the Pizza Barn in Wake Forest is sponsoring a special for the seminary family only. Prices are $2.08 for adults and $1.30 for children (tax included). This special entitles you to all of the pizza, spaghetti and salad you can eat plus tea. A Dinner Club booklet, providing discounts on meals, will be available for $9.95 only on Tuesday night for seminarians.
The regular price is $25.95. One free buffet will be given with each book purchased.

METHODIST STUDENTS:

Reverend R.T. Autman, Reverend Commander and other Methodist representatives will be on our campus, Thursday, February 2 from 10:00 a.m. - 3:00 p.m. in the Bethea Room. They will be available to talk with any student interested in the United Methodist ministry.

SUMMER YOUTH MINISTRIES:

Opportunities for summer youth work are now becoming available in areas from Brooklyn, N.Y. to Thomasville, Alabama. If interested, check with the Field Education office for more information.

DRUG ABUSE WORKSHOP: A workshop designed to enable the minister to better understand drug abuse and its treatment and prevention can be scheduled through Drug Action of Wake County. Five 2 hour sessions would be scheduled on late afternoons over a 5 week period. Students interested in participating in such a workshop are asked to meet in Appleby Chapel at 10:30 a.m. on February 2 for a discussion of the nature of the workshop and the scheduling of the sessions.

MAGIC CIRCLE WORKSHOP: Mrs. Edith Grosch, Guidance Counselor at Wake Forest Elementary School, will lead a workshop for students interested in working with small groups of elementary school children. The workshop will be Monday, February 6, 9:00 a.m. - 12:00, Bethea Room, Appleby Building. It is designed to prepare seminary students to serve as leaders of sharing groups as a part of a human development program.

TALENT NEEDED: A talent/variety show is being scheduled as part of the program for the Mission and Ministry Conference on February 17-19. The variety show, to be held on Saturday evening, February 18, will feature a broad range of talents. If you would like to share your talent during this time of fun and entertainment, contact Don Elium at 556-1410.

MAGAZINES NEEDED: The Missions and Ministry conference needs your old magazines to use in its weekend program. Please leave these by the office door of the Student Conference Chairman on the second floor of Mackie Hall.

ART EXHIBIT ON CAMPUS: Through the coordinated efforts of the Student Council Arts Committee and the Student Affairs office, Southeastern Seminary will be displaying one of several art exhibits provided by the N.C. Museum of Art. A part of the Traveling Exhibits Program, the seminary will have on display Durer's Revelation Woodcuts. The 16 woodcuts are from blocks Durer made in the early 16th century to illustrate the Book of Revelation. The exhibit will be in the conference room, second floor, Mackie Hall from February 6 through 22. Viewing times Monday-Friday will be 8:30 to 9:50; after chapel to 12:00 and 1:00 -4:30.

HOUSING FOR CONFERENCE: It is time to start assigning housing for the Mission and Ministry Conference February 17-19, 1978. If you will be able to share your room or house for this weekend please fill out the following form and return it to Ed Sansbury .
