Dear Brother:

We look forward with joy and anticipation to your coming for our annual fall lectureship, November 3-7, 1980.

The theme which you suggested fits all right (The Relevance of Legal Reasoning, Analytical Philosophy and Other Advanced Intellectual Techniques to the Apologetic Task).

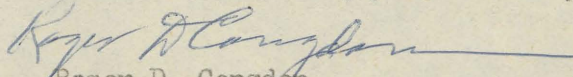

You will probably wish to streamline this theme into a title that would be attractive on a brochure. We will also be happy to have titles for individual messages.

The audience will be, for the most part, students who are not informed in the disciplines you utilize. Consequently, we recommend clarifying explanations, and when possible, the use of audio-visual aids.

These lectures will be advertised as Apologetics for the Christian Faith, or Evidences for the Veracity of the Scriptures, using whatever title you recommend.

You will have five lectures in the main series, with an audience of approximately 1000. Other engagements will be arranged. For example, we always like to have the speaker have at least one question-answer session with students. Other colleges and seminaries in the area also request chapel messages from our speakers.

Yours in Christ's joyful service,

Roger D. Congdon

P.S. We are happy to post your travel brochures.

*"If it's Bible you want,
then you want Multnomah."*
