

Southeastern News

Southeastern Baptist Theological Seminary

Wake Forest, North Carolina 27587

P. O. Box 712

Phone (919) 556-3101

RODNEY V. BYARD

Assistant to the President

Home: 536 N. Wingate St.

556-1485

May 7, 1981

TWELVE SELECTED AS BROWN SCHOLARS

Twelve entering students have been granted Raymond Bryan Brown Memorial Scholar Awards by Southeastern Seminary for the 1981-82 academic year. The recipients are:

Harvey Purdy, Alexandria, Va., a 1981 graduate of Averett College;

Stanley David Hicks, Goldston, N. C., a 1981 graduate of Campbell University;

Amy Watson Hamrick, Ellenboro, N. C., a 1981 graduate of Mars Hill College;

Joy Denise Marion, Rocky Mount, N. C., a 1981 graduate of East Carolina University;

Leila Ann Shepherd, Linwood, N. C., a 1981 graduate of UNC at Greensboro;

Paul Dabney Stennett, El Salvador, 1981 graduate of Campbell University;

James L. Evans, Atmore, Ala., a 1981 graduate of Mobile College;

Edward Clark Kuczynski, Tampa, Fla., a 1981 graduate of Mercer University;

Marc Stephen Mullinax, Raleigh, N. C., graduate of Mars Hill College and the University of Tenn.;

Post

2.

David Lawrence Odom, Raleigh, N. C., a 1981 graduate of Furman University;

Timothy Lee Saunders, Glasgow, Va., a 1981 graduate of Bluefield College, and John Stanley, Braxton, Miss., a graduate of Mississippi College.

Two of the group have served the past two years as journeymen with the Foreign Mission Board. Mullinax served in Korea and Stanley in Kenya.

The prestigious Brown Awards are based on the applicant's commitment to Christian service, evidence of Christian character, promise in the service of Christ, and academic excellence. They are named for the late Raymond Bryan Brown, for Dean and Distinguished Professor of New Testament Interpretation at Southeastern.

