Rev. Kenneth Baker, S.J.
Editor, Homiletic and Pastoral Review
86 Riverside Drive

Dear Father Baker:

Enclosed is a timely article on clergy malpractice that you might be interested in for the Review. The author is eminently qualified: he is an attorney, dean of a law school, director of studies with the International Institute of Human Rights in Strasbourg, France, and an ordained clergyman (Lutheran).

He is especially interested in having the article published in the Homiletic and Pastoral Review, as one more small ecumenical bridge, and has asked me, as a friend, to sound out your sentiment.

Sincerely yours,

Rev. Robert Campbell, O.P.
