SEMINARY WIVES IN MINISTRY SEMINAR: On Friday, March 22 (7:00 PM - 9:00 PM) and Saturday, March 23 (10:00 AM - 12:00 noon), Virginia Cannon will be leading 2 seminars on weddings, receptions, funerals - the how-to's of, etc. These seminars will be held in the sanctuary of Wake Forest Baptist Church and child care will be provided at the church also. Call Susie Vogt, 556-3101, ext. 263 for reservations.

SUMMER WORK: Lloyd Jackson will be on campus Friday, March 22 to talk with persons interested in counseling positions this summer at an RA camp in Virginia. Sign up with Phyllis Jackson in FIM.

ANNUAL SPRING CONFERENCE... will be held on our campus March 19-21. A display area will be open in Mackie Commons Room during this time and students are encouraged to participate and meet leaders from the Southern Baptist Sunday School Board. More details on campus.

SEMINARY WIVES IN MINISTRY...

general meeting will be March 18, 7:30 PM in Mackie Conference room, upstairs. Beth and Lee Ray Greene, journeymen to Africa, will speak on the woman's role in Africa. Child care is available at Wake Forest Baptist Church. Call Susie Vogt, 556-3101, ext. 263 for reservations.

MECKLENBURG
ASSOCIATION REP:

Representatives of the Mecklenburg Association (Charlotte area) will be on campus Friday, March 29 to interview persons interested in metropolitan, city, ethnic ministries and especially persons who feel a call toward starting churches. Sign up in FIM.

EASTER HOLIDAYS:

Classes will not be held on April 4 and 5. Administrative offices will be closed April 5 and 8.

DALLAS TRAVELERS:

Everything is in order with our travel agents and individual bills have been prepared and are at the Business Office. Go by and pay your bill as soon as possible and be sure to get a receipt for your files.

CONVOCATION OF THE LAITY...

will be on our campus this Friday, Saturday, and Sunday, March 22-24. This is the second Convocation and over 100 laypersons are expected to attend. The Conference begins at 7:15 PM Friday in the Seminary Cafeteria, continues Saturday at 8:20 AM in Binkley Chapel and concludes Sunday morning at 8:50 AM in Adams Hall auditorium. Dr. Findley Edge, author of the 1986 SBC doctrinal study on the laity, will bring the Bible study at each session. A group of 25 laypersons will be speaking and leading workgroups on "Influencing My World" in such areas as economics, justice, politics, peacemaking, business world and success. There is no charge for the Seminary family. Separate reservations for the Friday banquet can be made with Carolyn Bailey in the Faculty Secretaries' Office in Stealey Hall (cost $6.50).

METHODIST STUDENTS:

Students who are members of churches of the NC Conference of the United Methodist Church are invited to have dinner with Bishop Minnick and his cabinet at 6:00 PM, March 27, in the Seminary Cafeteria. Make reservations in the Registrar's office. Dr. Wallace Kirby and Dr. M. W. Warren, Jr. will be available for conferences with students on that day from 1:00 until 3:00 PM in the second floor Mackie Hall Conference Room.

TESTIMONIALS FROM NICARAGUA:

Three SEBTS students, Tim Hall, Tom McCann and Lonnie Reynolds, who accompanied Dr. Neely to Nicaragua last summer, will share their experiences through slides and testimonials at 10:00 Friday, March 22 in Adams Auditorium. This is the first event of a week long emphasis on Central America sponsored by the Ethics Committee.
