and students to talk with supervisors about a particular training program or to have other general questions answered.

1:00- 2:00 Coffee and cokes with supervisors in the Bethea
Room, continued.

HEALTH CENTER
APPOINTMENTS:

Due to the increased student enrollment, members of the seminary family desiring the services of the Health Center should make an appointment before coming. Dr. Moseley will be at the Center from 8:30 - 10:30 a.m. Monday through Friday and appointments can be made by calling 556-3101, ext. 246.

ATHLETIC PROGRAM
REMINDERS:

- (1) Be sure and sign up for co-ed volleyball
today. It starts Nov. 4.
- (2) We welcome all and any spectators at our
I.M. Flag Football games. Every Tuesday and Thursday marks excitement, so come out and support your gracious gridiron gorillas.
- (3) Special - We now would like to present our newest production.
Presenting the Southeastern Fall Open. It's the golf tournament for all duffers. There will be flight play, so everybody's got a chance.
Sign up now. If you have any questions contact Tom Anderson, tournament director. Dates: Nov. 10 and 14.
- (4) Joggers! Only 4 weeks until the 2 mile run.

All of the above has been brought to you by your friendly neighborhood Jock Association (S.E.J.A.) All sign ups are made on the Intramural Bulletin Board in Appleby.

ATTENTION GRADUATING SENIORS: The Association of Theological Schools is requesting that the seniors of Southeastern Seminary (those graduating in December or May or this school year) help with a special study entitled, "Readiness for Ministry." Our seminary has worked with the ATS, through faculty and students, in some of the earlier phases of this study.
The date is November 7, at 9:00 a.m. and further announcements will be made concerning the need for your involvement. Appropriate arrangements are being made to allow your participation.

All Bulletin material should reach the office of the Director of Student Activities, second floor, Mackie Hall by Thursday noon of the week preceding the event to be noted. Material may also be placed in the Student Activities' box, second floor, administration building. All notices should be signed.
