NOTICES:

WELCOME...

...to Dr. John T. Bunn, minister of the First Baptist Church, Sylva, N.C. who is serving as Visiting Professor of Old Testament for the first term of summer school. A native of Mt. Gilead, N.C., Dr. Bunn is a Wake Forest graduate and holds the Ph.D degree from Southern Seminary. Before going to his present position at Sylva, N.C., Dr. Bunn served as chairman of the Department of Religion and Philosophy and Tyner Professor of Religion at Campbell College, Buies Creek, N.C. from 1960-1975.

AN INVITATION:

The Field Education office, located on the first floor of the Appleby Building, is open to assist students in learning about the availability of church-related work in this area. New students, especially, are invited to come by and learn what the Field Education office can and cannot do in helping to relate students to churches. It would be well for students to establish a record with the Field Education office and let us know of your wishes.

I.D. CARDS:

New students who did not have an identification card made during orientation should make an appointment with the secretary in the Student Affairs office, second floor, Mackie Hall to have this done. I.D. cards are required for proper use of the library as well as providing identification on and off campus.

Material for the Campus Bulletin should reach the Student Affairs office by 12:00 noon Thursday. The Bulletin will be published during the summer school term as needed depending upon the amount of material submitted.
