

SOUTHEASTERN

UPDATE

Office of the President Southeastern Baptist Theological Seminary
Wake Forest
North Carolina 27587
(919) 556-3101

Graduation exercises were held on campus May 10-11. Dr. Clyde Fant preached the baccalaureate sermon and Dr. William Clemmons delivered the charge to the graduates.
The 188 spring graduates, coupled with 105 others who graduated in December, brings the total Southeastern alumni to 5540.

GRADUATION

Construction continues on schedule for the Ledford Student Center.
The brick work for the new additions is well underway. Demolition has been completed and clean up finished. The soundness of construction in the old gym has been remarkable.

LEDFORD CENTER

Several special courses have been underway since the end of the spring semester. Among these are Practicum in World Missions (Washington DC) led by Dr. George Braswell; Practicum in Urban Evangelism (Charlotte, NC) led by Dr. Delos Miles. Three others are scheduled next month:
Practicum in Home Missions, The Southern Baptist Convention (Dallas, TX), and Field Archaeology (Israel).

PRAXIS

In response to a call to prayer issued by the Southern Baptist state convention presidents, there was a special prayer service held on campus in Appleby Chapel on Sunday, May 19.

SPECIAL PRAYER

Twenty-four new light poles have been installed on the main campus this spring. Twenty-four others are on order.
This new lighting system will greatly enhance both the appearance and the safety within the quadrangle.

CAMPUS LIGHTS

This month marks the conclusion of the first year of the seminary administrative staff delivering hot meals every day to persons in Wake Forest. The program is in conjunction with the Homebound Meals program of Wake County.

HOMEBOUND MEALS

The first session of summer school begins
Tuesday, June 18.

SUMMER SCHOOL

