SEMINARY LIBRARY

Home Missions Emphasis Week April 18-21

As part of their visit to Southeastern this week, the Home Mission Board hopes to provide students, faculty and others in the seminary community with a deeper awareness of the work and purpose of the HMB. Home missionaries and others with the HMB will be speaking in classes as well as during chapel services. A display area will be set up in the Ledford Center so that students and others in the community will be able to get up close and personal with the people and efforts of the HMB.

Interested in Chaplaincy?

Chaplain Carter Tucker will be on campus April 18 and 19 during Home Missions Week to meet with students interested in various kinds of chaplaincy programs. Make an appointment in FIM.

SEMINARY LIBRARY

THIS IS THE FINAL NEWSLINE OF THE SPRING. THE PUBLICATION WILL RESUME IN THE FALL SEMESTER.

Library Closed May 13 - June 3

Seeks Workers

The library needs energetic, enthusiastic people to work part-time, temporarily, to assist with final preparations for library automation.

The library will be closed to the public from May 13 through June 3 while bar-coding books and making other changes. Students will be paid an hourly wage, and any overdue fines will be waived. (This does not include lost books!) Call ext. 250 for more details.

Help the Homeless

The Raleigh Rescue Mission Awareness Group would like SEBTS students to consider placing donation boxes in their churches or places of business. The boxes would be for the collection of non-perishable goods, white goods, diapers and paper products. All proceeds will go directly to support the Raleigh Rescue Mission and their ministry to the homeless in the Triangle. If you would like further information, please contact Keith Karriker at 556-3101, ext. 215, or Richard Fitzgerald at 828-9014.

Summer Post Office Hours

The student post office in Ledford will be reducing its hours for the summer. New hours are 8:15 am-1:00 pm.

Attention Commuting Students

If you need commuter housing for the summer or next fall, stop by the Student Life Office.

Baptist Book Store News

Jerry Spears, a sales associate for ten years, will be leaving his position later this month. His valuable service will be greatly missed. The book store staff joins with his friends to wish him well in his new work.

Fall 1995 Supervised Ministry

To register for the fall term, go by the FIM office following pre-registration in May and secure the forms to file with them. You should prepare this information immediately after registration and turn it in to FIM. The "field supervisor agreement" form should be turned in by the beginning of the fall semester for approval by the professor. A general information sheet will also be provided. Other info is available in FIM.

SEMINARY LIBRARY

Library Closed May 13 - June 3 Seeks Workers

The Library needs energetic, enthusiastic people to work part-time, temporarily, to assist with final preparations for Library automation. The Library will be closed to the public from May 13 through June 3 while bar-coding books and making other changes. Students will be paid an hourly wage, and any overdue fines will be waived. (This does not include lost books!) Call ext. 250 for more details.

Spring Concert - May 2

The Seven Last Words, by Theodore Dubois, will be presented Tuesday evening, May 2, at 8 pm in Binkley Chapel by the Southeastern Seminary Choir. This moving devotional music presents the scenes based on the seven sentences spoken by Christ on the cross. To complete the drama that began on Good Friday, the choir will sing three selections from Celebrate Life, by Ragan Courtney and Buryl Red. The glorious message that "He is Alive!" brings the Easter message as a stirring finale.
