

OCT 5 1983

SOUTHEASTERN

SEMINARY LIBRARY
Office of the President
Southeastern Baptist
Theological Seminary
Wake Forest
North Carolina 27587
(919) 556-3101

UPDATE

October 1983
Number 108

NEW TRUSTEE ORIENTATION

Southeastern's newest trustee, The Reverend Jerry Holcomb, Virginia Beach, Virginia, was on campus September 5-7, for a period of trustee orientation. Chairman Lee Beaver attended the sessions.

* * * * *

BROWN SCHOLARS

Raymond Bryan Brown Scholarships were distributed to 14 students on September 8. These $1000 scholarships went to outstanding students from 11 colleges and universities. They are awarded on the basis of: Commitment to Christian Ministry, Evidence of Christian Character, Promise in the Service of Christ, and Academic Excellence.

* * * * *

PRAISE CELEBRATION

The second annual "PRAISE CELEBRATION" was held on the steps of Binkley Chapel September 8. A variety of student musical and instrumental groups performed. Dr. Delos Miles shared his Christian testimony. President Lolley served as Master of Ceremonies. Mike Gibson, for the second year, was the student organizer of the event.

* * * * *

AUDIT

The Seminary's audit for fiscal 1982-83 (ending July 31, 1983) has been completed. We experienced another strong "in the black" year.

* * * * *

SBC EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE

The SBC Executive Committee met in Nashville September 19-21. Several items referred from the Pittsburgh Convention were discussed. A total SBC Cooperative Program 1984-85 budget of $130,000,000 was projected.

* * * * *

EVANGELISM/CHURCH GROWTH CONFERENCE

An Evangelism/Church Growth Conference was held on campus September 19-23. The Conference was jointly sponsored by the SBC Foreign Mission Board. Several Southeasterners participated in the program. Dr. Alan Neely was coordinator for the event.

* * * * *

RALEIGH SYMPHONY

The Raleigh Symphony launched their Fall program with a concert in Binkley Chapel, September 22. Attendance was excellent.

* * * * *

FACULTY CLUB

The Faculty Club had its first Fall meeting at the President's Home on Tuesday evening, September 27. Professor Alan Neely and Professor Glenn Miller reported on their recently concluded sabbatical leaves.

