Dear Colleague:

This letter constitutes an invitation to you to participate in one of the most significant scholarly projects of the decade. In 1972, the first edition of the INTERNATIONAL SCHOLARS DIRECTORY will be published, providing for the first time a bio-bibliographical listing of noteworthy academicians throughout the world. Although a few national biographical directories of scholars presently exist (e.g., Kürschners Deutscher Gelehrten-Kalender; the Directory of American Scholars), there is no international directory, we now are in process of filling this lacuna.

Because of your actual or potential international reference interest in the academic community, you are invited to complete the enclosed questionnaire and return it by airmail to the above address. The return of the questionnaire will insure your inclusion in the DIRECTORY. If you do not send us the requested information, we cannot provide an entry for you, for (unlike some biographical publications) the INTERNATIONAL SCHOLARS DIRECTORY will not publish data unverified at the primary source level, i.e., by the scholar to whom those data apply. The questionnaire has been made as succinct as possible and should take you only a few minutes to complete; please return it without delay!

The DIRECTORY is being edited in the English language, to insure its use in the widest circles, but the questionnaire is so constituted that linguistic problems are minimized. Please record book and periodical titles in their original language (do not translate into English); but transliterate them into the roman alphabet, using a standard scheme of transliteration, if you work in a non-roman alphabet (cyrillic, etc.).

No obligation is incurred in returning the questionnaire. To the contrary: for your assistance in supplying data on yourself, we are prepared to make the INTERNATIONAL SCHOLARS DIRECTORY available to you at a significant biographee's discount. We strongly recommend that you take advantage of this offer in conjunction with the return of the questionnaire. It is expected that, because of the editorial labor involved in such a project, the second edition of the DIRECTORY will not appear until 1980; thus, the present, first edition will serve as a basic record of your achievements and widespread reference interest for almost a decade. You will find the  $\pm 1700$  page, attractively bound, impeccably edited volume a most valuable source of information on the international scholarly community and a permanent evidence of your own attainments in your chosen field of specialty.

We congratulate you on meriting inclusion in the I.S.D., and look forward to receiving your completed questionnaire.

Yours very truly,

John Warwick Montgomery
Ph.D. (U. Chicago), D. de l'U. (Strasbourg)
General Editor

P.S. If by chance you have already received an invitation to submit biographical data to the INTERNATIONAL SCHOLARS DIRECTORY, please disregard this letter and destroy the enclosed questionnaire (it is strictly personal and should not be passed on to another person). Reception of two invitations, though doubtless a bother, is in fact a compliment: two authoritative sources, entirely independent of each other, recommended your inclusion.

(Numbers correspond to superscripts on the questionnaire)

ADVANCED RESERVATION FOR THE INTERNATIONAL SCHOLARS DIRECTORY

To: I.S.P.
1, rue de Palerme
67 Strasbourg, France

I am returning my completed questionnaire for inclusion in the INTERNATIONAL SCHOLARS DIRECTORY.
Please reserve _____ copy/copies of the I.S.D. for me.

I wish to take advantage of the special biographee's discount price of $25 (U.S.). I am enclosing a check, payable to I.S.P., for this amount in U.S. dollars or the equivalent in other European currencies for each copy ordered, and I understand that you will pay postage and handling. (If more convenient, a check may be sent in any western European currency, payable on a recognized western European bank. $25 = 137.50 FF = 87.50 DM/florins = £10/8/4 at the time of mailing.)

(After publication, biographees who order the I.S.D. will be charged at least $31.50 (U.S.) per copy, plus postage, owing to the additional difficulty of processing each order. The institutional, non-discount price of the I.S.D. will be established at no less than $37.50 (U.S.), plus postage.)

*Please print clearly in duplicate.
These will serve as your mailing labels.*
