roles or to neglect the use of their gifts in appropriate ministries.
- 5. The Old Testament, as well as the New Testament, manifests the equally high value and dignity which God attached to the roles of both men and women. Both Old and New Testaments also affirm the principle of male headship in the family and in the covenant community.
- Redemption in Christ aims at removing the distortions introduced by the curse.
  - In the family, husbands should forsake harsh or selfish leadership and grow in love and care for their wives; wives should forsake resistance to their husbands' leadership.

- In the church, redemption in Christ gives men and women an equal share in the blessings of salvation; nevertheless, some governing and teaching roles within the church are restricted to men.
- In all of life Christ is the supreme authority and guide for men and women, so that no earthly submission—domestic, religious or civil—ever implies a mandate to follow a human authority into sin.
- 8. In both men and women a heartfelt sense of call to ministry should never be used to set aside Biblical criteria for particular ministries. Rather, Biblical teaching should remain the authority for testing our subjective discernment of God's will.
- 9. With half the world's population outside the reach of indigenous evangelism; with countless other lost people in those societies that have heard the gospel; with the stresses and miseries of sickness, malnutrition, homelessness, illiteracy, ignorance, aging, addiction, crime, incarceration, neuroses, and loneliness, no man or woman who feels a passion from God to make His grace known in word and deed need ever live without a fulfilling ministry for the glory of Christ and the good of this fallen world.
- 10. We are convinced that a denial or neglect of these principles will lead to increasingly destructive consequences in our families, our churches and the culture at large.

This statement of affirmations may be reproduced without charge and in its entirety for non commercial purposes without the prior permission of CBMW.

ONE FAITH, ONE TASK, ONE SACRED TRUST —

A Covenant Between Our Seminaries and Our Churches

You therefore, my son, be strong in the grace that is in Christ Jesus. And the things that you have heard from me among many witnesses, commit these to faithful men who will be able to teach others also."

II Timothy 2:1-2

For over 135 years, the churches of the Southern Baptist Convention have looked to their seminaries for the training and education of their ministers. These six schools were established and undergirded by Southern Baptists in order that our churches may be served by a more faithful ministry.

This is a critical moment in the history of the Southern Baptist Convention—and for our seminaries. The six seminaries serving this denomination bear a precious and perishable responsibility on behalf of our churches, for we are entrusted with those who will be their ministers, pastors, preachers, and servants.

Looking to the dawn of the twenty-first century, we hereby restate and reaffirm our commitment to the churches we serve, to the convictions those churches hold and honor, and to charge we have received on their behalf.

One Faith

The church of Jesus Christ is charged to contend for the faith once for all delivered to the saints. Our seminaries, charged with the theological formation of ministers, must take this charge as central and essential to our mission. In an age of rampant theological compromise, our seminaries must send no uncertain sound.

Let the churches of the Southern Baptist Convention know that our seminaries are committed to theological integrity and biblical fidelity. Our pledge is to maintain the confessional character of our seminaries by upholding those doctrines so clearly articulated in our confessions of faith; by teaching the authority, inspiration, inerrancy, and infallibility of the Bible; by maintaining the purity of the Gospel and affirming the identity of Jesus Christ, by whose blood we have been redeemed and in whose name alone salvation is to be found; and by proclaiming with boldness the precious and eternal truths of God's Word.

In this we stand together, and we stand with our churches. We understand that those who teach take on an awesome responsibility, and will receive from our Lord a stricter judgment.<sup>2</sup> We stand before this convention and our churches to declare that we stand together in one faith, serving our Lord Jesus Christ.

One Task

Our mission is to prepare ministers for service. We cannot call ministers, nor appoint them to service. Ministers, called by God and commissioned by our churches come to us in order that they may through our seminaries receive learning, training, and inspiration for service. Preachers, evangelists, missionaries, and those who minister throughout the life of the churches come to our seminaries with the hope that they will leave their programs of study better equipped, armed, and matured for the faithful exercise of their calling.

Our mission is to remain ever true to this task. We declare our unflinching resolve to provide the very finest programs of theological education for ministry. We will match theological fidelity to practical ministry, passion to practice, vision to calling, and honor to service. This is our task.

One Sacred Trust

Our schools are not generic institutions for religious studies. We are the six theological seminaries serving the Southern Baptist Convention. We belong to you--we belong to the churches of this Convention. We are proud to carry your charge, and we declare our fidelity to you as a sacred trust. In this trust we stand before the Southern Baptist Convention, and we stand together.

Through the trustees elected by this Convention, our churches must hold our seminaries accountable to the faith once for all delivered to the saints, to the essential task of training and educating ministers, and to the sacred trust which unites our seminaries and our churches.

As the presidents of your seminaries, we declare our unbending and fervent resolve to uphold all of these commitments. We will lead our institutions so that no harm shall come to your students and ministers; so that they will be rooted and grounded in the truth; so that they will be trained as faithful and effective preachers and teachers; so that they will bring honor to the church and not dishonor; and so that we shall be able to give a good answer and receive a good report when we shall face that stricter judgment which is to come.

This is our pledge, our resolve, our declaration. One Faith, One Task, One Sacred Trust.

Signed in the Presence of the Messengers to the 140th Session of the Southern Baptist Convention, meeting in Dallas, Texas, June 17, 1997.
