Today's Speaker

The Rev. James V. Hamblen, Director of Missions, Pilot Mountain Baptist Association, Winston-Salem, North Carolina, is our speaker today. We welcome Jim and Beverly Hamblen to Southeastern.

A third generation Baptist minister, Jim Hamblen was born in Ft. Worth, Texas. As a "p.k." he lived in Oklahoma and Texas. The formative years were spent in the southern tip of Texas. Jim met Beverly Blair there. A childhood romance yet flourishes in the adult years. The Hamblens have three grown children.

Mr. Hamblen is a graduate of the University of Texas and Southwestern Baptist Theological Seminary.

Jim Hamblen has served effectively as the founding Pastor of the Columbia Baptist Fellowship in the planned city of Columbia, Maryland. He later became the Director of Missions of the Howard County (Maryland) Baptist Association. The position of National Consultant for Planned Communities with the Home Mission Board of the Southern Baptist Convention was Mr. Hamblen's work for a number of years. As Associate Director of the Department of Metropolitan Missions, and, later, as Associate Director of the Division of Associational Missions of our Home Mission Board, today's speaker worked creatively in the nationwide mission efforts of Southern Baptists. In November of 1983 the Hamblens moved to North Carolina. As Director of Missions in the Pilot Mountain Baptist Association Jim Hamblen is a Christian catalyst, change agent, and servant/leader of persons and churches on mission for Jesus Christ.
